- (1) Pursuant to Rule 416 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), this registration statement also covers an indeterminate number of additional shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (Granite Common Stock) of Granite Construction Incorporated (Granite) as may be issuable as a result of stock splits, stock dividends or similar transactions.
- (2) Represents the maximum number of shares of Granite Common Stock estimated to be issuable as a result of the merger described in the proxy statement/prospectus contained herein. This number includes the number of shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (Layne Common Stock), of Layne Christensen Company (Layne) issuable with respect to outstanding Layne stock options and restricted stock unit awards that are or will be vested prior to the merger and that are not otherwise contractually restricted from being exercised for or settled in shares of Layne Common Stock prior to the merger as described in the proxy statement/prospectus contained herein, and assumes the full conversion of Layne s outstanding 8.0% convertible notes into shares of Layne Common Stock.
- (3) Estimated solely for the purpose of calculating the registration fee required by Section 6(b) of the Securities Act and calculated in accordance with Rule 457(f)(1), Rule 457(f)(3) and Rule 457(c) of the Securities Act as follows: the product of (a) $59.68, the average of the high and low sales prices per share of Granite Common Stock as quoted on the New York Stock Exchange on March 7, 2018, and (b) the number of shares listed under Amount To Be Registered.
- (4) Determined in accordance with Section 6(b) of the Securities Act at a rate equal to $124.50 per $1,000,000 of the proposed maximum aggregate offering price.

The Registrant hereby amends this registration statement on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay its effective date until the Registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that this registration statement shall thereafter become effective in accordance with Section 8(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 or until the registration statement shall become effective on such date as the Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to Section 8(a), may determine.

PROPOSED MERGER YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Stockholders:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of the stockholders of Layne Christensen Company, a Delaware corporation (Layne), which will be held at (Central Time), on , 2018 at , located at (the Special Meeting).

Layne, Granite Construction Incorporated, a Delaware corporation (Granite), and Lowercase Merger Sub Incorporated (Merger Sub), a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite, have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 13, 2018 (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which, among other things, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Layne, with Layne surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite (the Merger). The board of directors of each of Granite and Layne has unanimously approved the Merger.

If the Merger is completed, at the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time), each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Layne (Layne Common Stock) that is issued and outstanding will be cancelled and automatically converted into the right to receive 0.27 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Granite (Granite Common Stock).

Upon completion of the Merger, former Layne stockholders will own approximately 12% of the outstanding shares of Granite Common Stock on a fully diluted basis (excluding any shares that may subsequently be issued in connection with any conversion of the 8.0% Convertible Notes into shares of Granite Common Stock following the Merger). No fractional shares will be issued in the Merger. Layne s stockholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares.

At the Special Meeting, Layne stockholders will be asked to adopt the Merger Agreement, and approve other related proposals. Information about the Special Meeting, the Merger and other related business to be considered by Layne stockholders at the Special Meeting is included in this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge all Layne stockholders to read this proxy statement/prospectus, including the annexes, and the Layne and Granite filings incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus carefully and in their entirety. In particular, we urge you to read carefully the Risk Factors beginning on page 22.

Your vote is very important regardless of the number of shares of Layne Common Stock that you own. The Merger cannot be completed without the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the Special Meeting, please vote as soon as possible by following the instructions in this proxy statement/prospectus to make sure that your shares are represented at the Special Meeting. Your failure to vote your shares of Layne Common Stock at the Special Meeting will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. The Board of Directors of Layne unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement and FOR the other proposals described in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Shares of Layne Common Stock are listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol LAYN. Shares of Granite Common Stock are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol GVA. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for shares of Layne Common Stock and Granite Common Stock.

We appreciate your continued support and interest in Layne.

Sincerely yours,

Michael J. Caliel

President and Chief Executive Officer

Layne Christensen Company

Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders

To be Held on , 2018

To the Stockholders of Layne Christensen Company:

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of stockholders of Layne Christensen Company (Layne) will be held on , 2018 at (Central Time), at (the Special Meeting), for the following purposes:

1. to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), dated as of February 13, 2018, by and among Layne, Granite Construction Incorporated (Granite) and Lowercase Merger Sub Incorporated (Merger Sub), pursuant to which Merger Sub will be merged with and into Layne, with Layne surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite;
2. to approve, on a non-binding, advisory basis, the compensation payments that will or may be paid by Layne to its named executive officers in connection with the Merger (the compensation proposal); and
3. to approve any proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if, immediately prior to such adjournment, sufficient votes to adopt the Merger Agreement have not been obtained by Layne (the adjournment proposal).

Approval of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement is required for completion of the Merger. Neither the compensation proposal nor the adjournment proposal is a condition to the obligations of Layne or Granite to complete the Merger.

Layne will transact no other business at the Special Meeting except for the proposals set forth above or such other business as may properly be brought before the Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. Please refer to this proxy statement/prospectus, which also includes a copy of the Merger Agreement as Annex A, for further information with respect to the business to be transacted at the Special Meeting.

The Board of Directors of Layne has set _____, 2018 as the record date (the Record Date) for the Special Meeting. Only Layne stockholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date may vote at the Special Meeting and any adjournments thereof. A list of Layne stockholders entitled to vote at the Special Meeting will be available for inspection at Layne's offices in The Woodlands, Texas for any purpose relevant to the Special Meeting during normal business hours for a period of ten days before the Special Meeting and at the Special Meeting. We urge you to read carefully this proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety, including the Annexes and the documents incorporated by reference herein.

The approval of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. The compensation proposal and the adjournment proposal each require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast FOR or AGAINST by the Layne stockholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote on such proposal, although the compensation proposal vote will not be binding on Layne. Abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. Abstentions will have no effect on the adjournment proposal and compensation proposal. The Board of

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The questions and answers below highlight only selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus and are intended to briefly address some commonly asked questions about, among other things, the Special Meeting, the Merger Agreement and the Merger. The Layne Board is soliciting proxies from its stockholders to vote at the Special Meeting, to be held at _____ (Central Time), on _____, 2018 at _____, located at _____, and any adjournment or postponement of the Special Meeting.

These questions and answers do not contain all of the information that may be important to you. You should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus and the additional documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus to fully understand the matters to be acted upon and the voting procedures for the Special Meeting. You may obtain the information incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus without charge by following the instructions under Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 138 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Why have I received this proxy statement/prospectus?

A: You are receiving this proxy statement/prospectus because you were a stockholder of record of Layne on _____, 2018, the Record Date for the Special Meeting. On February 13, 2018, each of the Granite Board and the Layne Board unanimously approved the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Layne will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A, which Granite and Layne encourage you to review.

Your vote is important. In order to complete the Merger, Layne stockholders must vote to adopt the Merger Agreement. Adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock entitled to vote on this proposal.

This proxy statement/prospectus is being delivered to you as both a proxy statement of Layne and a prospectus of Granite. It is a proxy statement because the Layne Board is soliciting proxies from its stockholders to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement at the Special Meeting as well as the other matters set forth in the notice of the Special Meeting and described in this proxy statement/prospectus, and your proxy will be used at the Special Meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the Special Meeting. It is a prospectus because Granite will issue Granite Common Stock to Layne stockholders in the Merger. On or about _____, 2018, Layne intends to begin to deliver to its stockholders of record as of the close of business on the Record Date printed copies of these materials.

Q: What are the specific proposals on which I am being asked to vote at the Special Meeting?

A: Layne stockholders are being asked to vote on:

a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into Layne, with Layne surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite;

a proposal to approve, on a non-binding, advisory basis, the compensation payments that will or may be paid by Layne to its named executive officers in connection with the Merger, which we refer to herein as the compensation proposal; and a proposal to approve any proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if, immediately prior to such adjournment, sufficient votes to adopt the Merger Agreement have not been obtained by Layne, which we refer to herein as the adjournment proposal.

The adoption by Layne stockholders of the Merger Agreement is a condition to the consummation of the Merger. Neither the approval of the compensation proposal nor the approval of the Layne adjournment proposal is a condition to the Merger.

Q: What will I receive for my shares of Layne Common Stock in the Merger?

A: In the Merger, each share of Layne Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be cancelled and automatically converted into the right to receive 0.27 shares of Granite Common Stock. You will receive cash in lieu of any fractional share.

You will own shares of Granite Common Stock and will no longer own shares in Layne following the Merger. See The Merger Agreement beginning on page 98 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Where will the shares of Granite Common Stock that I receive in the Merger be traded?

A: Shares of Granite Common Stock are traded on NYSE under the symbol GVA. Granite will apply to have the new shares of Granite Common Stock issued in the Merger listed on NYSE upon consummation of the Merger.

Q: How does the Layne Board recommend that Layne stockholders vote?

A: At a meeting duly called and held on February 13, 2018, the Layne Board unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger were in the best interests of Layne and its stockholders. The Layne Board unanimously recommends that Layne stockholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, FOR the compensation proposal and FOR the adjournment proposal. See The Merger Layne Board Recommendation and its Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 71 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: When and where is the Special Meeting?

A: The Special Meeting will be held at _____ (Central Time), on _____, 2018 at _____, located at _____. For additional information about the Special Meeting, see The Special Meeting beginning on page 102 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What is a quorum for purposes of the Special Meeting?

A: A quorum of outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock is necessary to take action at the Special Meeting. Holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock entitled to vote as of the Record Date must be present, in person or by proxy, at the Special Meeting to constitute a quorum and to conduct business at the Special Meeting. Your shares are counted as present if you attend the Special Meeting in person or properly vote by telephone, over the Internet, or by submitting a properly executed proxy card by mail. The inspector of election will treat abstentions as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Q: Who can vote at the Special Meeting?

A: Holders of record at the close of business as of the Record Date of Layne Common Stock will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting. Each of the shares of Layne Common Stock issued and outstanding on the Record Date is entitled to one vote at the Special Meeting with regard to each of the proposals described above.

As of _____, 2018, the Record Date for determining stockholders of Layne entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, there were _____ shares of Layne Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, held by approximately _____ holders of record.

Q: How many votes do I have if I am a Layne stockholder?

A: Each share of Layne Common Stock that you own at the close of business on the Record Date will entitle you to one vote on each proposal presented at the Special Meeting.

Table of Contents

Q: How many votes are required to approve each proposal, and what happens if I abstain?

A: Proposal 1 Adoption of the Merger Agreement. Adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Layne Common Stock outstanding on the Record Date. Abstentions and failures to vote will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Proposal 2 Approval, on an Advisory Basis, of Certain Compensatory Arrangements with Layne Named Executive Officers. Approval of the compensation proposal requires the approval of a majority of the votes cast FOR or AGAINST by the Layne stockholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote thereon. Abstentions and failures to vote will have no effect on the compensation proposal.

Proposal 3 Adjournments of the Special Meeting. Approval of the adjournment proposal requires the approval of a majority of the votes cast FOR or AGAINST by the Layne stockholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote thereon. Abstentions and failures to vote will have no effect on the adjournment proposal.

The Layne Board unanimously recommends that Layne stockholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, FOR the compensation proposal and FOR the adjournment proposal.

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, certain of Layne's stockholders (including all of Layne's directors and named executive officers) entered into voting agreements with Granite, pursuant to which they agreed to vote, and granted Granite an irrevocable proxy to vote, their shares of Layne Common Stock in favor of the proposals to be considered at the Special Meeting, including the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. As of the Record Date, these stockholders collectively beneficially owned approximately % of the outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. If the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, these voting agreements will also terminate. A form of the voting agreements is attached hereto as Annex B. See The Voting Agreements beginning on page 122 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What will happen if all of the proposals to be considered at the Special Meeting are not approved?

A: As a condition to completion of the Merger, Layne stockholders must adopt the Merger Agreement at the Special Meeting. Completion of the Merger is not conditioned or dependent upon the approval of the compensation proposal or the adjournment proposal.

Q: Why am I being asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve, on a non-binding, advisory basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Layne's named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the Merger?

A: Under SEC rules, Layne is required to seek a non-binding, advisory vote with respect to the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Layne's named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the Merger.

Q: What happens if the compensation proposal is not approved?

A: Approval of the compensation proposal is not a condition to the completion of the Merger. The vote is a non-binding, advisory vote. If the Merger is completed, Layne will be obligated to pay all or a portion of this compensation to its named executive officers in connection with the Merger or certain terminations or cessations of employment following the Merger, even if Layne stockholders fail to approve the compensation proposal.

Q: If I own Layne RSUs or Layne PSUs as of the Record Date issued pursuant to the Layne Equity Plan, will I be able to vote on the matters to be voted upon at the Special Meeting?

A: No. Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs do not carry any rights to vote at a meeting of Layne stockholders.

Q: If I am a Layne stockholder and my shares of Layne Common Stock are held in street name by a broker, bank or other nominee, how do I vote my shares?

A: If your shares are held in an account at a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee, then you are the beneficial owner of shares held in street name and this proxy statement/prospectus is being sent to you by that organization. The organization holding your account is considered to be the stockholder of record for purposes of voting at the Special Meeting. As a beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker or other agent regarding how to vote the shares in your account by following the instructions that the broker, bank or other nominee provides you along with this proxy statement/prospectus. Your nominee or intermediary will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote by properly completing the voting instruction form sent to you by your nominee or intermediary with this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Who can attend the Special Meeting?

A: Stockholders of record, or their duly authorized proxies, may attend the Special Meeting. To gain admittance, you must present valid picture identification, such as a driver's license or passport. If you hold shares in street name (through a broker, bank or other nominee) and wish to attend the Special Meeting, you will also need to bring a copy of a brokerage statement (in a name matching your photo identification) reflecting your stock ownership as of the Record Date. If you are a representative of a corporate or institutional stockholder, you must present valid photo identification along with proof that you are a representative of such stockholder.

Please note that use of cameras, recording devices and other electronic devices will not be permitted at the Special Meeting.

Regardless of whether you intend to attend the Special Meeting, you are encouraged to vote your shares of Layne Common Stock as promptly as possible. Voting your shares will not impact your ability to attend the Special Meeting.

Q: How do I vote my shares?

A: If you are a Layne stockholder of record, you may vote by mail, by telephone, over the Internet or in person at the Special Meeting. Votes submitted by mail, by telephone or over the Internet must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on _____, 2018.

Voting by Telephone or over the Internet. To vote by telephone or over the Internet, please follow the instructions included on your proxy card. If you vote by telephone or over the Internet, you do not need to complete and mail a proxy card.

Voting by Mail. By signing the proxy card and returning it in the enclosed prepaid and addressed envelope, you are authorizing the individuals named on the proxy card to vote your shares at the Special Meeting in the manner you indicate. If you receive more than one proxy card, it is an indication that your shares are held in multiple accounts. Please sign and return all proxy cards to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

We encourage you to vote by telephone, over the Internet or to sign and return the proxy card even if you plan to attend the Special Meeting so that your shares will be voted if you are unable to attend the Special Meeting.

Voting in Person at the Meeting. If your shares are registered directly in your name, you are considered the stockholder of record and you have the right to vote in person at the Special Meeting. If you attend the Special Meeting and plan to vote in person, we will provide you with a ballot at the Special Meeting.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have delivered my proxy?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the Special Meeting.

If you are a Layne stockholder of record, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the Special Meeting. To revoke your proxy, you must:

enter a new vote by telephone or over the Internet by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on _____, 2018;

sign and return another proxy card, which must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on _____, 2018;

provide written notice of the revocation to Layne's Secretary at: Layne Christensen Company, Attention: Senior Vice President, Chief Administrative Officer and General Counsel, 1800 Hughes Landing Blvd., Ste. 800, The Woodlands, Texas 77380, which must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on _____, 2018; or attend the Special Meeting and vote in person.

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in street name by a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee, you should follow the instructions of your bank, broker or other nominee regarding the revocation of proxies.

Q: What if I receive more than one proxy card?

A: If you receive more than one proxy card, your shares of Layne Common Stock are registered in more than one name or are registered in different accounts. Please complete, date, sign and return each appropriate proxy card to ensure that all your shares are voted.

Q: How will Layne's outstanding convertible notes be treated in the Merger?

A: Layne currently has outstanding 4.25% Convertible Notes and 8.0% Convertible Notes. Both the 4.25% Convertible Notes and the 8.0% Convertible Notes will remain outstanding following completion of the Merger. However, following completion of the Merger, the 8.0% Convertible Notes will no longer be convertible into shares of Layne Common Stock but instead will become convertible into a number of shares of Granite Common Stock based on the Exchange Ratio. Under the indenture that governs the 4.25% Convertible Notes, Layne has the option to settle the conversion of any 4.25% Convertible Notes in cash, shares of Layne Common Stock or a combination of both. Upon completion of the Merger, Granite will cause its wholly owned subsidiary, Layne, to irrevocably waive the right to settle the 4.25% Convertible Notes in stock, meaning that following the Merger, the 4.25% Convertible Notes will no longer be convertible into Layne Common Stock and will be settled only in cash. The amount of cash to be paid upon conversion of each $1,000 principal amount of 4.25% Convertible Notes will equal the value, as of the conversion date, of a number of shares of Granite Common Stock equal to (a) the current conversion rate of the 4.25% Convertible Notes, which is 43.6072, multiplied by (b) the Exchange Ratio. Assuming the value of one share of Granite Common Stock on the date of conversion is equal to $ _____, the closing price of shares of Granite Common Stock on NYSE on the last practicable trading day before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, then each $1,000 of 4.25% Convertible Notes would be convertible into $ _____.

Q: Are Granite stockholders voting on the Merger?

A: No. No vote of Granite stockholders is required to complete the Merger.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates (or evidence of shares in book-entry form) with my proxy card?

A: No. Please do NOT send your Layne stock certificates (or evidence of shares in book-entry form) with your proxy card. After the Merger is consummated, you will receive written instructions for exchanging your shares of Layne Common Stock for the Merger Consideration.

Q: When is the Merger expected to be completed?

A: Granite and Layne are working toward completing the Merger as expeditiously as possible and currently expect the Merger to be completed in _____, 2018. However, Granite and Layne cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the Merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the Merger will be completed.

As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the Merger Agreement, the completion of the Merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. These conditions include, among others, (a) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the holders of a majority of Layne Common Stock entitled to vote on such matter, (b) the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act, (c) the effectiveness of the registration statement (of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part) relating to the issuance of the shares of Granite Common Stock to be issued in the Merger, (d) the approval for listing by NYSE, subject to notice of issuance, of the shares of Granite Common Stock to be issued in the Merger and (e) the absence of any law or regulation that prohibits the completion of the Merger. Each party's obligation to complete the Merger is also subject to the material accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party in the Merger Agreement and the compliance in all material respects with covenants of the other party in the Merger Agreement and (e) the absence of a material adverse effect (as described in The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 100 of this proxy statement/prospectus) on the other party. The Merger Agreement does not include a financing condition.

Q: Are there risks associated with the Merger that I should consider in deciding how to vote?

A: Yes. There are a number of risks related to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement that are discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the documents incorporated by reference or referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus. Please read with particular care the detailed description of the risks described in Risk Factors beginning on page 22 of this proxy statement/prospectus and in Layne's and Granite's respective filings with the SEC referred to in Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 138 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. holders of Layne Common Stock?

A: Layne and Granite intend that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The obligations of Layne and Granite to complete the Merger are subject to, among other conditions described in this proxy statement/prospectus, the receipt by Layne of the Layne Tax Opinion and by Granite of the Granite Tax Opinion, each to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. However, neither Layne nor Granite intends to request a ruling from the IRS regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the IRS will not challenge the conclusion that the Merger qualifies for the Intended Tax Treatment or that a court would not sustain such a challenge.

Assuming the Merger qualifies for the Intended Tax Treatment, U.S. Holders (as defined in the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences below) will not recognize any gain or loss upon the receipt of shares of Granite Common Stock in the Merger, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Granite

Common Stock.

Each U.S. holder of Layne Common Stock should read the discussion under Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences and should consult its own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the Merger to such stockholder.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After carefully reading and considering the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, please respond by completing, signing and dating the appropriate proxy card or voting instruction card and returning it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope, or by submitting your voting instruction electronically via the Internet or by telephone, as soon as possible so that your shares of Layne Common Stock may be represented and voted at the Special Meeting. In addition, you may also vote your shares in person at the Special Meeting. If you hold shares registered in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee, that broker, bank or other nominee has enclosed, or will provide, instructions for directing your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote those shares.

Q: Who can help answer my questions?

