PRELIMINARY SUBJECT TO COMPLETION DATED November 15, 2017

PROXY STATEMENT OF INTER-MOUNTAIN BANCORP., INC.

MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

PROSPECTUS OF GLACIER BANCORP, INC.

Dear Inter-Mountain Bancorp., Inc. Shareholders:

As you may know, the boards of directors of Inter-Mountain Bancorp., Inc. ( IMB ) and Glacier Bancorp, Inc., Kalispell, Montana ( Glacier ) have each approved a merger of IMB with and into Glacier, subject to approval by IMB shareholders and appropriate bank regulators. Immediately following the merger, IMB's subsidiary First Security Bank ( FSB ) will be merged into Glacier's subsidiary Glacier Bank ( Glacier Bank ) subject to approval of appropriate bank regulators.

Under the terms of the Plan and Agreement of Merger, dated October 26, 2017 (the merger agreement ), each outstanding share of IMB common stock will be exchanged for 22.841 shares of Glacier common stock, subject to certain adjustments.

The amount of Glacier common stock exchanged for each share of IMB common stock is subject to adjustment in the event that the average closing price for Glacier common stock prior to closing, calculated in accordance with the merger agreement, is less than $28.07 or more than $42.11, and IMB or Glacier provides notice to terminate the merger agreement, and Glacier or IMB, as the case may be, elects to adjust the number of shares on a per-share basis to be issued in the merger (or, with respect to Glacier, elects to pay additional cash consideration as described in this proxy statement/prospectus) in order to avoid such termination.

The merger agreement establishes a minimum requirement for IMB's capital ($73,500,000) prior to the closing of the merger. If IMB's closing capital, as adjusted in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, is in excess of the minimum required, IMB may pay a special dividend to its shareholders in the amount of such excess. For purposes of illustration only, as of September 30, 2017, IMB's closing capital would have been approximately $[ ], resulting in a special dividend available to IMB's shareholders in the amount of approximately $[ ] per share.

Assuming for purposes of illustration only that the average closing price for Glacier common stock is $[ ], which was the closing price of Glacier common stock on [ ], 2017 as quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, for each of your shares of IMB common stock, you will receive [ ] Glacier shares with an estimated current value of $[ ]. Trading in IMB common stock occurs very infrequently and is restricted by agreement. During 2017, IMB is aware of two transactions in its common stock, each of which was valued at $480.76 per share.

Assuming the exchange of all outstanding IMB common stock for Glacier common stock in accordance with the merger agreement, IMB shareholders will, in the aggregate, own approximately [ ]% of Glacier's outstanding common stock following the merger.

IMB will hold a special shareholders' meeting to vote on the merger agreement. The special meeting of the shareholders of IMB will be held on [ ], 2018, at [ ] [ ]. m. Mountain Time, at [ ], Bozeman, Montana. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing the enclosed form of proxy.

The board of directors of IMB has unanimously recommended that you vote FOR approval of the merger agreement and the other proposals described in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Robert K. Kamp, Chairman

Neither the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Securities and Exchange Commission, nor any state securities commission has approved the securities to be issued by Glacier or determined if this proxy statement/prospectus is truthful or complete. The shares of Glacier common stock to be issued in the merger are not savings or deposit accounts or other obligations of a bank and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Federal Deposit Insurance Fund or any other governmental agency. Such shares are not guaranteed by Glacier or IMB and are subject to investment risk, including the possible loss of principal.

This proxy statement/prospectus is dated [ ], 2017 and is first being mailed to

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF INTER-MOUNTAIN BANCORP., INC.:

A special meeting of shareholders of Inter-Mountain Bancorp., Inc. ( IMB ) will be held on [        ], 2018, at [        ] [        ].m. Mountain Time, at [        ], Bozeman, Montana. The special meeting is for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote on a proposal to approve the Plan and Agreement of Merger, dated as of October 26, 2017, among Glacier Bancorp, Inc. ( Glacier ), Glacier Bank, IMB and First Security Bank ( FSB ), under the terms of which IMB will merge with and into Glacier and FSB will merge with and into Glacier Bank, as more fully described in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus. The merger agreement is attached as Appendix A to the proxy statement/prospectus.
2. To approve one or more adjournments of the IMB special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to solicit additional proxies in favor of approval of the merger agreement.

Holders of record of IMB common stock at the close of business on [        ], 2017, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of it. The affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds (66 2/3%) of the shares of IMB's outstanding common stock is required for approval of the merger agreement. To that end, IMB's directors and certain IMB shareholders have signed agreements to vote their shares in favor of the merger agreement. Such persons are entitled to vote [        ] shares representing approximately [        ]% of all outstanding shares of IMB common stock. As of [        ], 2017, there were [        ] shares of IMB common stock outstanding.

IMB shareholders have the right to dissent from the merger and obtain payment of the fair value of their shares of IMB common stock under the Montana Code Annotated, Sections 35-1-826 through 35-1-839. A copy of the provisions regarding dissenters' rights is attached as Appendix B to the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus. For details of your dissenters' rights and how to exercise them, please see the discussion under The Merger Dissenters Rights of Appraisal.

Your vote is important. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please complete, sign, date and promptly return the accompanying proxy using the enclosed envelope. If for any reason you should desire to revoke your proxy, you may do so at any time before it is voted at the meeting. If you do not vote your shares, it will have the same effect as voting against the merger.

The board of directors of IMB has determined that the merger agreement is fair to, advisable, and in the best interests of IMB and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR approval of the merger agreement. With regard to its recommendation that shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement, the board of directors of IMB considered a number of factors, including the receipt of a fairness opinion from the investment banking firm of ProBank Austin, as discussed in Background of and Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 19. Such factors also constituted the reasons that the board of directors determined to approve the merger agreement and to recommend that IMB shareholders vote in favor of the merger agreement.

You will receive instructions on how to exchange your shares of IMB common stock for the merger consideration promptly after the closing of the merger.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Valarie Abraham, Secretary

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Why am I receiving these materials?

We are sending you these materials to solicit your proxy to vote in favor of the merger and to help you decide how to vote your shares of Inter-Mountain Bancorp., Inc. ( IMB ) common stock with respect to its proposed merger with Glacier Bancorp, Inc. ( Glacier ). The merger cannot be completed unless IMB receives the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds (66 2/3%) of the outstanding shares of IMB's common stock. IMB is holding a special meeting of shareholders to vote on proposals relating to the merger. Information about the special meeting is contained in this document. See IMB Special Shareholders Meeting.

This document is both a proxy statement of IMB and a prospectus of Glacier. It is a proxy statement because the officers and board of directors of IMB (the IMB Board ) are soliciting proxies from IMB shareholders in connection with voting on the merger. It is a prospectus because Glacier will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for shares of IMB common stock as consideration to be paid in the merger.

What will IMB shareholders receive in the merger?

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each share of IMB common stock will be exchanged for 22.841 shares of Glacier common stock, subject to adjustment as described below. Assuming the exchange of all outstanding IMB common stock for Glacier common stock in accordance with the merger agreement, IMB shareholders will own, in the aggregate, approximately [ ]% of Glacier's outstanding common stock following the merger.

If the IMB Closing Capital (as defined in the merger agreement) exceeds $73,500,000, subject to certain adjustments, IMB may, upon written notice to Glacier and effective immediately prior to the closing of the merger, declare and pay a special dividend to its shareholders in the amount of such excess.

The amount of Glacier common stock exchanged for each share of IMB common stock may be adjusted in certain circumstances based on whether Glacier common stock is trading either higher or lower than prices specified in the merger agreement immediately prior to the closing of the merger, in order to avoid termination of the merger agreement.

On [ ], 2017, the closing price of Glacier's common stock was $[ ] per share. If the average closing price (determined over a 20 trading day period prior to the closing of the merger, calculated 10 days prior to the closing) of Glacier's common stock exceeds $42.11, Glacier may terminate the merger agreement, unless IMB elects to accept a reduction on a per-share basis of the number of shares of Glacier common stock to be issued in the merger.

Conversely, if the average closing price is less than $28.07, IMB may terminate the merger agreement, unless Glacier elects to increase on a per-share basis the number of shares of Glacier common stock to be issued in the merger, or in Glacier's discretion, Glacier pays cash, or a combination of cash and additional Glacier shares, so that the value of the consideration equals an amount specified in the merger agreement. See The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement.

By voting to approve the merger agreement, IMB shareholders will give the IMB Board the authority to elect to cause IMB to accept a reduction on a per-share basis of the number of shares of Glacier common stock to be issued in the merger if the Glacier average closing price exceeds $42.11 as described above. See The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement.

Table of Contents

What will I receive in the merger?

Each outstanding share of IMB common stock you own will be exchanged for 22.841 shares of Glacier common stock, subject to adjustment as described above.

Assuming for purposes of illustration only that the average closing price for Glacier common stock is $[ ] (which was the closing price for Glacier common stock on [ ], 2017), each share of IMB common stock would be exchanged for consideration with a total value equal to $[ ].

How soon after the merger is completed can I expect to receive my merger consideration?

Glacier will work with its exchange agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, to distribute consideration payable in the merger as promptly as practicable following the completion of the merger.

Will the shares of Glacier common stock that I receive in the merger be freely transferable?

Yes. The Glacier common stock issued in the merger will be transferable free of restrictions under federal and state securities laws.

When will the merger occur?

We presently expect to complete the merger during the first quarter of 2018. The actual timing of the transaction is subject to a number of factors, many of which are beyond the control of Glacier and IMB. The merger is also conditioned upon and will occur after the approval of the merger agreement by the affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds (66 2/3%) of the shares of IMB common stock, after the merger has received regulatory approvals, and following the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the merger described in the merger agreement and summarize under "The Merger" below.

If the merger does not occur by July 31, 2018, either Glacier or IMB may unilaterally terminate the merger agreement. However, if as of July 31, 2018, the condition to closing that all required governmental regulatory approvals have been obtained has not been satisfied, then the deadline for closing of the merger will be extended to on or before October 31, 2018, if Glacier notifies IMB in writing on or prior to July 31, 2018 of its election to extend such closing deadline.

When and where will the special meeting take place?

IMB will hold a special meeting of its shareholders on [ ], 2018, at [ ] [ ] .m. Mountain Time, at [ ], Bozeman, Montana.

Who may vote at the special meeting?

The IMB Board has set [ ], 2017 as the record date for the special meeting. If you were the owner of IMB common stock at the close of business on [ ], 2017, you may vote at the special meeting.

What vote is required to approve the merger agreement?

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds (66 2/3%) of the shares of IMB's outstanding common stock. As described in this proxy statement, IMB's directors and certain IMB shareholders have agreed to vote the shares they are entitled to vote in favor of the merger agreement. As of the date hereof, such persons are entitled to vote [ ] shares of IMB common stock, representing approximately [ ]% of all outstanding shares of IMB common stock. See IMB Special Shareholders Meeting and The Merger Voting Agreements.

What vote is required to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate?

If less than a quorum is represented at the special meeting, a majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the special meeting without further notice. The proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to solicit additional proxies, will be approved if the votes cast in favor of the proposal exceed the votes cast against the proposal, assuming a quorum is present.

How do I vote?

If you were a shareholder of record on [ ], 2017, you may vote on the proposals presented at the special meeting in person or by proxy. We urge you to vote promptly by completing the enclosed proxy card. Even if you plan to attend the special meeting, we recommend that you vote your shares in advance as described below so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the special meeting.

You may cast your vote by mail by completing, signing and dating the enclosed proxy card and returning it to us promptly in the enclosed envelope. Returning the proxy card will not affect your right to attend the special meeting and vote.

If you choose to vote your shares in person at the special meeting, please bring the enclosed proxy card and proof of identification.

Can I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. If your shares of IMB common stock are held in your own name, you may change your vote as follows:

By sending a written notice to the Secretary of IMB (at 208 East Main Street, Bozeman, Montana 59715, ATTN: Secretary, Valarie Abraham) stating that you would like to revoke your proxy and provide new instructions on how to vote;

By completing and submitting a later-dated proxy card; or

By attending the meeting and voting in person.

If you choose either the first or second method above, you must submit your notice of revocation or your new proxy card to IMB's Secretary prior to the vote at the special meeting.

What happens if I return my proxy but do not indicate how to vote my shares?

If you sign and return your proxy card but do not provide instructions on how to vote your shares of IMB common stock at the special meeting of shareholders, your shares of IMB common stock will be voted FOR approval of the merger agreement and FOR approval of one or more adjournments of the special meeting.

How does the IMB Board recommend that I vote?

The IMB Board unanimously recommends that IMB shareholders vote FOR the proposals described in this proxy statement/prospectus, including in favor of the merger agreement.

What do I need to do now?

We encourage you to read this proxy statement/prospectus and related information in its entirety. Important information is presented in greater detail elsewhere in this document, and documents governing the merger are attached as appendices to this proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, much of the business and financial information about Glacier that may be important to you is incorporated by reference into this document from documents separately filed by Glacier with the Securities and Exchange Commission ( SEC ). This means that important disclosure obligations to you are satisfied by referring you to one or more documents separately filed with the SEC.

Following review of this proxy statement/prospectus, please complete, sign, and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that your shares of IMB common stock can be voted at IMB's special meeting of shareholders.

Should I send in my common stock certificates now?

No. Please do not send your IMB common stock certificates with your proxy card. You will receive written instructions from Glacier's exchange agent promptly following the closing of the merger on how to exchange your IMB common stock certificates for the merger consideration.

What risks should I consider?

You should review carefully our discussion under Risk Factors. You should also review the factors considered by the IMB Board in approving the merger agreement. See Background of and Reasons for the Merger.

What are the tax consequences of the merger to me?

Glacier and IMB expect to report the merger of IMB with and into Glacier and the merger of FSB with and into Glacier Bank as one or more tax-free reorganizations for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Internal Revenue Code ). In connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this document is a part, Garlington, Lohn & Robinson PLLP, special tax counsel to Glacier, has delivered an opinion to Glacier that the mergers will qualify as one or more reorganizations under Section 368(a).

In a tax-free reorganization, a shareholder who exchanges his, her or its shares of common stock in an acquired company for shares of common stock in an acquiring company must generally recognize gain (but not loss) on the exchange in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of gain realized (i.e., the excess of the sum of the fair market value of the shares of the acquiring company common stock (including any fractional shares) and any cash received pursuant to the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares) over the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in his, her or its shares of acquired company common stock surrendered pursuant to the merger), or (2) the amount of any cash (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares) received pursuant to the merger.

For a detailed discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, see The Merger Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.

We urge you to consult your tax advisor to fully understand the tax consequences to you of the merger. Tax matters are very complicated and in many cases the tax consequences of the merger will depend upon your particular facts and circumstances.

If I do not agree with the merger, do I have appraisal or dissenters' rights?

Yes. If you are an IMB shareholder and you do not agree with the merger, do not vote in favor of the merger agreement, and take certain other actions required by Montana law, you will have dissenters' rights under the Montana Business Corporation Act, Sections 35-1-826 through 35-1-839. Exercise of these rights will result in the purchase of your shares of IMB common stock at fair value, as determined in accordance with Montana law. If you elect to exercise this right, we encourage you to consult with your financial and legal advisors. Please read the section entitled The Merger Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal for additional information.

Recent and Pending Acquisitions

Glacier's strategy is to profitably grow its business through internal growth and selective acquisitions. Glacier continues to look for profitable expansion opportunities, primarily in existing and new markets in the Rocky Mountain states. The table below provides information regarding Glacier's most recent completed and pending acquisitions.

Information with respect to completed acquisitions reflects fair value adjustments following completion of the acquisitions. Information with respect to pending acquisitions is presented as of September 30, 2017.

IMB, headquartered in Bozeman, Montana, is a Montana corporation formed in 1967 for the purpose of acquiring the stock of First Security Bank (FSB) and becoming the holding company for FSB. IMB has no substantial operations separate or apart from FSB. FSB is a Montana state-chartered bank which commenced operations in 1919. FSB's principal office is located in Bozeman, Montana and FSB maintains branch offices in Bozeman, Belgrade, Three Forks, West Yellowstone, Big Sky, Fort Benton, Choteau, Fairfield and Vaughn, all in Montana. Additionally FSB maintains loan production offices in Chester and Havre, Montana.

As of September 30, 2017, IMB had total assets of approximately $1.0 billion, gross loans receivable of approximately $658 million, total deposits of approximately $873 million and approximately $93 million in shareholders' equity.

For additional information, see Information Concerning IMB below.

The Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of IMB with and into Glacier, and immediately thereafter, the merger of FSB with and into Glacier Bank. In the merger, your shares of IMB common stock, if you do not dissent, will be exchanged for the right to receive shares of Glacier common stock. Assuming the exchange of all outstanding IMB common stock for stock in accordance with the merger agreement, IMB shareholders will own approximately [ ]% of Glacier's outstanding common stock following the merger. After the merger, you will no longer own shares of IMB. For additional information, see the discussion under the heading "The Merger" below.

The merger agreement is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read the merger agreement in its entirety.

In the merger, Glacier will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for all shares of IMB common stock outstanding as of the date of the closing of the merger, except properly dissenting shares. Each outstanding share of IMB will be exchanged for 22.841 shares of Glacier common stock, subject to adjustment as described below.

If the average closing price of Glacier stock calculated in accordance with the merger agreement exceeds $42.11, Glacier may elect to terminate the merger agreement unless IMB elects to accept a decrease on a per-share basis in the number of Glacier shares to be issued in order to avoid termination of the merger agreement.

Conversely, if the average closing price is below $28.07, IMB may elect to terminate the merger agreement, unless Glacier elects to increase on a per-share basis the number of Glacier shares to be issued in order to avoid such termination. Alternatively, Glacier may elect to pay cash consideration, or a combination of cash consideration and additional Glacier shares, so that the value of consideration received by IMB shareholders equals an amount specified in the merger agreement.

Glacier will not issue fractional shares and will instead pay cash in lieu of such fractional shares, as described under "The Merger" "Fractional Shares" below.

If the "IMB Closing Capital" (as determined in accordance with the merger agreement) is in excess of $73,500,000, IMB may declare and pay a special dividend in the amount of such excess, subject to certain federal tax considerations. "IMB Closing Capital" is defined in the merger agreement and is equal to an amount, estimated as of the closing date of the merger, equal to IMB's capital stock, surplus and retained earnings, calculated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") on a consolidated basis, net of goodwill and other intangible assets, after giving effect to adjustments, calculated in accordance with GAAP, for accumulated other comprehensive income or loss as reported in IMB's or FSB's balance sheet. IMB's Closing Capital is subject to downward adjustment if transaction related expenses exceed certain thresholds set forth in the merger agreement.

