United States Federal Income Tax Consequences: The Company believes that the Notes should not be treated as issued with original issue discount (OID) for United States federal income tax purposes. However, the Notes may be issued with a de minimis amount of OID. While a United States holder is generally not required to include de minimis OID in income prior to the sale or maturity of the Notes, under recently enacted legislation, United States holders that maintain certain types of financial statements and that are subject to the accrual method of tax accounting may be required to include de minimis OID on the Notes in income no later than the time upon which they include such amounts in income on their financial statements. This legislation may also affect United States holders that acquire the Notes with market discount. United States holders that maintain financial statements should consult their tax advisors regarding the tax consequences to them of this legislation.

See the discussion in the prospectus supplement under United States Federal Income Tax Consequences for further discussion of the United States federal income tax consequences of investing in the Notes.

Certain Benefit Plan Investor Considerations: Each purchaser of the Notes in this offering that is a Plan will be deemed to make the representations in the following paragraph. Each holder of the Notes or any interest therein that is a Plan and that acquires Notes in connection with this offering will be deemed to have represented by its purchase and holding of the Notes that a fiduciary (the Fiduciary) independent of the Issuer, the Agents, or any of their affiliates (the Transaction Parties) acting on the Plan's behalf is responsible for the Plan's decision to acquire and hold the Notes in this offering and that such Fiduciary:

(i) is either a U.S. bank, a U.S. insurance carrier, a U.S. registered investment adviser, a U.S. registered broker-dealer or an independent fiduciary with at least $50 million of assets under management or control, in each case under the requirements specified in the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations, 29 C.F.R. (vi) understands and has been fairly informed of the existence and the nature of the financial interests of the Transaction Parties in connection with the Plan's acquisition or holding of the Notes,

(vii) understands that the Transaction Parties are not undertaking to provide impartial investment advice, or to give advice in a fiduciary capacity to the Plan, in connection with the Plan's acquisition or holding of the Notes, and PRIIPs Regulation / Prospectus Directive / Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors: The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (EEA). Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the PRIIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.