A: If you are a Layne stockholder and have any questions about the Merger or how to submit your proxy or if you need additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus or the enclosed proxy card, you should contact the firm assisting us with the solicitation:

SUMMARY

*This summary highlights selected information described in more detail elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated herein by reference and may not contain all of the information that is important to you. To understand the Merger and the other matters to be voted on by Layne stockholders at the Special Meeting more fully, and to obtain a more complete description of the terms of the Merger Agreement, you should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the Annexes, and the documents to which Granite and Layne refer you. You may obtain the information incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus without charge by following the instructions in the section entitled Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 138 of this proxy statement/prospectus. Granite and Layne have included page references parenthetically to direct you to a more complete description of the topics presented in this summary.*

The Companies (see pages 32 and 33)

Layne Christensen Company

Layne is a leading global water management and services company, with more than 130 years of industry experience, providing responsible, sustainable, integrated solutions to address the world's water, minerals and infrastructure challenges. Layne's customers include government agencies, investor-owned utilities, industrial companies, global mining companies, engineering and consulting firms, oil and gas companies, power companies and agribusiness.

For its customers, Layne manages water throughout its lifecycle, including supply, treatment, delivery, maintenance and rehabilitation. Throughout each phase, Layne works to ensure compliance with complex state and federal regulations, and to meet increasingly high demand for quality, reliability and efficiency. Layne's mineral services teams extract representative samples that accurately reflect the underlying mineral deposits for Layne's global mining customers. Layne operates its business in three segments: Water Resources, Inliner and Mineral Services.

Layne operates on a geographically dispersed basis with approximately 52 sales and operations offices located throughout North America, Brazil and through affiliates in Latin America.

Shares of Layne Common Stock are traded on Nasdaq under the symbol LAYN.

The Merger (see page 60)

The Granite Board and the Layne Board have each unanimously approved the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite, will merge with and into Layne, with Layne surviving the Merger. As a result of the Merger, Layne will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite.

At the Special Meeting to be held at _____ (Central Time), on _____, 2018 at _____, located at _____, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Layne stockholders are receiving this proxy statement/prospectus in connection with Layne's solicitation of proxies for the Special Meeting.

The Merger Agreement (see page 98)

A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus. Granite and Layne encourage you to read the entire Merger Agreement carefully because it is the principal document governing the Merger.

The Voting Agreements (see page 122)

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, the Voting Stockholders entered into the Voting Agreements with Granite. Pursuant to the Voting Agreements, the Voting Stockholders agreed to vote, and granted Granite an irrevocable proxy to vote, their shares of Layne Common Stock in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and against, among other things, any alternative acquisition proposal. The Voting Agreements provide that the Voting Stockholders will not sell their shares of Layne Common Stock prior to the consummation of the Merger (or earlier termination of the Merger Agreement).

As of the Record Date, the Voting Stockholders, collectively, beneficially owned approximately _____ % of the outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. If the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, these Voting Agreements will also terminate.

Merger Consideration and Value (see page 99)

At the Effective Time, each share of Layne Common Stock then issued and outstanding (other than shares (a) held in treasury of Layne or (b) directly or indirectly owned by Granite, Merger Sub or a wholly owned subsidiary of Layne) will be cancelled and converted into 0.27 validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of Granite Common Stock. No fractional shares of Granite Common Stock will be issued in the Merger and Layne's stockholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional share. Granite expects that it will issue approximately 5.4 million shares of Granite Common Stock in the Merger, excluding any shares that may subsequently be issued in connection with conversion of Layne's outstanding 8.0% Convertible Notes.

Based on the closing price of shares of Granite Common Stock on NYSE on the last practicable trading day before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the Merger Consideration represented $ _____ in value for each share of Layne Common Stock.

The Layne Board's Reasons for the Merger (see page 71)

At a meeting duly called and held on February 13, 2018, the Layne Board unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger were in the best interests of Layne and its stockholders. The Layne Board unanimously recommends that Layne stockholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, FOR the compensation proposal and FOR the adjournment proposal. In the course of reaching its decision to approve the Merger Agreement, the Layne Board considered a number of factors in its deliberations. Those factors are described in The Merger Layne Board Recommendation and its Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 71 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Layne (see page 74)

On February 13, 2018, at a meeting of the Layne Board held to evaluate the Merger, Greentech delivered to the Layne Board an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated February 13, 2018, to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and subject to the various assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered, and limitations of the review undertaken, qualifications contained and other matters set forth therein, the Exchange Ratio of 0.27 was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Layne Common Stock (excluding shares owned by Layne as treasury stock, or shares that are owned directly or indirectly by Granite, Merger Sub or any wholly-owned subsidiary of Layne, Granite or Merger Sub).

The full text of Greentech's written opinion to the Layne Board, which describes, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations on the review undertaken, qualifications contained and other matters set forth therein, is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as

Annex C and is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety. The following summary of Greentech's opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Greentech delivered its opinion to the Layne Board for the benefit and use of the Layne Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for purposes of its evaluation of the Merger. Greentech's opinion does not address any other aspect of the Merger other than the fairness of the Exchange Ratio, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Layne Common Stock (excluding shares owned by Layne as treasury stock, or shares that are owned directly or indirectly by Granite, Merger Sub or any wholly-owned subsidiary of Layne, Granite or Merger Sub), and no opinion or view was expressed as to the relative merits of the Merger in comparison to other strategies or transactions that might be available to Layne or in which Layne might engage or as to the underlying business decision of Layne to proceed with or effect the Merger. Greentech's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the Layne Board as to how the Layne Board should vote on the Merger or to any stockholder of Layne as to how any such stockholder should vote at any stockholders' meeting at which the Merger is considered, or whether or not any stockholder of Layne should enter into a voting, shareholders', or affiliates' agreement with respect to the Merger or exercise any dissenter's or appraisal rights that may be applicable to such stockholder.

Treatment of Layne Stock Options, Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs (see page 99)Layne Stock Options

Each Layne Stock Option that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (whether vested or unvested) shall, immediately prior to the Effective Time, automatically and without any action on the part of any holder of any Layne Stock Option be cancelled and, in exchange therefor, converted into the right to receive an amount of cash, if any, equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Layne Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of the Layne Stock Option, multiplied by (b) the excess, if any, of (1) the Layne Equity Award Consideration, over (2) the exercise price of the Layne Stock Option. Such cash amount, net of applicable withholding tax, will be paid to the holder as soon as practicable following the Effective Time.

Layne RSUs

Each Layne RSU that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (whether vested or unvested) shall automatically and without any action on the part of any holder of any Layne RSU, be cancelled and, in exchange therefor, converted into the right to receive an amount of cash (without interest) equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Layne Common Stock in respect of the Layne RSU, multiplied by (b) the Layne Equity Award Consideration. Such cash amount, net of applicable withholding tax, will be paid to the holder at the earliest time permitted under the terms of the award such that it does not result in tax penalties.

Layne PSUs

Each Layne PSU that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, immediately prior to the Effective Time, vest, and the underlying number of shares of Layne Common Stock earned be determined based on the maximum level of achievement of the applicable performance goals.

All Layne PSUs that are vested immediately prior to the Effective Time (including the Layne PSUs that vest pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement) shall automatically and without any action on the part of any holder of any Layne PSU, be cancelled and, in exchange therefor, converted into the right to receive an amount of cash (without interest) equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Layne Common Stock earned in respect of the Layne PSU, multiplied by (b) the Layne Equity Award Consideration. Such cash amount, net of applicable withholding tax, will be paid to the holder as soon as practicable following the Effective Time, such that it does not result in tax penalties.

Interests of Layne Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (see page 87)

You should be aware that the directors and executive officers of Layne will have interests in the Merger that may be different from or in addition to those of Layne's stockholders generally. These interests include, but are not limited to, the treatment in the Merger of Layne's equity compensation awards (including the acceleration of Layne Stock Options, Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs), severance agreements and other rights that may be held by Layne's directors and executive officers, and the indemnification of current and former Layne directors and officers by the Surviving Corporation. The Layne Board was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in reaching its decision to approve the Merger Agreement and recommend that Layne's stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement.

Conditions to the Merger (see page 100)

Granite and Layne currently expect to complete the Merger in _____, 2018, subject to receipt of required stockholder and regulatory approvals and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the Merger. As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the Merger Agreement, each party's obligation to complete the Merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or waived, including the following:

the Merger Agreement must have been adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock;

the waiting period (and any extension thereof) applicable to the Merger under the HSR Act must have expired or termination thereof must have been granted;

no temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order issued by any governmental authority or court of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the consummation of the Merger may be in effect; nor may there be any statute, rule, regulation or order enacted, entered, or enforced that prevents or prohibits the consummation of the Merger;

the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part must have been declared effective by the SEC and must not be the subject of any stop order, and no proceedings for such purposes may be pending before or threatened by the SEC; and the shares of Granite Common Stock to be issued to the holders of shares of Layne Common Stock in the Merger must have been approved for listing on NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance.

The obligation of Granite and Merger Sub to complete the Merger is subject to the following additional conditions:

the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Layne, subject to certain materiality standards (as described under The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 100 of this proxy statement/prospectus); performance by Layne in all material respects of its obligations under the Merger Agreement;

the absence of a Layne material adverse effect (as described under The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 100 of this proxy statement/prospectus);

the receipt of an officer's certificate certifying that the foregoing conditions have been satisfied; and the receipt of an opinion from Jones Day, or if Jones Day is unable or unwilling to deliver this opinion, from Latham & Watkins LLP, dated as of the closing, to the effect that the Merger will qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

The obligation of Layne to complete the Merger is subject to the following additional conditions:

the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Granite and Merger Sub, subject to certain materiality standards (as described under The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 100 of this proxy statement/prospectus); performance by Granite and Merger Sub in all material respects of its obligations under the Merger Agreement;

the absence of a Granite material adverse effect (as described under The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 100 of this proxy statement/prospectus);

the receipt of an officer's certificate certifying that the foregoing conditions have been satisfied; and the receipt of an opinion from Latham & Watkins, or if Latham & Watkins is unable or unwilling to deliver this opinion, from Jones Day, dated as of the closing, to the effect that the Merger will qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Granite Board Following the Merger (see page 118)

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Granite will expand the size of the Granite Board and designate one non-employee director of Layne who is a director prior to the Effective Time to fill such vacancy. That designee will serve until Granite's 2019 annual meeting of stockholders or such person's earlier death, retirement, resignation or removal by Granite's stockholders.

Regulatory Approvals Required to Complete the Merger (see page 95)

Granite and Layne have agreed to cooperate and use reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. For an acquisition transaction meeting certain size thresholds, such as the Merger, the HSR Act requires the parties to file notification and report forms with the Antitrust Division of the DOJ and the FTC and to observe specified waiting period requirements before completing the Merger. Granite and Layne filed the required notifications with the Antitrust Division of the DOJ and the FTC. On March 12, 2018, the FTC granted early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act.

Granite and Layne may terminate the Merger Agreement at any time before the Effective Time under the following circumstances:

by mutual written consent of Granite and Layne at any time prior to the Effective Time whether before or after Layne's stockholders have adopted the Merger Agreement;

if the Merger is not consummated on or before September 30, 2018; provided, however, that this right to terminate the Merger Agreement will not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under the Merger Agreement caused the failure of the Effective Time to occur on or before September 30, 2018;

if any governmental authority shall have (a) enacted, issued, promulgated or enforced any law that makes consummation of the Merger illegal or otherwise prohibited or (b) enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any order which has the effect of making the consummation of the Merger illegal or otherwise preventing or prohibiting consummation of the Merger; or if the Special Meeting (including any adjournment or postponement thereof) has concluded, Layne's stockholders have voted and approval was not obtained; provided, however, that the right to terminate the Merger Agreement shall not be available to Layne if it has not materially complied with certain of the covenants relating to the conduct of its business and the proxy statement and the holding of the Special Meeting.

In addition, Layne may terminate the Merger Agreement at any time prior to the Effective Time under the following circumstances:

if there should have occurred any effects, events, occurrences, developments, state of facts or changes that, individually or in the aggregate, have had or would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Granite material adverse effect (as described in The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 100 of this proxy statement/prospectus), or Granite has breached any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the Merger Agreement, or if any representation or warranty of Granite has become untrue, in each case, such that the conditions to closing relating to the accuracy of Granite's representations and warranties or the performance by Granite of its obligations under the Merger Agreement could not be satisfied as of the earlier of September 30, 2018 or the date that is 30 days following written notice thereof; provided, however, Layne may not terminate the Merger Agreement if Layne is then in material breach of any representation, warranty or covenant of Layne; or

prior to adoption of the Merger Agreement by Layne's stockholders, in order to enter into a definitive written agreement providing for a superior proposal in compliance with the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement.

In addition, Granite may terminate the Merger Agreement at any time prior to the Effective Time under the following circumstances:

if there should have occurred any effects, events, occurrences, developments, state of facts or changes that, individually or in the aggregate, have had or would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Layne material adverse effect (as described in The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 100 of this proxy statement/prospectus), or Layne has breached any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the Merger Agreement, or if any representation or warranty of Layne has become untrue, in each case, such that the conditions to closing relating to the accuracy of Layne's representations and warranties or the performance by Layne of its obligations under the Merger Agreement could not be satisfied as of the earlier of September 30, 2018 or the date that is 30 days following written notice thereof; provided, however, neither Granite nor Merger Sub may terminate the Merger Agreement if Granite or Merger Sub is then in material breach of any representation, warranty or covenant of Granite or Merger Sub, as applicable;

if Layne (a) withdraws, modifies or qualifies in a manner adverse to Granite or Merger Sub the Layne Board's recommendation of the Merger or the approval or declaration of advisability by the Layne Board of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (including the Merger) or (b) approve or recommend, or resolve to or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any acquisition proposal;

the Layne Board or any committee thereof (a) has not rejected any acquisition proposal within seven days of the making thereof (including, for these purposes, by taking no position with respect to the acceptance by Layne's stockholders of a tender offer or exchange offer, which shall constitute a failure to reject such acquisition proposal) or (b) has failed, pursuant to Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act or otherwise, to publicly reconfirm the Layne Board's recommendation of the Merger within four days after receipt of a written request from Granite that it do so if such request is made following the making by any person of an acquisition proposal; or

Layne has violated or breached in any material respect any of its obligations in the no solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement described under No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals.

In some cases, termination of the Merger Agreement may require Layne to pay a termination fee to Granite as described below.

No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals (see page 103)

The Merger Agreement contains detailed provisions prohibiting Layne from seeking an alternative transaction to the Merger. Under these no solicitation provisions, Layne has agreed that, from the time of the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement until the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, Layne will not, and will cause its subsidiaries and its directors, officers, employees, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants or other advisors, agents or representatives to not:

solicit, initiate, cause or knowingly facilitate or encourage (including by way of furnishing information) the submission of any inquiries, proposals or offers or any other efforts or attempts that constitute or may reasonably be expected to lead to any acquisition proposal (as described under The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals beginning on page 103 of this proxy statement/prospectus);

engage in any discussions or negotiations or otherwise cooperate with or assist or participate in, or knowingly facilitate or encourage, any inquiries, proposals, discussions or negotiations of any acquisition proposal or resolve to or publicly propose to take any of the above actions;

approve or recommend, or resolve to or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any acquisition proposal;

enter into any Merger Agreement, agreement-in-principle, letter of intent, share purchase agreement, asset purchase agreement, share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement relating to an acquisition proposal or enter into any letter of intent, agreement or agreement-in-principle requiring Layne (whether or not subject to conditions) to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the Merger;

withdraw, modify or qualify in a manner adverse to Granite or Merger Sub the Layne Board's recommendation regarding the Merger Agreement, or the approval or declaration of advisability by the Layne Board of the Merger Agreement, as well as the Merger and the other transactions contemplated in connection with the Merger; or approve or recommend, or resolve to or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any acquisition proposal.

Notwithstanding these restrictions, the Merger Agreement also provides that if, at any time after execution of the Merger Agreement, Layne receives a bona fide acquisition proposal which did not result from a breach of the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement, Layne is permitted to contact the person or group of persons who made the acquisition proposal to clarify terms for the sole purpose of the Layne Board informing itself about such acquisition proposal. In the event that the Layne Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor(s) and outside legal counsel, that such acquisition proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal (as described under The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals beginning on page 103 of this proxy statement/prospectus) and that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law, then Layne is also permitted to:

furnish confidential information with respect to Layne and its subsidiaries to the person making such acquisition proposal; and participate in discussions or negotiations with the person making such acquisition proposal regarding such acquisition proposal.

Layne has also agreed in the Merger Agreement that it will promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) notify Granite, orally and in writing, if Layne, its subsidiaries or any of their respective representatives receives any (a) acquisition proposal or indication by any person that it is considering making an acquisition proposal, (b) request for non-public information in contemplation of an acquisition proposal, or (c) inquiry or request for discussions or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal. Such notice must include the identity of the person making the proposal, offer, request or inquiry and the other material terms and conditions of any such proposal or offer and copies of all relevant documents relating thereto. In addition, Layne has agreed to keep Granite reasonably informed on a current basis (and in any event no later than 24 hours after the occurrence of any material changes, developments, discussions or negotiations) as to the status of any acquisition proposal, indication, inquiry or request (including the material terms and conditions thereof and of any material modification thereto), and any developments, discussions and negotiations, including furnishing copies of any written inquiries, correspondence and draft documentation, and written summaries of any oral inquiries or discussions.

In addition, the Layne Board may, at any time after the date of the Merger Agreement and prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Layne's stockholders, in response to a superior proposal that did not result from a breach of the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement, effect an adverse recommendation change (as described in The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 100 of this proxy statement/prospectus) and/or terminate the Merger Agreement to accept the superior proposal (after paying the termination fee as described below) if the Layne Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor(s) and outside legal counsel, that failing to take any such action would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law, and if certain other conditions which are described elsewhere in the Merger Agreement and in this proxy statement/prospectus are satisfied. In such an event, Layne may be required to pay Granite a termination fee of $16.0 million.

Further, the Layne Board may, at any time after the date of the Merger Agreement and prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Layne's stockholders, in response to an intervening event (as described in The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals beginning on page 103 of this proxy statement/prospectus) that did not result from a breach of the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement, effect an adverse recommendation if the Layne Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that in light of the existence of such intervening event, the failure to make an adverse recommendation change would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Expenses, Termination Fee Relating to the Merger (see page 110)

Generally, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement will be paid by the party incurring those fees and expenses. Following termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, Layne may be required to pay Granite a termination fee of $16.0 million.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (see page 97)

Granite prepares its financial statements in accordance with GAAP. The Merger will be accounted for by Granite as a business combination under the acquisition method of accounting, and Granite will be treated as the acquirer for accounting purposes.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences (see page 124)

Layne and Granite intend that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The obligations of Layne and Granite to complete the Merger are subject to, among other conditions described in this proxy statement/prospectus, the receipt by Layne of the Layne Tax Opinion and by Granite of the Granite Tax Opinion, each to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. However, neither Layne nor Granite intends to request a ruling from the IRS regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the IRS will not challenge that conclusion that the Merger qualifies for the Intended Tax Treatment or that a court would not sustain such a challenge.

Assuming the Merger qualifies for the Intended Tax Treatment, U.S. Holders (as defined in the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences below) will not recognize any gain or loss upon the receipt of shares of Granite Common Stock in the Merger, except with respect to cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Granite Common Stock.

Each U.S. holder of Layne Common Stock should read the discussion under Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences and should consult its own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the Merger to such stockholder.

Comparison of the Rights of Holders of Granite Common Stock and Layne Common Stock (see page 127)

As a result of the completion of the Merger, holders of Layne Common Stock will become holders of Granite Common Stock. Each of Granite and Layne is a Delaware corporation governed by the DGCL, but the rights of Granite stockholders currently are, and from and after the Merger will be, governed by the Granite Charter and the Granite Bylaws, while the rights of Layne stockholders are currently governed by the Layne Charter and the Layne Bylaws. This proxy statement/prospectus includes summaries of the material differences between the rights of Granite stockholders and Layne stockholders arising because of difference in the charters and bylaws of the two companies.

Section 262 of the DGCL provides that stockholders have the right, in some circumstances, to dissent from certain corporate actions and to instead demand payment of the fair value of their shares. Stockholders do not have appraisal rights with respect to shares of any class or series of stock if such shares of stock, or depositary receipts in respect thereof, are either (a) listed on a national securities exchange or (b) held of record by more than 2,000 holders, unless the stockholders receive in exchange for their shares anything other than shares of stock of the surviving or resulting corporation (or depositary receipts in respect thereof), or of any other corporation that is publicly listed or held by more than 2,000 holders of record, cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depositary receipts described above or any combination of the foregoing. Therefore, because shares of Layne Common Stock are listed on Nasdaq, and the Merger Consideration consists of only shares of Granite Common Stock, which will be publicly listed on NYSE, and cash in lieu of fractional shares, holders of Layne Common Stock are not entitled to appraisal rights in the Merger with respect to their shares of Layne Common Stock.

Holders of record of Layne Common Stock at the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting with regard to the proposals to be considered at that meeting. On the Record Date, there were _____ shares of Layne Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, held by approximately _____ holders of record. Each share of Layne Common Stock issued and outstanding on the Record Date is entitled to one vote on each proposal to be voted upon at the Special Meeting.