Recommendation of IMB Board

The IMB Board unanimously recommends that holders of IMB common stock vote "FOR" the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

For further discussion of IMB's reasons for the merger and the recommendations of the IMB Board, see "Background of and Reasons for the Merger" "Reasons for the Merger" IMB.

Opinion of IMB's Financial Advisor

In connection with the merger, IMB's financial advisor, ProBank Austin, delivered a written opinion, dated October 26, 2017, to the IMB Board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to the holders of IMB common stock of the merger consideration in the proposed merger. The full text of the opinion, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by ProBank Austin in preparing the opinion, is attached as Appendix C to this document. The opinion was for the information of, and was directed to, the IMB Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the merger. The opinion did not address the underlying business decision of IMB to engage in the merger or enter into the merger agreement or constitute a recommendation to the IMB Board in connection with the merger, and it does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of IMB common stock or any shareholder of any other entity as to how to vote in connection with the merger or any other matter.

For further information, see Background of and Reasons for the Merger Opinion of IMB's Financial Advisor.

Interests of IMB Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

When you consider the unanimous recommendation of the IMB Board that IMB's shareholders approve the merger agreement, you should be aware that certain members of IMB's and/or FSB's management have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as IMB shareholders. These interests arise out of, among other things, voting and non-competition agreements entered into by the directors of IMB, employment and consulting agreements entered into by certain IMB and FSB executive officers, and provisions in the merger agreement relating to indemnification of IMB directors and officers. For a description of the interests of IMB's directors and executive officers in the merger, see The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger.

The IMB Board was aware of these interests and took them into account in its decision to approve the merger agreement.

IMB Shareholders Dissenters' Rights

Under Montana law, IMB shareholders have the right to dissent from the merger and receive cash for the fair value of their shares of IMB common stock. The procedures required under Montana law are described later in this document, and a copy of the relevant statutory provisions is attached as Appendix B. For more information on dissenters' rights, see The Merger Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal.

Regulatory Matters

Each of Glacier and IMB has agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required by the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals include approval or a waiver from the Federal Reserve, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Commissioner of the Montana Division of Banking and Financial Institutions. Applications have been filed with these regulatory bodies seeking such approvals. We expect to obtain all such regulatory approvals, although we cannot be certain if or when we will obtain them. See The Merger Regulatory Requirements.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Currently, Glacier and IMB expect to complete the merger during the first quarter of 2018. As more fully described in this proxy statement and in the merger agreement, the completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. Neither Glacier nor IMB can provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived. See The Merger Conditions to the Merger.

---

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement provides that either Glacier or IMB may terminate the merger agreement either before or after the IMB special meeting, under certain circumstances. See The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement.

Break-Up Fee

The merger agreement provides that IMB must pay Glacier a break-up fee of $6,500,000 if the merger agreement is terminated (i) by Glacier if the IMB Board fails to recommend approval of the merger agreement by IMB's shareholders or modifies, withdraws or adversely changes its recommendation, or (ii) by the IMB Board due to its determination that an acquisition proposal received by IMB constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined in the merger agreement), which is acted upon by IMB, or (iii) by Glacier because an Acquisition Event (as defined in the merger agreement) with respect to IMB has occurred. In addition, a break-up fee of $6,500,000 will be due to Glacier if the merger agreement is terminated (i) by Glacier or IMB due to a failure of IMB's shareholders to approve the merger agreement, (ii) by Glacier for IMB's breach of certain covenants set forth in the merger agreement or (iii) by Glacier because a third party has made a proposal to IMB or its shareholders to engage in, or enter into an agreement with respect to, an Acquisition Event and the merger agreement and the merger are not approved by IMB's shareholders and within 15 months after any such termination described in clauses (i) through (iii) above, IMB or FSB enters into an agreement for, or publicly announces its intention to engage in, an Acquisition Event or within 15 months after any such termination described in clauses (i) through (iii) above, an Acquisition Event will have occurred.

IMB agreed to pay the break-up fee under the circumstances described above in order to induce Glacier to enter into the merger agreement. This arrangement could have the effect of discouraging other companies from trying to acquire IMB. See The Merger Break-up Fee.

IMB Shareholders' Rights After the Merger

The rights of IMB shareholders are governed by Montana law, as well as by IMB's amended and restated articles of incorporation (IMB's articles) and amended and restated bylaws (IMB's bylaws). After completion of the merger, the rights of the former IMB shareholders receiving Glacier common stock in the merger will continue to be governed by Montana law, and will be governed by Glacier's amended and restated articles of incorporation (Glacier's articles) and amended and restated bylaws (Glacier's bylaws). Although Glacier's articles and Glacier's bylaws are similar in many ways to IMB's articles and IMB's bylaws, there are some substantive and procedural differences that will affect the rights of IMB shareholders. See Comparison of Certain Rights of Holders of Glacier and IMB Common Stock.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this document, including the matters addressed under the caption Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, you should consider the matters described below carefully in determining whether or not to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Risks Associated with the Proposed Merger

Because you are receiving a fixed number of shares (subject to adjustment) and the market price of the Glacier common stock may fluctuate, you cannot be sure of the value of the shares of Glacier common stock that you will receive.

At the time of the IMB special shareholder meeting, and prior to the closing of the merger, you will not be able to determine the value of the Glacier common stock that you will receive upon completion of the merger. Any change in the market price of Glacier common stock prior to completion of the merger will affect the value of the consideration that IMB shareholders will receive in the merger. Common stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including but not limited to general market and economic conditions, changes in Glacier's business, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond the control of Glacier or IMB. On [ ], 2017, the closing price of Glacier common stock was $[ ]. You should obtain current market prices for Glacier common stock.

The merger agreement provides that the number of shares of Glacier common stock to be issued for each share of IMB common stock in the merger may be decreased or increased, as the case may be, if the average closing price of Glacier common stock, determined pursuant to the merger agreement, is greater than or less than specified prices. If Glacier's average closing price determined in accordance with the merger agreement is greater than $42.11 and Glacier elects to terminate the merger agreement, the IMB Board would make the decision, without resoliciting the vote of IMB shareholders, whether or not to accept a decrease on a per-share basis in the number of shares of Glacier common stock to be issued in the merger to avoid such termination. See The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement.

The merger agreement limits IMB's ability to pursue other transactions and provides for the payment of a break-up fee if IMB does so.

While the merger agreement is in effect, subject to very narrow exceptions, IMB and its directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives are prohibited from initiating or encouraging inquiries with respect to alternative acquisition proposals. The prohibition limits IMB's ability to seek offers from other potential acquirers that may be superior from a financial point of view to the proposed transaction. If IMB receives an unsolicited proposal from a third party that is superior from a financial point of view to that made by Glacier and the merger agreement is terminated, IMB will be required to pay a $6,500,000 break-up fee. This fee makes it less likely that a third party will make an alternative acquisition proposal. See The Merger Break-Up Fee.

Combining our two companies may be more challenging, costly or time-consuming than we expect.

Glacier and IMB have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. Although Glacier has successfully completed numerous mergers in the recent past, this is the largest merger to date and it is possible that the integration of FSB into Glacier Bank could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of the ongoing business of IMB or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect our ability to maintain relationships with customers and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. As with any merger of banking institutions, there also may be disruptions that cause us to lose customers or cause customers to take their deposits out of FSB.

Unanticipated costs relating to the merger could reduce Glacier's future earnings per share.

Glacier believes that it has reasonably and conservatively estimated the likely costs of integrating the operations of FSB into Glacier Bank, and the incremental costs of operating as a combined financial institution. However, it is possible that unexpected transaction costs or future operating expenses, as well as other types of unanticipated adverse developments, could have a material adverse effect on the results of operations and financial condition of Glacier after the merger. If the merger is completed and unexpected costs are incurred, the merger could have a dilutive effect on Glacier's earnings per share, meaning earnings per share could be less than they would be if the merger had not been completed.

Glacier has provisions in its articles of incorporation that could impede a takeover of Glacier.

Glacier's articles contain provisions providing for, among other things, preferred stock and super majority shareholder approval of certain business combinations. Although these provisions were not adopted for the express purpose of preventing or impeding the takeover of Glacier without the approval of Glacier's board of directors, they may have that effect. Such provisions may prevent you from taking part in a transaction in which you could realize a premium over the current market price of Glacier common stock. See "Comparison of Certain Rights of Holders of Glacier and IMB Common Stock" for a description of Glacier's potential takeover provisions.

After the merger is completed, IMB shareholders will become Glacier shareholders and will have different rights that may be less advantageous than their current rights.

Upon completion of the merger, IMB shareholders will become Glacier shareholders. Differences in IMB's articles and IMB's bylaws and Glacier's articles and Glacier's bylaws will result in changes to the rights of IMB shareholders who become Glacier shareholders. See "Comparison of Certain Rights of Holders of Glacier and IMB Common Stock."

Risks Associated with Glacier's Business

Glacier is, and will continue to be, subject to the risks described in Glacier's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, as updated by a Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2017, and subsequent Current Reports on Form 8-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, all of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See "Documents Incorporated by Reference" and "Where You Can Find More Information About Glacier" included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document, including information included or incorporated by reference in this document may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, (i) statements about the benefits of the merger, including future financial and operating results, cost savings, enhancements to revenue and accretion to reported earnings that may be realized from the merger; (ii) statements about our respective plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as expects, anticipates, intends, plans, believes, seeks, estimates, or words of similar meaning. These forward-looking statements are based on current beliefs and expectations of management and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond Glacier's and IMB's control. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change.

In addition to risk factors described above, the following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements:

the merger may not close when expected or at all because required regulatory, shareholder or other approvals and other conditions to closing are not received or satisfied on a timely basis or at all;

Glacier's stock price could change before closing of the merger due to, among other things, stock market movements and the performance of financial companies and peer group companies, over which Glacier has no control;

benefits from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected, including as a result of changes in general economic and market conditions, interest and exchange rates, monetary policy, laws and regulations and their enforcement, and the degree of competition in the geographic and business areas in which Glacier and IMB operate;

IMB's business may not be integrated into Glacier's successfully, or such integration may take longer to accomplish than expected; the anticipated growth opportunities and cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; and operating costs, customer losses and business disruption following the merger, including adverse developments in relationships with employees, may be greater than expected.

Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements are discussed in Glacier's reports filed with the SEC.

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the proposed transaction or other matters attributable to Glacier or IMB or any person acting on behalf of Glacier or IMB are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. Neither Glacier nor IMB undertakes any obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.

Table of Contents*IMB Common Stock

IMB common stock is not publicly traded and has been traded only very infrequently. The trades that have occurred have been in accordance with the terms of the Amended and Restated Shareholder Agreement (as subsequently amended, the Shareholder Agreement ). IMB shares covered by the Shareholder Agreement are generally subject to a right of first refusal of IMB and IMB shareholders other than the proposed transferee. The Shareholder Agreement also prohibits any transfer of IMB shares that would, or with the passage of time would, cause a termination of IMB's election to be subject to subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Upon consummation of the merger, the Shareholder Agreement will be terminated.

IMB receives an annual independent estimated valuation of its outstanding common stock. The following table states the valuation per share of IMB common stock as of December 31 of the year stated:

2015	$ 406.00
2014	$ 371.00

IMB does not make a market in its common stock and no market exists for its securities. From time to time, IMB becomes aware of transactions in its common stock or redeems shares of its outstanding common stock. BACKGROUND OF AND REASONS FOR THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

From time to time over the past several years, the IMB Board, with the assistance from time to time of ProBank Austin ( ProBank ), discussed and considered strategic alternatives to enhance shareholder value and achieve future shareholder liquidity. During that time, in mid-2016 and again in early 2017, a bank holding company, which we will refer to as Party B, through its independent financial adviser, expressed interest in exploring a potential strategic transaction with or acquisition of IMB. In respect of the interest expressed by Party B, and again with the assistance of ProBank, the IMB Board engaged in formal strategic planning meetings to identify and evaluate the key strategic issues facing the organization. The first such meeting was held October 18, 2016 and a second was held January 17, 2017.

At these meetings specifically, the IMB Board identified several important planning issues, including existing and anticipated liquidity requests from IMB shareholders, the amount of parent holding company debt and debt service obligations, management and board of director succession at both IMB and FSB, regulatory capital requirements and alternatives for capital formation, and FSB strategic plans for expansion and growth. Notably, the October 2016 meeting included discussions of various capital planning strategies, income tax elections and status, costs and benefits of registration under the United States federal securities laws of IMB securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission, strategic merger alternatives, and potential transactions with publicly traded bank holding companies.

In January 2017, the IMB Board held its second strategic planning meeting to continue the review and discussion of the various strategic issues and alternatives discussed at the October 2016 planning meeting, and to consider other options and alternatives to the extent available.

Then, in late January 2017, IMB's executive management and ProBank met with executive management of a different bank holding company, which we will refer to as Party C, to discuss a possible strategic merger or other transaction with IMB. Based on these discussions, the strategic alternatives presented by and contemplated with Party C were determined not practicable and discussions terminated.

Following the termination of the discussions with Party C, the IMB Board developed over the next several weeks a strategic plan based in part on decisions made at the strategic planning meetings and in light of its meeting with Party C. The strategic plan outlined the IMB Board's current decision to maintain IMB's election to be taxed subject to Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code, evaluate changes to the IMB Amended and Restated Shareholder Agreement, continue IMB's dividend policy of distributing income to its shareholders at the highest marginal combined individual personal income tax rates, manage FSB's capital level and pay excess capital to its parent holding company, develop management and board of director succession plans for IMB and FSB, and make a decision by June 30, 2017 about whether to raise capital to fund possible debt reduction and share repurchases and to be used for other general corporate purposes. Finally, the IMB Board noted its desire to remain an independent bank holding company, but that it would in furtherance of the exercise of its fiduciary duties to shareholders remain open to considering all possible strategic alternatives.

In early May 2017, the Chief Executive Officer of Party B again contacted IMB through ProBank to express Party B's continuing interest in effecting a strategic transaction with IMB. At a meeting of IMB's Board on May 16, 2017, at which IMB's outside legal counsel and financial adviser participated, the IMB Board discussed an appropriate response to the Party B expression of interest. Following deliberation, at a meeting held on May 18, 2017, the IMB Board instructed ProBank to request subject to terms of confidentiality a term sheet from Party B that would outline in reasonable detail the salient terms of its proposal for further consideration and deliberation of the IMB Board.

Thereafter, on June 7, 2017, Party B communicated a verbal indication of interest through Party B's independent financial advisor to ProBank. Party B proposed in general terms to acquire IMB for approximately $153 million payable in Party B's publicly traded common stock, subject to confirmatory due diligence, regulatory approvals and other customary conditions. On June 21, 2017, the IMB Board met with ProBank and outside legal counsel to IMB to evaluate and discuss Party B's indication of interest. The IMB Board also discussed other potential merger partners, the advantages and disadvantages of a broad marketing of IMB for sale, and IMB's strategic plan. Glacier was then identified as a result of the discussions as an attractive potential merger partner in view of Glacier's successful track record with other acquisitions, its emphasis on locally managed community banking, its strong historical financial performance and the strong historical performance of Glacier common stock and related dividend payouts. Following discussion and consideration of the alternatives, the IMB Board authorized executive management and ProBank to contact Glacier's executive management to inquire whether Glacier had a potential interest in acquiring IMB.

On June 22, 2017, Bruce Gerlach, IMB's President and Chief Executive Officer, at the direction of the IMB Board, contacted subject to terms of confidentiality representatives at both Glacier and D. A. Davidson & Co., financial advisor to Glacier (Davidson), to see if Glacier would have interest in discussions about a potential combination with IMB. Later that same day, representatives from ProBank sent Davidson information on IMB and a timeline of when they would like to receive a written indication of interest.

On June 29, 2017, Randy Chesler, Glacier's Chief Executive Officer, and other representatives from Glacier and IMB met to discuss each organization's approach to community banking and to discuss a possible transaction.

On July 7, 2017, Davidson, on behalf of Glacier, delivered a nonbinding letter of intent setting forth the proposed terms of the merger, including the principal financial terms.

On July 14, 2017, the IMB Board met, with the assistance of ProBank and outside legal counsel, to evaluate and discuss Glacier's nonbinding proposal as well as the status of the discussions with and nonbinding proposal of Party B. As a result of the discussions, the IMB Board determined to invite the chief executive officers of both Glacier and Party B to meet with the IMB Board.

On July 18, 2017, representatives from Glacier and Davidson were invited to present their proposal to the IMB Board in Bozeman, Montana. Following that meeting, ProBank provided to Glacier supplemental information on and answered questions regarding IMB. Representatives of Party B were also invited on July 18, 2017, to present separately their proposal to the IMB Board in Bozeman, Montana. Following the meetings, the IMB Board instructed ProBank to request final indications of interest from both Glacier and Party B to be delivered.

On July 19, 2017, IMB formally engaged ProBank to provide financial advisory services to IMB in respect of the ongoing process.

On July 24, 2017, representatives from IMB, ProBank, Glacier and Davidson participated in a conference call to discuss IMB's year-to-date financial and operating results, 2017 budget and 2018 and 2019 projections. Between July 7 and July 28, 2017 the parties and their legal counsel and financial advisors negotiated several aspects of the term sheet, both financial and non-financial.

Table of Contents

On July 26, 2017, Party B delivered an updated nonbinding letter of intent setting forth its updated terms of a merger with Party B.

On July 28, 2017, Davidson, on behalf of Glacier, delivered an updated nonbinding letter of intent setting forth the updated terms of the Glacier merger.

On August 2, the IMB Board met with ProBank and legal counsel to discuss the two proposed letters of intent. On the direction of the IMB Board, ProBank presented a counter-proposal to Davidson asking for Glacier to improve its offer in order for IMB to move forward with Glacier on an exclusive basis. After several discussions and review of additional information, Glacier slightly modified and improved its offer and resubmitted its letter of intent on August 2, 2017.

After taking into account both offers, the IMB Board recognized that both were competitive, but determined that Glacier's long-term stock and dividend performance and its community banking model were in the best interests of its shareholders, and would better serve its customers, employees and the communities in which IMB operates. Accordingly, the IMB Board decided to move forward with the offer from Glacier.

On August 3, 2017 IMB delivered a signed letter of intent to Glacier, executed a formal and mutual non-disclosure agreement and Glacier provided its due diligence request list to IMB.

On August 7, 2017, Glacier and its advisors were granted access to a virtual data room that contained non-public financial and operational information.

