Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 4, 2016, Anthem, Inc. (the Company) announced that John Gallina has been named Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, effective June 1, 2016. Mr. Gallina succeeds Wayne S. DeVeydt, who, after more than a decade of service to the Company, has decided to step down from the positions of Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, effective May 31, 2016, due to family commitments and philanthropic work. Mr. DeVeydt's decision to step down is not due to any disagreement or dispute with the Company. Mr. Gallina, 56, has held numerous financial positions with the Company or one of its affiliated companies since 1994. He has most recently served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the Company's Commercial and Specialty Business Division, which positions he has held since 2015. Mr. Gallina has also served in other leadership positions at the Company, including Senior Vice President, Chief Accounting Officer and Chief Risk Officer, Senior Vice President, Internal Audit and Continuous Improvement, and Chief Financial Officer for Comprehensive Health Services. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Gallina spent 12 years with Coopers & Lybrand.

In connection with his promotion, Mr. Gallina has accepted a written offer letter (the Offer Letter) from the Company, which specifies his compensation and benefits. Pursuant to the Offer Letter, Mr. Gallina's new base salary will be $750,000 and he will also be eligible to receive an annual bonus, targeted at 100% of his base salary, pro-rated based on the date of his promotion. Mr. Gallina will continue to participate in the Directed Executive Compensation Plan (the DEC Plan), with his benefits under the DEC Plan increasing to $2,500 per month beginning in June 2016. On June 1, 2016, Mr. Gallina will receive a promotional stock grant with a value of approximately $1,000,000, which grant will be made up of restricted stock units, performance stock units and stock options. Mr. Gallina will also be eligible to be considered for additional stock option/restricted stock grants commensurate with his position. Mr. Gallina will continue to participate in the Company's Executive Agreement Plan at the Executive Vice President level, which provides for severance benefits consisting of two years of salary and target bonus plus outplacement services and continued health and DEC Plan benefits while receiving severance. The severance benefit increases to three years during the Cigna Integration Period (as defined in the Executive Agreement Plan). The Offer Letter provides that Mr. Gallina will be responsible for maintaining beneficial ownership of the Company's stock equal to three times his base pay and he will have two years from the date of his promotion to reach such ownership level. Mr. Gallina will continue to remain eligible for the Company's Total Rewards programs.

The foregoing description of Mr. Gallina's Offer Letter is qualified in its entirety by reference to Mr. Gallina's Offer Letter, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Gallina and any other persons pursuant to which he was selected as Chief Financial Officer. There are no family relationships between Mr. Gallina and any director or executive officer of the Company, and Mr. Gallina has no direct or indirect material interest in any transaction required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

On May 4, 2016, the Company issued a press release announcing that the Company named Mr. Gallina as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer effective June 1, 2016 and that Mr. DeVeydt was stepping down due to family commitments and philanthropic work.