As of the Record Date, Layne's directors and Executives, and their affiliates, as a group, owned and were entitled to vote _____ shares of Layne Common Stock, or approximately _____% of the outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock. As of the Record Date, Wynnefield Capital Management, LLC and certain of its affiliates, as a group, owned and were entitled to vote _____ shares of Layne Common Stock, or approximately _____% of the outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock. To be approved, the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders a majority of the shares of Layne Common Stock outstanding on the Record Date, and each of the compensation proposal and adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast FOR or AGAINST by the Layne stockholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting. In connection with the Merger, the Voting Stockholders have entered into Voting Agreements with Granite. The Voting Agreements provide, among other things, that the Voting Stockholders will not sell their shares of Layne Common Stock prior to the consummation of the Merger (or earlier termination of the Merger Agreement). See The Voting Agreements beginning on page 122 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Table of ContentsSUMMARY OF HISTORICAL AND PRO FORMA FINANCIAL DATA*Summary Historical Consolidated Financial Data of Granite

The following table presents summary historical consolidated financial and operating data for Granite as of and for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2017, 2016, 2015, 2014, and 2013. Comparative Market Value of Common Stock

Granite Common Stock are traded on NYSE under the symbol GVA and shares of Layne Common Stock are traded on Nasdaq under the symbol LAYN. The following table shows the closing prices per share of Granite Common Stock and Layne Common Stock as reported on February 13, 2018, the final trading day prior to the public announcement of the Merger, and on [], 2018, the latest practicable date prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. This table also shows the implied value of the Merger Consideration for each share of Layne Common Stock, which was calculated by multiplying the closing price of Granite Common Stock on the relevant date by the Exchange Ratio for each share of Layne Common Stock.

	Closing Price of Granite Common Stock	Closing Price of Layne Common Stock	Implied Value of Merger Consideration
As of February 13, 2018	$ 60.08	$ 12.62	$ 16.22
As of [], 2018	$ []	$ []	$ []

The market price of Granite Common Stock and Layne Common Stock will fluctuate prior to the Special Meeting and before the Merger is consummated, which will affect the implied value of the Merger Consideration paid to Layne stockholders.

RISK FACTORS

*In addition to the other information included in and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, you should carefully read and consider the following risk factors in evaluating the proposals to be voted on at the Special Meeting and in determining whether to vote for adoption of the Merger Agreement. If the Merger Agreement is adopted by Layne stockholders and all of the other conditions to the Merger are satisfied or waived, and the Merger is consummated, holders of Layne Common Stock will become holders of Granite Common Stock and will be subject to the risks and uncertainties of holders thereof. Please also refer to the additional risk factors of each of Granite and Layne identified in the periodic reports and other documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 138 of this proxy statement/prospectus.*

Risks Related to the Merger

Because the market price of Granite Common Stock will fluctuate, Layne's stockholders cannot be certain of the value of the Merger Consideration that they will be entitled to receive in the Merger.

Upon consummation of the Merger, each share of Layne Common Stock then issued and outstanding will be cancelled and automatically converted into the right to receive 0.27 shares of Granite Common Stock. Granite will not issue any fractional shares of Granite Common Stock in the Merger. Holders of Layne Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of Granite Common Stock will receive a cash payment in lieu of any fractional share. See Unaudited Comparative Per Share Data and Comparative Market Value of Common Stock and Dividend Information beginning on pages 46 and 47, respectively.

The Merger Agreement does not provide for any termination right by either Granite or Layne solely based on changes in the price or trading volume of Granite Common Stock or Layne Common Stock. Fluctuations in the market price of Granite Common Stock could result from changes in the business, operations or prospects of Layne or Granite prior to consummation of the Merger or the combined company following the completion of the Merger, regulatory considerations, general market and economic conditions and other factors both within and beyond the control of Layne or Granite.

The issuance of Granite Common Stock in connection with the Merger could decrease the market price of Granite Common Stock.

Upon consummation of the Merger, Granite expects to issue approximately 5.4 million shares of Granite Common Stock, or approximately 12% of the number of shares of Granite Common Stock outstanding as of February 13, 2018, the last trading day prior to the public announcement of the Merger Agreement, to Layne stockholders in the Merger. This does not include any shares of Granite Common Stock that may become issuable upon conversion of the 8.0% Convertible Notes. The issuance of Granite Common Stock in the Merger may result in fluctuations in the market price of Granite Common Stock, including a stock price decline.

The shares of Granite Common Stock to be received by Layne stockholders as a result of the Merger will have different rights from the shares of Layne Common Stock.

Upon consummation of the Merger, Layne stockholders will become Granite stockholders, and their rights as stockholders will be governed by the Granite Charter and the Granite Bylaws. Certain of the rights associated with Granite Common Stock are different from, and may be viewed as less favorable than, the rights associated with Layne Common Stock. See Comparison of Rights of Holders of Granite Common Stock and Layne Common Stock beginning on page 127 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a discussion of the different rights associated with Granite Common Stock.

Granite and Layne may be unable to satisfy the conditions to the Merger and the Merger may not be consummated.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to various closing conditions, including, among other things, (a) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Layne's stockholders, (b) the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act, (c) the receipt of an opinion of counsel by both Granite and Layne, dated as of the closing, to the effect that the Merger will qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and (d) the absence of any legal restraints or prohibitions on the consummation of the Merger. The obligation of each party to consummate the Merger is also conditioned upon the other party's representations and warranties being true and correct (subject to certain materiality exceptions), the other party having performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement and the other party not having suffered a material adverse effect (as described in The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 100 of this proxy statement/prospectus).

These and other conditions to consummation of the Merger may fail to be satisfied. In addition, satisfying the conditions to the Merger may take longer, and could cost more, than Layne and Granite expect. For a more complete summary of the conditions that must be satisfied or waived prior to consummation of the Merger, see the section entitled The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 100 of this proxy statement/prospectus. The satisfaction of all of the required conditions could delay the completion of the Merger for a significant period of time or prevent it from occurring. Any delay in completing the Merger could cause Granite not to realize some or all of the benefits that Granite expects to achieve if the Merger is successfully consummated within its expected timeframe. Further, there can be no assurance that the conditions to the Merger will be satisfied or waived or that the Merger will be consummated. See Failure to complete the Merger could negatively impact the stock price and the future business and financial results of Granite and Layne.

Layne must obtain approval of its stockholders to consummate the Merger, which, if delayed or not obtained, may jeopardize or delay the consummation of the Merger.

The Merger is conditioned on the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock entitled to vote thereon. If Layne stockholders do not adopt the Merger Agreement, then Layne and Granite cannot consummate the Merger.

Regulatory approvals that are required to consummate the Merger may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated.

Under the provisions of the HSR Act, the Merger may not be consummated until notification and report forms have been filed with the Antitrust Division of the DOJ and the FTC and the expiration of a 30 calendar day waiting period (unless the waiting period is set to expire on a weekend or federal holiday, in which case the waiting period is automatically extended until 11:59 p.m. of the next business day), or the early termination of that waiting period, following the parties' filing of their respective notification and report forms. On February 28, 2018, Layne and Granite filed their respective notification and report forms under the HSR Act with the Antitrust Division of the DOJ and the FTC. Although the FTC granted early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act on March 12, 2018, parties who may be adversely affected by the Merger may bring legal actions under the antitrust laws in certain circumstances.

In addition, private parties who may be adversely affected by the Merger and individual states may bring legal actions under the antitrust laws in certain circumstances. Although the parties believe the completion of the Merger will not likely be prevented by antitrust law, there can be no assurance that a challenge to the Merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if a challenge is made, what the result will be. Under the Merger Agreement, Layne and Granite have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory clearances necessary to complete the Merger as promptly as reasonably practicable. In addition, in order to complete the Merger, Granite and Layne may be required to comply with conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions imposed by regulatory entities and such conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions may have the effect of delaying completion of the Merger, imposing additional material costs on or materially limiting the revenues of Granite after the completion of the Merger, or otherwise reducing the anticipated benefits to Granite of the Merger. In addition, such conditions, terms, obligations or restrictions may result in the delay or abandonment of the Merger.

The announcement and pendency of the Merger could have an adverse effect on Layne's stock price, business, financial condition, results of operations or business prospects.

The announcement and pendency of the Merger could disrupt Layne's business in the following ways, among others:

Layne employees may experience uncertainty regarding their future roles with Granite, which might adversely affect Layne's ability to retain, recruit and motivate key personnel;

the attention of Layne's management may be directed towards consummating the Merger and transaction-related considerations and may be diverted from the day-to-day business operations of Layne, and matters related to the Merger may require commitments of time and resources that could otherwise have been devoted to other opportunities that might have been beneficial to Layne; and customers, suppliers and other third parties with business relationships with Layne may decide not to renew or seek to terminate, change and/or renegotiate their relationships with Layne as a result of the Merger, whether pursuant to the terms of their existing agreements with Layne or otherwise.

Any of these matters could adversely affect the stock price, business, financial condition, results of operations or business prospects of Layne.

Failure to consummate the Merger could negatively impact the stock price and the future business and financial results of Granite and Layne.

If the Merger is not consummated for any reason, including as a result of Layne stockholders failing to adopt the Merger Agreement, the ongoing businesses of Granite and Layne may be adversely affected and, without realizing any of the benefits of having completed the Merger, Granite and Layne would be subject to a number of additional risks and consequences, including the following:

Granite and Layne may experience negative reactions from the financial markets, including negative impacts on their respective stock prices;

Granite and Layne may experience negative reactions from their respective customers, suppliers, and regulators; uncertainty regarding the completion of the Merger may foster uncertainty among employees about their future roles, which could adversely affect the ability of Granite and Layne to attract and retain key personnel;

Granite and Layne will be required to pay certain costs relating to the Merger, whether or not the Merger is consummated;

the Merger Agreement places certain restrictions on the conduct of Layne's and Granite's businesses prior to completion of the Merger, which may affect the ability of Layne to execute certain business strategies or pursue otherwise attractive business opportunities. Such restrictions, the waiver of which is subject to the consent of the other party (in certain cases, not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), may prevent Layne from making certain acquisitions or taking certain other specified actions during the pendency of the Merger (see the section entitled The Merger Agreement Conduct of Business Pending the Merger beginning on page 111, of this proxy statement/prospectus for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to Layne); and matters relating to the Merger (including integration planning) will require substantial commitments of time and resources by Granite and Layne management, which would otherwise have been devoted to day-to-day operations and other opportunities that may have been beneficial to either Granite or Layne as an independent company.

In addition to the above risks, Layne may be required, under certain circumstances, to pay to Granite the termination fee, which may materially adversely affect Layne's financial results. Further, Granite and Layne could be subject to litigation related to any failure to complete the Merger or related to any enforcement proceeding commenced against Granite or Layne to perform their respective obligations under the Merger Agreement. If the Merger is not completed, these risks may materialize and may adversely affect Granite's and Layne's businesses, financial condition, financial results and stock prices.

Granite's and Layne's business relationships may be subject to disruption due to uncertainty associated with the Merger.

Parties with which Granite or Layne do business may experience uncertainty associated with the proposed Merger, including with respect to current or future business relationships with Granite, Layne or the combined company. Granite's and Layne's business relationships may be subject to disruption as customers, distributors, suppliers, vendors and others may attempt to negotiate changes in existing business relationships or consider entering into business relationships with parties other than Granite, Layne or the combined company. These disruptions could have an adverse effect on the businesses, financial condition, or results of operations of the combined company, including an adverse effect on Granite's ability to realize the anticipated benefits of the Merger. The risk, and adverse effect, of such disruptions could be exacerbated by a delay in consummating the Merger or termination of the Merger Agreement.

Any delay in consummating the Merger may substantially reduce the benefits that Granite expects to obtain from the Merger.

Satisfying the conditions to, and consummation of, the Merger may take longer than, and could cost more than, Granite and Layne expect. Granite and Layne cannot predict whether or when the conditions to the Merger will be satisfied, and satisfying the conditions to the Merger could delay the Effective Time for a significant period of time or prevent it from occurring. Any delay in consummating the Merger or any additional conditions imposed in order to consummate the Merger may materially adversely affect the synergies and other benefits that Granite expects to achieve if the Merger and the integration of the companies' respective businesses are completed within the expected timeframe. In addition, each of Granite and Layne may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not consummated by September 30, 2018.

Granite may be unable to realize anticipated cost synergies or may incur additional costs.

Granite has identified approximately $20 million in pre-tax cost synergies which are expected to be realized by the third year following consummation of the Merger. Granite expects that these will result from, among other things, combining the organizational structures, locations and operations of the two companies. To realize these synergies, Granite expects to incur costs of approximately $7 million in 2018, $1 million in 2019, and $3 million in 2020. While Granite's management believes that these cost synergies are achievable, Granite may be unable to realize all of these cost synergies within the time frame expected or at all. In addition, Granite may incur additional and/or unexpected costs in order to realize these cost synergies.

The integration of Layne may present significant challenges to Granite, and although Granite expects the Merger with Layne will result in cost savings, synergies and other benefits to Granite, Granite may not realize those benefits because of difficulties related to integration, the realization of synergies, and other challenges.

Granite and Layne have operated and, until consummation of the Merger, will continue to operate, independently, and there can be no assurances that their businesses can be integrated successfully. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key Granite or Layne employees, the loss of customers, the disruption of either company's or both companies' ongoing businesses or other unexpected integration issues, higher than expected integration costs and an overall post-completion integration process that takes longer than originally anticipated. Specifically, the following issues and potential risks, among others, must be addressed in integrating the operations of Layne and Granite in order to realize the anticipated benefits of the Merger so the combined company performs as expected:

failure to implement Granite's business plan for the combined business, including as a result of Granite's lack of familiarity with certain of Layne's existing businesses and conducting business in certain countries in which Layne currently operates;

combining the businesses of Granite and Layne and meeting the capital requirements of the combined company in a manner that permits Granite to achieve the cost savings or revenue synergies anticipated to result from the Merger, the failure of which would result in the anticipated benefits of the Merger not being realized in the time frame currently anticipated or at all;

harmonizing the companies' operating practices, employee development and compensation programs, internal controls and other policies, procedures and processes;

potential deterioration in the financial performance of Layne, including any potential deviation in results of operations from historical levels; difficulties in the assimilation and retention of employees; demands on management related to the increase in the size of Granite after the acquisition;

the diversion of management's attention from the management of daily operations to the integration of operations;

unanticipated changes in applicable laws and regulations;

difficulties and risks in the integration of departments and systems (including accounting, health information and management information systems), technologies (including software), books and records and procedures, as well as in maintaining uniform standards and controls (including internal control over financial reporting and related procedures and policies);

costs, including legal and settlement costs, associated with Layne's legal proceedings and other loss contingencies (including with respect to current and legacy projects undertaken and liabilities assumed by Layne and businesses that Layne has sold or discontinued), in each case whether known or unknown and whether relating to past, present or future facts, events, circumstances or occurrences, any of which could be materially adverse to the business, results of operations, assets or financial condition of Layne and, following the Merger, the financial position, results of operations and liquidity of Granite and the ability of Granite to achieve expected benefits of the Merger; and other unanticipated issues, expenses, or liabilities that could impact, among other things, Granite's ability to realize any expected synergies on a timely basis, or at all.

If Granite cannot successfully integrate Layne, Granite may experience material negative consequences to its business, financial condition or results of operations. Successful integration of Layne will depend on Granite's ability to manage these operations, to realize opportunities for revenue growth and, to some degree, to eliminate redundant and excess costs. Because of difficulties in combining the two companies, Granite may not be able to achieve the benefits that it hopes to achieve as a result of the Merger.

The Merger may be consummated on different terms from those contained in the Merger Agreement.

Prior to the consummation of the Merger, the parties may, by their mutual agreement, amend or alter the terms of the Merger Agreement, including with respect to, among other things, the Merger Consideration to be received by Layne stockholders, or any covenants or agreements with respect to the parties' respective operations during the pendency thereof, provided, however, that after approval by Layne stockholders, no amendment may be made without further stockholder approval which, by law or in accordance with the rules of Nasdaq, requires further approval by such stockholders. Any such amendments or alterations may have negative consequences to Layne stockholders including, among other things, reducing the cash available for Granite's or Layne's operations or to meet respective obligations or restricting or limiting assets or operations of either of Granite or Layne. Under certain circumstances, Layne stockholders may be permitted or required to adopt any such amendments, which could delay consummation of the Merger and subject Layne and Granite to additional expense.

Granite and Layne will incur significant transaction fees and Merger-related costs in connection with the Merger.

Granite and Layne expect to incur a number of non-recurring fees and Merger-related costs associated with combining the operations of the two companies. Most of these non-recurring costs will be comprised of transaction and regulatory costs related to the Merger, including fees paid to financial and legal advisors related to the Merger, bank fees and related financing costs and employment-related costs, including change-in-control related payments made to certain Layne executives, further described in the Section entitled Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger beginning on page 87 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Granite will also incur transaction fees and costs related to formulating and implementing integration plans, including facilities and systems consolidation costs and employment-related costs. Granite continues to assess the magnitude of these costs, and additional unanticipated costs may be incurred in the Merger and the integration of the two companies businesses. Although Granite expects that the elimination of duplicative costs, as well as the realization of other efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses, should allow Granite to offset incremental Merger and integration-related costs over time, this net benefit may not be achieved in the near term, or at all. See the risk factor entitled The integration of Layne may present significant challenges to Granite, and although Granite expects the Merger with Layne will result in cost savings, synergies and other benefits to Granite, Granite may not realize those benefits because of difficulties related to integration, the realization of synergies, and other challenges.

As a result of the Merger, Granite's goodwill, indefinite-lived intangible assets, and other intangible assets in its consolidated balance sheet will increase. If its goodwill, indefinite-lived intangible assets, or other intangible assets become impaired in the future, Granite would be required to record a material, non-cash charge to earnings, which would also reduce its stockholders' equity.

Under GAAP, goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets are reviewed for impairment on an annual basis (or more frequently if events or circumstances indicate that their carrying value may not be recoverable) and other intangible assets if events or circumstances indicate that their carrying value may not be recoverable. If Granite's goodwill, indefinite-lived intangible assets, or other intangible assets are determined to be impaired in the future, Granite will be required to record a material, non-cash charge to earnings during the period in which the impairment is determined.

The Merger Agreement contains provisions that limit Layne's ability to pursue alternatives to the Merger, which could discourage a potential acquirer of Layne from making an alternative transaction proposal or could result in a competing proposal being at a lower price than it might otherwise be and, in certain circumstances, could require Layne to pay Granite a significant termination fee.

The Merger Agreement contains no shop provisions that, subject to limited exceptions, require that Layne may not (a) solicit, initiate, cause or knowingly facilitate or encourage the submission of any inquiries, proposals or offers or any other efforts or attempts that constitute or may reasonably be expected to lead to any acquisition proposal (as described in The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals beginning on page 103 of this proxy statement/prospectus), or engage in any discussions or negotiations with respect thereto or otherwise cooperate with or assist or participate in, or knowingly facilitate or encourage, any such inquiries, proposals, discussions or negotiations, or resolve to or publicly propose to take any of the foregoing actions, (b) approve or recommend, or resolve to or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any acquisition proposal or enter into any Merger Agreement, agreement-in-principle, letter of intent, share purchase agreement, asset purchase agreement, share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement relating to an acquisition proposal or enter into any letter of intent, agreement or agreement-in-principle requiring Layne to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the Merger or (c) (1) withdraw, modify or qualify in a manner adverse to Granite or Merger Sub the recommendation of the Layne Board or the approval or declaration of advisability by the Layne Board of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (including the Merger) or (2) approve or recommend, or resolve to or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any acquisition proposal.

The Merger Agreement also provides that Layne will be required to pay a termination fee of $16.0 million to Granite upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances. These provisions might discourage a potential competing acquiror that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of Layne from considering or proposing an acquisition even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than that proposed in the Merger, or might result in a potential competing acquiror proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire Layne than it might otherwise have proposed to pay.

The opinion delivered by Greentech will not reflect changes in circumstances between the date of such opinion and the completion of the Merger.

The Layne Board has not obtained an updated opinion as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus from Greentech, its financial advisor. Changes in the operations and prospects of Layne or Granite, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond their control, and on which the opinions were based, may alter the value of Layne or Granite or the prices of Layne Common Stock or Granite Common Stock by the time the Merger is consummated. The opinion does not speak as of the time the Merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinion. Because Layne does not anticipate asking Greentech to update its opinion, the opinion only addresses the fairness of the Merger Consideration, from a financial point of view, as of the date of such opinion, subject to the various assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered, and limitations of the review undertaken, qualifications contained and other matters set forth therein. Greentech's opinion is included as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus. For a description of the opinion, please refer to The Merger Opinion of Financial Advisor to Layne beginning on page 74 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Layne executive officers and directors have financial interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Layne stockholders.