On August 10, 2017, the IMB Board engaged special transactional legal counsel Holland & Hart LLP to represent IMB in connection with the negotiations of a definitive merger agreement consistent with the terms of the Glacier nonbinding letter of intent.

On September 19, 2017, the IMB Board appointed a negotiation committee with authority to negotiate the terms of a definitive merger agreement with Glacier, subject to the final review and, if appropriate, approval of the full IMB Board. Directors Robert Kamp, Bruce Gerlach and Michael Johnson were appointed to the negotiation committee.

Between August 3 and October 26, 2017, Glacier, IMB and their respective legal counsel and financial advisors conducted appropriate due diligence and drafted and negotiated the merger agreement and related ancillary agreements. Through October 26, 2017, IMB provided Glacier with supplemental information regarding the financial aspects of its business, its markets and its operations. Through October 26, 2017, Glacier provided IMB with information regarding, among other things, its employee benefit policies, its insurance policies and its non-competition arrangements with its directors and executive officers. Glacier's due diligence review included a loan due diligence review conducted by DLS Consulting and supported by Glacier's Chief Credit Officer and a compliance review conducted by Fortner, Bayens, Levkulich & Garrison, P.C. and supported by Glacier's Audit and Compliance Director.

On August 22 and 23, 2017, representatives from Glacier and Davidson were accompanied on a due diligence trip by Bruce Gerlach, Steve Wheeler, FSB's President, and Mike Johnson, FSB's Northern Market Manager, to review the branches of FSB and its markets. Mr. Chesler, along with other Glacier representatives and a representative from Davidson, met with representatives from IMB and FSB to discuss the transaction and conduct due diligence interviews.

Table of Contents

On September 27, 2017, Davidson made a presentation to the Glacier board of directors to discuss the potential transaction, the pro forma financial impact to Glacier, and the markets that IMB operates in.

On October 16, 2017, representatives from IMB, ProBank, Glacier and Davidson participated in a reverse due diligence conference call to provide information to IMB regarding Glacier and answer questions from IMB and ProBank.

On October 24, 2017, the IMB Board, together with ProBank and legal counsel, met to consider the negotiated proposed definitive merger agreement. ProBank reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered to the IMB Board a verbal opinion to the effect that, as of that date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by ProBank, the merger consideration in the proposed merger with Glacier was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of IMB common stock. Legal counsel then reviewed the specific terms of the merger agreement and the substantial process involved in negotiating its terms. Among other matters considered, the IMB Board reviewed the specific terms of the merger agreement, the form and value of the consideration to be received by IMB shareholders, the price and historical performance of Glacier common stock and related dividend payouts, current market conditions including comparable bank merger and acquisition transactions, ancillary agreements for the employment of certain FSB employees following the merger, and the implications of the merger to IMB's employees, customers, and communities. After due consideration of these and other matters, and taking into consideration the financial fairness opinion delivered by ProBank, the IMB Board approved entering into the merger agreement.

On October 25, 2017, the board of directors of Glacier, together with its legal counsel and representatives of Davidson, met to consider approval of the definitive merger agreement. Davidson presented updated pro forma financial analyses and Glacier's legal counsel presented a review of the key terms of the merger agreement and related ancillary agreements. Among other matters discussed, the board of directors and Glacier's advisors discussed the results of due diligence reviews, the terms of the merger agreement and related ancillary agreements, key pricing metrics, the pro forma financial impact of the merger to Glacier's shareholders, risks of the merger, and the timing and process for consummation of the merger, including the results of preliminary discussions with bank regulators. After due consideration of these and other matters, the board of directors of Glacier approved the merger agreement on October 25, 2017.

On October 26, 2017, ProBank delivered to the IMB Board its written opinion to the effect that, as of that date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by ProBank, the merger consideration in the proposed merger with Glacier was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of IMB common stock, and the parties executed the merger agreement and related ancillary agreements. After the close of business on October 26, 2017, the parties issued a joint press release announcing the merger.

Reasons For The Merger – IMB

At a board meeting held on October 24, 2017, the IMB Board determined that the terms of the merger agreement were in the best interests of IMB and its shareholders. In the course of reaching this determination and related decision to approve the merger agreement, the IMB Board evaluated the merger and the merger agreement in consultation with the management of IMB and IMB's financial advisor and legal counsel. In reaching its determination, the IMB Board considered a number of factors. Such factors also constituted the reasons that the IMB Board determined to approve the merger agreement and to recommend that IMB shareholders vote in favor of the merger agreement. Such reasons included the following:

the terms of the merger agreement and the value, form and mix of consideration to be received by IMB shareholders in the merger;

the historical trading ranges for Glacier common stock;

the historic and prospective business of IMB and the strategic plan of IMB;

the likely impact of the merger on the employees and customers of FSB and the strategic plans, methods of operation and organizational structure of Glacier Bank;

the future employment opportunities for the existing employees of FSB;

the illiquidity of IMB stock, IMB and FSB capital planning and capital retention and growth prospects;

the costs and other effects of increased regulatory compliance when FSB exceeds $1 billion in assets and the opportunities for growth through acquisitions of other banks;

the geographic locations of Glacier Bank and FSB;

the election to be subject to Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code and limitations on the number and type of shareholders and the limitations on securities that IMB may issue;

the effects of termination of the IMB election under Subchapter S including the aggregate tax liability of IMB and its shareholders;

the Shareholder Agreement and the restrictions on transfer of IMB common stock;

information concerning Glacier's financial condition and results of operations as well as the likelihood that Glacier would be able to obtain regulatory approval for the merger;

the opinion, dated October 26, 2017, of ProBank Austin to the IMB Board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to the holders of IMB common stock of the merger consideration in the proposed merger, as more fully described below under Opinion of IMB's Financial Advisor ;

the expectation that IMB shareholders would have the opportunity to continue to participate in the growth of the combined company and would also benefit from the significantly greater liquidity of the trading market for Glacier common stock;

that Glacier has historically paid cash dividends on its common stock;

the fact that Glacier's common stock is widely held and has an active trading market, whereas IMB's stock is illiquid;

the provisions in the merger agreement that provide for the ability of the IMB Board to respond to an unsolicited acquisition proposal that the IMB Board determines in good faith is a superior proposal as defined in the merger agreement and to otherwise exercise its fiduciary and legal duties;

Table of Contents

the provisions of the merger agreement that provide for the ability of the IMB Board to terminate the merger agreement, subject to certain conditions, including the payment of a break-up fee, if IMB has entered into a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal ; and the likelihood of the merger being approved by applicable regulatory authorities without undue conditions or delay.

The IMB Board also considered a number of uncertainties and risks in its deliberations concerning the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the following:

that the merger consideration will be paid through the issuance of a fixed number of shares of Glacier common stock, and any decrease in the market price of Glacier common stock after the date of the merger agreement will result in a reduction in the merger consideration to be received by IMB shareholders at the time of completion of the merger, subject to the adjustment procedures described under The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement ;

that IMB shareholders will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the actual value of the merger consideration which they would receive upon completion of the merger;

the possible disruption to IMB s business that may result from the announcement of the merger and the resulting distraction of management s attention from the day-to-day operations of IMB s business; and the restrictions contained in the merger agreement on the operation of IMB s business during the period between signing of the merger agreement and completion of the merger, as well as the other covenants and agreements of IMB contained in the merger agreement.

The foregoing discussion of the reasons that led the IMB Board to approve the merger agreement and recommend that IMB s shareholders vote in favor of the merger agreement is not intended to be exhaustive but is believed to include all of the material reasons for the IMB Board s decision. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the transaction, the IMB Board based its recommendation on the totality of the information presented to it and did not assign any relative or specific weights to the reasons considered in reaching that determination. Individual directors may have given differing weights to different reasons. After deliberating with respect to the merger with Glacier, considering, among other things, the matters discussed above, the IMB Board unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger with Glacier as being in the best interests of IMB and its shareholders.

Opinion of IMB s Financial Advisor

On July 19, 2017, IMB retained ProBank Austin to serve as exclusive financial advisor in connection with evaluating and implementing a potential transaction involving the sale or merger of the company. ProBank Austin is an investment banking and consulting firm specializing in community bank mergers and acquisitions. IMB selected ProBank Austin as its financial advisor on the basis of its experience and expertise in representing community banks in similar transactions and its familiarity with IMB.

Table of Contents

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. It is, therefore, not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In performing its analyses, ProBank Austin made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of IMB and Glacier and may not be realized. Any estimates contained in ProBank Austin's analyses are not necessarily predictive of future results or values, and may be significantly more or less favorable than the estimates. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which the companies or their securities may actually be sold. Unless specifically noted, none of the analyses performed by ProBank Austin was assigned a greater significance by ProBank Austin than any other. The relative importance or weight given to these analyses is not affected by the order of the analyses or the corresponding results. The summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables should be read together with the text of those summaries.

With respect to the projections and estimates for IMB and Glacier, and the expected transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments and cost savings, IMB's and Glacier's management and advisors confirmed to us that they reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of the future financial performance of IMB and Glacier, respectively, and ProBank Austin assumed that such performance would be achieved. ProBank Austin expresses no opinion as to such financial projections and estimates or the assumptions on which they are based. ProBank Austin also assumed that there has been no material change in IMB's or Glacier's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. ProBank Austin assumed in all respects material to our analysis that IMB and Glacier will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to the analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement are true and correct, that each party to the Agreement will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the Agreement, and that the closing conditions in the Agreement are not waived. Finally, ProBank Austin has relied upon the advice IMB has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

ProBank Austin has relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of the information it reviewed for the purpose of rendering its opinion. ProBank Austin did not undertake any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of IMB or Glacier, nor was it furnished with any appraisals. ProBank Austin has not reviewed any individual credit files of IMB or Glacier, and has assumed that IMB's and Glacier's allowances are, in the aggregate, adequate to cover inherent credit losses. ProBank Austin's opinion is based on economic, market and other conditions existing on the date of its opinion. No limitations were imposed by IMB's board or its management on ProBank Austin with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed by ProBank Austin in rendering its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, ProBank Austin made the following assumptions:

all material governmental, regulatory and other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Merger would be obtained without any adverse effect on IMB, Glacier or on the anticipated benefits of the Merger;

IMB and Glacier have provided all of the information that might be material to ProBank Austin in its review; and the financial projections it reviewed were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgment of the management of IMB and Glacier as to the future operating and financial performance of IMB and Glacier, respectively.

In connection with its opinion, ProBank Austin reviewed:

the merger agreement;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of IMB and Glacier that we deemed relevant;

certain non-public internal financial and operating data of IMB and Glacier that were prepared and provided to us by the respective management of IMB and Glacier;

the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on Glacier, based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, acquisition accounting adjustments, and cost savings as discussed with representatives of Glacier;

publicly reported historical stock price and trading activity for Glacier's common stock, including an analysis of certain financial and stock information of certain other publicly traded companies deemed comparable to Glacier;

the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available, deemed comparable to the Merger;

the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and, such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations, financial, economic, and market criteria as we considered relevant.

ProBank Austin also discussed with certain members of senior management of IMB the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of IMB, including certain operating, regulatory and other financial matters. We held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of Glacier regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Glacier.

The following is a summary of the material factors considered and analyses performed by ProBank Austin in connection with its opinion dated October 26, 2017. The summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by ProBank Austin. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Agreement.

Summary of Financial Terms of Agreement. The financial terms of the Agreement provide for Glacier to exchange 4,654,151 shares of its common stock for all of the common stock of IMB. Based on 203,763 shares of IMB common stock outstanding, each share of IMB common stock will be converted into the right to receive 22.841 shares of Glacier common stock, subject to certain adjustments.

In addition, IMB shareholders may be entitled to a special dividend immediately prior to the closing of the Merger in an amount equal to the positive difference, if any, between IMB Closing Capital and the Closing Capital Requirement of $73.5 million. IMB Closing Capital will be based on IMB's shareholders' equity under generally accepted accounting principles, net of goodwill and other intangible assets, as adjusted by certain items. Factors that will impact IMB Closing Capital include operating income from July 1, 2017 to the closing, normal tax distribution dividends in accordance with past practice, changes in accumulated other comprehensive income from July 1, 2017 to the closing, and certain Transaction Related Expenses. The amount of the possible special dividend cannot be calculated with a high degree of certainty at this time, and is based in part on factors outside the control of IMB.

The Agreement provides a termination right to IMB under certain circumstances if the Glacier Average Closing Price is less than $28.07 per share unless Glacier agrees to increase the Merger Consideration to $130,642,019 through the issuance of more common shares or payment of cash consideration. Alternatively, the Agreement provides a termination right to Glacier under certain circumstances if the Glacier Average Closing Price is greater than $42.11 per share unless IMB agrees to accept a reduction in Total Stock Consideration through the issuance of fewer shares such that the value of the Merger Consideration is $195,986,299.

Based on 203,763 shares of IMB outstanding common stock, the implied exchange ratio of 22.841 and Glacier's closing price of $37.26 on October 26, 2017, the implied value of the Merger Consideration was $173.4 million in the aggregate or $851.06 per share. In addition, IMB shareholders may receive a special cash dividend immediately prior to the closing of the Merger. Based solely on the value of the Per Share Stock Consideration, and giving no credit to any possible special cash dividend, the implied transaction value of $173.4 million or $851.06 per share represents:

231 percent of IMB's September 30, 2017 tangible book value per share; and 18.9 times IMB's year-to-date September 30, 2017 annualized tax-adjusted net income.

IMB Peer Analysis. ProBank Austin compared selected results of First Security Bank's operating performance to that of 17 selected commercial banks headquartered in Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, North Dakota and South Dakota with total assets between $700 million and $1.5 billion. In addition, the selected peer banks were not part of a larger multi-bank holding company organization (ProBank Austin excluded any bank from the peer analysis that is a subsidiary of a bank holding company with more than $2.5 billion in consolidated assets). ProBank Austin considered this group of financial institutions comparable to First Security Bank on the basis of asset size and geographic location.

This peer group consisted of the following banks:

Comparable Transaction Analysis. ProBank Austin compared the financial performance of certain selling institutions and the prices paid in selected transactions to IMB's financial performance and the implied transaction multiples being paid by Glacier for IMB. Specifically, ProBank Austin reviewed certain information relating to select bank and thrift transactions in the nation between November 9, 2016 and October 26, 2017 (with seller's assets between $750 million and $3 billion and last twelve-months return on average equity greater than 5.00 percent). Twenty-eight (28) transactions were included in this group based on the selected criterion. The following lists the transactions reviewed by ProBank Austin:

IMB Control-Level Valuation. In May 2017, ProBank Austin developed control-level indications of value for IMB based on year-end 2016 financial information. ProBank Austin developed indications of value using both an income approach and a market approach. ProBank's indication of value under the income approach measured $149.8 million, while multiple indications of value were developed using the market approach, ranging from $149.6 million to $190.1 million. Based on its analysis, ProBank advised the IMB Board that a control-level valuation range of between $150 million and $180 million for IMB would be a reasonable expectation in the event the company solicited proposals for an acquisition of the company from one or more third parties.

Glacier Financial Performance and Market Trading Data versus Peer. ProBank Austin compared selected results of Glacier's operating performance to that of 30 publicly traded banks in the nation with assets between $8.0 billion and $14.0 billion.

This comparison indicated that Glacier was above the 75th percentile of the peer group for PTPP to average assets, core ROAA and core ROAE. Glacier's tangible equity to assets ratio was above the 75th percentile of the peer. Glacier's efficiency ratio was also above the 75th percentile of peer while its NPAs to total assets approximated the 25th percentile of the peer. Pro Forma Merger Analysis. ProBank Austin analyzed the potential pro forma effect of the merger to Glacier's performance metrics. Assumptions were made regarding the fair value accounting adjustments, cost savings and other acquisition adjustments based on discussions with management of IMB and Glacier and their representatives. For Glacier, ProBank Austin relied on consensus earnings estimates provided by S&P Global Market Intelligence. The pro forma merger analysis indicated that the Merger is expected to be immediately accretive to Glacier's tangible book value per share and immediately accretive to Glacier's earnings per share (excluding nonrecurring transaction expenses). The results of ProBank Austin's pro forma merger analysis closely aligned with the pro forma expectations of Glacier as publicly disclosed by Glacier on October 26, 2017.

Pro Forma Dividends Per Share. IMB made an S-Corporation election under the Internal Revenue Code for the tax year beginning January 1, 2003. S-Corporations are pass-through entities. IMB has no federal income tax liability and its earnings pass through to shareholders, subject to taxation at the shareholder level. IMB has historically paid shareholder dividends in an amount sufficient to pay tax on pass-through earnings at the highest combined marginal federal and state tax rate. Based on the implied 22.841 exchange ratio and Glacier's current quarterly dividend rate of $0.21 per share, IMB's equivalent annualized cash dividends would equal $19.19 for each current IMB common share. In addition, Glacier has paid a special cash dividend of $0.30 per share for each of the past three years. If Glacier continues the practice of paying a $0.30 per share special dividend, the IMB equivalent special cash dividend would equal $6.85 for each current IMB common share.

ProBank Austin's Compensation and Other Relationships with IMB and Glacier. IMB has agreed to pay ProBank Austin customary fees for its services as exclusive financial advisor in connection with the Merger. IMB paid ProBank Austin $50,000 upon the issuance of the ProBank Austin Opinion. IMB has also agreed to pay ProBank Austin a transaction fee equal to 1.00 percent of the transaction value, with $50,000 payable upon execution of the definitive agreement and the balance due at closing of the Merger.

IMB agreed to reimburse ProBank Austin for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, and to indemnify ProBank Austin against certain liabilities, including liabilities under securities laws. ProBank Austin has provided various consulting services to IMB in the past, including investment banking services. ProBank Austin does not have any prior, existing or pending engagements with Glacier.

Summary. Based on the preceding summary discussion and analysis, and subject to the qualifications described herein, ProBank Austin determined the Merger Consideration to be fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of IMB common stock.

Table of Contents

The opinion expressed by ProBank Austin was based on market, economic and other relevant considerations as they existed and could be evaluated as of the date of the opinion. Events occurring after the date of issuance of the opinion, including, but not limited to, changes affecting the securities markets, the results of operations or material changes in the financial condition of either Glacier or IMB could materially affect the assumptions used in preparing this opinion.

