ITEM 5.02 DEPARTURE OF DIRECTORS OR CERTAIN OFFICERS; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; APPOINTMENT OF CERTAIN OFFICERS; COMPENSATORY ARRANGEMENTS OF CERTAIN OFFICERS

On August 5, 2015 OceanFirst Financial Corp. (the Company ) and OceanFirst Bank (the Bank ) amended the terms of the employment agreements with Christopher D. Maher, President and Chief Executive Officer, to extend the term of the agreements to July 31, 2018 (from June 30, 2018) and to clarify the circumstances under which Mr. Maher may not compete with the Company and the Bank. A copy of the amendments to Mr. Maher's employment agreements with the Company and the Bank are filed herewith as Exhibit 10.30A and 10.31A, respectively.

In addition, on August 7, 2015 one-year extensions to the terms of the employment agreements between the Company, the Bank and Michael Fitzpatrick, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company and the Bank, respectively, became effective pursuant to the provisions thereof. Accordingly, the term of each such employment agreement will now expire on July 31, 2018.

Other than the extensions of the terms of the above employment agreements and the other amendments to Mr. Maher's employment agreements described above, such employment agreements are unchanged and remain in full force and effect.

In addition, on August 7, 2015 the Company and the Bank entered into an employment agreement with each of Joseph R. Iantosca, the Bank's Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer, and Joseph J. Lebel III, the Bank's Executive Vice President and Chief Lending Officer. The employment agreements are substantially identical and replace former change in control agreements with each of the Company and the Bank. The form of employment agreement is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.35, and the following summary is qualified by reference to such Exhibit.

Each employment agreement has a term ending July 31, 2017 and provides that the agreement shall be automatically extended for an additional year each August 1, unless written notice of non-renewal is given by the Board to the Executive after conducting an annual performance evaluation prior to the automatic extension. The employment agreements provide that if the Executive's employment is terminated during the term by the Bank without Cause (as defined) or the Executive resigns for Good Reason (as defined), the Executive will receive a severance payment equal to the greater of (i) the amount of the remaining payments that the Executive would have earned if he had continued his employment with the Company and the Bank during the remaining term at his Base Salary at the date of termination; or (ii) one year's Base Salary at the date of termination, as well as continued medical, dental and disability coverage for the later of the remaining term or one year.

Under the agreements, if following a change in control (as defined) of the Bank or the Company, the Executive's employment is terminated without Cause or he resigns for Good Reason, he would be entitled to a severance payment equal to the greater of: (i) the payments due for the remaining term of the Agreements; or (ii) two times the average of the five preceding taxable years' compensation (or such lesser number of years in the event that he has been employed by the Bank for less than five years.) Such average compensation includes not only base salary, but also commissions, bonuses, contributions on behalf of the Executive to any pension or profit sharing plan, insurance payments, directors' or committee fees and fringe benefits paid or to be paid to the Executive during the preceding five taxable years. The Bank would also continue the Executive's life, health, and disability coverage for thirty-six months. However, if the amount of such termination benefits are deemed to be parachute payments as defined in Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, such termination benefits will be reduced to an amount $1.00 less than the amount that triggers such excise tax, but only if such reduced amount is greater than the aggregate amount of the termination benefits unreduced less the amount of the excise tax and any applicable state and federal taxes.

Under the employment agreements, the Executive is subject to certain non-competition, and non-solicitation during the term of the Agreement and for one year post termination and is indemnified for certain liabilities arising in the course of his employment.