Executive officers of Layne negotiated the terms of the Merger Agreement with their counterparts at Granite, and the Layne Board unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are in the best interests of Layne and its stockholders, approved and declared the Merger Agreement and unanimously recommended that Layne stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement. In considering these facts and the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should be aware that Layne's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Layne stockholders. For a detailed discussion of the special interests that Layne's directors and executive officers may have in the Merger, see The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger beginning on page 87 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Risks Related to the Combined Company Following the Merger

The market price of Granite Common Stock and Granite's results of operations may be affected by factors different from those affecting the market price of Layne Common Stock and Layne's results of operations.

Layne stockholders will be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration, which is comprised of Granite Common Stock and will thus become Granite stockholders upon the consummation of the Merger. Granite s business is different from that of Layne, and Granite's results of operations, as well as the market price of Granite Common Stock, may be affected by factors different from those affecting Layne's results of operations and the market price of Layne Common Stock. The market price of Granite Common Stock may fluctuate significantly following the Merger, including as a result of factors over which Granite has no control.

Failure to achieve expected benefits of the Merger and to integrate Layne's operations with Granite's could adversely affect Granite following the completion of the Merger and the market price of Granite Common Stock.

Although Granite expects to realize strategic, operational and financial benefits as a result of the Merger, Granite cannot be certain whether, and to what extent, such benefits will be achieved in the future. In particular, the success of the Merger will depend on achieving efficiencies and cost savings, and no assurances can be given that Granite will be able to do so. For example, costs associated with Layne's legal proceedings and other loss contingencies may be greater than expected (including with respect to current and legacy projects undertaken and liabilities assumed by Layne and businesses that Layne has sold or discontinued). In addition, in order to obtain the benefits of the Merger, Granite must integrate Layne's operations. Such integration may be complex and the failure to do so quickly and effectively may negatively affect earnings. Granite's failure to create, or any significant delay in creating, an optimal operational and financial structure for the combined company may result in Granite being unable to realize the expected synergies and other intended benefits from the Merger.

In addition, the market price of Granite Common Stock may decline as a result of the Merger if the integration of Granite and Layne is unsuccessful, takes longer than expected or fails to achieve financial benefits to the extent anticipated by financial analysts or investors, or the effect of the Merger on Granite's financial results is otherwise not consistent with the expectations of financial analysts or investors.

The pro forma financial statements included in this proxy statement/prospectus are presented for illustrative purposes only and may not be an indication of the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the Merger.

The pro forma financial statements contained in this proxy statement/prospectus are presented for illustrative purposes only, are based on various adjustments, assumptions and preliminary estimates and may not be an indication of the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the Merger for several reasons. See Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information beginning on page 38 of this proxy statement/prospectus. The actual financial condition and results of operations of the combined company following the Merger may not be consistent with, or evident from, these pro forma financial statements. In addition, the assumptions used in preparing the pro forma financial information may not prove to be accurate, and other factors may affect the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the Merger. Any potential decline in the combined company's financial condition or results of operations may cause significant variations in the stock price of Granite following the Merger.

Layne stockholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest in Granite after the Merger and, as a result, will be able to exert less influence over management.

Following the Merger, each Layne stockholder will become a stockholder of Granite with a percentage ownership of Granite after the Merger that is smaller than the stockholder's percentage ownership of Layne. It is expected that immediately after consummation of the Merger the former stockholders of Layne as a group will own approximately 12% of the outstanding shares of Granite Common Stock on a fully diluted basis, excluding any shares that may subsequently be issued in connection with conversion of the 8.0% Convertible Notes. Because of this, Layne stockholders will have substantially less influence on the management and policies of Granite after the Merger than they now have with respect to the management and policies of Layne.

Granite may be unable to hire and retain sufficient qualified personnel, and the loss of any of its key executive officers could adversely affect Granite.

Granite believes that its future success will depend in large part on its ability to attract and retain highly skilled, knowledgeable, sophisticated and qualified managerial and professional personnel, including, following the Merger, key employees of Layne. Key employees of Granite or Layne may depart for a variety of reasons, including because of issues relating to the difficulty of integration or accelerated retirement as a result of amounts received in connection with the Merger. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that Granite will be able to retain key employees of Granite or, following the Merger, Layne.

The combined company may require additional capital in the future, which may not be available to it on satisfactory terms, if at all.

The combined company will require liquidity to fund its operations and make interest and principal payments on its debt. To the extent that the funds generated by the combined company's ongoing operations are insufficient to cover its liquidity requirements, it may need to raise additional funds through financings. If the combined company cannot obtain adequate capital or sources of credit on favorable terms, or at all, its business, operating results and financial condition could be adversely affected. Any future equity or debt financing may not be available on terms that are favorable to the combined company, if at all.

Other Risk Factors of Granite and Layne

Granite's and Layne's businesses are and will be subject to the risks described above. In addition, Granite and Layne are, and will continue to be, subject to the risks described in Granite's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, and Layne's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2017, as updated by Layne's Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the SEC on February 27, 2018 and as updated by subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and any amendments thereto, and Current Reports on Form 8-K, all of which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

A number of the statements made or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act, Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. Forward-looking statements are all statements made or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, other than statements of historical fact. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by terminology such as anticipates, believes, estimates, expects, intends, may, projects, will, would, and similar expressions or expressions of the negative of these terms. These statements include statements regarding the intent, belief or current expectations of each of Granite and Layne and their respective subsidiaries, their directors and their officers with respect to, among other things, future events, including the Merger, the respective financial results and financial trends expected to impact each of Granite and Layne prior to the completion of the Merger, or if the Merger is not completed, and expected to impact Granite thereafter, assuming the Merger is consummated.

Forward-looking statements are based upon certain underlying assumptions, including any assumptions mentioned with the specific statements, as of the date such statements were made. Such assumptions are in turn based upon internal estimates and analyses of market conditions and trends, management plans and strategies, economic conditions and other factors. While Granite and Layne believe these expectations, assumptions, estimates and projections are reasonable, such forward-looking statements are only predictions and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the control of Granite and Layne. By their nature, forward-looking statements and the assumptions underlying them are necessarily subject to risks and uncertainties inherent in projecting future conditions and results. Actual results may differ materially from the current expectations of Granite and Layne depending on a number of factors affecting their businesses and risks associated with the successful execution of the Merger and the integration and performance of their businesses following the Merger. These factors include, but are not limited to, those set forth under Risk Factors beginning on page 22 of this proxy statement/prospectus, and those set forth under Forward-Looking Statements, Risk Factors or any similar heading in the documents incorporated by reference herein.

Granite and Layne caution you not to place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus in the case of forward-looking statements contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, or the dates of the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus in the case of forward-looking statements made in those incorporated documents. Except as may be required by law, neither Granite nor Layne has any obligation to update or alter these forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Granite and Layne expressly qualify in their entirety all forward-looking statements attributable to Granite or Layne or any person acting on either of their respective behalf by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this section.

INFORMATION ABOUT GRANITE CONSTRUCTION INCORPORATED

Granite delivers infrastructure solutions for public and private clients primarily in the United States. Granite is one of the largest diversified heavy civil contractors and construction materials producers in the United States. Granite operates nationwide, serving both public and private sector clients. Within the public sector, Granite primarily concentrates on heavy-civil infrastructure projects, including the construction of streets, roads, highways, mass transit facilities, airport infrastructure, bridges, trenchless and underground utilities, power-related facilities, water-related facilities, utilities, tunnels, dams and other infrastructure-related projects. Within the private sector, Granite performs site preparation and infrastructure services for residential development, energy development, commercial and industrial sites, and other facilities, as well as provide construction management professional services. Granite's business is organized into three reportable business segments. These business segments are: Construction, Large Project Construction and Construction Materials.

The four primary economic drivers of Granite business are (a) the overall health of the U.S. economy; (b) federal, state and local public funding levels; (c) population growth resulting in public and private development; and (d) the need to replace or repair aging infrastructure. A stagnant or declining economy will generally result in reduced demand for construction and construction materials in the private sector. This reduced demand increases competition for private sector projects and will ultimately also increase competition in the public sector as companies migrate from bidding on scarce private sector work to projects in the public sector. In addition, a stagnant or declining economy tends to produce less tax revenue for public agencies, thereby decreasing a source of funds available for spending on public infrastructure improvements. Some funding sources that have been specifically earmarked for infrastructure spending, such as diesel and gasoline taxes, are not as directly affected by a stagnant or declining economy, unless actual consumption is reduced or gasoline sales tax revenues decline consistent with fuel prices. However, even these can be temporarily at risk as federal, state and local governments take actions to balance their budgets. Additionally, fuel prices and more fuel efficient vehicles can have a dampening effect on consumption, resulting in overall lower tax revenue. Conversely, increased levels of public funding as well as an expanding or robust economy will generally increase demand for Granite's services and provide opportunities for revenue growth and margin improvement.

Granite Common Stock is listed on NYSE under the symbol GVA. Granite Construction Company was originally incorporated in 1922. In 1990, Granite Construction Incorporated was formed as the holding company for Granite Construction Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries and was incorporated in Delaware.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The accompanying Pro Forma Income Statements for the periods presented combine the historical consolidated statements of income of Granite and Layne, giving effect to the Merger as if it had been completed on January 1, 2017, the beginning of the earliest period presented. The Pro Forma Income Statements assume that Granite, with a fiscal year that ends on December 31, acquired Layne, with a fiscal year that ends on January 31, and are to be read as if the Merger has been completed. The Pro Forma Income Statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 will include (a) Granite's fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 and (b) Layne's twelve months ended October 31, 2017. The accompanying Pro Forma Balance Sheet as of December 31, 2017 combines the historical consolidated balance sheets of Granite as of December 31, 2017 and Layne as of October 31, 2017, giving effect to the Merger as if it had been completed on December 31, 2017.

The accompanying Pro Forma Financial Statements and related notes were prepared using the acquisition method of accounting with Granite considered the acquirer of Layne. Accordingly, the Merger Consideration to be paid in the Merger has been allocated to assets and liabilities of Layne based upon their estimated fair values as of the date of completion of the Merger. Any amount of the Merger Consideration that is in excess of the estimated fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed will be recorded as goodwill in Granite's balance sheet after the completion of the Merger. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, Granite has not completed the detailed valuation work necessary to arrive at the required estimates of the fair value of the Layne assets to be acquired and the liabilities to be assumed and the related allocation of purchase price, nor has it identified all adjustments necessary to conform Layne's accounting policies to Granite's accounting policies. A final determination of the fair value of Layne's assets and liabilities will be based on the actual net tangible and intangible assets and liabilities of Layne that exist as of the date of completion of the Merger and, therefore, cannot be made prior to that date. Additionally, the value of the Merger Consideration to be paid by Granite to complete the Merger will be determined based on the trading price of Granite Common Stock in accordance with the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, the accompanying unaudited pro forma purchase price allocation is preliminary and is subject to further adjustments as additional information becomes available and as additional analyses are performed. The preliminary unaudited pro forma purchase price allocation has been made solely for the purpose of preparing the accompanying Pro Forma Financial Statements. The preliminary purchase price allocation was based on Granite's historical experience, data that was available through the public domain and Granite's due diligence review of Layne's business. Until the Merger is consummated, both companies are limited in their ability to share information with the other. Upon completion of the Merger, further valuation work will be performed. Increases or decreases in the fair value of relevant balance sheet amounts will result in adjustments to the balance sheet and/or statements of income until the purchase price allocation is finalized. There can be no assurance that such finalization will not result in material changes from the preliminary purchase price allocation included in the accompanying Statements.

The accompanying Pro Forma Financial Statements and related notes are being provided for illustrative purposes only and do not purport to represent what the actual consolidated results of operations or the consolidated balance sheet of Granite would have been had the Merger occurred on the dates assumed, nor are they necessarily indicative of Granite's future consolidated results of operations or consolidated financial position. The Pro Forma Financial Statements are based upon currently available information and estimates and assumptions that Granite management believes are reasonable as of the date hereof. Any of the factors underlying these estimates and assumptions may change or prove to be materially different, and the estimates and assumptions may not be representative of facts existing at the closing date of the Merger.

The accompanying Pro Forma Financial Statements have been developed from and should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements of Granite contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, and of Layne contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended

Edgar Filing: GRANITE CONSTRUCTION INC - Form S-4

January 31, 2017, as updated by Layne's Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the SEC on February 27, 2018, and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended October 31, 2017, each of which is incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The historical consolidated financial statements of Layne presented herein have been adjusted by condensing and disaggregating certain line items in order to conform to Granite's financial statement presentation.

Note 1. Description of the Transaction

On February 13, 2018, Granite and Layne entered into the Merger Agreement pursuant to which, among other things, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Layne, with Layne surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite. The Merger was unanimously approved by the Granite Board and the Layne Board and is expected to close in [], 2018 subject to the conditions described in the Merger Agreement.

At the Effective Time, each share of Layne Common Stock that is issued and outstanding will be cancelled and automatically converted into the right to receive 0.27 shares of Granite Common Stock. Upon completion of the Merger, former Layne stockholders will own approximately 12% of the outstanding shares of Granite Common Stock on a fully diluted basis (excluding any shares that may subsequently be issued in connection with any conversion of the 8.0% Convertible Notes into shares of Granite Common Stock following the Merger). Further, Granite will expand the size of the Granite Board and designate one director of Layne, who is a director prior to the Effective Time, to fill such vacancy.

Note 2. Basis of Pro Forma Presentation

The accompanying Pro Forma Financial Statements were prepared in accordance with Article 11 of Regulation S-X prescribed by the SEC. The Pro Forma Balance Sheet was prepared using the historical balance sheets of Granite as of December 31, 2017 and Layne as of October 31, 2017. Granite's fiscal year ends on December 31 and Layne's fiscal year ends on January 31. To comply with SEC rules and regulations for companies with different fiscal year ends, the Pro Forma Income Statements have been prepared utilizing additional periods such that Layne's statement of operations differ from Granite's statement of operations by less than 93 days. Layne's twelve-month income statement was derived by taking the results from the nine months ended October 31, 2017, plus the year ended January 31, 2017, less the nine months ended October 31, 2016. The Pro Forma Income Statements were prepared using:

Layne's historical audited consolidated statement of operations for the year ended January 31, 2017;

Layne's historical unaudited consolidated statement of operations for the nine months ended October 31, 2017; and Granite's historical audited consolidated statement of operations for the twelve months ended December 31, 2017.

Both Layne's and Granite's historical audited and unaudited financial statements were prepared in accordance with GAAP.

The Pro Forma Financial Statements have been prepared using the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations under GAAP. The acquisition method of accounting is dependent upon certain valuations and other studies, which are currently in progress. The final determination of fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed may result in material changes to the Pro Forma Financial Statements.

Upon completion of the Merger, Granite expects to conduct an additional review of accounting policies used to prepare Layne's historical financial statements to determine if further adjustment or reclassification of Layne's results of operations, assets or liabilities are required to conform to the accounting policies and classifications used to prepare Granite's historical financial statements. This review may identify additional differences between the accounting policies of Granite and Layne, which may have a material impact on Granite's future consolidated financial statements. Other than as disclosed in Note 5 below, we are currently not aware of any significant differences between the accounting policies of Granite and Layne.

The Pro Forma Financial Statements are preliminary, provided for illustrative purposes only and do not purport to represent what Granite's actual consolidated results of operations or consolidated financial position would have been had the Merger occurred on the date assumed, nor are they indicative of Granite's future consolidated results of operations or financial position. The actual results reported in periods following the Merger may differ significantly from those reflected in the Pro Forma Financial Statements for a number of reasons, including, but not limited to, differences between the assumptions used to prepare the Pro Forma Financial Statements and actual amounts, cost savings or associated costs to achieve such savings from operating efficiencies, synergies, debt refinancing, or other restructuring that may result from the Merger. Non-recurring items related to the Merger were not included in the Pro Forma Income Statements.

Note 3. Estimate of Consideration Expected to be Transferred

The calculation of the preliminary estimated purchase price for Layne presented below is based on the terms of the Merger. The Pro Forma Financial Statements include various assumptions, including those related to shares of Granite Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger and the fair value of Granite Common Stock. The Pro Forma Financial Statements also assume a purchase price of approximately $353 million and that the Merger was completed on March 5, 2018 using a closing price of $59.24 per share of Granite Common Stock.

The following table shows sensitivities to changes in the preliminary estimated purchase price and goodwill resulting from a 10% increase or decrease in the assumed per share price of Granite Common Stock:

	Price of Granite Common Stock	Preliminary Estimated Purchase Price	Estimated Goodwill
	(in thousands, except per share price)
As of March 5, 2018	$ 59.24	$ 353,131	$ 220,720
Increase of 10%	$ 65.16	$ 388,857	$ 256,445
Decrease of 10%	$ 53.32	$ 317,468	$ 185,057

Note 4. Adjustments to Pro Forma Financial Statements

Adjustments present in the Pro Forma Financial Statements are based on preliminary information and are subject to subsequent changes. The historical consolidated statements of operations and consolidated balance sheets have been adjusted in the Pro Forma Financial Statements to give effect to pro forma events that are: (1) directly attributable to the Merger; (2) factually supportable; and (3) with respect to the statements of operations, expected to have a continuing impact on the results of operations of the combined company. Additional pro forma adjustments may also be identified through the completion of purchase accounting:

Adjustments to the Pro Forma Balance Sheet

Granite has made the following pro forma adjustments to Layne's historical balance sheet as of October 31, 2017:

- (a) a fair value increase of $15 million related to investments in affiliates;

- (b) an elimination of Layne's historical goodwill and the preliminary estimate of goodwill recognized as a result of the Merger, which represents the amount by which the estimated consideration transferred exceeds the fair value of Layne's assets acquired and the liabilities assumed;

- (c) an adjustment to the net deferred tax assets and liabilities resulting from the adjustments to deferred tax assets and liabilities, based on an estimated statutory tax rate of 25.75%, which includes the federal statutory tax rate, adjusted for the estimated state statutory tax rate. This estimate of the net deferred tax assets and liabilities balance includes the release of the valuation allowance associated with federal net operating loss carryforwards and other federal deferred tax assets that were fully reserved within Layne's historical financial statements. Granite believes it is more likely than not that federal net operating loss carryforwards and other federal deferred tax assets will be realized. This is preliminary and subject to change based on Granite's final determination of the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed by jurisdiction; additionally, Granite has revised the statutory tax rate at which these were recorded to account for the statutory tax rate enacted as of December 31, 2017, the date of the Pro Forma Balance Sheet. The table below summarizes the various components of this adjustment:

	December 31, 2017 (in thousands)
Deferred Tax Asset Valuation Allowance Release	$ 45,376
Net Deferred Tax Liability From Fair Value Adjustments	(15,763)
Deferred Tax Liability Reclassification	(5,211)
Net Deferred Tax Asset Adjustment	$ 24,401

- (d) the estimated fair value of Layne's identified intangible assets. The following table shows a preliminary estimate of the fair value of those intangible assets and their related average estimated useful lives:

	Estimated Useful Life (in Years)	Estimated Fair Value as of October 31, 2017	Net Book Value as of October 31, 2017	Pro Forma Adjustment
(in thousands) Intangible Assets

Intangible Liabilities
Unfavorable Contracts, net	1	$ 6,143	$	$ 6,143

- (e) the assumption of Layne's debt at fair value;

- (f) expenses of $6 million incurred by Granite and Layne directly attributable to the Merger. Total expected costs, including those costs already incurred, that are directly attributable to the Merger are estimated to be approximately $24 million. The expenses that Granite and Layne may ultimately incur may differ materially from this amount. These expenses include fees for investment banking, advisory, legal, valuation, and other professional fees. As these expenses will not have a continuing impact, Granite has not shown these estimated expenses in the Pro Forma Income Statements. No material Merger-related expenses were incurred by Granite and Layne during the periods covered by the historical financial statements; and

- (g) the elimination of Layne's historical equity and the estimated consideration of $353 million, which includes the issuance of $319 million in shares of Granite Common Stock to Layne stockholders, and $34 million in cash for the Layne Stock Options, Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs. Based on the Granite Common Stock Price, these values may differ when the Merger is completed. The actual number of shares of Granite Common Stock issued to Layne stockholders and cash paid for Layne Stock Options, Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs upon closing of the Merger will be based on the actual number of shares of Layne Common Stock outstanding at the Effective Time, and the fair value of those shares will be based on the trading price of Granite Common Stock at that time.