THE MERGER

The following is a brief description of the material aspects of the merger. There are other aspects of the merger that are not discussed below but that are contained in the merger agreement. You are being asked to approve the merger in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, and you are urged to read the merger agreement carefully. The merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

Basic Terms of the Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of IMB with and into Glacier and, immediately thereafter, the merger of FSB with and into Glacier Bank, Glacier's wholly-owned subsidiary. Following the merger, the former branches of FSB located in the Bozeman area will be combined with Glacier Bank's existing Big Sky Western Bank division, and the operating division will become known as First Security Bank of Bozeman, a division of Glacier Bank. FSB's four northern branches and two loan production offices will be combined with and become a part of Glacier Bank's First Bank of Montana division.

In the merger, IMB shareholders will receive Glacier common stock for their IMB common stock, as described below. See Merger Consideration.

While Glacier and IMB believe that they will receive the necessary regulatory approvals for the merger, there can be no assurance that such approvals will be received or, if received, as to the timing of such approvals or as to the ability to obtain such approvals on satisfactory terms. See Conditions to the Merger and Regulatory Requirements.

Merger Consideration

As of the effective date of the merger, each share of IMB common stock will be converted into the right to receive 22.841 shares of Glacier common stock, subject to adjustment as follows:

If the average closing price of Glacier common stock calculated in accordance with the merger agreement exceeds $42.11, Glacier may elect to terminate the merger agreement, unless IMB elects to accept a decrease on a per-share basis in the number of shares of Glacier common stock to be issued in the merger. In prior merger transactions with similar adjustment rights, Glacier has exercised its right to terminate the merger agreement, and the seller in such prior merger transactions elected to accept a decrease in the per-share number of shares of Glacier common stock issued in the merger.

Conversely, if the average closing price is below $28.07, IMB may elect to terminate the merger agreement unless Glacier elects to increase on a per-share basis the number of shares of Glacier common stock to be issued in order to avoid such termination. Alternatively, Glacier may elect to pay cash consideration, or a combination of cash consideration and additional Glacier shares, so that the value of consideration received by IMB shareholders equals an amount specified in the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Assuming for purposes of illustration only that the average closing price of Glacier common stock is $[ ] (which was the per-share closing price of Glacier common stock on [ ], 2017), IMB shareholders would receive 22.841 shares of Glacier common stock for each share of IMB common stock because the average closing price did not exceed $42.11 or fall below $28.07.

The actual Glacier average closing price will not be determined until 10 days prior to the closing of the merger, and it cannot be predicted whether such average closing price will be above or below the collar range of between $42.11 and $28.07.

Possible Special Dividend

If the IMB Closing Capital exceeds the Closing Capital Requirement, IMB may, upon written notice to Glacier and effective immediately prior to the closing of the merger, declare and pay a special dividend to its shareholders in the amount of such excess.

IMB Closing Capital is defined in the merger agreement and is equal to an amount, estimated as of the closing date of the merger, equal to IMB's capital stock, surplus and retained earnings determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ( GAAP ) on a consolidated basis, net of goodwill and other intangible assets, calculated in the same manner in which IMB's consolidated tangible equity capital at December 31, 2016 and June 30, 2017 was calculated, after giving effect to adjustments, calculated in accordance with GAAP, for accumulated other comprehensive income or loss as reported on IMB's or FSB's balance sheet. The IMB Closing Capital Requirement is $73,500,000.

The IMB Closing Capital may be adjusted based on the estimated final amount of transaction-related expenses to be incurred by IMB, as determined and agreed upon between IMB and Glacier in accordance with the merger agreement (the Final Transaction-Related Expenses ). To the extent the Final Transaction-Related Expenses exceed $5,300,000, the amount of such excess, on an after-tax basis, will be reflected as a pro-forma adjustment to the IMB Closing Capital, reducing the amount of the IMB Closing Capital.

Fractional Shares

No fractional shares of Glacier common stock will be issued to any holder of IMB common stock in the merger. For each fractional share that would otherwise be issued, Glacier will pay cash in an amount equal to the fraction multiplied by the Glacier average closing price calculated as provided in the merger agreement. No interest will be paid or accrued on cash payable in lieu of fractional shares of Glacier common stock.

Effective Date of the Merger

Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of conditions to the obligations of the parties to complete the merger as set forth in the merger agreement, the effective date of the merger will be the date the merger becomes effective under the Montana Business Corporation Act, which is expected to occur on the date of closing. Subject to the foregoing and the possible adjustment of the closing date as discussed under Closing Date below, it is currently anticipated that the merger will be consummated during the first quarter of 2018.

Either Glacier or IMB may terminate the merger agreement if the effective date does not occur on or before July 31, 2018, unless extended under certain circumstances as described under Termination of the Merger Agreement below.

---

Letter of Transmittal

Promptly following the effective date of the merger, Glacier's exchange agent will send a letter of transmittal to each holder of record of IMB common stock. This mailing will contain instructions on how to surrender IMB common stock certificates or other evidence of ownership in exchange for the merger consideration that the holder is entitled to receive under the merger agreement.

With the exception of any proposed dissenting shares, each IMB stock certificate will, from and after the effective date of the merger, be deemed to represent and evidence only the right to receive the merger consideration payable with respect to such certificate. IMB shareholders must provide properly completed and executed letters of transmittal in order to effect the exchange of their shares of IMB common stock for (i) evidence of issuance in book entry form, or upon the request of the holder, stock certificates, representing Glacier common stock, (ii) a check in the event that Glacier elects to pay cash consideration under the circumstances described under Termination of the Merger Agreement below, and/or (iii) a check representing the amount of cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any.

Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates

If a certificate for IMB common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will be authorized to issue or pay the holder's merger consideration, if the holder provides Glacier with (i) satisfactory evidence that the holder owns the IMB common stock and that the certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed, (ii) any affidavit or security Glacier may require (including any bond that may be required by the exchange agent in accordance with its policies), and (iii) any reasonable additional assurances that Glacier or Glacier's exchange agent may require, which may include indemnification of Glacier if the lost, stolen or destroyed certificates are subsequently presented.

Voting Agreements

IMB's directors and certain IMB shareholders have entered into voting agreements, dated as of October 26, 2017. In the voting agreements, each person agrees, among other things, to vote the shares of IMB common stock that he or she is entitled to vote and that he or she owns or controls in favor of the merger agreement. As of the date hereof, the persons who have entered into the voting agreements are entitled to vote a total of [ ] shares of IMB common stock, representing approximately [ ]% of all outstanding shares of IMB common stock.

Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal

Under Montana law, IMB shareholders have the right to dissent from the merger and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of IMB common stock.

IMB shareholders electing to exercise dissenters' rights must comply with the provisions of the Montana appraisal laws in order to perfect their rights. The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the procedures that an IMB shareholder must follow in order to dissent from the merger and perfect dissenters' rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Montana appraisal laws, the full text of which is set forth in Appendix B to this document.

A shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights must:

before IMB shareholders vote on the merger agreement, deliver to IMB written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for the shareholder's shares if the merger is completed, and not vote the shares in favor of the merger.

A shareholder wishing to deliver a notice asserting dissenters' rights should hand-deliver or mail the notice to the following address:

Inter-Mountain Bancorp., Inc.

208 East Main Street

Bozeman, Montana 59715

Attention: Valarie Abraham, Secretary

A shareholder who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights generally must dissent with respect to all of the shares the shareholder owns or over which the shareholder has the power to direct the vote. However, if a record shareholder is a nominee for several beneficial shareholders, some of whom wish to dissent and some of whom do not, then the record holder may dissent with respect to all the shares beneficially owned by any one person by notifying IMB in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the record shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights directly by submitting to IMB the record shareholder's written consent and by dissenting with respect to all the shares of which the shareholder is the beneficial shareholder or over which the shareholder has power to direct the vote.

A shareholder who does not, prior to the IMB shareholder vote on the merger agreement, deliver to IMB a written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for the fair value of the shares will lose the right to exercise dissenters' rights. In addition, any shareholder electing to exercise dissenters' rights must either vote against the merger or abstain from voting.

If the merger is completed, Glacier (as the surviving corporation) will, within 10 days after the effective date of the merger, deliver a written notice to all IMB shareholders who properly gave notice of their intent to exercise dissenters' rights. The notice will, among other things:

supply a form for demanding payment;

set a date by which Glacier must receive the payment demand, which date will be between 30 and 60 days after notice is delivered;

state Glacier's estimate of the fair value for the shares and the date by which any notice to withdraw (discussed below) must be received; and provide a copy of the dissenters' rights provisions of the Montana Code Annotated, Sections 35-1-826 through 35-1-839.

A shareholder wishing to exercise dissenters' rights must at that time file the payment demand and deliver share certificates as required in the notice. Failure to do so will cause that person to lose their dissenters' rights.

Table of Contents

A shareholder who has complied with the requirements summarized in the previous paragraph may nevertheless decline to exercise dissenters' rights and withdraw from the appraisal process by notifying Glacier by the date set forth in the written notice provided by Glacier following consummation of the merger. If the shareholder does not withdraw from the appraisal process by the specified date, he or she may not do so thereafter unless Glacier consents to such withdrawal in writing.

Upon completion of the merger or receipt of the payment demand, whichever is later, Glacier will pay each dissenter with properly perfected dissenters' rights Glacier's estimate of the fair value of the shareholder's shares, plus accrued interest from the effective date of the merger. With respect to a dissenter who did not beneficially own shares of IMB prior to the public announcement of the merger, Glacier is not required to make the payment until the dissenter has agreed to accept the payment in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demands. Fair value means the value of the shares immediately before the effective date of the merger. The fair value may be less than, equal to or greater than the value of the consideration that an IMB shareholder would be entitled to receive under the merger agreement. The rate of interest will be the rate of interest provided under applicable law.

Within 30 days of Glacier's payment (or offer of payment in the case of shares acquired after public announcement of the merger) to a dissenting shareholder, a dissenter dissatisfied with Glacier's estimate of the fair value may notify Glacier of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value and demand payment of that amount. If Glacier does not accept the dissenter's estimate and the parties do not otherwise settle on a fair value, then Glacier must, within 60 days of receiving the estimate and demand, petition a court to determine the fair value.

In view of the complexity of the Montana statutes governing dissenters' rights of appraisal, IMB shareholders who wish to dissent from the merger and pursue appraisal rights should consult their legal advisors.

The failure of an IMB shareholder to comply strictly with the Montana statutory requirements will result in a loss of dissenters' rights. A copy of the relevant statutory provisions is attached as Appendix B. You should refer to Appendix B for a complete statement concerning dissenters' rights and the foregoing summary of such rights is qualified in its entirety by reference to Appendix B.

Conditions to the Merger

Consummation of the merger is subject to various conditions. No assurance can be provided as to whether these conditions will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the merger will be completed.

Certain conditions must be satisfied or events must occur before the parties will be obligated to complete the merger. Each party's obligations under the merger agreement are conditioned on satisfaction by the other party of conditions applicable to them. Some of these conditions, applicable to the respective obligations of both Glacier and IMB, are as follows:

the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties in the merger agreement and any certificate or other instrument delivered in connection with the merger agreement;

material compliance by the other party of all terms, covenants, and conditions of the merger agreement;

that there shall have been no material damage, destruction, or loss, or other event, individually or in the aggregate, constituting a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the merger agreement) with respect to the other party or the commencement of any proceeding against the other party that, individually or in the aggregate, is reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect with respect to such party; that no action or proceeding has been commenced or threatened by any governmental agency to restrain or prohibit or invalidate the merger;

the parties shall have agreed on the amount of the IMB Closing Capital and Final Transaction Related Expenses, each as defined in the merger agreement; and the registration statement filed with the SEC, required to register the Glacier common stock to be issued to shareholders of IMB, has become effective, and no stop-order suspending such effectiveness has been issued or remains in effect and no proceedings for that purpose have been initiated or threatened by the SEC.

In addition to the above, the obligations of Glacier under the merger agreement are subject to conditions that:

in the opinion of the executive officers of IMB and FSB, FSB's allowance for possible loan and lease losses is adequate to absorb its anticipated loan losses;

Glacier shall have obtained from legal counsel, and delivered to IMB, an opinion addressed to IMB and Glacier (subject to reasonable limitations, conditions and assumptions) to the effect that each of the merger of IMB with and into Glacier and the merger of FSB with and into Glacier Bank will be a reorganization within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code Section 368(a); and IMB shall have provided to Glacier, upon reasonable request, certain reports relating to FSB's loans, other extensions of credit, and other assets that are adversely classified, and neither these reports nor any examination by Glacier will have revealed a material adverse change in adversely classified assets or other information relating to FSB's loans revealed during Glacier's previous examinations of FSB's loans.

Additionally, either Glacier or IMB may terminate the merger if certain conditions applicable to the other party are not satisfied or waived. Those conditions are discussed below under Termination of the Merger Agreement.

Either Glacier or IMB may waive any conditions applicable to its obligations, except those that are required by law (such as receipt of regulatory approvals and IMB shareholder approval). Either Glacier or IMB may also grant extended time to the other party to complete an obligation or condition.

Amendment of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be amended upon authorization of the boards of directors of the parties, whether before or after the special meeting of the shareholders of IMB. To the extent permitted under applicable law, the parties may make any amendment or supplement without further approval of IMB shareholders. However, after IMB shareholder approval, any amendment that would change the form or reduce the amount of consideration that IMB shareholders will receive in the merger would require further approval from IMB shareholders.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement contains several provisions entitling either Glacier or IMB to terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances. The following briefly describes these provisions:

Lapse of Time. If the merger has not been consummated on or before July 31, 2018, then at any time after that date, either Glacier or IMB may terminate the merger agreement and the merger if (i) the terminating party's board of directors decides to terminate by a majority vote of all of its members, and (ii) the terminating party delivers to the other party written notice that its board of directors has voted in favor of termination. However, if as of July 31, 2018, all required regulatory approvals have not been obtained, then the deadline for consummation of the merger will be extended to on or before October 31, 2018, if Glacier notifies IMB in writing on or prior to July 31, 2018 of its election to extend such date.

Mutual Consent. The parties may terminate the merger agreement at any time before closing, whether before or after approval by IMB shareholders, by mutual consent if the board of directors of each party agrees to terminate by a majority vote of all of its members.

Glacier Average Closing Price Greater than $42.11. By specific action of its board of directors, Glacier may terminate the merger agreement if the Glacier average closing price (as defined in the merger agreement) is greater than $42.11.

If Glacier provides written notice of its intent to terminate the merger agreement because the Glacier average closing price is greater than $42.11, IMB may elect, within three business days of its receipt of such notice, to accept an adjustment to the total stock consideration through the issuance of fewer Glacier shares; in such event, the total stock consideration will be the number of Glacier shares equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (a) $195,986,299 by (b) the Glacier average closing price rounded up to the nearest whole share.

If IMB makes the election to accept such decrease in the number of Glacier shares to be issued, no termination of the merger agreement will occur, and the merger agreement will remain in effect in accordance with its terms, except as the total stock consideration has been adjusted. In prior merger transactions with similar adjustment rights, Glacier has exercised its right to terminate the merger agreement, and the seller in such prior merger transactions elected to accept a decrease in the number of Glacier shares issued in the merger.

Glacier Average Closing Price Less than $28.07. By specific action of its board of directors, IMB may terminate the merger agreement if the Glacier average closing price is less than $28.07.

If IMB provides written notice of its intent to terminate the merger agreement because the Glacier average closing price is less than $28.07, Glacier may elect, within three business days of its receipt of such notice, to adjust the total stock consideration (through the issuance of additional Glacier shares), or in Glacier's sole discretion, pay cash consideration, or a combination of additional Glacier shares and cash, such that the total value of the Glacier shares to be issued (based on the Glacier average closing price rounded up to the nearest whole share) plus any cash consideration is equal to $130,642,019.

If Glacier elects to increase the total stock consideration or pay cash consideration (or a combination of additional shares and cash, as described above), no termination of the merger agreement will occur, and the merger agreement will remain in effect in accordance with its terms, except as the consideration has been adjusted.

No Regulatory Approvals. Either party may terminate the merger agreement if the regulatory approvals required to be obtained are denied, or if any such approval is conditioned on a substantial deviation from the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, subject to certain rights granted in the merger agreement to appeal the denial of such regulatory approval.

Table of Contents

Breach of Representation or Covenant. Either party may terminate the merger agreement (so long as the terminating party is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement) if there has been a material breach of any of the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in the merger agreement by the other party, which is not cured within 30 days following written notice to the party committing such breach, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the closing of the merger.

Failure to Recommend or Obtain Shareholder Approval. Glacier may terminate the merger agreement if the IMB Board (i) fails to recommend to its shareholders approval of the merger, or (ii) modifies, withdraws or changes in a manner adverse to Glacier its recommendation to shareholders to approve the merger. Additionally, regardless of whether or not the IMB Board recommends approval of the merger to its shareholders, Glacier or IMB may terminate the merger agreement if IMB shareholders elect not to approve the merger.

Impracticability. Either party may terminate the merger agreement upon written notice to the other party if the board of directors of the party seeking termination has determined in its sole judgment, made in good faith and after due consideration and consultation with counsel, that the merger has become inadvisable or impracticable by reason of actions taken by the federal government or the government of the State of Montana to restrain or invalidate the merger or the merger agreement.

Dissenting Shares. Glacier may terminate the merger agreement if holders of 10% or more of the outstanding IMB shares have properly given notice of their intent to assert dissenters' rights under Montana law.

Superior Proposal Termination by IMB. IMB may terminate the merger agreement if its board of directors determines in good faith that IMB has received a Superior Proposal (as defined in the merger agreement). This right is subject to the requirement that IMB may terminate the merger agreement only if IMB (i) has not breached its covenants regarding the initiation or solicitation of acquisition proposals from third parties and submission of the merger agreement to IMB shareholders; (ii) immediately subsequent to delivering the notice of termination to Glacier, IMB enters into a definitive acquisition agreement relating to such Superior Proposal, (iii) IMB has provided Glacier with at least five days' prior written notice that the IMB Board is prepared to accept a Superior Proposal and has given Glacier, if it so elects, an opportunity to amend the terms of the merger agreement (and negotiated with Glacier in good faith with respect to such terms) in such a manner as would enable the IMB Board to proceed with the merger and (iv) simultaneously upon entering into such definitive acquisition agreement relating to the Superior Proposal, it delivers to Glacier the break-up fee described below.

Superior Proposal Termination by Glacier. Glacier may terminate the merger agreement if (i) an Acquisition Event (as defined in the merger agreement) has occurred or (ii) a third party has made a proposal to IMB or its shareholders to engage in, or enter into an agreement with respect to, an Acquisition Event, and the merger agreement and the merger are not approved by the IMB shareholders.