Adjustments to Pro Forma Income Statements

Granite has made the following adjustments to Layne's historical income statement for the twelve months ended October 31, 2017:

- (h) additional amortization of intangible assets which will be acquired based on the preliminary estimated fair value and useful lives expected to be recorded as a result of the Merger. For estimated intangible asset values and the associated useful lives, see note (d) under "Adjustments to Pro Forma Balance Sheet" above. The following table shows a preliminary estimate of the amortization of the fair value of those intangible assets based on their related estimated useful lives:

	Twelve Months Ended October 31, 2017 (in thousands)
Cost of revenues	$ 18,428
Selling, general and administrative	$ 12,439

- (i) amortization of the adjustment from carrying value to fair value of the Convertible Notes;
- (j) tax effects of the pro forma adjustments based on a statutory tax rate of 39%, which reflects the federal and state tax rate in effect during the period presented. Due to the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, future tax provision may materially differ from the current provision; and
- (k) the following table shows the calculation of pro forma combined basic and diluted net income per share of Granite Common Stock, after giving effect to the preliminary estimated number of shares of Granite Common Stock to be issued to Layne stockholders in the Merger, for the year ended December 31, 2017 (the 4.25% Convertible Notes are not included in the table below because immediately prior the closing of the Merger, Layne will elect to settle the outstanding 4.25% Convertible Notes in cash, as permitted by the indenture governing the 4.25% Convertible Notes):

Pro forma net income per share of Granite Common Stock	$ 0.74	$ 0.70

Note 5. Reclassifications

The Layne historical unaudited condensed balance sheet and statement of operations have been conformed to Granite's presentation of the respective statements. Granite has made the following reclassifications to

Layne's historical balance sheet as of October 31, 2017 and statement of operations for the twelve months ended October 31, 2017:

- (l) reclassification of $26 million of depreciation and amortization from separate presentation in Layne's historical statement of operations to cost of revenue and selling, general and administrative expenses in the amounts of $24 million and $2 million, respectively; and

- (m) reclassification of $67 million of the 4.25% Convertible Notes from long-term debt to current maturities of long-term debt because the condensed combined balance sheet is as of December 31, 2017.

Table of ContentsUNAUDITED COMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following table shows, for the year ended December 31, 2017 for Granite and twelve months ended October 31, 2017 for Layne, historical and pro forma equivalent per share data for Layne Common Stock and historical and pro forma combined per share data for Granite Common Stock. The information in the table is derived from each of Layne's and Granite's respective historical consolidated financial statements incorporated by reference herein, as well as the Pro Forma Financial Statements included elsewhere herein. The pro forma equivalent per share data and the pro forma combined per share data assume that Granite, with a fiscal year that ends on December 31, acquired Layne, with a fiscal year that ends on January 31, and are to be read as if the Merger has been completed on December 31, 2017.

The pro forma equivalent information shows the effect of the Merger from the perspective of a holder of Layne Common Stock. The information was computed by multiplying the pro forma combined income from continuing operations per share for the year ended December 31, 2017 for Granite and twelve months ended October 31, 2017 for Layne, respectively, and pro forma combined book value per share as of December 31, 2017 by the Exchange Ratio.

The pro forma combined data below is presented for illustrative purposes only. The pro forma adjustments to the income statement data are based on the assumption that the Merger was completed on January 1, 2017, and the pro forma adjustments to the balance sheet data are based on the assumption that the Merger was completed on December 31, 2017.

Either company's actual historical financial condition or results of operations may have been different had the companies always been combined. You should not rely on this information as being indicative of the historical financial condition and results of operations that would have actually been achieved or of the future results of Granite after the completion of the Merger.

You should read the information below together with the historical consolidated financial statements and related notes of each of Granite and Layne, which are incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, and with the information under the heading "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information" beginning on page 38 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Dividend Policies

Layne has not paid dividends since its initial public offering in 1992, and does not anticipate paying any cash dividends on its common stock in the foreseeable future. The Merger Agreement restricts the ability of Layne to declare or pay dividends prior to the consummation of the Merger.

Granite has paid quarterly cash dividends since the second quarter of 1990, and expects to continue to do so. However, declaration and payment of dividends is within the sole discretion of the Granite Board, subject to limitations imposed by Delaware law and compliance with Granite's credit agreements (which allows dividends so long as Granite has at least $150 million in unencumbered cash and cash equivalents and marketable securities), and will depend on our earnings, capital requirements, financial condition and such other factors as the Granite Board deems relevant. As of December 31, 2017, Granite had unencumbered cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities that exceeded these limitations.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

This proxy statement/prospectus is being provided to Layne stockholders as part of a solicitation of proxies by the Layne Board for use at the Special Meeting. This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information regarding the Special Meeting, the proposals on which you are being asked to vote, information you may find useful in determining how to vote and voting procedures.

This proxy statement/prospectus is being first mailed on or about _____, 2018 to all stockholders of record of Layne as of the Record Date. Stockholders of record who owned Layne Common Stock at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to receive notice of, attend and vote at the Special Meeting. On the Record Date, there were _____ shares of Layne Common Stock outstanding.

Date, Time and Place of the Special Meeting

The Special Meeting will be held at _____ (Central Time), on _____, 2018 at _____.

Proposals at the Special Meeting

At the Special Meeting, Layne stockholders will vote on the following proposals:

Proposal 1 Adoption of the Merger Agreement. To adopt the Merger Agreement.

Proposal 2 Compensation Proposal. To approve, on a non-binding, advisory basis, the compensation payments that will or may be paid by Layne to its named executive officers in connection with the Merger.

Proposal 3 Adjournment Proposal. To approve any proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if, immediately prior to such adjournment, sufficient votes to adopt the Merger Agreement have not been obtained by Layne.

The Layne Board unanimously recommends that you vote FOR each of these proposals.

Shares Entitled to Vote

As a stockholder of Layne, you have a right to vote on certain matters affecting Layne. The proposals that will be presented at the Special Meeting and upon which you are being asked to vote are summarized above and fully set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus. Each share of Layne Common Stock that you owned at the close of business on the Record Date entitles you to one vote on each proposal presented at the Special Meeting.

Quorum Requirement

A quorum of outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock is necessary to take action at the Special Meeting. Holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock entitled to vote as of the Record Date must be present, in person or by proxy, at the Special Meeting to constitute a quorum and to conduct business at the Special Meeting. Your shares are counted as present if you attend the Special Meeting in person or properly vote by telephone, over the Internet, or by submitting a properly executed proxy card by mail. The inspector of election will treat abstentions as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Votes Required for the Proposals

Proposal 1 Adoption of the Merger Agreement. Approval requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Layne Common Stock outstanding on the Record Date. Abstentions and failures to vote will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Proposal 2 Compensation Proposal. Approval requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast affirmatively or negatively by the Layne stockholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote thereon. Abstentions and failures to vote will have no effect on the compensation proposal.

Proposal 3 Adjournment Proposal. Approval requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast affirmatively or negatively by the Layne stockholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote thereon. Abstentions and failures to vote will have no effect on the adjournment proposal.

If you hold your shares of Layne Common Stock in street name, your nominee or intermediary may not vote your shares without instructions from you.

Methods of Voting Stockholders of Record If you are a Layne stockholder of record, you may vote by mail, by telephone, over the Internet or in person at the Special Meeting. Votes submitted by mail, by telephone or over the Internet must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on _____, 2018.

Voting by Telephone or over the Internet. To vote by telephone or over the Internet, please follow the instructions included on your proxy card. If you vote by telephone or over the Internet, you do not need to complete and mail a proxy card.

Voting by Mail. By signing the proxy card and returning it in the enclosed prepaid and addressed envelope, you are authorizing the individuals named on the proxy card to vote your shares at the Special Meeting in the manner you indicate. If you receive more than one proxy card, it is an indication that your shares are held in multiple accounts. Please sign and return all proxy cards to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

We encourage you to vote by telephone, over the Internet or by signing and returning the proxy card even if you plan to attend the Special Meeting so that your shares will be voted if you are unable to attend the Special Meeting.

Voting in Person at the Meeting. If your shares are registered directly in your name, you are considered the stockholder of record and you have the right to vote in person at the Special Meeting. If you attend the Special Meeting and plan to vote in person, we will provide you with a ballot at the Special Meeting.

Methods of Voting Beneficial Owners

If your shares are held in an account at a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee, then you are the beneficial owner of shares held in street name and this proxy statement/prospectus is being sent to you by that organization. The organization holding your account is considered to be the stockholder of record for purposes of voting at the Special Meeting. As a beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker or other agent regarding how to vote the shares in your account by following the instructions that the broker, bank or other nominee provides you along with this proxy statement/prospectus. If you are not a stockholder of record, you must obtain a proxy executed in your favor from the record holder of your shares to be able to vote in person at the Special Meeting.

Attending the Special Meeting

Stockholders of record, or their duly authorized proxies, may attend the Special Meeting. To gain admittance, you must present valid picture identification, such as a driver's license or passport. If you hold shares in street name (through a broker, bank or other nominee) and wish to attend the Special Meeting, you will also need to bring a copy of a brokerage statement (in a name matching your photo identification) reflecting your stock ownership as of the Record Date. If you are a representative of a corporate or institutional stockholder, you must present valid photo identification along with proof that you are a representative of such stockholder.

Please note that use of cameras, recording devices and other electronic devices will not be permitted at the Special Meeting.

Voting Instructions

If you are a stockholder of record and return a proxy card but do not provide specific voting instructions, your shares will be voted on the proposals as follows:

FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement;

FOR the compensation proposal; and

FOR the adjournment proposal.

Abstentions

A vote to abstain on the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement will have the same effect as a vote against that proposal. A vote to abstain on the compensation proposal or the adjournment proposal will have no effect on whether those proposals are approved.

Failure to Vote Shares

A failure to vote your shares pursuant to one of the methods described above will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and will have no effect on the compensation proposal or the adjournment proposal.

Shares Held in Street Name

In general, if your shares are held in street name and you do not instruct your broker on a timely basis on how to vote your shares, your brokerage firm, in its discretion, may either leave your shares unvoted or vote your shares on routine matters, but not on any non-routine matters. None of the proposals at the Special Meeting are routine matters.

Revoking Your Proxy

If you are a Layne stockholder of record, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the Special Meeting. To revoke your proxy, you must:

enter a new vote by telephone or over the Internet by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on _____, 2018;

sign and return another proxy card, which must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on _____, 2018;

provide written notice of the revocation to Layne's Secretary at: Layne Christensen Company, 1800 Hughes Landing Blvd., St. 800, The Woodlands, Texas 77380 which must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on _____, 2018; or attend the Special Meeting and vote in person.

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in street name by a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee, you should follow the instructions of your bank, broker or other nominee regarding the revocation of proxies.

Solicitation of Proxies

Layne will bear the entire cost of proxy solicitation, including the preparation, assembly, printing, mailing and distribution of the proxy materials. We have hired Alliance Advisors LLC to assist in the distribution and solicitation of proxies. Solicitations may be made personally or by mail, facsimile, telephone, messenger or via the Internet. In addition to Alliance Advisors LLC estimated proxy solicitation fee of $15,000 plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for this service, we will reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding the proxy materials to stockholders. Directors, officers and employees of Layne may also solicit proxies in person, by telephone or by other means of communication. Directors, officers and employees of Layne will not be paid any additional compensation for soliciting proxies.

DO NOT SEND IN ANY LAYNE STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH YOUR PROXY CARD.

As described in the Merger Agreement, Layne stockholders will be sent materials for exchanging Layne Common Stock shortly after consummation of the Merger.

- (2) Granite may be deemed to have beneficial ownership of an aggregate of 1,997,308 shares of Layne Common Stock based on representations made by the Voting Stockholders pursuant to the Voting Agreements. See The Voting Agreements beginning on page 122 of this proxy statement/prospectus. The ownership reported is based on Schedule 13D filed with the SEC on February 28, 2018 by Granite, with a principal business address of 585 West Beach Street, Watsonville, California 95076. The Schedule 13D reports that Granite has shared voting and dispositive power with respect to all shares of Layne Common Stock it beneficially owns.
- (3) The ownership reported is based on Amendment No. 5 to Schedule 13G filed with the SEC on January 3, 2018, by Royce & Associates, LLC, with a principal business address of 745 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10151. Amendment No. 5 to Schedule 13G reports that Royce & Associates, LLC has sole voting and dispositive power with respect to all of the shares it beneficially owns.
- (4) The ownership reported is based on the Schedule 13D filed with the SEC on February 22, 2018, jointly by the Cetus Funds, each with a principal business address of 8 Sound Shore Drive, Suite 303, Greenwich, CT 06830. Cetus Capital II, LLC may be deemed to beneficially own and has sole voting and dispositive power with respect to 269,759 shares of Layne Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Convertible Notes that Cetus Capital II, LLC owns. Cetus Capital III, L.P. owns 756,745 shares of Layne Common Stock and may be deemed to beneficially own and has sole voting and dispositive power with respect to (i) 95,000 shares of Layne Common Stock exercisable within 60 days of March 9, 2018, and (ii) 756,745 shares of Layne Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Convertible Notes that Cetus Capital III, L.P. owns. Littlejohn Opportunities Master Fund LP owns 278,967 shares of Layne Common Stock and may be deemed to beneficially own and has sole voting and dispositive power with respect to (i) 47,600 shares of Layne Common Stock exercisable within 60 days of March 9, 2018, and (ii) 269,060 shares of Layne Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Convertible Notes that Littlejohn Opportunities Master Fund LP owns. VSS Fund L.P. owns 262,828 shares of Layne Common Stock and may be deemed to beneficially own and has sole voting and dispositive power with respect to (i) 42,400 shares of Layne Common Stock exercisable within 60 days of March 9, 2018, and (ii) 199,572 shares of Layne Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Convertible Notes that VSS Fund L.P. owns. OFM II, L.P. owns 233,757 shares of Layne Common Stock and may be deemed to beneficially own and has sole voting and dispositive power with respect to 65,000 shares of Layne Common Stock exercisable within 60 days of March 9, 2018. However, based upon the terms of the Convertible Notes, the holders thereof may not convert such securities if on any date, such holder would be deemed the beneficial owner of more than 9.9% of the then outstanding shares of the Layne Common Stock. Based on the number of shares of Layne Common Stock outstanding as of March 9, 2018, the Cetus Funds would not be able to convert all of the Convertible Notes beneficially owned by the Cetus Funds. Consequently, the Percentage Shares of Layne Common Stock listed in the table gives effect to the 9.9% ownership cap.

PROPOSAL 1 ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

Pursuant to Section 251 of the DGCL, Layne is submitting the Merger Agreement to its stockholders at the Special Meeting, at which the Merger Agreement will be considered and a vote taken on a proposal for its adoption.

For a summary of the Merger Agreement and the Merger, including the background of the Merger, Layne's reasons for the Merger, the opinion of Layne's financial advisor and related matters, Layne stockholders should read The Merger beginning on page 60 and The Merger Agreement beginning on page 98.

Adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Layne Common Stock outstanding on the Record Date. An abstention will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

BOARD RECOMMENDATION

PROPOSAL 2 APPROVAL, ON AN ADVISORY BASIS, OF CERTAIN COMPENSATORY ARRANGEMENTS WITH LAYNE NAMED EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Pursuant to Section 14A of the Exchange Act, Layne is providing its stockholders the opportunity to cast a non-binding, advisory vote at the Special Meeting to approve the compensation that may be paid or become payable to its named executive officers based on or otherwise relates to the Merger, as described under The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger beginning on page 87. In accordance with these requirements, Layne is asking its stockholders to approve the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the stockholders of Layne approve, on a non-binding, advisory basis, the compensation which may be paid or become payable to its named executive officers in connection with the Merger, as disclosed pursuant to Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K as described under The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger Possible Change-in-Control Compensation beginning on page 93.

Approval, on an advisory basis, of certain compensatory arrangements between Layne and its named executive officers based on or otherwise relating to the Merger requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast FOR or AGAINST by the Layne stockholders present, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. An abstention will have no effect on the approval of the compensation proposal. This proposal is advisory and therefore not binding on the Layne Board. Further, the underlying plans and arrangements are contractual in nature and not, by their terms, subject to stockholder approval.

This advisory vote is separate and apart from the vote to adopt the Merger Agreement. The approval of this proposal is not a condition to consummation of the Merger. Whether or not this proposal is approved will have no impact on consummation of the Merger.

BOARD RECOMMENDATION

The Layne Board unanimously recommends that Layne stockholders vote FOR the compensation proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, certain compensatory arrangements between Layne and its named executive officers relating to the Merger.

PROPOSAL 3 ADJOURNMENTS OF THE SPECIAL MEETING

Layne stockholders are being asked to approve a proposal that will provide the Layne Board authority to adjourn the Special Meeting one or more times, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if, immediately prior to such adjournment, sufficient votes to adopt the Merger Agreement have not been obtained by Layne.

If this proposal is approved, the Special Meeting could be adjourned to any date. If the Special Meeting is adjourned, Layne stockholders who have already submitted their proxies will be able to revoke them at any time prior to their use. If you sign and return a proxy and do not indicate how you wish to vote on any proposal, or if you indicate that you wish to vote FOR the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement but do not indicate a choice on the adjournment proposal, your shares of Layne Common Stock will be voted FOR the adjournment proposal. If you indicate, however, that you wish to vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, your shares of Layne Common Stock will only be voted FOR the adjournment proposal if you indicate that you wish to vote FOR that proposal.

Approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast FOR or AGAINST by the Layne stockholders present, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. An abstention will have no effect on the approval of the adjournment proposal.

This vote is separate and apart from the vote to adopt the Merger Agreement. The approval of the adjournment proposal is not a condition to consummation of the Merger. Whether or not the adjournment proposal is approved will have no impact on consummation of the Merger.

BOARD RECOMMENDATION

The Layne Board unanimously recommends that Layne stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if, immediately prior to such adjournment, sufficient votes to adopt the Merger Agreement have not been obtained by Layne.

THE MERGER

This section of the proxy statement/prospectus describes certain material aspects of the proposed Merger. This section may not contain all of the information that is important to you. You should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated herein by reference, including the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A, for a more complete understanding of the Merger. In addition, important business and financial information about each of Granite and Layne is incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference and is included in the Annexes hereto. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 138 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Background of the Merger

The Layne Board and the Granite Board each regularly reviews its results of operations, competitive positions and strategic alternatives. From time to time, both Layne and Granite also evaluate potential transactions that would further their respective strategic objectives. Granite identified Layne as a potential acquisition candidate in connection with Granite's regular evaluation of strategic opportunities.

In the fall of 2016, James Roberts, Granite's President and Chief Executive Officer, emailed Michael J. Caliel, Layne's President and Chief Executive Officer to arrange a time to meet in person. On November 7, 2016, Mr. Roberts met with Mr. Caliel and J. Michael Anderson, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Layne. During that meeting, Mr. Roberts raised the possibility of a strategic transaction involving Granite and Layne. To facilitate further discussion, on November 15, 2016, Layne and Granite entered into a customary confidentiality agreement that also included customary standstill provisions.

On November 29, 2016, senior management from Granite and Layne, together with representatives from Granite's then financial advisors, met in Phoenix, Arizona for in-person due diligence meetings. At that meeting, senior management from each of Granite and Layne presented an overview of their respective businesses.

On December 22, 2016, Mr. Roberts sent Mr. Caliel a letter proposing that Granite acquire all outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock based on an implied value of $11.75 per Layne share (representing a 7.2% premium to the closing price of Layne Common Stock on December 22, 2016), payable either in all cash or in a combination of cash and shares of Granite Common Stock (the December 2016 Proposal). The letter noted that the December 2016 Proposal was subject to due diligence, Granite Board approval and negotiation of an acceptable merger agreement. The letter also noted that the per share price took into account the make-whole premiums that would need to be paid under the 8.0% Convertible Notes.

Throughout December 2016 and early January 2017, Layne management, in consultation with the Layne Board, evaluated the December 2016 Proposal but elected not to pursue the December 2016 Proposal based on Layne management's focus on addressing certain operational matters at the time as well as its determination that the consideration offered did not appropriately reflect the value of Layne's business. Accordingly, on January 9, 2017, Mr. Caliel telephoned Mr. Roberts and informed him that Layne was not interested in pursuing a transaction at the proposed valuation. On January 31, 2017, Mr. Roberts telephoned Mr. Caliel to inform him that Granite may be willing to consider an all-stock transaction at a higher valuation in the mid-$12 per share range. After discussions with members of Layne management, Mr. Caliel telephoned Mr. Roberts on February 9, 2017 and informed him that Granite's proposed valuation was still inadequate and, given prevailing market conditions and its need to focus on addressing certain operational matters, Layne had decided to not engage in further discussions with Granite at that time.

Throughout early 2017, Layne management continued their ongoing evaluation of Layne's business and regularly reviewed and assessed Layne's strategic and financial alternatives in light of developments in Layne's business, in the sectors in which Layne competes, in the economy generally and in the financial markets. Throughout the course of this evaluation, Layne management and members of the Layne Board regularly interfaced with one another to review, analyze and provide input on Layne's strategic and operational initiatives.

On April 6, 2017, the Layne Board held a regular meeting at which members of Layne management were also present. During this meeting, Messrs. Caliel and Anderson discussed with the Layne Board the possibility of engaging an investment banking firm to assist with Layne's strategic and refinancing analysis. The Layne Board designated two directors, Alan P. Krusi and Nelson Obus, to oversee the strategic review process and the selection of an investment banking firm.

From April 2017 through early May 2017, Layne interviewed various investment banking firms. On May 5, 2017, Messrs. Krusi and Obus members of Layne's management team, including Mr. Caliel, Mr. Anderson and Steven F. Crooke, Senior Vice President, Chief Administrative Officer & General Counsel of Layne, met with representatives of Greentech Capital Advisors, LLC (Greentech) to discuss the possibility of Greentech providing certain financial advisory services to Layne, including evaluating potential business combination opportunities and exploring a refinancing of Layne's Convertible Notes. On June 23, 2017, after consultation with Messrs. Krusi and Obus, Layne formally engaged Greentech.

During the summer of 2017, Layne management worked with representatives of Greentech to develop and analyze various potential strategic transactions. During this period, members of the Layne Board also communicated with Layne management and served as a resource for Layne management to discuss strategic and operational matters. On July 11, 2017, the Layne Board held a special meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech were also present. During that meeting, representatives of Greentech presented to the Layne Board a financial analysis of Layne's business, including an outline of a process to refinance Layne's Convertible Notes and a review of strategic transactions potentially available to Layne. These transactions primarily included raising growth capital from new and existing sources of capital and evaluating potential acquisition, sale and expansion opportunities relating to one or more divisions of Layne's business, as well as acquisitions of private company targets. Representatives of Greentech also reviewed with the Layne Board earnings projections and preliminary valuation estimates for each of Layne's divisions and a preliminary valuation overview for the entire Layne business, based on financial projections provided by Layne management to Greentech.

Layne management continued to analyze various strategic alternatives with representatives of Greentech throughout the summer of 2017, including a process to refinance its Convertible Notes. On August 31, 2017, at a regular meeting of the Layne Board at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech were also present, Greentech representatives provided the Layne Board with an analysis of strategic options related to Layne's water resources division.

Despite the cessation of discussions in February 2017 between Granite and Layne regarding a potential strategic transaction, Granite senior management continued to monitor Layne's publicly available financial and operational information.

On September 11, 2017, Mr. Roberts telephoned Mr. Caliel to gauge Layne's interest in participating in further discussions regarding a potential transaction with Granite. Mr. Caliel relayed the Layne Board's concern that a transaction process may distract Layne management from addressing more pressing operational matters related to its business, including a refinancing of Layne's Convertible Notes. However, Mr. Caliel expressed that he would be willing to discuss further to determine if a viable transaction opportunity existed. Accordingly, on September 27, 2017, Mr. Roberts, Jigisha Desai, Granite's Vice President, Corporate Finance and Treasurer, and Messrs. Caliel and Anderson met in person in The Woodlands, Texas. During that meeting, Granite management reiterated Granite's interest in pursuing a potential transaction with Layne and Layne management provided an updated overview of Layne's business.

On October 9, 2017, the Layne Board held a special meeting at which members of Layne management were also present. During that meeting, Messrs. Caliel and Anderson provided the Layne Board with an update regarding Layne's evaluation of a refinancing process with respect to its Convertible Notes. Messrs. Caliel and Anderson also reviewed with the Layne Board various alternative strategic transactions under consideration, including (a) potential asset or private company acquisitions for Layne's Inliner division, (b) investment opportunities for Layne's water resources division and (c) an analysis of potential financing options.

On October 23, 2017, at a special meeting of the Layne Board, Mr. Anderson provided a further update to the Layne Board regarding the refinancing process for Layne's Convertible Notes and an analysis of potential financing options.

On October 25, 2017, the Granite Board held a meeting at which members of Granite senior management were also present. During that meeting, provided the Granite Board with a review of Granite senior management's evaluation of a potential transaction involving Layne, including a review of potential synergies and performance metrics that could be achieved through the transaction with Layne. After discussions and deliberations, the Granite Board directed Granite senior management to pursue a potential transaction with Layne.

On October 30, 2017, Mr. Roberts called Mr. Caliel to inform him that he would be receiving a letter containing a written proposal for Granite to acquire Layne. This proposal contemplated a transaction in which Granite would acquire all outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock in an all-stock transaction (the October 2017 Proposal). The letter proposed an exchange ratio that would value Layne Common Stock at $15.25 per share (representing a 14.1% premium to the closing price of Layne Common Stock on October 30, 2017). The letter noted the proposal was subject to due diligence, Granite Board approval and negotiation of an acceptable merger agreement.

Following the receipt of the October 2017 Proposal, Mr. Caliel telephoned Mr. Roberts to discuss the October 2017 Proposal. As part of that discussion, Mr. Roberts noted the limited information Granite had regarding Layne's operations and prospects.

On November 1, 2017, the Layne Board held a special meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech were also present. During this meeting, Messrs. Caliel and Anderson provided the Layne Board with a progress report with respect to the refinancing process related to the Convertible Notes. Mr. Caliel also reviewed the October 2017 Proposal with the Layne Board, including Granite's previous interest in acquiring Layne and its renewed interest arising from Layne's improved business outlook. The Layne Board expressed its view that the October 2017 Proposal was inadequate but authorized Layne management to conduct diligence sessions with Granite to enable Granite to better understand Layne's business and opportunities and potentially submit an improved proposal. As a result, Messrs. Roberts and Caliel agreed to in-person meetings of Layne's and Granite's management teams so that Layne could provide Granite with additional information to assist Granite in evaluating Layne.

On November 27, 2017, senior management from Granite and Layne, together with representatives from Perella Weinberg and Greentech, met in Austin, Texas for an in-person due diligence meeting. At this meeting, senior management from Layne presented an overview of its business, including internal financial analyses and forecasts. Following this meeting, Layne management, in consultation with members of the Layne Board, decided to postpone certain aspects of the refinancing process with respect to the Convertible Notes in order to focus on evaluating a potential transaction with Granite, recognizing that a sufficient period still existed prior to the maturity of the Convertible Notes to allow Layne to refinance them if discussions with Granite were to stall.

On November 30, 2017, the Layne Board held a regular meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech were also present. During this meeting, Mr. Caliel provided an update regarding the recent diligence sessions with Granite. Representatives of Greentech then provided an update to the Layne Board regarding its ongoing analysis of a potential combination with Granite and certain alternative transactions under consideration, including a review of (a) potential asset acquisitions, (b) a sale of one or more divisions of the Layne business and (c) potential combinations with public and private targets. Representatives of Greentech also provided the Layne Board with preliminary valuation and accretion and dilution analyses related to a potential transaction with Granite. The Layne Board recommended that Layne management continue to evaluate a potential transaction with Granite and conduct reverse due diligence on Granite's business.

Based on the due diligence conducted to date and the forecasts provided by Layne, on December 12, 2017, Mr. Roberts, on behalf of Granite, sent Mr. Caliel and David A.B. Brown, the Chairman of the Layne Board, a letter proposing that Granite acquire all outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock for $16.25 per share (representing a 35.4% premium to the closing price of Layne common stock on December 12, 2017), with the consideration comprised of shares of Granite Common Stock (the First December 2017 Proposal). The First December 2017 Proposal was conditioned on further due diligence, Granite Board approval and negotiation of an acceptable merger agreement.

On December 14, 2017, the Layne Board held a special meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech and Stinson Leonard Street LLP, Layne's outside legal counsel (Stinson), were also present. During this meeting, Mr. Caliel provided a summary of the First December 2017 Proposal and representatives of Greentech provided an analysis of the First December 2017 Proposal to the Layne Board. In connection with its analysis, representatives of Greentech provided a preliminary overview of the strategic fit between Layne and Granite's operations, as well as an analysis of Layne's valuation and of Granite's stock price performance. Representatives of Greentech also provided an updated summary and analysis with respect to various alternative transactions under consideration, including a review of (a) potential asset acquisitions, (b) a sale of one or more divisions of the Layne business and (c) potential combinations with public and private targets. After discussion, the Layne Board recommended that Layne management decline the First December 2017 Proposal but authorized Layne management to continue to negotiate with Granite to obtain a more favorable proposal for Layne and its stockholders, with an implied valuation of at least $17.00 per share. The Layne Board also recommended that legacy Layne stockholders have appropriate representation on the Granite Board. In connection with this process, the Layne Board delegated authority to Mr. Brown, Mr. Krusi and Mr. Obus to consult with management with respect to a potential transaction with Granite.

On December 18, 2017, Mr. Roberts and Ms. Desai, on behalf of Granite, and Mr. Caliel and Mr. Anderson, on behalf of Layne, participated in a telephone conversation in which they discussed the possibility of a strategic transaction in which Granite would acquire all outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock for $17.00 per share (representing an approximate 32% premium to the closing price of Layne common stock on December 18, 2017), subject to a collar provision to be agreed by the parties that would protect Layne stockholders from a potential decrease in the value of Granite Common Stock.

On December 19, 2017, Messrs. Brown and Obus, as representatives of the Layne Board, participated in a special meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech and Stinson were also present. During this meeting, Mr. Caliel provided a summary of the December 18, 2017 discussions with Granite. Representatives of Greentech and Stinson explained the concept of a collar mechanism, and representatives of Greentech provided a review of precedent transactions involving a collar mechanism and a general discussion of potential collar terms.

On December 22, 2017, Ms. Desai telephoned Mr. Anderson and confirmed Granite's willingness to pursue a potential transaction with Layne based on the terms discussed during the December 18, 2017 telephone conference, including an implied valuation of Layne Common Stock of $17.00 per share, subject to a collar to be determined (the Second December 2017 Proposal). On December 26, 2017, Mr. Roberts called Mr. Caliel to reaffirm the terms of the Second December 2017 Proposal.

On December 27, 2017, the Layne Board held a special meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech and Stinson were also present. During this meeting, Messrs. Caliel and Anderson and representatives of Greentech presented an analysis of the Second December 2017 Proposal to the Layne Board. In connection with this presentation, Mr. Caliel discussed with the Layne Board the terms of the Second December 2017 Proposal, including the concept of a collar with respect to the exchange ratio and Granite's request for a period of exclusivity to conduct confirmatory due diligence on Layne. Representatives of Greentech provided the Layne Board with its analysis of the Second December 2017 Proposal, including a discussion of market conditions and opportunities, potential alternative transactions previously reviewed with the Layne Board, a review of peer transactions and an analysis of each company's recent and historical trading activity. Among other considerations, the Layne Board also discussed with Layne management and Layne's advisors the standalone prospects of Layne, the all-stock consideration and the need for thorough reverse due diligence on Granite. The Layne Board discussed with Layne management the significance of reverse due diligence, particularly in light of the all-stock consideration reflected in the Second December 2017 Proposal. On December 28, 2017, the Layne Board authorized Layne management to agree to an exclusive negotiating period with Granite lasting until February 15, 2018 (provided that Granite reaffirm in writing its interest in pursuing a transaction with Layne at the $17.00 per share valuation on February 1, 2018) on the basis of the terms reflected in the Second December 2017 Proposal to allow the parties to complete confirmatory due diligence on each other. In connection with the reverse due diligence process, the Layne Board authorized the formation of a special committee of the Layne Board, comprised of Mr. Krusi and John T. Nesser III (the Layne Special Committee), to consult with management with respect to the reverse diligence process and any further negotiations with Granite. The Layne Board also authorized Layne to retain Deloitte to support the reverse diligence process.

On December 28, 2017, Mr. Caliel notified Mr. Roberts that Layne would be willing to enter into a customary exclusivity agreement with Granite related to Granite's acquisition of all of the outstanding Layne Common Stock in an all-stock transaction based on an implied value of $17.00 per Layne share (the Proposed Transaction). Following this discussion, Mr. Roberts provided Mr. Caliel with a draft exclusivity agreement.

On December 31, 2017, Messrs. Brown, Krusi and Obus, as representatives of the Layne Board, participated in a special meeting at which members of Layne management, representatives of Greentech and Stinson and representatives of Latham & Watkins, Layne's outside legal advisor, were also present. During this meeting, Mr. Caliel provided a summary of his December 28, 2017 discussion with Mr. Roberts, including the request for an exclusivity agreement. Representatives of Latham & Watkins reviewed the exclusivity agreement and certain proposed revisions thereto with the representatives of the Layne Board present, who directed Layne management to finalize negotiation of the exclusivity agreement.

Following these discussions, Granite and its legal counsel, Jones Day, and Layne and its legal counsel, Latham & Watkins, negotiated an exclusivity agreement that provided, among other things, that Layne would not negotiate a potential transaction with any third party until the earliest of: (a) the date of execution of a definitive agreement providing for the Proposed Transaction; (b) the date upon which the parties mutually agree in writing to terminate the exclusivity agreement; (c) the time at which Granite reduces, or proposes a reduction in, the $17.00 per share valuation of Layne Common Stock; and (d) 6:00 p.m. Central time on February 13, 2018. The exclusivity agreement also required that Granite reaffirm in writing its interest in pursuing a transaction with Layne at the $17.00 per share valuation on February 1, 2018.

On January 8, 2018, Mr. Caliel and Mr. Roberts discussed each company's expectations with respect to the upcoming diligence sessions. During this discussion, Mr. Caliel noted to Mr. Roberts the Layne Board's recommendation that legacy Layne stockholders have representation on the Granite Board given their familiarity with Layne's business.

Following the signing of the exclusivity agreement through and including the signing of the Merger Agreement on February 13, 2018, Granite and Layne, together with their respective financial and legal advisors, conducted due diligence reviews of each other. Throughout this period, members of Layne management and its outside advisors provided regular updates to the Layne Special Committee and conducted additional due diligence at the request of the Layne Special Committee.

In connection with those diligence reviews, from January 9 through January 11, 2018, Granite, Layne and their respective financial, legal and transaction advisors met in Houston, Texas for in-person due diligence meetings. At that meeting, senior management from each of Granite and Layne presented an overview of their respective businesses, including internal financial analyses and forecasts. These diligence sessions were led by Mr. Roberts, Laurel Krzeminski, Granite's Chief Financial Officer, and Ms. Desai, on behalf of Granite, and by Messrs. Caliel and Anderson and other members of Layne management, on behalf of Layne. The diligence sessions included specific discussions with respect to financial, operational, human resource, insurance, tax and legal matters. During the diligence sessions, Granite management also provided Granite's preliminary fourth fiscal quarter financial results to Layne management.

On January 16, 2018, Mr. Caliel and Mr. Roberts provided one another with feedback from the recent diligence session. During this discussion, Mr. Caliel reiterated to Mr. Roberts the request that legacy Layne stockholders have representation on the Granite Board given their familiarity with Layne's business.

In addition, from January 16, 2018 through January 18, 2018, Layne's advisors conducted diligence review in the San Francisco office of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Granite's independent registered public accounting firm. On January 17, 2018, members of Layne management, together with its outside legal advisors, conducted legal diligence sessions with Richard Watts, Granite's Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary.

On January 19, 2018, the Layne Special Committee held a special meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech, Latham & Watkins, Stinson and Deloitte, Layne's external transaction advisor with respect to reverse due diligence matters, were also present. During this meeting, Messrs. Caliel, Anderson and Crooke and representatives of Layne's outside advisors provided a preliminary summary of Layne's reverse due diligence on Granite to the Layne Special Committee, including an analysis of legal, tax and accounting matters. In addition, representatives of Greentech provided updates with respect to valuation information and trading history, as well as an analysis regarding each company's financial performance.

On January 23, 2018, Jones Day delivered to Latham & Watkins an initial draft of the merger agreement. The draft merger agreement, among other things, (a) provided that the obligations of Granite and Layne to consummate the Merger would be conditioned on, among other things, the approval of the Merger by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock entitled to vote at a special meeting of Layne stockholders; (b) provided for a then-undetermined collar on the exchange ratio for the all-stock merger consideration; (c) included representations and warranties by each party; (d) included restrictions on each party's business during the period between execution of the merger agreement and closing of the Merger (the interim period); (e) included restrictions on the ability of the Layne Board to make an adverse recommendation change, other than in response to an intervening event and in accordance with certain specified requirements; (f) restricted Layne's ability to pursue an alternative offer, unless such offer represented a superior offer in accordance with certain specified requirements; (g) provided for a termination fee equal to approximately 4.0% of the aggregate equity value on a fully diluted basis of Layne (taking into account the 8.0% Convertible Notes) that would be payable by Layne to Granite under certain specified circumstances; and (h) provided that, even if no other alternative proposal by a third party were made, Layne would be required to reimburse Granite for all of its out-of-pocket expenses in the event Layne stockholders did not approve the Proposed Transaction. While the draft merger agreement contemplated that the parties intended that the Proposed Transaction qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, it did not contemplate that tax opinions to that effect would be a condition to closing the transaction.

Additionally, the initial draft merger agreement contemplated that, concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, Granite would enter into agreements with the Voting Stockholders, which agreements would provide that the Voting Stockholders would vote their shares of Layne Common Stock in favor of adoption of the proposed merger agreement.

On January 24, 2018, the Layne Board held a special meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech, Latham & Watkins, Stinson and Deloitte were also present. During this meeting, representatives of Latham & Watkins reviewed the directors' fiduciary duties in considering the Proposed Transaction. In addition, Mr. Caliel and Layne's outside advisors provided the Layne Board with an updated analysis of due diligence matters related to the Proposed Transaction, including a summary of reverse due diligence conducted with respect to Granite's business.

On January 30, 2018, the Layne Special Committee held a special meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech and Latham & Watkins were also present. During this meeting, Mr. Caliel provided a status update with respect to negotiations with Granite and representatives of Latham & Watkins reviewed with the Layne Special Committee certain provisions of the initial draft merger agreement. On February 1, 2018, Mr. Roberts, on behalf of Granite, sent Messrs. Caliel and Brown a letter reaffirming Granite's proposed $17.00 per share price valuation with a symmetrical 5.0% collar based on Granite's 10-day volume weighted average price as of that date, meaning that the collar would have a Granite Common Stock floor price of $63.88 and a Granite Common Stock ceiling price of $70.60 (the February 2018 Proposal). Also on February 1, 2018, Granite management provided Layne management with updated guidance with respect to Granite's fiscal year ending December 31, 2018.

On February 2, 2018, the Layne Special Committee held a special meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech and Deloitte were also present. During this meeting, Mr. Caliel provided an overview of the February 2018 Proposal and the status of Layne's reverse due diligence. Mr. Crooke and representatives of Greentech and Deloitte provided an overview of certain diligence matters related to Granite's business.

Later on February 2, 2018, Latham & Watkins delivered to Jones Day a revised draft of the merger agreement. The revised draft merger agreement, among other things, (a) provided that delivery of tax opinions by each party's respective counsel regarding the qualification of the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code would be a condition to closing the Merger; (b) contemplated that Granite would provide more detailed representations and warranties regarding Granite and its businesses, together with interim operating covenants restricting certain actions by Granite during the interim period; (c) limited the termination fee payable by Layne to Granite under certain circumstances to $10.0 million; (d) provided that, if Granite were to enter into a change-in-control transaction during the interim period, Layne could terminate the transaction and receive a reverse termination fee of $10.0 million; (e) revised the conditions under which Layne would be permitted to consider an alternative proposal and the circumstances under which an alternative proposal would be deemed a superior proposal; (f) reduced certain restrictions on the conduct of Layne's business during the interim period; and (g) eliminated any requirement that Layne reimburse Granite for its expenses in connection with the rejection by Layne stockholders of the proposed transaction absent the existence of an alternative transaction.

From February 2, 2018 through and including February 13, 2018, Granite, Layne, and their respective legal counsel exchanged drafts of, and negotiated the terms of, the merger agreement and related transaction documents.

On February 3, 2018, representatives of Perella Weinberg had a discussion with representatives of Greentech regarding the parameters of the collar on the exchange ratio in the February 2018 Proposal and the impact of the significant U.S. stock market volatility, which had commenced on February 1, 2018, on the proposed transaction.

Later on February 3, 2018, the Layne Board held an in-person meeting in Houston, Texas at which representatives of Greentech, Latham & Watkins and Deloitte were also present, either in person or telephonically. During this meeting, Mr. Caliel reviewed the February 2018 Proposal with the Layne Board. Mr. Anderson reviewed Layne's preliminary fourth fiscal quarter outlook and discussed the status of Layne's refinancing of Convertible Notes, which had been postponed pending further negotiations with Granite regarding the Proposed Transaction, with the Layne Board. Representatives of Deloitte also provided the Layne Board with an in-depth analysis of reverse due diligence conducted on Granite's business, including an analysis of Granite's operational and financial performance. Representatives of Greentech provided a preliminary analysis of the February 2018 Proposal, including an analysis of potential synergies, precedent and peer merger and acquisition transactions, trading histories of both Layne and Granite, relative valuations and combined company financial projections (provided by Layne's management) and a review of various collar parameters. Representatives of Latham & Watkins reviewed the directors' fiduciary duties in considering the Proposed Transaction with Granite, reviewed the latest draft of the merger agreement with the Layne Board and provided a summary of the merger agreement to the Layne Board. The Layne Board authorized Layne management to continue to work with the Layne Special Committee to evaluate the Proposed Transaction and indicated support for an all-stock transaction based on an implied value of $17.00 per Layne share, subject to a collar if deemed appropriate by the Layne Special Committee.