Break-Up Fee

If the merger agreement is terminated because (i) the IMB Board fails to recommend shareholder approval of the merger agreement or modifies, or withdraws or changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to Glacier; or (ii) IMB terminates the merger agreement after receiving a Superior Proposal and Glacier declines the opportunity to amend the terms of the merger agreement to enable the IMB Board to proceed with the merger; or (iii) Glacier terminates the merger agreement if an Acquisition Event has occurred, then IMB will immediately pay Glacier a break-up fee of $6,500,000. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated (i) by Glacier for IMB's breach of certain covenants set forth in the merger agreement or (ii) by either Glacier or IMB due to the merger agreement not being approved by the IMB shareholders or due to a third party's proposal to engage in, or enter into an agreement with respect to, an Acquisition Event and the merger agreement and merger not being approved by the IMB shareholders, and within 15 months after any such termination described in clauses (i) and (ii) hereof, IMB or FSB enters into an agreement for, or publicly announces its intention to engage in, an Acquisition Event, or an Acquisition Event occurs, then IMB will promptly following such entry, announcement, or occurrence pay Glacier the break-up fee of $6,500,000.

Allocation of Costs Upon Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated (except under circumstances that would require the payment of a break-up fee) Glacier and IMB will each pay their own out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the transaction.

Conduct Pending the Merger

The merger agreement provides that, until the merger is effective, IMB will conduct its business only in the ordinary and usual course. The merger agreement also provides that, unless Glacier otherwise consents in writing, and except as required by applicable regulatory authorities, IMB and FSB will refrain from engaging in the following activities:

issuing, selling or otherwise permitting to become outstanding, or disposing of, encumbering or pledging, or authorizing or proposing the creation of, any additional shares of IMB stock, or authorizing or causing any additional shares of IMB stock to become subject to new options, warrants, convertible securities of any kind, or other rights of any nature to acquire or receive IMB stock;

with specified exceptions, adjusting, splitting, combining, redeeming, reclassifying, purchasing, or otherwise acquiring any shares of IMB stock;

effecting any stock split or other recapitalization with respect to FSB stock, or issuing, redeeming, pledging or encumbering any shares of FSB stock;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement or as otherwise consistent with past practices, declaring or paying any dividends, or making any other distribution with respect to shares of IMB;

acquiring, selling, transferring, assigning, encumbering or otherwise disposing of any material assets having a value greater than $100,000, or making any material commitment other than in the ordinary and usual course of business;

soliciting or accepting deposit accounts of a different type from accounts previously accepted by FSB or at rates materially in excess of prevailing interest rates, or, other than as permitted by the merger agreement, incurring or increasing any indebtedness for borrowed money;

offering or making loans or other extensions of credit of a different type, or applying different underwriting standards, from those previously offered or applied by FSB, or offering or making a new loan or extension of credit (other than with respect to commitments existing as of the date of execution of the merger agreement) in an amount greater than $2,000,000 without prior consultation with Glacier;

making any negative provisions to FSB's ALLL or failing to maintain an adequate reserve for loan and lease losses;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement, acquiring an ownership interest (except other real estate owned or other ownership interest acquired through foreclosure with a value not exceeding $400,000) or leasehold interest in any real property and in the case of acquisition of an ownership interest, acquiring such ownership interest without conducting an appropriate environmental evaluation and providing such evaluation to Glacier at least 30 days in advance of such acquisition;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement, entering into, renewing, or terminating any contracts calling for a payment of more than $50,000, with a term of one year or more;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement, entering into or amending any contract calling for a payment of more than $50,000, unless the contract may be terminated without cause or penalty upon 30 days notice or less;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement, entering into any personal services contract; selling any securities other than in the ordinary course of business, or selling any securities even in the ordinary course of business if the aggregate gain or loss realized from all sales after the date of execution of the merger agreement would exceed $50,000, or transferring any investment securities between portfolios available for sale and portfolios of securities to be held to maturity;

amending its articles of incorporation, bylaws, or other formation agreements, or converting its charter or form of entity;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement, implementing or adopting any material changes in its operations, policies or procedures;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement, implementing or adopting any change in its accounting principles, practices, or methods;

other than in accordance with binding commitments existing on the date of execution of the merger agreement, making any capital expenditures in excess of $50,000 per project or series of related projects or $100,000 in the aggregate except for emergency repairs or replacements;

entering into any other material transaction or making any material expenditure other than in the ordinary and usual course of its business except for expenses reasonably related to the completion of the merger; and willfully taking any action which would materially and adversely affect or delay the ability of either party to obtain any necessary approvals, consents or waivers of any governmental authority required for the merger or for either party to perform in all material respects their respective covenants and agreements under the merger agreement.

FSB Management and Operations After the Merger

Immediately following the merger of FSB with and into Glacier, FSB will be merged with and into Glacier Bank. It is anticipated that the former FSB will operate after the closing of the merger as First Security Bank of Bozeman, a division of Glacier Bank.

As described below under Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger, certain executive officers of FSB have entered into employment or consulting agreements with Glacier and Glacier Bank, effective upon closing of the merger, pursuant to which they will serve as executive officers of First Security Bank of Bozeman, a division of Glacier Bank.

Employee Benefit Plans

The merger agreement confirms Glacier's intent that Glacier's and Glacier Bank's current personnel policies will apply to any employees of FSB who remain employed following the closing of the merger. Such employees will be eligible to participate in all of the benefit plans of Glacier that are generally available to similarly situated employees of Glacier and/or Glacier Bank. For purposes of such participation, current employees' prior service with IMB and/or FSB will constitute prior service with Glacier for purposes of determining eligibility and vesting under benefit plans of Glacier and Glacier Bank.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Certain members of the IMB and/or FSB Board and executive management may be deemed to have interests in the merger, in addition to their interests as shareholders of IMB generally. The IMB Board was aware of these factors and considered them, among other things, in approving the merger agreement.

Employment Agreements with Glacier Bank

Steven Wheeler

Glacier Bank has entered into an employment agreement with Steven Wheeler, currently President and Chief Executive Officer of FSB and Vice President of IMB, governing employment by Glacier Bank following the merger. Mr. Wheeler will serve as President and Chief Operating Officer of First Security Bank of Bozeman, a division of Glacier Bank (the "Division"). The employment agreement is effective on (and conditioned upon) the closing of the merger and continues for two years thereafter. The employment agreement provides for an annualized base salary of $326,000, subject to increase in the discretion of Glacier Bank's or Glacier's board of directors based on performance and additional duties and responsibilities, if any. Mr. Wheeler will also receive an annual bonus of $37,000, based on objectives established by the Chief Executive Officer of the Division or the Division board, and a car allowance in the annual amount of $6,000 during the term of his employment. Mr. Wheeler will be eligible to participate in Glacier's profit sharing plan. Additionally, Mr. Wheeler will be entitled to participate in any group life insurance, disability, health and accident insurance plans, and any other employee fringe benefit plans that Glacier or Glacier Bank may have in effect from time to time for its similarly situated employees.

If Mr. Wheeler's employment is terminated for Cause or he terminates his employment without Good Reason (as such terms are defined in the agreements), Glacier Bank will pay him the annualized base salary earned and expenses reimbursable incurred through the date of termination.

If Mr. Wheeler's employment is terminated without Cause or he terminates his employment for Good Reason, contingent upon his execution of a release of claims and for so long as he complies with certain restrictive covenants described in his employment agreement, Glacier Bank will pay Mr. Wheeler a severance payment in an amount equal to the amount of annualized base salary remaining to be paid during the term of the agreement, paid in equal monthly installments over a term that is the greater of the remaining term of the agreement or one year after termination of employment (the "Post-Termination Period").

The employment agreement provides that during Mr. Wheeler's employment and the Post-Termination Period, Mr. Wheeler will not serve in any capacity or provide management, supervisory, business development, marketing or strategic planning services to a bank or financial services company involved in commercial and consumer lending in specified counties in Montana. The employment agreement provides that during his employment and for a period of two years following any termination of employment, Mr. Wheeler will not persuade or entice, or attempt to persuade or entice, any employee of Glacier or Glacier Bank to terminate his or her employment with Glacier or Glacier Bank, or any person or entity to terminate, cancel, rescind or revoke its business or contractual relationships with Glacier or Glacier Bank. Additionally, during his employment and for a period of two years following termination of employment, Mr. Wheeler will not solicit or attempt to solicit, divert, or take away from Glacier Bank or Glacier any person or entity that is a current customer of Glacier Bank or Glacier and to whom Mr. Wheeler, directly or indirectly, provided services, contracted with, or solicited business on behalf of Glacier Bank or Glacier within 24 months prior to the termination of Mr. Wheeler's employment.

In consideration for the restrictive covenants described above, FSB has separately entered into a Consideration for Restrictive Covenants Agreement, dated October 26, 2017, providing for the payment to Mr. Wheeler of up to $350,000, to be paid by FSB in two separate payments. The first $175,000 payment under this agreement will be made to Mr. Wheeler simultaneously with the closing of the merger, subject to certain criteria. The second $175,000 payment will be made to Mr. Wheeler on the last day of the Post-Termination Period or within 60 days of his death, whichever is earliest. The second $175,000 payment is further conditioned upon Mr. Wheeler's compliance with certain restrictive covenants described in his employment agreement and him not being terminated for Cause.

Michael Johnson

Glacier Bank has also entered into an employment agreement with Michael Johnson, currently a director of IMB, governing employment by Glacier Bank following the merger. Mr. Johnson will serve as Northern Market President of First Bank of Montana, a division of Glacier Bank (First Bank). The employment agreement is effective on (and conditioned upon) the closing of the merger and continues for three years thereafter. The employment agreement provides for an annualized base salary of $188,500, subject to increase in the discretion of First Bank's management team based on performance and additional duties and responsibilities, if any. Mr. Johnson will also be eligible to participate in Glacier's profit sharing plan, First Bank's short-term cash bonus program and Glacier's long-term incentive plan. Additionally, Mr. Johnson will be entitled to participate in any group life insurance, disability, health and accident insurance plans, and any other employee fringe benefit plans that Glacier or Glacier Bank may have in effect from time to time for its similarly situated employees.

If Mr. Johnson's employment is terminated for Cause or he terminates his employment without Good Reason (as such terms are defined in the agreements), Glacier Bank will pay him the annualized base salary earned and expenses reimbursable incurred through the date of termination.

If Mr. Johnson's employment is terminated without Cause or he terminates his employment for Good Reason, contingent upon his execution of a release of claims and for so long as he complies with certain restrictive covenants described in his employment agreement, Glacier Bank will pay Mr. Johnson a severance payment in an amount equal to the amount of annualized base salary remaining to be paid during the term of the agreement.

The employment agreement provides that during Mr. Johnson's employment and the Post-Termination Period, Mr. Johnson will not serve in any capacity or provide management, supervisory, business development, marketing or strategic planning services to a bank or financial services company involved in commercial and consumer lending in specified counties in Montana. The employment agreement provides that during his employment and for a period of two years following any termination of employment, Mr. Johnson will not persuade or entice, or attempt to persuade or entice, any employee of Glacier or Glacier Bank to terminate his or her employment with Glacier or Glacier Bank, or any person or entity to terminate, cancel, rescind or revoke its business or contractual relationships with Glacier or Glacier Bank. Additionally, during his employment and for a period of two years following termination of employment, Mr. Johnson will not solicit or attempt to solicit, divert, or take away from Glacier Bank or Glacier any person or entity that is a current customer of Glacier Bank or Glacier and to whom Mr. Johnson, directly or indirectly, provided services, contracted with, or solicited business on behalf of Glacier Bank or Glacier within 24 months prior to the termination of Mr. Johnson's employment.

Change-in-Control Agreements

IMB previously entered into a Change in Control Compensation Agreement, dated July 25, 2017, with Mr. Wheeler (the "Wheeler CIC"). Under the Wheeler CIC, in the event of a Change in Control (as defined in the Wheeler CIC), IMB will pay to Mr. Wheeler an amount equal to (a) Mr. Wheeler's annual salary for the year in which the Change in Control occurs, plus (b) an amount equal to the average of the bonuses paid to Mr. Wheeler in each of the two calendar years preceding the year in which the Change in Control occurs, plus (c) $50,000. It is expected that IMB will pay an amount approximately equal to $413,000 to Mr. Wheeler under the Wheeler CIC at the closing of the merger.

IMB has also entered into a Change in Control Compensation Agreement, dated July 25, 2017, with Dennis Bechtold (the "Bechtold CIC"), currently Chief Financial Officer of FSB and Treasurer of IMB. The terms of the Bechtold CIC are substantially identical to those described above with respect to the Wheeler CIC. It is expected that IMB will pay an amount approximately equal to $248,000 to Mr. Bechtold under the Bechtold CIC at the closing of the merger.

Consulting Agreement with Glacier Bank

Glacier Bank has entered into a consulting agreement with Bruce Gerlach, currently President and Chief Executive Officer of IMB and a director of both IMB and FSB. Mr. Gerlach will assist Glacier Bank with issues that may arise during the integration of FSB with Glacier Bank, including but not limited to individual relationship management matters with key FSB clients and employees. The agreement is effective on (and conditioned upon) the closing of the merger, and continues for two years thereafter, unless terminated earlier by either party upon 30 days' prior written notice. Mr. Gerlach will receive a retainer of $8,333 per month, as well as a car allowance in the annual amount of $6,892, reimbursement of specified country club dues and use of tickets to specified athletic events. Mr. Gerlach will serve as an independent contractor to, and not an employee or agent of, Glacier Bank.

Stock Ownership

As of the record date of the special meeting, IMB directors, executive officers and their spouses beneficially own [ ] shares of IMB common stock. The directors and executive officers of IMB will receive the same consideration in the merger for their shares as will other shareholders of IMB.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers; Insurance

The merger agreement provides that Glacier will, for a period of six years following the closing of the merger, indemnify the present and former directors and officers of IMB and FSB against liabilities or costs that may arise in the future, incurred in connection with claims or actions arising out of or pertaining to matters that existed or occurred prior to the effective date of the merger. The scope of this indemnification is to the fullest extent that such persons would have been entitled to indemnification under applicable law, IMB's articles or FSB's articles or IMB's bylaws or FSB's bylaws, as applicable.

Table of Contents

The merger agreement also provides that Glacier will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be maintained in effect for a period of six years following the effective date of the merger, director and officer liability insurance with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred before the effective date of the merger. Prior to the effective date of the merger and in lieu of the foregoing, Glacier agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, with IMB's cooperation, a policy providing substantially such coverage and fully pay for such policy prior to the effective date of the merger.

Additional Agreements

Voting Agreements

As described above under "Voting Agreements," the directors of IMB and certain IMB shareholders have entered into voting agreements, dated as of October 26, 2017. Pursuant to the voting agreements, each signing person agrees to vote the shares of IMB common stock that he or she is entitled to vote and that he or she owns or controls in favor of the merger.

IMB Director Non-Competition Agreement

Each member of the IMB Board has entered into a non-competition agreement with Glacier, Glacier Bank, IMB and FSB. Except under certain limited circumstances, the non-competition agreement generally prohibits such directors from becoming involved in a business that competes with Glacier or any of Glacier's subsidiaries, divisions or affiliates within specified counties in Montana. The agreement also prohibits the solicitation of Glacier's employees or customers. The term of the non-competition agreement commences upon the effective date of the merger and continues until two years following the later of (i) effective date of the merger, or (ii) following the termination of the director's service on the board of directors of a division of Glacier Bank.

Regulatory Requirements

Closing of the merger is subject to approval by the appropriate banking regulatory authorities, including the Federal Reserve, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and the Commissioner of the Montana Division of Banking and Financial Institutions.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

This section describes the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger of IMB with and into Glacier, to U.S. holders of IMB common stock who exchange shares of IMB common stock for shares of Glacier common stock pursuant to the merger.

For purposes of this discussion, a U.S. holder is a beneficial owner of IMB common stock who for U.S. federal income tax purposes is:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation, or an entity treated as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof;

a trust that (1) is subject to (A) the primary supervision of a court within the United States and (B) the authority of one or more United States persons (as defined in the Internal Revenue Code) to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person (as so defined); or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds IMB common stock, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding IMB common stock, you should consult your tax advisor.

This discussion addresses only those IMB shareholders that hold their IMB common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code, and does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular IMB shareholders in light of their individual circumstances or to IMB shareholders that are subject to special rules, such as:

financial institutions;

pass-through entities or investors in pass-through entities;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

dealers in securities;

traders in securities that elect to use a mark to market method of accounting;

persons who exercise dissenters' rights;

persons who hold IMB common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction;

individual retirement and other tax-deferred accounts;

certain expatriates or persons that have a functional currency other than the United States dollar; foreign persons, including foreign corporations, foreign partnerships and other foreign entities; and shareholders who acquired their shares of IMB common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan.

In addition, the discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax or any state, local or non-U.S. tax consequences of the merger.

The following discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code, its legislative history, existing temporary, final and proposed regulations thereunder and published administrative rulings and court decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion. The tax discussion set forth below is included for general information only. It is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to a particular IMB shareholder.

In connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this document is a part, Garlington, Lohn & Robinson, PLLP, special tax counsel to Glacier, has delivered an opinion to Glacier to the effect that the merger will for U.S. federal income tax purposes qualify as one or more reorganizations within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code Section 368(a); and both Glacier and IMB expect to report the merger accordingly on their U.S. federal income tax returns. The opinion is based on assumptions, representations, warranties and covenants, including those contained in the merger agreement and in tax representation letters provided by Glacier and IMB. The accuracy of such assumptions, representations and warranties, and compliance with such covenants, could affect the conclusions set forth in such opinion. The opinion is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts. Glacier and IMB have not requested and do not intend to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequence of the merger. Accordingly, each IMB shareholder should consult his or her tax advisor with respect to the particular tax consequences of the merger to such holder.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally to Holders of IMB Common Stock. If the merger of IMB with and into Glacier Bank is a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders of IMB common stock are as follows:

If an IMB shareholder exchanges all of his, her or its IMB common stock for Glacier common stock in the merger, such shareholder will recognize no gain (or loss) on the exchange (except with respect to any cash received instead of fractional share interests in Glacier common stock, as discussed in the section entitled Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of Glacier Common Stock );

If an IMB shareholder receives a combination of Glacier common stock and cash, such shareholder will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount by which the sum of the fair market value of the Glacier common stock and cash received by the holder of IMB common stock exceeds such holder's cost basis in its IMB common stock, and (2) the amount of cash received by such holder of IMB common stock in exchange for such holder's IMB common stock (except with respect to any cash received instead of fractional share interests in Glacier common stock, as discussed in the section entitled Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of Glacier Common Stock );

An IMB shareholder's aggregate tax basis in the Glacier common stock received in the merger will be equal to the shareholder's aggregate tax basis in such shareholder's IMB common stock surrendered, decreased by the amount of any cash received (if any) and increased by the amount of any gain recognized (if any); and

The holding period of Glacier common stock received in an exchange for shares of IMB common stock will include the holding period of the IMB common stock for which it is exchanged.

If a U.S. holder of IMB common stock acquired different blocks of IMB common stock at different times or at different prices, any gain or loss will be determined separately with respect to each block of IMB common stock and such holder's basis and holding period in his, her or its shares of Glacier common stock may be determined with reference to each block of IMB common stock. Any such holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the manner in which cash and Glacier common stock received in the exchange should be allocated among different blocks of IMB common stock and with respect to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of Glacier common stock received in the merger.

Gain that a U.S. holder of IMB common stock recognize in connection with the merger generally will constitute capital gain and will constitute long-term capital gain if such holder has held (or is treated as having held) his, her or its IMB common stock for more than one year as of the date of the merger. Long-term capital gain of non-corporate holders of IMB common stock is generally taxed at preferential rates. In addition, such gain may be subject to the 3.8% Unearned Income Medicare Contribution Tax on net investment income. Holders of IMB common stock that are individuals, estates, or trusts should consult their tax advisors regarding the applicability of the Unearned Income Medicare Contribution Tax to the disposition of their shares pursuant to the merger. In some cases, if a holder actually or constructively owns Glacier stock other than Glacier stock received pursuant to the merger, the recognized gain could be treated as having the effect of a distribution of a dividend under the tests set forth in Internal Revenue Code Section 302, in which case such gain would be treated as dividend income. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon each holder's particular circumstances, including the application of the constructive ownership rules, holders of IMB common stock should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of the foregoing rules to their particular circumstances.

Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of Glacier Common Stock. A holder of IMB common stock who receives cash instead of a fractional share of Glacier common stock will generally be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having that fractional share of Glacier common stock redeemed for cash. As a result, a holder of IMB common stock will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share and the basis in his, her or its fractional share interest as set forth above. Except as described above, this gain or loss will generally be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for such shares is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Payment of Dividend. If IMB's capital prior to closing of the merger is in excess of a specified minimum amount, IMB may in its discretion declare and pay a special distribution to holders of its common stock in the amount of such excess. IMB intends to treat that special distribution as a distribution in respect of IMB common stock. The Internal Revenue Service may take a contrary position, and to the extent the Internal Revenue Service were to prevail, the amount paid as the special cash dividend would be treated as additional cash received in connection with the merger, and not as a distribution as described in the succeeding sentence. If the distribution is treated as a distribution with respect to IMB common stock, it will be taxable to the extent it exceeds such holder's basis in his, her or its shares of IMB common stock. Any amount that exceeds such holder's basis in his, her or its IMB common stock will be treated as gain from the sale or exchange of property (which will generally be capital gain, and will be long-term capital gain if, as of the date of the distribution, the holding period for the shares is greater than one year) and will reduce the holder's basis in his, her or its IMB common stock.

Subchapter S Considerations. IMB is taxed under Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code as an S corporation. Glacier is taxed under Subchapter C of the Internal Revenue Code as a C corporation. Certain tax consequences will change for IMB shareholders as a result of holding stock in a C corporation instead of an S corporation.

The income (or loss) of an S corporation is passed through to its shareholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As a result, holders of IMB common stock have been required to include their pro rata share of IMB's income (or loss) on their U.S. federal income tax returns and have been directly liable for any resulting taxes owed. IMB, as an S corporation, does not incur any separate U.S. federal income tax liability except in limited situations.

As a C corporation, Glacier's income (or loss) is not passed through to its shareholders, but instead Glacier is subject to taxation on any income realized from its operations. Accordingly, there is no pass-through of any items of income or loss to the holders of Glacier common stock. Instead, shareholders of Glacier are generally taxed on distributions received from Glacier. Distributions from Glacier to holders of its common stock will be treated as ordinary dividend income to the extent of Glacier's current or accumulated undistributed earnings and profits. Distributions in excess of Glacier's current and accumulated earnings and profits will be treated first as a return of a shareholder's tax basis in his, her or its Glacier common stock to the extent of the holder's basis in the common stock and then as capital gain.

Table of Contents

Upon the consummation of the merger, IMB will be required to file a final short-period S corporation corporate income tax return for the period ending on the closing date of the merger. The former holders of IMB common stock will include in their individual returns, as appropriate, the items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit realized from IMB's final short period.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Payments of cash made to a holder of IMB common stock may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding, unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption satisfactory to Glacier and the exchange agent or furnishes its taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from cash payments made to a holder of IMB common stock under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Reporting Requirements. IMB shareholders who are significant holders and who receive shares of Glacier common stock in the merger are required to file a statement with their United States federal income tax return setting forth certain information, including, but not limited to, their tax basis (determined immediately before the merger) in the IMB common stock exchanged in the merger and the fair market value (determined immediately before the merger) of the IMB common stock and cash received in the merger. For these purposes a significant holder is a holder of IMB common stock who, immediately before the merger, (i) owned at least 1% of the total outstanding stock of IMB by vote or value or (ii) owned stock of IMB with a tax basis of at least $1 million. All IMB shareholders will be required to retain permanent tax records of the basis of IMB common stock exchanged and the Glacier common stock and cash received in the merger.

The preceding discussion is intended only as a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects that may be important to you. Thus, you are strongly encouraged to consult your tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences resulting from the merger, including tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and effect of U.S. federal, state, local, and other tax laws and the effect of any proposed changes in the tax laws.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

The acquisition of IMB will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting by Glacier under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, using the acquisition method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of IMB will be recorded by Glacier at their respective fair values at the time of the merger. The excess of Glacier's purchase price over the net fair value of assets acquired including identifiable intangible assets and liabilities assumed will be recorded as goodwill. Goodwill will be periodically assessed for impairment but no less frequently than on an annual basis. Prior period financial statements are not restated and results of operation of IMB will be included in Glacier's consolidated statement of operations after the date of the merger. The identifiable intangible assets with finite lives, other than goodwill, will be amortized against the combined company's earnings following completion of the merger.

Competition

IMB experiences competition in both lending and attracting funds from other commercial banks, savings banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, finance companies, pension trusts, mutual funds, insurance companies, mortgage bankers and brokers, brokerage and investment banking firms, asset-based non-bank lenders, government agencies and certain other non-financial institutions, including retail stores, which may offer more favorable financing alternatives than IMB.

IMB also competes with companies located outside of its primary market that provide financial services to persons within its primary market. Some of IMB's current and potential competitors have larger customer bases, greater brand recognition, and significantly greater financial, marketing and other resources than IMB and some of them are not subject to the same degree of regulation as IMB.

Employees

As of October 31, 2017, IMB had 190 full-time and 7 part-time employees. IMB believes that it has a good relationship with its employees and the employees are not represented by a collective bargaining agreement.

Properties

IMB's principal office is located in Bozeman, Montana. In addition to its principal office, IMB operates, through FSB, branch offices in Bozeman, Belgrade, Three Forks, West Yellowstone, Big Sky, Fort Benton, Choteau, Fairfield and Vaughn, Montana, as well as loan production offices in Chester and Havre, Montana. All properties are owned, except for the Chester and Havre loan production offices, which are leased.

Legal Proceedings

From time to time, litigation arises in the normal conduct of IMB's business. IMB, however, is not currently involved in any litigation that management of IMB believes, either individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition or results of operations.

Share Ownership of Principal Shareholders, Management and Directors of IMB

The following table shows, as of October 31, 2017, the beneficial ownership of IMB common stock by (i) each person known by IMB to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of IMB's outstanding common stock, (ii) each of IMB's directors and executive officers; and (iii) all of IMB's directors and officers as a group. Except as otherwise noted in the footnotes to the table, each individual has sole investment and voting power with respect to the shares of common stock set forth.

COMPARISON OF CERTAIN RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF GLACIER AND IMB COMMON STOCK

Montana law, Glacier's articles and Glacier's bylaws govern the rights of Glacier's shareholders and will govern the rights of IMB's shareholders, who will become shareholders of Glacier as a result of the merger. The rights of IMB's shareholders are currently governed by Montana law, IMB's articles and IMB's bylaws. The following is a brief summary of certain differences between the rights of Glacier and IMB shareholders. This summary is not intended to provide a comprehensive discussion of each company's governing documents. This summary is qualified by the documents referenced and the laws of Montana. See also Where You Can Find More Information About Glacier.

Preferred Stock

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, Glacier had no shares of preferred stock issued. The Glacier board of directors is authorized, without further shareholder action, to issue preferred stock shares with such designations, preferences and rights as the Glacier board of directors may determine.

IMB's articles of incorporation do not provide for the authorization and issuance of preferred stock.

Dividend Rights

Dividends may be paid on Glacier common stock as and when declared by the Glacier board of directors out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends. The Glacier board of directors may issue preferred stock that is entitled to such dividend rights as the board of directors may determine, including priority over the common stock in the payment of dividends.

The ability of Glacier to pay dividends depends on the amount of dividends paid to it by its subsidiaries. The payment of dividends is subject to government regulation, in that regulatory authorities may prohibit banks and bank holding companies from paying dividends in a manner that would constitute an unsafe or unsound banking practice. In addition, a bank may not pay cash dividends if doing so would reduce the amount of its capital below that necessary to meet minimum applicable regulatory capital requirements. State laws also limit a bank's ability to pay dividends. Accordingly, the dividend restrictions imposed on the subsidiaries by statute or regulation effectively may limit the amount of dividends Glacier can pay.

Dividends may be paid on IMB common stock as and when declared by the IMB Board out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends. Since 2013, IMB has declared and paid dividends based upon an assumed marginal state and federal income tax rate of 45% on IMB income passed through to its shareholders. The ability of IMB to pay dividends to its shareholders, and the ability of FSB to pay dividends to IMB, is limited under state and federal laws applicable to banks and bank holding companies.

Voting Rights

All voting rights are currently vested in the holders of Glacier common stock and IMB common stock, with each share being entitled to one vote.

Glacier has issued shares of restricted stock pursuant to its equity compensation plans, which provide voting rights prior to vesting.

Glacier's articles provide that shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

IMB's bylaws provide that each share entitled to vote is entitled to one vote upon matters submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, and that cumulative voting is permitted in the election of directors.

Preemptive Rights

Neither Glacier's nor IMB's shareholders have preemptive rights to subscribe to any additional securities that may be issued.

Liquidation Rights

If Glacier is liquidated, the holders of Glacier common stock are entitled to share, on a pro rata basis, Glacier's remaining assets after provision for liabilities. The Glacier board of directors is authorized to determine the liquidation rights of any preferred stock that may be issued.

If IMB is liquidated, the holders of IMB common stock are entitled to share, on a pro rata basis, IMB's remaining assets after provision for liabilities.

Assessments

All outstanding shares of Glacier common stock are, and the shares to be issued in the merger will be, fully paid and nonassessable. All outstanding shares of IMB common stock are fully paid and nonassessable.

Amendment of Articles and Bylaws

The Montana Business Corporation Act ( MBCA ) authorizes a corporation's board of directors to make various changes of an administrative nature to its articles of incorporation. Other amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation must be recommended to the shareholders by the board of directors, unless the board determines that because of a conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation, and must be approved by a majority of all votes entitled to be cast by each voting group that has a right to vote on the amendment.

The Glacier board of directors may, by a majority vote, amend Glacier's bylaws. Glacier's bylaws also may be amended by the holders of a majority of votes cast at an annual or special meeting of shareholders.

The IMB Board may amend, repeal or adopt IMB's bylaws. IMB's articles also provide that IMB's shareholders may alter or amend the bylaws by a majority vote at any duly held meeting.

Board of Directors - Number of Directors

Glacier's articles provide that the number of directors may not be less than 7 or more than 17. Glacier's board currently consists of 10 members, all of whom serve annual terms.

IMB's bylaws provide that the number of directors may not be fewer than 3 nor more than 9. The IMB Board currently consists of 6 members, all of whom serve annual terms.

Indemnification and Limitation of Liability

Under the MBCA, indemnification of directors and officers is authorized to cover judgments, amounts paid in settlement, and expenses arising out of actions where the director or officer acted in good faith and in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and in criminal cases, where the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. Unless limited by the corporation's articles of incorporation, Montana law requires indemnification if the director or officer is wholly successful on the merits of the action. Glacier's bylaws provide that Glacier shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, including indemnification for payments in actions brought against a director or officer in the name of the corporation, commonly referred to as a derivative action.

Table of Contents

Glacier's articles provide that the personal liability of directors and officers for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permitted by the MBCA.

IMB's articles provide that a director is not personally liable to IMB or its shareholders other than for acts or omissions creating liability under the MBCA, including but not limited to receiving financial benefit for which the director is not entitled, intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or shareholders of the corporation, unlawful distributions, and intentional violation of criminal law. The liability of directors and officers of IMB may also be limited under the MBCA, and IMB may be obligated to, or may in its discretion, indemnify directors and officers for certain claims or legal proceedings.

Potential Anti-Takeover Provisions

Glacier's articles contain a provision requiring that specified transactions with an interested shareholder be approved by 80% of the voting power of the then outstanding shares unless it is (i) approved by Glacier's board of directors, or (ii) certain price and procedural requirements are satisfied. An interested shareholder is broadly defined to include the right, directly or indirectly, to acquire or to control the voting or disposition of 10% or more of Glacier's voting stock.

In addition, the authorization of preferred stock, which is intended primarily as a financing tool and not as a defensive measure against takeovers, may potentially be used by management to make more difficult uninvited attempts to acquire control of Glacier (for example, by diluting the ownership interest of a substantial shareholder, increasing the amount of consideration necessary for such shareholder to obtain control, or selling authorized but unissued shares to friendly third parties).

The supermajority approval requirement for certain business transactions and the availability of Glacier's preferred stock for issuance without shareholder approval, may have the effect of lengthening the time required for a person to acquire control of Glacier through a tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise, and may deter any potentially unfriendly offers or other efforts to obtain control of Glacier. This could deprive Glacier's shareholders of opportunities to realize a premium for their Glacier common stock, even in circumstances where such action is favored by a majority of Glacier's shareholders.

IMB's articles do not establish anti-takeover or similar limitations.

CERTAIN LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of the Glacier common stock to be issued in the merger will be passed upon for Glacier by its special counsel, Moore, Cockrell, Goicoechea & Johnson, P.C., Kalispell, Montana.

Upon Closing of the Merger, pursuant to the provisions of the MBCA, IMB will merge with and into GBCI with GBCI as the surviving corporation under the MBCA, and in connection therewith, all shares of IMB Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of any holder of shares of IMB Stock, be (a) with respect to shares of IMB Stock not constituting Proposed Dissenting Shares, converted into the right to receive in the aggregate the Merger Consideration less that portion of the Merger Consideration that is attributable to any Proposed Dissenting Shares, and (b) with respect to any Proposed Dissenting Shares, entitled to the rights set forth in Section 1.4. Immediately following the Merger, pursuant to the Bank Merger Agreement, the Bank will be merged with and into Glacier Bank, with Glacier Bank as the resulting bank.

Table of Contents

1.2 Merger Consideration. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, including Section 1.3, as of the Effective Time:

1.2.1 Outstanding GBCI Common Stock. The shares of GBCI Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, on and after the Effective Date, remain as issued and outstanding shares of GBCI Common Stock.

1.2.2 Outstanding IMB Stock. Each share of IMB Stock issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time, excluding Proposed Dissenting Shares, will be converted into and represent the right to receive from GBCI the Per Share Stock Consideration, plus any additional Per Share Cash Consideration provided by GBCI pursuant to Section 7.3.2.

1.3 No Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of GBCI Common Stock will be issued in the Merger. In lieu of fractional shares, if any, each holder of IMB Stock who is otherwise entitled to receive a fractional share of GBCI Common Stock after adding together all shares of GBCI Common Stock received by such holder in the Merger will receive an amount of cash equal to the product of such fractional share multiplied by the GBCI Average Closing Price. Such fractional share interests will not include the right to vote or receive dividends or any interest on dividends.

1.4 Payment to Dissenting Shareholders. Proposed Dissenting Shares shall have the rights provided by the MBCA.

1.5 Deposit of Cash and Shares. On or before the Effective Date, GBCI will deposit, or will cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent, for the benefit of the holders of IMB Stock, for exchange in accordance with this Section 1.5 and Section 1.6, (a) evidence of shares in book entry form, representing the GBCI Shares for payment of the Total Stock Consideration in full; (b) any Cash Consideration added pursuant to Section 7.3.2, and (c) the cash in lieu of fractional shares to be paid in accordance with Section 1.3. Such cash and evidence of the GBCI Shares, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, are referred to in this Agreement as the Exchange Fund.

1.6 Certificates.

1.6.1 Letter of Transmittal. GBCI will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Exchange Agent, within five Business Days following the Effective Date, to mail to each holder of record of a certificate evidencing shares of IMB Stock (a Certificate ) a form letter of transmittal reasonably satisfactory to IMB and GBCI (which will specify that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates will pass, only upon receipt of the Certificates in accordance with Section 1.6.2) advising such holder of the procedure for surrendering to the Exchange Agent the Certificates or other evidence of ownership in exchange for the consideration to which such holder may be entitled pursuant to this Agreement ( Letter of Transmittal ).

Certificates will exchange their Certificates and, in accordance with instructions provided in the Letter of Transmittal, shall provide a properly completed and executed Letter of Transmittal in order to effect the exchange of their Certificates for: (a) evidence of issuance in book entry form, or upon written request of such holder and appropriate payment therefor, certificates representing the appropriate number of shares of GBCI Common Stock issuable in the Merger; (b) a check or, at the election of the IMB shareholder, a wire transfer (but only if the amount of cash included in that shareholder's Merger Consideration exceeds $100,000) representing his, her or its Per Share Cash Consideration if added pursuant to Section 7.3.2; and (c) a check representing the amount of cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any, to which such holder is entitled. Until the Certificate of a holder and a properly executed Letter of Transmittal is received by the Exchange Agent (or, in the case of a lost, stolen, or destroyed Certificate, the procedure in Section 1.6.4 is complied with), the holder will not be entitled to receive his, her or its portion of the Merger Consideration.