Following that meeting, Mr. Caliel telephoned Mr. Roberts and proposed that Granite acquire all outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock at an implied value of $17.00 per share, subject to a symmetrical 10% collar given recent stock market volatility.

In the afternoon of February 4, 2018, Jones Day delivered to Latham & Watkins an initial draft of the Voting Agreement.

In the afternoon of February 5, 2018, Mr. Roberts telephoned Mr. Caliel to discuss the proposed exchange ratio and related collar. During that call, Messrs. Roberts and Caliel discussed the recent volatility in the U.S. stock markets generally, including the recent decline in the price of both Granite Common Stock and Layne Common Stock that continued throughout that day. Messrs. Roberts and Caliel agreed that, while they would direct their respective teams to continue to work toward signing a definitive agreement the following week, they would suspend discussions regarding the exchange ratio and collar until the volatility in stock prices subsided.

In the afternoon of February 5, 2018, the Granite Board met in Nashville, Tennessee. Senior management of Granite and representatives of Perella Weinberg and Jones Day also participated in the meeting. At that meeting, a representative from Jones Day reviewed the Granite Board's fiduciary duties under Delaware law in a transaction such as the one contemplated with Layne and provided the Granite Board with a summary of the terms of the current draft of the merger agreement and the most significant open issues with respect to the draft merger agreement.

On February 6, 2018, the Granite Board continued the meeting initiated on the preceding day. Senior management of Granite and representatives from Perella Weinberg also participated in the meeting. At that meeting, representatives from Perella Weinberg presented a summary of the principal financial terms of the proposed transaction, and members of Granite senior management reviewed with the Granite Board the status of due diligence findings to date. The Granite Board also discussed the recent volatility in the U.S. stock markets generally, including the recent decline in the price of both Granite Common Stock and Layne Common Stock, and the fact that that volatility was complicating negotiations as to a mutually acceptable exchange ratio and collar.

On February 7, 2018, Jones Day delivered to Latham & Watkins a revised draft of the merger agreement. Among other things, the revised draft merger agreement, (a) deleted the delivery of tax opinions as a closing condition; (b) revised interim operating covenants restricting certain actions by Layne between signing and consummation of the Merger; (c) revised the termination fee payable by Layne to Granite under certain circumstances to approximately $17.5 million; (d) deleted Layne's right to terminate the merger agreement and receive a reverse termination fee if Granite were to enter into a change-in-control transaction during the interim period; and (e) reinserted a requirement that Layne reimburse Granite for its expenses in connection with the rejection by Layne stockholders of the proposed transaction absent the existence of an alternative transaction but capped such reimbursement at $3.0 million. Also on February 7, 2018 representatives of Latham & Watkins sent a revised Voting Agreement to Jones Day.

On February 8, 2018, Mr. Roberts and Ms. Desai telephoned Messrs. Caliel and Anderson and informed them that, in light of its ongoing due diligence and given the significant stock market volatility in early February 2018, Granite was now offering to acquire all outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock at a price of $16.50 per share, supported by a collar to be determined.

Later on February 8, 2018, the Layne Board held a special telephonic meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech and Latham & Watkins were also present. During this meeting, Mr. Caliel provided the Layne Board with an update with respect to continued negotiations related to the Proposed Transaction, including the proposed reduction in the implied value per share in exchange for a collar to be negotiated. Representatives of Greentech provided a financial analysis with respect to various combinations of implied value per share and collar parameters. The Layne Board recommended that Layne management continue to pursue the Proposed Transaction based on an implied value of $17.00 per share. The Layne Board further determined that, given the decline in the market, including the change in the share price of Granite Common Stock, setting an exchange ratio without a collar would be more favorable to Layne stockholders as recovery in the overall markets and in the share price of Granite Common Stock would directly benefit Layne stockholders.

Throughout February 9, 2018, Mr. Roberts and Mr. Caliel had several telephone calls to discuss the Proposed Transaction and ultimately agreed to an exchange ratio of 0.27 based on the volume-weighted average prices for Granite Common Stock and Layne Common Stock over the preceding 10-trading day and 90-trading day periods. The 0.27 exchange ratio represented, as of February 9, 2018, an implied value per Layne share of approximately $17.00, or a premium of 33.0%, based on the 10-day and 90-day volume-weighted average prices for Granite Common Stock and Layne Common Stock.

In the afternoon of February 9, 2018, Granite's and Layne's respective legal counsel had a telephone conference to discuss and negotiate the terms of the merger agreement. Later that afternoon, Granite, Layne and their respective legal and financial advisors had a telephone call to discuss the status and timing of the proposed transaction and each party's anticipated fourth fiscal quarter and anticipated fiscal year-end financial performance.

Also on February 9, 2018, Latham & Watkins delivered to Jones Day a revised draft of the merger agreement. The revised draft merger agreement, among other things, (a) provided that delivery of tax opinions by each party's respective counsel regarding the qualification of the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code would be a condition to closing the Merger; (b) contemplated that Granite would provide more detailed representations and warranties regarding Granite and its businesses, together with interim operating covenants restricting certain actions by Granite during the interim period; (c) limited the termination fee payable by Layne to Granite under certain circumstances to $15.0 million; (d) provided that if Granite were to enter into a change-in-control transaction during the interim period, Layne could terminate the transaction and receive a reverse termination fee of $15.0 million; (e) reduced certain restrictions on the conduct of Layne's business during the interim period; and (f) eliminated any requirement that Layne reimburse Granite for its expenses in connection with the rejection by Layne stockholders of the proposed transaction absent the existence of an alternative transaction.

Later on February 9, 2018, the Layne Special Committee held a meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech and Latham & Watkins were also present. During this meeting, Mr. Caliel relayed his discussion with Mr. Roberts earlier that day to the Layne Special Committee, including the 0.27 exchange ratio. Representatives of Greentech also provided an analysis with respect to the 0.27 exchange ratio, each company's recent and historical trading history, as well as a discussion of peer transactions and exchange ratios. Mr. Anderson and representatives of Greentech also provided the Layne Special Committee with an overview of each company's anticipated fourth quarter performance. The Layne Special Committee indicated its support for the 0.27 exchange ratio and recommended that Layne management continue to finalize the terms of the merger agreement.

Over the course of February 10, 2018 and February 11, 2018, representatives of Latham & Watkins and Jones Day participated in various negotiations related to the terms of the merger agreement and the voting agreement and related diligence matters.

In the morning of February 11, 2018, Granite, Layne and their respective financial and legal advisors had a telephone call to negotiate the remaining open items to the merger agreement. Specifically, the parties and their advisors negotiated provisions relating to (a) each party obtaining, as a condition to the Merger, a tax opinion regarding the tax treatment of the Merger; (b) the size of the termination fee; (c) whether Layne would be required to reimburse Granite for all of its out-of-pocket expenses in the event Layne stockholders did not approve the proposed transaction; and (d) the restrictive covenants that would limit the flexibility of the Layne Board and Layne management to operate Layne's business during the interim period.

Later on February 11, 2018, the Layne Board held a meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech and Latham & Watkins were also present. During this meeting, Mr. Caliel provided the Layne Board with an overview of the Proposed Transaction, including the negotiations resulting in the 0.27 exchange ratio. Mr. Anderson also provided the Layne Board with an overview of each company's anticipated fourth fiscal quarter financial performance. Representatives of Greentech also provided updates on various matters relating to the Proposed Transaction, including the implied premium as originally proposed by Granite, the ensuing discussions between parties regarding the determination of the exchange ratio and Greentech's financial perspectives regarding the proposed 0.27 exchange ratio. Representatives of Greentech also provided a preliminary valuation analysis of the transaction. Representatives of Greentech noted that its preliminary analysis was subject to continuing due diligence, including on Granite's fiscal fourth quarter results, the share price movements of the two companies and general stock market conditions. Mr. Caliel discussed with the Layne Board the primary unresolved transaction terms and the proposed communications plan in the event the parties entered into a definitive merger agreement. Representatives of Latham & Watkins reviewed the directors' duties in considering the Proposed Transaction and the principal terms of the merger agreement. After discussion, the Layne Board determined to convene once the terms of the merger agreement were substantially final.

On February 12, 2018, Mr. Caliel telephoned Mr. Roberts to discuss the open issues in the merger agreement and to also review the prior request that the Granite Board appoint one of Layne's directors to the Granite Board effective as of the closing of the Proposed Transaction.

Later on February 12, 2018, members of Granite management, together with Granite's outside advisors, participated in a diligence call with members of Layne management, together with Layne's outside advisors, updating each company's anticipated fourth fiscal quarter financial performance.

Throughout February 12 and February 13, 2018, Granite, Layne and their respective financial and legal advisors continued to negotiate the merger agreement, and Jones Day and Latham & Watkins finalized the other related documents, including the Voting Agreements.

Following the close of trading on the NYSE on the afternoon of February 13, 2018, the Granite Board held a telephonic meeting. The purpose of the meeting was for the Granite Board to consider and vote upon approval of the proposed final draft merger agreement and related draft voting agreement. Senior management of Granite and representatives from Perella Weinberg and Jones Day also participated in the meeting. Mr. Roberts discussed with the Granite Board the fact that Layne had requested that, as part of the transaction, Granite agree to appoint one Layne director to the Granite Board effective as of the Effective Time. Mr. Roberts noted that that was the only remaining open issue. Mr. Roberts also noted that in addition to potentially aiding in the integration of Layne post-Merger, several of Layne's directors may possess the characteristics, experience and expertise that are often sought by the Granite Board with respect to identifying potential directors. After deliberations, the Granite Board agreed to appoint a Layne director of its choice to the Granite Board effective as of the Effective Time. Following such discussions, representatives from Perella Weinberg presented a summary of the principal financial terms of the proposed transaction, and representatives from Jones Day reviewed with the Granite Board the principal legal terms of the proposed final draft merger agreement and draft voting agreement.

Following review and discussion among the members of the Granite Board, the Granite Board unanimously (a) determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby were advisable, fair and in the best interests of Granite and its stockholders and (b) approved the Merger Agreement, the Merger and all other actions and transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The Granite Board also unanimously approved the Voting Agreements.

Later on February 13, 2018, the Layne Board held a special telephonic meeting at which members of Layne management and representatives of Greentech and Latham & Watkins were also present. During this meeting, representatives of Latham & Watkins reviewed the principal legal terms of the merger agreement, focusing primarily on the updates from the draft reviewed with the Layne Board on February 11, 2018. Representatives of Greentech updated the Layne Board as to certain information previously provided to the Layne Board regarding its Exchange Ratio analysis, including a summary of each party's trading history since February 9, 2018 and confirming a 0.27 exchange ratio was consistent with the 90-day volume-weighted average price as of February 13, 2018. At the request of the Layne Board, Greentech reviewed with the Layne Board its financial analysis of the exchange ratio and rendered an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated February 13, 2018, to the Layne Board to the effect that, as of such date and based on and subject to various assumptions made as set forth in its written opinion, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken, the 0.27 exchange ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Layne Common Stock (excluding shares owned by Layne as treasury stock, or shares that are owned directly or indirectly by Granite, Merger Sub or any wholly owned subsidiary of Layne, Granite or Merger Sub). Representatives of Latham & Watkins then reviewed with the Layne Board the proposed resolutions to be considered by the Layne Board. After discussion, the Layne Board unanimously (a) determined that the Merger Agreement and the merger were in the best interests of Layne and its stockholders, (b) declared advisable and approved the Merger Agreement and (c) resolved to recommend that Layne stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement.

Later that evening, on February 13, 2018, the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreements were executed and delivered. The signing of the Merger Agreement was publicly announced on February 14, 2018, prior to the opening of trading on Nasdaq and the NYSE.

Effects of the Merger

Upon completion of the Merger, Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite, will merge with and into Layne. Layne will be the Surviving Corporation and will become a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Granite.

Treatment of Layne Common Stock

At the Effective Time, each share of Layne Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than treasury shares of Layne and any shares of Layne Common Stock owned, directly or indirectly, by a wholly owned subsidiary of Layne, Granite or Merger Sub) will be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive, in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, 0.27 shares of Granite Common Stock.

Treatment of Layne Stock Options

Each Layne Stock Option that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (whether vested or unvested) shall, immediately prior to the Effective Time, automatically and without any action on the part of any holder of any Layne Stock Option be cancelled and, in exchange therefor, converted into the right to receive an amount of cash, if any, equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Layne Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of the Layne Stock Option, multiplied by (b) the excess, if any, of (1) the Layne Equity Award Consideration, over (2) the exercise price of the Layne Stock Option. Such cash amount, net of applicable withholding tax, will be paid to the holder as soon as practicable following the Effective Time.

- 70 -

Treatment of Layne RSUs

Each Layne RSU that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (whether vested or unvested) shall automatically and without any action on the part of any holder of any Layne RSU, be cancelled and, in exchange therefor, converted into the right to receive an amount of cash (without interest) equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Layne Common Stock in respect of the Layne RSU, multiplied by (b) the Layne Equity Award Consideration. Such cash amount, net of applicable withholding tax, will be paid to the holder at the earliest time permitted under the terms of the award such that it does not result in tax penalties.

Treatment of Layne PSUs

Each Layne PSU that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, immediately prior to the Effective Time, vest, and the underlying number of shares of Layne Common Stock earned will be determined based on the maximum level of achievement of the applicable performance goals.

All Layne PSUs that are vested immediately prior to the Effective Time (including the Layne PSUs that vest pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement) shall automatically and without any action on the part of any holder of any Layne PSU, be cancelled and, in exchange therefor, converted into the right to receive an amount of cash (without interest) equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Layne Common Stock earned in respect of the Layne PSU, multiplied by (b) the Layne Equity Award Consideration. Such cash amount, net of applicable withholding tax, will be paid to the holder as soon as practicable following the Effective Time, such that it does not result in tax penalties.

Other Effects

The rights pertaining to Granite Common Stock will be different from the rights pertaining to Layne Common Stock, because the Granite Charter and the Granite Bylaws in effect immediately after the completion of the Merger will be different from the Layne Charter and the Layne Bylaws, respectively. A further description of the rights pertaining to Granite Common Stock and the Granite Charter and Granite Bylaws is set forth under Comparison of Rights of Holders of Granite Common Stock and Layne Common Stock beginning on page 127 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Layne Board Recommendation and Its Reasons for the Merger

At a meeting held on February 13, 2018, the Layne Board, after careful review and consideration, unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger were in the best interests of Layne and its stockholders. The Layne Board unanimously recommends that Layne stockholders vote (a) FOR the adoption of the Merger Agreement, (b) FOR the compensation proposal and (c) FOR the adjournment proposal.

In evaluating the Merger, the Layne Board consulted with Layne's management, as well as Layne's legal and financial advisors, and, in reaching its conclusion, considered the following primary factors:

The Layne Board's knowledge of Layne's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects and of Granite's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects, taking into account the results of its due diligence review of Granite by Layne and its advisors.

The Exchange Ratio of 0.270 shares of Granite Common Stock for each share of Layne Common Stock, equating to a $17.00 per share valuation of Layne Common Stock based upon the volume-weighted average prices for Granite and Layne shares over the 90 trading days prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement, which was a significant improvement over Granite's initial offer, which was $11.75 per share of Layne Common Stock. In response to recent market volatility, the Layne Board also considered the volume-weighted average prices for Granite and Layne shares over the 10-trading days prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement in evaluating the Exchange Ratio.

Table of Contents

The Merger Consideration, with an implied value of $17.00 per share of Layne Common Stock, based upon the volume-weighted average prices for Granite and Layne shares over the 10- and 90-trading day periods prior to February 9, 2018, represented a premium of 33% to the closing price of Layne Common Stock on that date.

Based on the implied value of the merger consideration as of February 13, 2018, Layne shareholders will own approximately 12% of the combined company on a fully diluted, pro forma basis.

Layne had explored a variety of strategic alternatives focusing on growing its business and developing value for its stockholders. Layne also considered its prospects on a standalone basis and evaluated potential strategic transactions that included raising growth capital from new and existing sources of capital and evaluating potential acquisition, sale and expansion opportunities relating to one or more divisions of Layne's business. Following discussion with Layne's management and financial advisors, the Layne Board concluded that the transaction with Granite offered a more favorable opportunity for Layne's stockholders than the alternatives considered.

The Layne Board's view that the Merger provides Layne stockholders with equity ownership in a combined company with a more diversified, expanded national platform of assets that is expected to be positioned as a national leader across both the transportation and water infrastructure markets and possess a stronger financial position and superior access to capital.

The Layne Board's view that Layne stockholders would benefit from a combined company that expected annual run-rate synergies of approximately $20 million by the third year following closing of the Merger.

The financial analyses and presentations of Greentech to the Layne Board with respect to Granite and Layne, and Layne's related written opinion, dated as of February 13, 2017, to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and subject to the various assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered, and limitations of the review undertaken, qualifications contained and other matters set forth therein, the Exchange Ratio of 0.270 was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Layne Common Stock (excluding shares owned by Layne as treasury stock, or shares that are owned directly or indirectly by Granite, Merger Sub or any wholly-owned subsidiary of Layne, Granite or Merger Sub). See Opinion of Financial Advisor to Layne and Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus, which set forth various assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations of the review undertaken, qualifications contained and other matters in connection with the opinion. The full text of the written opinion of Greentech is attached as Annex C and is incorporated by reference into this section of the proxy statement/prospectus.

The Layne Board's view that Granite and Layne share similar cultures and core values focused on ethics, safety, sustainability and commitment to community, integrity, accountability and excellence.

The Layne Board retained financial and legal advisors with knowledge and experience with respect to public merger and acquisition transactions, Granite's and Layne's industry generally and Layne particularly, as well as substantial experience advising other companies with respect to transactions similar to the Merger.

The Layne Board's review, in consultation with Layne's legal advisors, of the structure of the Merger and the financial and other terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, including the Merger Consideration, the Layne Board's expectation that the Merger would qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and the Layne Board's view of the likelihood of completing the Merger on the anticipated schedule.

The terms of the Merger Agreement, principally:

the provisions allowing the Layne Board to withdraw or change its recommendation of or to terminate the Merger Agreement, subject to the payment of a specified termination fee upon termination under certain circumstances, in the event of a superior proposal, or to change its recommendation in the event of certain intervening events, if the Layne Board makes a good faith determination that the failure to change its recommendation or terminate the Merger Agreement would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law;

the fact that the provisions do not provide for a vote of Granite's stockholders to approve the Merger; and the fact that the consummation of the Merger is not conditioned on financing.

The Layne Board's understanding of, and management's review of, overall market conditions, including the current and historical trading prices for Granite Common Stock and Layne Common Stock, and the Layne Board's view that, in light of these factors, the timing of the potential transaction was favorable to Layne.

Layne management's recommendation in favor of the Merger.

The Layne Board also considered potential risks and potentially negative factors concerning the Merger in connection with its deliberations of the proposed transaction, including:

The fact that the Exchange Ratio is fixed and therefore the value of the consideration payable to Layne stockholders will decrease in the event that the market price of Granite Common Stock decreases prior to the closing of the Merger.

The possibility that the Merger may not be completed, or that completion may be unduly delayed, for reasons beyond the control of Granite or Layne, which could result in significant costs and disruption to Layne's normal business.

Certain terms of the Merger Agreement, principally:

restrictions on the ability of Layne to solicit offers for alternative proposals or to engage in discussions regarding such proposals, subject to certain exceptions including in the case of a superior proposal, which could have the effect of discouraging such proposals from being made or pursued.

the termination fee of $16 million that would be payable by Layne in connection with a termination of the Merger Agreement as a result of, among other circumstances, a superior proposal for Layne, which, although within the range of such fees normally seen in similar transactions, could have the effect of discouraging an alternative proposal for Layne; and restrictions on the conduct of Layne business during the period between the signing of the Merger Agreement and completion of the Merger.

The fact that Layne's stockholders will be foregoing the potential benefits, if any, that could be realized by remaining as stockholders of Layne as a standalone entity.

The potential for diversion of Layne management and employee attention and for increased employee attrition during the period prior to completion of the Merger, and the potential effect of the Merger on Layne's business and relations with customers, suppliers and regulators.

The substantial costs to be incurred in connection with the Merger, including the costs of integrating the businesses of Granite and Layne and the transaction expenses arising from the Merger.