1.6.4 Lost, Stolen, and Destroyed Certificates. With respect to a Certificate that has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Exchange Agent will be authorized to issue or pay the holder's portion of the Merger Consideration in exchange thereof, if the holder provides GBCI with: (a) satisfactory evidence that the holder owns IMB Stock and that the Certificate representing this ownership is lost, stolen, or destroyed, (b) any affidavit or security GBCI's transfer agent may require in accordance with its policies and procedures (including such bond as may be required by the Exchange Agent in accordance with such policies), and (c) any reasonable additional assurances that GBCI or the Exchange Agent may require.

1.6.5 Rights to Dividends and Distributions. After the Effective Date, no holder of any Certificate will be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions otherwise payable to holders of record of GBCI Common Stock on any date on or after the Effective Date, unless the holder (a) is entitled by this Agreement to receive a certificate representing GBCI Common Stock and (b) has surrendered in accordance with this Agreement his, her or its Certificates (or has met the requirements of Section 1.6.4) in exchange for certificates representing GBCI Shares or evidence of GBCI stock ownership. Surrender of Certificates will not deprive the holder of any dividends or distributions that the holder is entitled to receive as a record holder of IMB Stock on a date before the Effective Date. When the holder surrenders his, her or its Certificates in exchange for GBCI Shares, the holder shall become a shareholder of record and shall receive the amount, without interest, of any cash dividends and any other distributions distributed on or after the Effective Date on the whole number of GBCI Shares into which the holder's IMB Stock was converted at the Effective Time.

1.6.6 Checks in Other Names. Any Person requesting that a check for any cash to be received in the Merger or cash in lieu of fractional shares be paid in a name other than the name in which the Certificate surrendered in exchange for the cash is registered must establish to GBCI's reasonable satisfaction the right to receive this cash.

1.6.7 Undelivered Certificates. Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by shareholders of IMB on a date that is six months after the Effective Date may be returned to GBCI, at GBCI's election. To the extent so returned, holders of IMB Stock who have not, prior to such time, complied with the provisions of this Section 1.6 will, from such time forward, look only to GBCI for payment of the Merger Consideration to which they are entitled and/or unpaid dividends and distributions on the GBCI Shares deliverable with respect to each share of IMB Stock held by such holders as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case, without any interest. Neither GBCI nor IMB will be liable to any holder of IMB Stock for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws. In the event of a dispute with respect to ownership of IMB Stock, GBCI and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deposit any Merger Consideration represented thereby in escrow with an independent third party with instructions to release the Merger Consideration as determined between the disputing parties promptly upon resolution of the dispute, and thereafter be relieved of any responsibility with respect to any claims thereto.

(b) The parties will cooperate with each other in preparing the Registration Statement and Prospectus/Proxy Statement, and will use their commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the clearance of the SEC, if required, any appropriate state securities regulators and any other required regulatory approvals, to issue the Prospectus/Proxy Statement.

(c) Nothing will be included in the Registration Statement or the Prospectus/Proxy Statement or any proxy solicitation materials with respect to any party to this Agreement unless approved by that party, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed. When the Registration Statement becomes effective, and at all times subsequent to such effectiveness (up to and including the date of the IMB Meeting), all information set forth in the Registration Statement that is or to be furnished by or on behalf of GBCI relating to GBCI and its Subsidiaries and by or on behalf of IMB relating to IMB and the Bank, (i) will comply in all material respects with the provisions of the Securities Act and any other applicable statutory or regulatory requirements, and (ii) will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact that is required to be stated or necessary to make the statements in the Registration Statement not misleading; provided, however, that in no event will any party be liable for any untrue statement of a material fact or omission to state a material fact in the Registration Statement where such statement or omission, as the case may be, was made in reliance upon, and in conformity with, written information concerning another party furnished by or on behalf of such other party specifically for use in the Registration Statement.

(d) GBCI will pay all fees and costs associated with the preparation by GBCI s counsel (and other professional advisors) and the filing of the Registration Statement. The IMB Meeting will be held on the earliest practical date after the date the Prospectus/Proxy Statement may first be sent to IMB's shareholders without objection by applicable governmental authorities. The board of directors of IMB has adopted a resolution recommending approval of this Agreement by IMB's shareholders, and it shall not withdraw, modify, or qualify its recommendation unless, subsequent to the Execution Date, IMB receives a Superior Proposal and the board of directors of IMB determines, in good faith and after consultation with independent legal counsel, that it would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties not to withdraw, modify, or qualify such recommendation. IMB shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain from the shareholders of IMB approval of the Transaction in accordance with Montana law, including (except as provided in the preceding sentence) by communicating to its shareholders its recommendation (and including such recommendation in the Prospectus/Proxy Statement) that they approve this Agreement and the Transactions. GBCI will provide copies of such applications for review by IMB prior to their submission to the applicable Governmental Entities. These applications are expected to include: (a) an interagency bank merger application to be filed with the FDIC and a waiver to be sought from, or application to be filed with, the Federal Reserve with respect to the Merger; (b) an application to the Commissioner of the Montana Division and related filings regarding the Transaction; and (c) filings and coordination with the offices, of the Secretary of State of Montana with respect to the Merger and the Bank Merger. IMB and the Bank will cooperate and use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare all documentation, timely effect all filings and obtain, and to assist GBCI in obtaining, all Requisite Regulatory Approvals. IMB and the Bank shall, upon request, furnish GBCI with all information concerning itself, and its directors, officers, and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with any statement, filing, notice, or application made by or on behalf of GBCI, Glacier Bank, IMB, or the Bank to any third party or Governmental Entity in connection with the Transaction.

During the period from the Execution Date to the Effective Time, IMB and the Bank shall cause one or more of their respective representatives to confer with representatives of GBCI and Glacier Bank and report the general status of their ongoing operations at such times as GBCI and Glacier Bank may reasonably request. Representatives of GBCI, Glacier Bank, IMB, and the Bank shall also meet as requested by or on behalf of GBCI to discuss and plan for the conversion of the Bank's data processing and related electronic informational systems to those used by GBCI and Glacier Bank, which planning shall include, but not be limited to, discussion of the possible termination by the Bank of third-party service provider arrangements effective at the Effective Time or at a date thereafter, non-renewal of personal property leases and software licenses used by the Bank in connection with its systems operations, retention of outside consultants and additional employees to assist with the conversion, and outsourcing, as appropriate, of proprietary or self-provided system services, it being understood that neither IMB nor the Bank shall be obligated to take any such action prior to the Effective Time and, unless IMB and the Bank otherwise agree, no conversion shall take place prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, no such request by or behalf of GBCI or Glacier Bank shall interfere materially with the performance of duties by any employee of IMB or the Bank.

4.12.2 Maintenance of S-corporation Status. Neither IMB nor any of its Subsidiaries will (a) revoke IMB's election to be taxed as an S-corporation within the meaning of IRC Section 1361 and IRC Section 1362 or (b) revoke the Bank's or First Security Insurance's status as a qualified subchapter S subsidiary within the meaning of IRC Section 1361(b)(3)(B), and neither GBCI nor any of its Subsidiaries will take any action after the Effective Time to retroactively revoke such election. Other than the Transaction, neither IMB nor any of its Subsidiaries will take any action or allow any action that (x) would cause IMB to no longer be treated as an S-corporation within the meaning of IRC Section 1361 and IRC Section 1362 or (y) would cause the Bank or First Security Insurance to no longer be treated as a qualified subchapter S subsidiary within the meaning of IRC Section 1361(b)(3)(B).

that are due and payable during such period with respect to any such Post-Signing Return. All Post-Signing Returns filed by IMB and its Subsidiaries will be true, correct, and complete in all material respects and, except as otherwise required by Law, shall be prepared on a basis consistent with the past practice of IMB. IMB will provide copies of any Post-Signing Return to GBCI at least 20 days prior to the date on which such return will be filed for reasonable review and comment by GBCI, and if reasonably desired by GBCI, consultation with GBCI. During such period, GBCI and each of its Subsidiaries will prepare and timely file, or cause to be prepared and timely filed, all Post-Signing Returns required to be filed by each such entity and will timely pay all Taxes that are due and payable during such period with respect to any such Post-Signing Return. All Post-Signing Returns filed by GBCI and its Subsidiaries will be true, correct, and complete in all material respects and, except as otherwise required by Law, shall be prepared on a basis consistent with the past practice of GBCI.

(b) GBCI will engage IMB's independent accountants to prepare and timely file, or cause to be prepared and timely filed, all Tax Returns required to be filed by IMB or any of its Subsidiaries due after the Effective Time but related to the period prior to the Effective Date. All such Tax Returns will, except as otherwise required by Law or as recommended by the independent accountant, be prepared on a basis consistent with the past practice of IMB.

4.13 IMB Closing Capital. No earlier than the 15th Business Day prior to Closing nor later than the 10th Business Day before such Closing, IMB shall calculate in good faith and provide to GBCI the estimated IMB Capital as of Closing and shall provide GBCI with a copy of the proposed Subsequent Bank Financial Statements for the month preceding the date of calculation (if not already provided in accordance with Section 4.1.8), together with internally prepared financial statements through the date of calculation, estimated retained earnings through the date of Closing, the impact of any pending adjustments required in the calculation of the IMB Capital, and any other documentation reasonably requested by GBCI for purposes of confirming the amount of such IMB Capital. GBCI shall review such materials and, within three Business Days following receipt thereof, notify IMB as to whether GBCI accepts or disputes the amount of the IMB Capital. If GBCI disputes such calculation in good faith, it shall describe in its notice its specific requested changes or adjustments. If GBCI and IMB are unable to resolve such dispute through good faith negotiations within three Business Days after delivery of GBCI's notice of objection, then the parties shall mutually engage and submit such dispute to, and the same shall be finally resolved by, an accounting firm that is mutually and reasonably acceptable to the parties (the Independent Accountants). The Independent Accountants shall review the matter in dispute and, solely as to disputes relating to accounting issues and acting as an expert and not as an arbitrator, determine and report in writing to GBCI and IMB the resolution of such disputed matters and the effect of such determinations on the calculation of the IMB Capital as of Closing, and such determinations shall be final, binding and conclusive unless GBCI and IMB mutually agree upon a different amount. The IMB Capital as of Closing, as determined and agreed upon in writing by GBCI and IMB in accordance with this Section 4.13, is the IMB Closing Capital. The fees and disbursements of the Independent Accountants pursuant to this Section 4.13 and Section 4.14 below shall be shared equally by GBCI, on the one hand, and IMB, on the other hand, and IMB's portion shall be an expense in the calculation of the IMB Closing Capital.

4.14 Transaction Related Expenses. No earlier than the 15th Business Day prior to Closing nor later than the 10th Business Day before such Closing, IMB shall calculate in good faith the estimated Transaction Related Expenses as of the Closing and shall provide GBCI with a copy of a schedule in the form of Exhibit B detailing each Transaction Related Expense and any other documentation reasonably requested by GBCI for purposes of confirming the amount of such Transaction Related Expenses. GBCI shall review such materials and, within three Business Days following receipt thereof, notify IMB as to whether GBCI accepts or disputes the amount of the Transaction Related Expenses. If GBCI disputes such calculation in good faith, it shall describe in its notice its specific requested changes or adjustments. If GBCI and IMB are unable to resolve such dispute through good faith negotiations within three Business Days after delivery of GBCI's notice of objection, then the parties shall mutually engage and submit such dispute to, and the same shall be finally resolved by the Independent Accountants in accordance with the process set forth in Section 4.13. The Transaction Related Expenses as of Closing, as determined and agreed upon in writing by GBCI and IMB in accordance with this Section 4.14, are the Final Transaction Related Expenses.

4.15 Payment of Dividend. To the extent the IMB Closing Capital exceeds the Closing Capital Requirement after making all adjustments required by the terms of this Agreement (including, without limitation in the event the Final Transaction Related Expenses exceed the Maximum Transaction Related Expenses), IMB may, upon prior written notice to GBCI and effective immediately prior to the Effective Time, declare and pay a special dividend to its shareholders in the amount equal to the positive Closing Capital Differential; provided, however, that the amount of such dividend may be limited to the extent necessary to cause the Merger to effect a transfer of substantially all of the properties of IMB and the Bank within the meaning of IRC Section 368(a)(2)(D), as determined in the reasonable discretion of GBCI in consultation with its tax counsel and after consultation with IMB and its tax counsel.

4.16 Commercially Reasonable Efforts. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each party will use its commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or desirable, or advisable under applicable laws, so as to permit consummation of the Merger on February 28, 2018; and in any case, as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, and to otherwise enable consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, subject to any delays resulting from SEC review or bank regulatory processing.

4.17 Listing. GBCI will use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the GBCI Shares to be authorized for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time.

4.18 GBCI Common Stock Issuable in Merger. The shares of GBCI Common Stock to be issued pursuant to this Agreement, when issued in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and subject to no preemptive rights.

ARTICLE 6

DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

6.1 Director and Shareholder Agreements. As a condition to the execution of this Agreement, the directors and principal shareholders described in Recital E have entered into the written agreements described in Recital E on or before the Execution Date. Such agreements will take effect at the Effective Date unless otherwise noted in the applicable agreement.

6.2 Employee Benefit Issues.

6.2.1 Comparability of Benefits. GBCI's and Glacier Bank's personnel policies will apply to any current Employees who are retained after the Effective Time. Such retained employees will be eligible to participate in all of the benefit plans of GBCI that are generally available to similarly situated employees of GBCI and/or Glacier Bank in accordance with and subject to the terms of such plans.

6.2.2 Treatment of Past Service. For purposes of such participation, current Employees' prior service with IMB and/or the Bank will constitute prior service with GBCI or Glacier Bank for purposes of determining eligibility and vesting (including but not limited to vacation time and participation and benefits under the applicable GBCI or Glacier Bank severance plan for Employees in effect at the time of any termination).

6.2.3 No Contract Created. Nothing in this Agreement will give any Employee a right to employment or continuing employment.

6.2.4 Severance Eligibility. Any current Employees (a) who are not entitled to severance, change in control, or other payments at or in connection with Closing under the Compensation Plans set forth in Schedule 3.1.18 or otherwise or (b) who are so entitled but are listed on Schedule 6.2.4 and are not offered a position by GBCI or retained by Glacier Bank following the Closing will receive severance payments in accordance with Glacier Bank's severance policy in effect at the Closing on the basis of the number of years of prior service with IMB and the Bank, at the expense of GBCI.

6.3 Indemnification of Directors and Executive Officers. For a period of six years from and after the Effective Date, GBCI will indemnify and defend each present and former director and officer of IMB and the Bank from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, judgments, fines, damages, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys fees) incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, arising out of actions or omissions accruing at or prior to the Effective Time, including, without limitation, the Merger to the fullest extent that IMB and/or the Bank is currently permitted to indemnify (and advance expenses to) its directors and officers under applicable law, including federal banking law, and under their respective articles of incorporation or bylaws in effect on the Execution Date provided, however that all rights to indemnification in respect of any claim asserted or made in accordance with this Section 6.3 shall continue until the final disposition of such claim. GBCI shall advance expenses to the indemnified parties to the fullest extent that such indemnified parties would be entitled under IMB's Bylaws and such advancement is not in violation of or inconsistent with any insurance policies acquired under the last sentence of this Section 6.3. Any determination required to be made with respect to whether an officer's or director's conduct complies with the standard set forth under IMB's or the Bank's articles of incorporation or bylaws will be made by independent counsel (which will not be counsel that provides any services to GBCI or any of its Subsidiaries) selected by GBCI and reasonably acceptable to such officer or director. For a period of six years after the Effective Date, GBCI will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be maintained in effect (with reputable and financially sound insurers) director and officer liability insurance substantially similar to that maintained by GBCI with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred before the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time and in lieu of the foregoing, GBCI will use commercially reasonable efforts to purchase, and IMB will cooperate in its efforts to purchase, a tail policy for directors' and officers' liability insurance providing coverage substantially as described in the prior sentence and fully pay for such policy prior to the Effective Time, with all such costs to be included as and in the calculation of Transaction Related Expenses.

ARTICLE 7

TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT AND ABANDONMENT OF TRANSACTION

7.1 Termination by Reason of Lapse of Time. If Closing does not occur on or before July 31, 2018 (the Outside Date), either GBCI or IMB may terminate this Agreement and the Merger if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

7.1.1 the terminating party's board of directors decides to terminate by a majority vote of all of its members; and

7.1.2 the terminating party delivers to the other party written notice that its board of directors has voted in favor of termination; provided that, if as of such Outside Date, the condition to Closing set forth in Section 5.1 shall not have been satisfied, then the Outside Date will be extended to on or before October 31, 2018, if GBCI notifies IMB in writing on or prior to the Outside Date of its election to extend the Outside Date; and provided, further that, the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1 shall not be available to any party whose failure to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth in this Agreement resulted in the failure of the Merger to be completed by the applicable Outside Date.

7.2 Termination Due to GBCI Average Closing Price Greater Than $42.11.

7.2.1 GBCI's Right to Terminate. By specific action of its board of directors, GBCI may terminate this Agreement and the Merger by written notice to IMB on the Business Day immediately following the Determination Date, if the GBCI Average Closing Price is greater than $42.11 (without taking into account the declaration or effects of a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction involving the issuance of GBCI Common Stock for which no consideration is received between the Execution Date and the Determination Date), unless IMB makes the election set forth in Section 7.2.2. Prior to a termination pursuant to this Section 7.2.1, the parties will have made appropriate adjustments to take into account the declaration or effects of a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or similar transaction involving the issuance of GBCI Common Stock for which no consideration is received between the Execution Date and the Determination Date.

7.2.2 IMB's Right to Adjust Consideration. If GBCI provides written notice to IMB in accordance with Section 7.2.1, then within three Business Days following IMB's receipt of such notice, IMB may elect by written notice to GBCI to accept an adjustment to the Total Stock Consideration through the issuance of fewer GBCI Shares; in such event, the Total Stock Consideration shall be the number of GBCI Shares equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (a) $195,986,299 by (b) the GBCI Average Closing Price rounded up to the nearest whole share (prior to taking into account the declaration or effects of a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction involving the issuance of GBCI Common Stock for which no consideration is received between the Execution Date and the Determination Date). If IMB makes such election to accept a decrease in the number of GBCI Shares to be issued as the Total Stock Consideration, no termination will occur pursuant to Section 7.2.1, and this Agreement will remain in effect according to its terms (except as the Total Stock Consideration has been adjusted).

7.3 Termination Due to GBCI Average Closing Price Less Than $28.07.

7.3.1 IMB's Right to Terminate. By specific action of its board of directors, IMB may terminate this Agreement and the Merger by written notice to GBCI on the Business Day immediately following the Determination Date, if the GBCI Average Closing Price is less than $28.07 (without taking into account the declaration or effects of a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction involving the issuance of GBCI Common Stock for which no consideration is received between the Execution Date and the Determination Date), unless GBCI makes the election set forth in Section 7.3.2. Prior to a termination pursuant to this Section 7.3.1, the parties will have made appropriate adjustments to take into account the declaration or effects of a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction involving the issuance of GBCI Common Stock for which no consideration is received between the Execution Date and the Determination Date.

---

7.3.2 GBCI's Right to Adjust Consideration. If IMB provides written notice to GBCI in accordance with Section 7.3.1, then within three Business Days following GBCI's receipt of such notice, GBCI may elect by written notice to IMB to adjust the Total Stock Consideration through the issuance of additional GBCI Shares or, in GBCI's sole and absolute discretion, pay Cash Consideration, or a combination thereof, such that the total value of the GBCI Shares to be issued in the Transaction (based on the GBCI Average Closing Price rounded up to the nearest whole share (prior to taking into account the declaration or effects of a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction involving the issuance of GBCI Common Stock for which no consideration is received between the Execution Date and the Determination Date)), plus any Cash Consideration, is equal to $130,642,019; provided that any GBCI right to pay Cash Consideration pursuant to this Section 7.3.2 shall be limited to the maximum amount of Cash Consideration that may be paid without causing the Merger to be a reorganization under IRC Section 368(a). If GBCI makes such election to increase the Total Stock Consideration or pay Cash Consideration (or a combination thereof), no termination will occur pursuant to Section 7.3.1, and this Agreement will remain in effect according to its terms (except as the Total Stock Consideration or Cash Consideration has been adjusted). For purposes of this Section, Cash Consideration shall mean the total cash consideration paid to holders of shares of IMB Stock as consideration for the Merger.

7.4 Other Grounds for Termination. This Agreement and the Merger may be terminated at any time before Closing (whether before or after applicable approval of this Agreement by IMB's shareholders, unless otherwise provided) by IMB (on behalf of itself and the Bank) or GBCI (on behalf of itself and Glacier Bank) as follows:

7.4.1 Mutual Consent. By mutual consent of IMB and GBCI, if the board of directors of each party agrees to terminate by a majority vote of all of its members.

7.4.2 No Regulatory Approvals. By IMB or GBCI, if a Governmental Entity that must grant a Requisite Regulatory Approval has denied a Requisite Regulatory Approval or a Requisite Regulatory Approval is conditioned on a substantial deviation from the Merger; provided, however, that either party will have 15 Business Days following receipt of any denial to appeal the decision, and if such appeal is timely made, either party will have 60 days to prosecute diligently and overturn such denial and such other party may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.4.2 during such period of time; provided further, however, either party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to the terms of Section 7.1 during such period of time.

7.4.3 Breach of Representation. By IMB or GBCI (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants in this Agreement if they are not qualified as to materiality and is not then in breach of any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants in this Agreement if they are qualified as to materiality) if there has been a material breach of any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement that are not qualified as to materiality or a breach of any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement that are qualified as to materiality on the part of the other party, which breach is not cured within 30 days following written notice to the party committing such breach, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the end of such 30-day period; provided, however, that neither party will have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.4.3 unless the breach of such representation or warranty, together with any other such breaches, would entitle the party receiving such representation not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Section 5.2.1 (in the case of a breach of a representation or warranty by IMB) or Section 5.3.1 (in the case of a breach of a representation or warranty by GBCI).

---

7.4.4 Breach of Covenant. By either party (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants in this Agreement if they are not qualified as to materiality and is not then in breach of any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants in this Agreement if they are qualified as to materiality) if there has been a material breach of any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement that are not qualified as to materiality or a breach of any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement that are qualified as to materiality on the part of the other party, which breach is not cured within 30 days following written notice to the party committing such breach, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the end of such 30-day period.

7.4.5 Failure to Recommend or Obtain Shareholder Approval. By (a) GBCI (provided that GBCI is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements in this Agreement), if (i) IMB's board of directors (A) fails to recommend to its shareholders the approval of the Merger or (B) modifies, withdraws, or changes in a manner adverse to GBCI its recommendation to shareholders to approve the Merger; or (b) GBCI or IMB (provided that the party electing to terminate is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants, or agreements in this Agreement) if IMB's shareholders elect not to approve the Merger.

7.4.6 Impracticability. By either GBCI or IMB, upon written notice given to the other party, if the board of directors of the party seeking termination under this Section 7.4.6 has determined in its sole judgment, made in good faith and after due consideration and consultation with counsel, that the Merger has become inadvisable or impracticable by reason of actions taken by the federal government or the government of the State of Montana to restrain or invalidate the Merger or this Agreement.

7.4.7 Dissenting Shares. By GBCI, if holders of 10 percent or more of the outstanding shares of IMB Stock are Proposed Dissenting Shares.

7.4.8 Superior Proposal Termination by IMB. By the board of directors of IMB upon written notice to GBCI if such board of directors has in good faith determined that an Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal; provided, however, that IMB may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.4.8 unless (a) it has not breached Sections 4.1.10 or 4.2.2, (b) immediately following the delivery of such notice of termination, it enters into a definitive acquisition agreement relating to such Superior Proposal, (c) it has provided GBCI at least five days prior written notice advising GBCI that the board of directors of IMB is prepared to accept a Superior Proposal and has given GBCI, if it so elects, an opportunity to amend the terms of this Agreement (and negotiated with GBCI in good faith with respect to such terms) in such a manner as would enable IMB's board of directors to proceed with the Merger, and (d) simultaneously upon entering into such definitive acquisition agreement relating to such Superior Proposal referred to in clause (b), it delivers to GBCI the Break-Up Fee.

7.4.9 Superior Proposal Termination by GBCI. By GBCI upon written notice to IMB if (a) an Acquisition Event will have occurred or (b)(i) a third party will have made a proposal to IMB or its shareholders to engage in, or enter into an agreement with respect to, an Acquisition Event and (ii) this Agreement and the Merger are not approved at the IMB Meeting.

7.5 Break-Up Fee. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.4.5(a), Section 7.4.8, or Section 7.4.9(a), then IMB will immediately pay to GBCI $6,500,000 (the Break-Up Fee). If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.4.5(b) or Section 7.4.9(b), or by GBCI pursuant to Section 7.4.4 for breach of either Section 4.1.10 or Section 4.2.2, and within 15 months after such termination, IMB or the Bank enters into an agreement for, or publicly announces an intention to engage in, an Acquisition Event, or within 15 months after such termination an Acquisition Event will have occurred, then IMB will promptly following such entry, announcement, or occurrence pay to GBCI the Break-Up Fee.

7.6 Cost Allocation Upon Termination; Limitations; Break-Up Fee as Liquidated Damages. In connection with the termination of this Agreement under this Article 7, except as provided in Section 7.5, each party will pay its own out-of-pocket costs incurred in connection with this Agreement and will have no liability to the other parties arising from such termination, except that in the event of a termination under Section 7.4.3 or Section 7.4.4 in a circumstance in which no Break-Up Fee is paid, no party will be relieved from any liability arising out of the underlying breach by reason of such termination. The parties acknowledge and agree that the agreements contained in Section 7.5 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, neither party would enter into this Agreement. Any amount payable by IMB pursuant to Section 7.5 constitutes liquidated damages and not a penalty and shall be the sole monetary remedy of GBCI in the event of termination of this Agreement under circumstances that give rise to payment of the Break-Up Fee. In the event that IMB fails to pay the Break-Up Fee when due, then (a) IMB shall reimburse GBCI for all costs and expenses (including disbursements and reasonable fees of counsel) incurred in connection with the collection of unpaid or overdue amounts, and (b) IMB shall pay to GBCI interest on such overdue amounts (for the period commencing as of the date that such overdue amount was originally required to be paid and ending on the date that such overdue amount is actually paid in full) at a rate per annum equal to the prime rate published in The Wall Street Journal on the date such payment was required to be made, plus 2 percent.

Sections 35-1-826 through 35-1-839   Dissenters   Rights

35-1-826. Definitions. As used in 35-1-826 through 35-1-839, the following definitions apply:

- (1) Beneficial shareholder means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.
- (2) Corporation includes the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.
- (3) Dissenter means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under 35-1-827 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by 35-1-829 through 35-1-837.
- (4) Fair value, with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.
- (5) Interest means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if the corporation has no loans, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.
- (6) Record shareholder means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial shareholder to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.
- (7) Shareholder means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

35-1-827. Right to dissent. (1) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of any of the following corporate actions:

- (a) consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party if:
  - (i) shareholder approval is required for the merger by 35-1-815 or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger; or
  - (ii) the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent corporation under 35-1-818;
- (b) consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;

(c) consummation of a sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within 1 year after the date of sale;

(d) an amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter's shares because it:

(i) alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;

(ii) creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision with respect to a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase of the shares;

(iii) alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities;

(iv) excludes or limits the right of the shares to be voted on any matter or to cumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or

(v) reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share created is to be acquired for cash under 35-1-621; or

(e) any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and to obtain payment for their shares.

(2) A shareholder entitled to dissent and to obtain payment for shares under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839 may not challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

35-1-828. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners. (1) A record shareholder may assert dissenter's rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the shareholder's name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the shareholder asserts dissenter's rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the shareholder dissents and the shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenter's rights as to shares held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if the beneficial shareholder:

(a) submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenter's rights; and

(b) does so with respect to all shares of which the beneficial shareholder is the beneficial shareholder or over which the beneficial shareholder has power to direct the vote.

35-1-829. Notice of dissenter's rights. (1) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenter's rights under 35-1-827 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenter's rights under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839 and must be accompanied by a copy of 35-1-826 through 35-1-839.

(2) If a corporate action creating dissenter's rights under 35-1-827 is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation shall give written notification to all shareholders entitled to assert dissenter's rights that the action was taken and shall send them the dissenter's notice described in 35-1-831.

35-1-830. Notice of intent to demand payment. (1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under 35-1-827 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights:

(a) shall deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken written notice of the intent to demand payment for the shareholder's shares if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(b) may not vote the shareholder's shares in favor of the proposed action.

(2) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1)(a) is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839.

35-1-831. Dissenters' notice. (1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under 35-1-827 is authorized at a shareholders' meeting, the corporation shall deliver a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of 35-1-830.

(2) The dissenters' notice must be sent no later than 10 days after the corporate action was taken and must:

(a) state where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certified shares must be deposited;

(b) inform shareholders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment is received;

(c) supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action and that requires the person asserting dissenters' rights to certify whether or not the person acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;

(d) set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date the required notice under subsection (1) is delivered; and

(e) be accompanied by a copy of 35-1-826 through 35-1-839.

35-1-832. Duty to demand payment. (1) A shareholder sent a dissenters' notice described in 35-1-831 shall demand payment, certify whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenters' notice pursuant to 35-1-831(2)(c), and deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.

(2) The shareholder who demands payment and deposits the shareholder's certificates under subsection (1) retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

(3) A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit the shareholder's certificates when required, each by the date set in the dissenters' notice, is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under 35-1-826 through 35-1-839.

35-1-833. Share restrictions. (1) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is taken or the restrictions are released under 35-1-835.

35-1-834. Payment. (1) Except as provided in 35-1-836, as soon as the proposed corporate action is taken or upon receipt of a payment demand, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with 35-1-832 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the dissenter's shares plus accrued interest.

B - 3

(2) The payment must be accompanied by:

(a) the corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(b) a statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;

(c) an explanation of how the interest was calculated;

(d) a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under 35-1-837; and

(e) a copy of 35-1-826 through 35-1-839.

35-1-835. Failure to take action. (1) If the corporation does not take the proposed action within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

(2) If after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation takes the proposed action, it shall send a new dissenter's notice under 35-1-831 and repeat the payment demand procedure.

35-1-836. After-acquired shares. (1) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by 35-1-834 from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenter's notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action.

(2) To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (1), after taking the proposed corporate action, the corporation shall estimate the fair value of the shares plus accrued interest and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demand. The corporation shall send with its offer a statement of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under 35-1-837.

35-1-837. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer. (1) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and the amount of interest due and may demand payment of the dissenter's estimate, less any payment under 35-1-834, or reject the corporation's offer under 35-1-836 and demand payment of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and the interest due if:

(a) the dissenter believes that the amount paid under 35-1-834 or offered under 35-1-836 is less than the fair value of the dissenter's shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;

(b) the corporation fails to make payment under 35-1-834 within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment; or

(c) the corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment.

(2) A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter notifies the corporation of the demand in writing under subsection (1) within 30 days after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares.

B - 4

35-1-838. Court action. (1) If a demand for payment under 35-1-837 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and shall petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(2) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the district court of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if its principal office is not located in this state, in Lewis and Clark County. If the corporation is a foreign corporation, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the principal office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located or, if the domestic corporation did not have its principal office in the state at the time of the transaction, in Lewis and Clark County.

(3) The corporation shall make all dissenters whose demands remain unsettled, whether or not residents of this state, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares, and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(4) The jurisdiction of the district court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(5) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment:

(a) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares plus interest exceeds the amount paid by the corporation; or

(b) for the fair value plus accrued interest of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under 35-1-836.

35-1-839. Court costs and attorney fees. (1) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under 35-1-838 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under 35-1-837.

(2) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of 35-1-829 through 35-1-837; or

(b) against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by 35-1-826 through 35-1-839.

(3) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award the counsel reasonable attorney fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited.

Board of Directors

Inter-Mountain Bancorp., Inc.

Bozeman, MT 59715

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of Inter-Mountain Bancorp., Inc. ( IMB ) common stock pursuant to the Plan and Agreement of Merger dated October 26, 2017 (the Agreement ) among Glacier Bancorp, Inc. ( Glacier ), IMB and First Security Bank, Bozeman, Montana. The Agreement provides for the merger of IMB with and into Glacier, with Glacier being the surviving company (the Merger ). Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Agreement.

The financial terms of the Agreement provide for Glacier to exchange 4,654,151 shares of its common stock for all of the common stock of IMB. Based on 203,763 shares of IMB common stock outstanding, each share of IMB common stock will be converted into the right to receive 22.841 shares of Glacier common stock.

In addition, IMB shareholders may be entitled to a special dividend immediately prior to the closing of the Merger in an amount equal to the positive difference, if any, between IMB Closing Capital and the Closing Capital Requirement of $73.5 million. IMB Closing Capital will be based on IMB's shareholders' equity under generally accepted accounting principles, net of goodwill and other intangible assets, as adjusted by certain items. Factors that will impact IMB Closing Capital include operating income from July 1, 2017 to the closing, normal tax distribution dividends in accordance with past practice, changes in accumulated other comprehensive income from July 1, 2017 to the closing, and certain Transaction Related Expenses. The amount of the possible special dividend cannot be calculated with a high degree of certainty at this time, and is based in part on factors outside the control of IMB.

The Agreement provides a termination right to IMB under certain circumstances if the Glacier Average Closing Price is less than $28.07 per share unless Glacier agrees to increase the Merger Consideration to $130,642,019 through the issuance of more common shares or payment of cash consideration. Alternatively, the Agreement provides a termination right to Glacier under certain circumstances if the Glacier Average Closing Price is greater than $42.11 per share unless IMB agrees to accept a reduction in Total Stock Consideration through the issuance of fewer shares such that the value of the Merger Consideration is $195,986,299.

We held similar discussions with senior management of Glacier regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Glacier.

Management of IMB and Glacier, respectively, have represented there has been no material adverse change in their respective company's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that IMB and Glacier will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement are true and correct, that each party to the Agreement will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the Agreement, and that the conditions precedent in the Agreement are not waived. Finally, ProBank Austin expresses no view or opinion as to any of the legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and any other transactions contemplated by the Agreement or any terms or other aspects of the Agreement or the Merger.

In our review and analysis, we relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of the information provided to us or publicly available, and have not attempted to verify the same. As part of the due diligence process we made no independent verification as to the status and value of IMB's or Glacier's assets, including the value of the loan portfolio and allowance for loan and lease losses, and have instead relied upon representations and information concerning the value of assets and the adequacy of reserves of both companies in the aggregate. In addition, we have assumed in the course of obtaining the necessary approvals for the transaction, no condition will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the transaction to IMB and its shareholders.

This opinion is based on economic and market conditions and other circumstances existing on, and information made available as of, the date hereof. This opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration paid to the holders of IMB common stock. As part of the engagement, ProBank Austin reserves the right to review any public disclosures describing this fairness opinion or its firm. In addition, IMB agreed to indemnify ProBank Austin against certain liabilities. ProBank Austin expresses no opinion as to the fairness of any consideration paid in connection with the Merger to the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of IMB or as to the underlying decision by IMB to engage in the Merger or enter into the Agreement. ProBank Austin did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by IMB officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by the holders of IMB common stock. This opinion has been approved by the fairness opinion committee of ProBank Austin.

Based upon our analysis and subject to the qualifications described herein, we believe that as of the date of this letter, the Merger Consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of IMB common stock.

Respectfully,

ProBank Austin

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Sections 35-1-451 through 35-1-459 of the Montana Business Corporation Act ( MBCA ) contain specific provisions relating to indemnification of directors and officers of Montana corporations. In general, the statute provides that (i) a corporation must indemnify a director or officer who is wholly successful in his defense of a proceeding to which he is a party because of his status as such, unless limited by the articles of incorporation, and (ii) a corporation may indemnify a director or officer if he is not wholly successful in such defense, if it is determined as provided in the statute that the director meets a certain standard of conduct, provided that when a director is liable to the corporation, the corporation may not indemnify him. The statute also permits a director or officer of a corporation who is a party to a proceeding to apply to the courts for indemnification or advance of expenses, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, and the court may order indemnification or advancement of expenses under certain circumstances set forth in the statute. The statute further provides that a corporation may in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or by resolution provide indemnification in addition to that provided by statute, subject to certain conditions set forth in the statute.

Glacier's articles provide, among other things, that the personal liability of the directors and officers of the corporation for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permitted by the MBCA. Glacier's bylaws provide that the corporation shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, including indemnification for payments in settlement of actions brought against a director or officer in the name of the corporation.

(iii) Include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of the securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To file a post-effective amendment to remove from registration any of the securities that remain unsold at the end of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at the time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether or not such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(d) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means.