The risks of the type and nature described under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 22, and the matters described under "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 31. The foregoing discussion is not intended to be exhaustive, but is intended to address the material information and principal factors considered by the Layne Board in considering the Merger. In view of the number and variety of factors and the amount of information considered, the Layne Board did not find it practicable to, and did not make specific assessments of, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to, the specific factors considered in reaching its determination. In addition, the Layne Board did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to its ultimate determination, and individual members of the Layne Board may have given different weights to different factors.

The Layne Board made its recommendation based on the totality of information presented to, and the investigation conducted by, the Layne Board. It should be noted that certain statements and other information presented in this section are forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Layne

Opinion of Greentech Capital Advisors Securities, LLC

Layne retained Greentech Capital Advisors Securities, LLC (Greentech) to act as Layne s financial advisor in connection with the Merger. Greentech is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes. Layne selected Greentech to act as Layne s financial advisor in connection with the Merger on the basis of Greentech s experience in transactions similar to the Merger, its reputation in the investment community and its familiarity with Layne and its business.

On February 13, 2018, at a meeting of the Layne Board held to evaluate the Merger, Greentech delivered to the Layne Board an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated February 13, 2018, to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and subject to the various assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered, and limitations of the review undertaken, qualifications contained and other matters set forth therein, the Exchange Ratio of 0.27 was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Layne Common Stock (excluding shares owned by Layne as treasury stock, or shares that are owned directly or indirectly by Granite, Merger Sub or any wholly-owned subsidiary of Layne, Granite or Merger Sub).

The full text of Greentech s written opinion to the Layne Board, which describes, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations on the review undertaken, qualifications contained and other matters set forth therein, is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C and is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety. The following summary of Greentech s opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Greentech delivered its opinion to the Layne Board for the benefit and use of the Layne Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for purposes of its evaluation of the Merger. Greentech s opinion does not address any other aspect of the Merger other than the fairness of the Exchange Ratio, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Layne Common Stock (excluding shares owned by Layne as treasury stock, or shares that are owned directly or indirectly by Granite, Merger Sub or any wholly-owned subsidiary of Layne, Granite or Merger Sub), and no opinion or view was expressed as to the relative merits of the Merger in comparison to other strategies or transactions that might be available to Layne, or in which Layne might engage, or as to the underlying business decision of Layne to proceed with or effect the Merger. Greentech s opinion does not address any other aspect of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to the Layne Board as to how the Layne Board should vote on the Merger or to any stockholder of Layne as to how any such stockholder should vote at any stockholders meeting at which the Merger is considered, or whether or not any stockholder of Layne should enter into a voting, shareholders , or affiliates agreement with respect to the Merger or exercise any dissenter s or appraisal rights that may be applicable to such stockholder.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Greentech, among other things:

discussed the Merger and related matters with Layne's counsel and reviewed the financial terms and conditions of the Merger as set forth in a draft of the Merger Agreement, dated February 13, 2018, such draft being the last draft of the Merger Agreement made available to Greentech;

reviewed annual reports to stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of Layne for the five years ended January 31, 2017 and of Granite for the five years ended December 31, 2016;

reviewed certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Layne and Granite;

reviewed certain other communications from Layne and Granite to their respective stockholders;

reviewed certain other publicly available information concerning Layne and Granite;

reviewed certain non-publicly available information concerning Layne and Granite, including certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for Layne prepared by its management (the Layne Forecasts), and certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for Granite prepared by its management (the Granite Forecasts, together with the Layne Forecasts, the Forecasts), in each case, as approved for Greentech's use by Layne, and held discussions with the managements of Layne and Granite, as applicable, regarding such Forecasts and the financial and operational performances and outlooks of Layne and Granite;

reviewed prices and trading activity of Layne Common Stock and Granite Common Stock;

reviewed certain publicly available research analyst reports for Layne and Granite;

reviewed and analyzed certain publicly available financial and stock market data relating to selected publicly traded companies that Greentech deemed relevant to its analysis;

reviewed and analyzed certain publicly available information concerning the terms of selected precedent merger and acquisition transactions that Greentech considered relevant to its analysis; participated in certain discussions and negotiations between representatives of Layne and Granite; conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations and considered such other information as Greentech deemed necessary or appropriate for purposes of its opinion; and took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and Greentech's experience in other transactions, as well as its experience in valuation and its knowledge of Layne's and Granite's industries generally.

In rendering its opinion, Greentech, with Layne's consent, relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was made available, supplied or otherwise communicated to Greentech by or on behalf of Layne or Granite, or that was otherwise reviewed by Greentech, including, without limitation, publicly available information, and does not assume any responsibility for independently verifying any of such information. Greentech relied on such information being complete and correct in all material respects and further relied upon the assurances of the managements of Layne and Granite, as applicable, that, to their knowledge, such information does not contain any material omissions or misstatements of material fact. With respect to the Forecasts supplied to Greentech by Layne and Granite, Greentech assumed, at the direction of Layne, that they were reasonably prepared on the basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the management of Layne and the management of Granite, respectively, as to the future operating and financial performance of Layne and Granite, respectively, and that they provided a reasonable basis upon which Greentech could form its opinion. The Forecasts were not prepared with the expectation of public disclosure and they are based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the Forecasts.

Greentech also assumed that there were no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Layne or Granite since the date of the last financial statements and other financial information of Layne or Granite, respectively, made available to or reviewed by Greentech. Greentech did not make or obtain any independent evaluation, appraisal or physical inspection of Layne's or Granite's assets or liabilities, respectively, nor was Greentech furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. Estimates of values of companies and assets do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or assets may actually be sold. Because such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, Greentech assumes no responsibility for their accuracy.

Greentech assumed, with Layne's consent, that there were no factors that would delay or subject to any adverse conditions any necessary regulatory or governmental approval and that all conditions to the Merger would be satisfied without any material waiver, amendment or delay. In addition, Greentech assumed that the definitive Merger Agreement would not differ materially from the draft Greentech had reviewed. Greentech also assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially on the terms and conditions described in the Merger Agreement, without any adjustment to the Exchange Ratio or waiver of material terms or conditions by any party thereto, and that obtaining any necessary regulatory approvals or satisfying any other conditions for consummation of the Merger would not have an adverse effect on Layne, Granite, Merger Sub or the Merger. Greentech assumed that the Merger would be consummated in a manner that complies with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules and regulations. Greentech further assumed that Layne had relied upon the advice of its counsel, independent accountants and other advisors (other than Greentech) as to all legal, financial reporting, tax, accounting and regulatory matters with respect to Layne, Granite, Merger Sub, the Merger and the Merger Agreement.

Greentech's opinion is limited to whether the Exchange Ratio, from a financial point of view, was fair to the holders of Layne Common Stock (excluding shares owned by Layne as treasury stock, or shares that are owned directly or indirectly by Granite, Merger Sub or any wholly-owned subsidiary of Layne, Granite or Merger Sub), and did not address any other terms, aspects or implications of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including, without limitation, the form or structure of the Merger, any consequences of the Merger on Layne, Granite or their respective stockholders, creditors or otherwise, or any terms, aspects or implications of any voting, support, stockholder or other agreements, arrangements or understandings contemplated or entered into in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or otherwise. Greentech's opinion also did not consider, address or include: (a) the legal, tax or accounting consequences of the Merger on Layne, Granite or their respective security holders; (b) the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to any of Layne's or Granite's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the holders of Layne Common Stock, (c) the fairness of the Merger to holders of any class of securities of Layne other than the holders of Layne Common Stock (excluding shares owned by Layne as treasury stock, or shares that are owned directly or indirectly by Granite, Merger Sub or any wholly-owned subsidiary of Layne, Granite or Merger Sub), or any class of securities of any other party to any transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (d) any advice or opinions provided by any other advisor to Layne or Granite; (e) the treatment of, or effect of the Merger on, any securities of Layne (including, without limitation, any Layne Stock Options, Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs or Granite other than Layne Common Stock, or the holders of any such securities; or (f) any other strategic alternatives currently (or which had been or may be) contemplated by the Layne Board or Layne. Furthermore, Greentech did not express any opinion as to the prices, trading range or volume at which Layne Common Stock or Granite Common Stock would trade following public announcement or consummation, as applicable, of the Merger.

Greentech's opinion was necessarily based on economic, market, financial and other conditions as they existed as of the date of Greentech's opinion, and on the information made available to Greentech by or on behalf of Layne, Granite or their respective advisors, or information otherwise reviewed by Greentech, as of the date of its opinion. Subsequent developments may affect the conclusion reached in Greentech's opinion and Greentech does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. Greentech's opinion is for the information of, and directed to, the Layne Board (in its capacity as such) for its information and assistance in connection with its consideration of the Merger and may not be used for any other purpose. Greentech's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the Layne Board as to how the Layne Board should vote on the Merger or to any stockholder of Layne as to how any such stockholder should vote at any stockholders' meeting at which the Merger is considered, or whether or not any stockholder of Layne should enter into a voting, shareholders', or affiliates' agreement with respect to the Merger or exercise any dissenter's or appraisal rights that may be applicable to such stockholder. In addition, Greentech's opinion did not compare the relative merits of the Merger with any other alternative transactions or business strategies which may have been available to Layne and did not address the underlying business decision of the Layne Board or Layne to proceed with or effect the Merger.

Greentech did not consider any potential legislative or regulatory changes currently being considered by the United States Congress, the SEC or any other regulatory bodies, or any changes in accounting methods or generally accepted accounting principles that may be adopted by the SEC or the Financial Accounting Standards Board. Greentech's opinion did not in any way address the solvency or financial condition of Layne, Granite or any other participant in the Merger.

The issuance of Greentech's opinion was approved by a fairness opinion review committee of Greentech.

The following is a brief summary of the principal financial analyses performed by Greentech to arrive at its opinion. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses performed by Greentech, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Greentech. Considering the data set forth in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses performed by Greentech. Greentech reviewed with the Layne Board the assumptions on which such analyses were based and other factors. No limitations were imposed by the Layne Board with respect to the assumptions made, procedures followed, limitations of the review undertaken, qualifications contained and other matters considered by Greentech in rendering its opinion. Greentech noted that the implied offer price was $16.79 per share of Layne Common Stock based on the Exchange Ratio of 0.270 and the 10-day volume weighted average price (VWAP) of Granite Common Stock as of February 12, 2018, and that the implied offer price was $17.00 per share of Layne Common Stock based on the Exchange Ratio and the 90-day VWAP of Granite Common Stock as of February 12, 2018.

Discounted Cash Flow Analyses

Greentech performed separate discounted cash flow analyses of Layne and Granite to calculate ranges of implied present values of the unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that Layne and Granite were forecasted to generate from February 15, 2018 to January 31, 2022, calendarized to December 31, 2021, for Layne and February 15, 2018 to December 31, 2020 for Granite, utilizing the Layne Forecasts and the Granite Forecasts, respectively.

Layne. In performing a discounted cash flow analysis of Layne, present values (as of February 15, 2018 based on mid-year convention) of the unlevered cash flows and terminal values were calculated using a selected discount rate range of 10.3% to 12.3%. Unlevered free cash flows were calculated by taking estimated earnings and subtracting the amount of projected taxes, capital expenditures, increases in working capital and gains on sales of assets, and adding back projected depreciation and amortization. Greentech derived implied terminal values for Layne by applying perpetual growth rates of 1.5% to 2.0% to Layne's terminal year unlevered free cash flow. The future values of all of the unlevered free cash flows for the four-year period calendarized to December 31, 2021 as described above were then discounted back to February 15, 2018 using the discount rates described above and then adjusted for Layne's cash and debt balances as of October 31, 2017. Based on the number of shares outstanding calculated on a fully-diluted

- 77 -

implied per share equity value reference range for Layne of $12.51 to $17.70. The implied per share equity value of Layne's federal net operating loss carryforward balance (NOL) was estimated to be $0.60 per share of Layne Common Stock, calculated using a discount rate of 11.3%. After including the estimated per share value for the NOL in the upper end of the implied per share equity value reference range described above, Greentech's analysis indicated an implied per share equity value reference range for Layne of $12.51 to $18.30.

Granite. In performing a discounted cash flow analysis of Granite, present values (as of February 15, 2018 based on mid-year convention) of the unlevered cash flows and terminal values were calculated using a selected discount rate range of 9.0% to 11.0%. Unlevered free cash flows were calculated by taking estimated earnings and subtracting the amount of projected taxes, capital expenditures, increases in working capital, gains on sales of assets and income for non-controlling interests, and adding back projected depreciation and amortization. Greentech derived implied terminal values for Granite by applying a multiple range to Granite's terminal year Adjusted EBITDA (as defined below). Based on the Granite Forecasts, Greentech used a range of enterprise values, calculated as equity values based on closing stock prices on February 12, 2018, plus debt, preferred stock and minority interest, and less cash and cash equivalents (EVs), to adjusted last twelve month (LTM) earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization (Adjusted EBITDA) multiples of 8.0x to 10.0x and applied such multiple range to Granite's terminal year Adjusted EBITDA to derive implied terminal values for Granite. The future values of the unlevered free cash flows and implied terminal value for Granite were then discounted back to February 15, 2018 using the discount rates described above. The present values of all of the unlevered free cash flows were then adjusted for Granite's cash and debt balances as of September 30, 2017. This analysis indicated an implied per share equity value reference range for Granite of $59.56 to $76.56.

Utilizing the approximate implied per share equity value reference ranges for Layne and Granite described above, Greentech calculated the following implied Exchange Ratio reference range, as compared to the Exchange Ratio:

Implied Exchange Ratio Reference Range	Exchange Ratio
0.171x - 0.307x	0.270x

Selected Publicly Traded Companies Analyses

Greentech performed separate selected publicly traded companies analyses of Layne and Granite in which Greentech reviewed and compared financial and operating data relating to Layne, Granite and the selected publicly traded companies listed below.

Layne. In performing a selected public companies analysis of Layne, Greentech reviewed publicly available financial and stock market information for Layne and the following five selected companies that Greentech viewed as generally relevant as publicly traded water-related Engineering, Procurement, and Construction companies (the Selected Layne EPCs):

Aegion Corporation

MasTec, Inc.

Primoris Services Corporation

Select Energy Services, Inc.

Stantec Inc.

Greentech reviewed, among other things, the EVs of the Selected Layne EPCs as a multiple of (a) calendar year 2017 estimated Adjusted EBITDA, and (b) calendar year 2018 estimated Adjusted EBITDA. Financial data of the Selected Layne EPCs were based on public filings and publicly available consensus estimates. Financial data of Layne were based on the Layne Forecasts. Implied equity values were derived from EVs by subtracting debt, preferred stock and minority interest and adding back cash and cash equivalents.

- 78 -

The overall low to high calendar year 2017 EV to estimated Adjusted EBITDA multiples observed for the Selected Layne EPCs were 7.7x to 16.5x (with a mean of 10.6x and a median of 8.8x). Greentech noted that, based on the closing stock price of shares of Layne Common Stock on February 12, 2018 and the Layne Forecasts, the implied calendar year 2017 EV to estimated Adjusted EBITDA multiple for Layne was 13.6x. Using its professional judgment and experience, Greentech selected and applied a range of EV to Adjusted EBITDA multiples of 8.5x to 11.5x to the estimated Adjusted EBITDA of Layne for calendar year 2017, based on the Layne Forecasts. This analysis indicated an implied per share equity value reference range for Layne of $5.46 to $9.63 (such range, Layne 2017 Range).

The overall low to high calendar year 2018 EV to estimated Adjusted EBITDA multiples observed for the Selected Layne EPCs were 6.4x to 10.3x (with a mean of 8.0x and a median of 8.1x). Greentech noted that, based on the closing stock price of shares of Layne Common Stock on February 12, 2018 and the Layne Forecasts, the implied calendar year 2018 EV to estimated Adjusted EBITDA multiple for Layne was 8.0x. Using its professional judgment and experience, Greentech then selected and applied a range of EV to Adjusted EBITDA multiples of 6.5x to 8.5x to the estimated Adjusted EBITDA of Layne for calendar year 2018, based on the Layne Forecasts. This analysis indicated an implied per share equity value reference range for Layne of $9.08 to $13.81 (such range, Layne 2018 Range).

Granite. In performing a selected public companies analysis of Granite, Greentech reviewed publicly available financial and stock market information for Granite and the following ten selected companies that Greentech viewed as generally relevant as publicly traded Engineering, Procurement and Construction companies (the Selected Granite EPCs):

AECOM

Aegion Corporation

Downer EDI Limited

MasTec, Inc.

Orion Group Holdings, Inc.

Primoris Services Corporation

Sterling Construction Company, Inc.

Tetra Tech, Inc.

Tutor Perini Corporation

Greentech reviewed, among other things, EVs of the Selected Granite EPCs as a multiple of (a) calendar year 2017 estimated Adjusted EBITDA, and (b) calendar year 2018 estimated Adjusted EBITDA. Greentech reviewed the low end of Adjusted EBITDA (2018E Low End Adjusted EBITDA) and the high end of Adjusted EBITDA (2018E High End Adjusted EBITDA) for calendar year 2018. Financial data of the Selected Granite EPCs were based on public filings and publicly available consensus estimates. Financial data of Granite were based on the Granite Forecasts.

The overall low to high calendar year 2017 EV to Adjusted EBITDA multiples observed for the Selected Granite EPCs were 6.5x to 12.6x (with a mean of 9.3x and a median of 8.9x). Greentech noted that, based on the closing stock price of shares of Granite Common Stock on February 12, 2018 and the actual Adjusted EBITDA for Granite for calendar year 2017, the implied calendar year 2017 EV to Adjusted EBITDA multiple for Granite was 14.5x. Using its professional judgment and experience, Greentech then selected and applied a range of EV to Adjusted EBITDA multiples of 8.0x to 10.0x to the actual Adjusted EBITDA of Granite as provided in the Granite Forecasts. This analysis indicated an implied per share equity value reference range for Granite of $33.26 to $41.62 (such range, Granite 2017 Range).

The overall low to high calendar year 2018 EV to estimated Adjusted EBITDA multiples observed for the Selected Granite EPCs were 5.3x to 12.0x (with a mean of 7.8x and a median of 7.1x). Greentech noted that, based on the closing stock price of shares of Granite Common Stock on February 12, 2018 and the 2018E Low End Adjusted EBITDA, the implied calendar year 2018 EV to estimated Adjusted EBITDA multiple for Granite was 11.0x. Greentech noted that, based on the closing stock price of shares of Granite Common Stock on February 12, 2018 and the 2018E High End Adjusted EBITDA, the implied calendar year 2018 EV to estimated Adjusted EBITDA multiple for Granite was 9.2x. Using its professional judgment and experience, Greentech then applied a range of EV to Adjusted EBITDA multiples of 6.0x to 9.5x to the 2018E Low End Adjusted EBITDA and 2018E High End Adjusted EBITDA, respectively. This analysis indicated an implied per share EV reference range for Granite of $33.07 to $52.47 using the 2018E Low End Adjusted EBITDA (such range, Granite 2018 Range A) and an implied per share equity value reference range of $39.27 to $62.28 using the 2018E High End Adjusted EBITDA (such range, Granite 2018 Range B).

Utilizing the implied per share equity value reference ranges derived for Layne and Granite described above, Greentech calculated the following implied Exchange Ratio reference ranges, as compared to the Exchange Ratio:

Implied Exchange Ratio Reference Range				Exchange Ratio
Low end of Layne 2017 Range / high end of Granite 2017 Range	High end of Layne 2017 Range / low end of Granite 2017 Range	Low end of Layne 2018 Range / high end of Granite 2018 Range A	High end of Layne 2018 Range / low end of Granite 2018 Range A	Low end of Layne 2018 Range / high end of Granite 2018 Range B	High end of Layne 2018 Range / low end of Granite 2018 Range B

No company or business used in these analyses is identical or directly comparable to Layne or Granite. Accordingly, an evaluation of the results of these analyses is not entirely mathematical. Rather, these analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading or other values of the companies or businesses to which Layne or Granite were compared.

Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis

Greentech analyzed certain publicly available information relating to the following selected transactions in the Engineering, Procurement and Construction segment since October 2015:

Month / Year Announced	Target	Acquiror	EV/LTM Adjusted EBITDA Multiple	EV/NTM Adjusted EBITDA Multiple
December 2017	Pure Technologies	Xylem	24.2x	18.7x

For each of the selected transactions, Greentech calculated and compared EV as a multiple of the target's LTM Adjusted EBITDA as most recently disclosed at the time of the announcement of the transaction (EV/LTM Adjusted EBITDA Multiple). Using its professional judgment and experience, Greentech applied an illustrative range of EV/LTM Adjusted EBITDA Multiples of 7.3x to 13.3x to Layne's LTM Adjusted EBITDA for calendar year 2017, as provided to Greentech by the management of Layne. Greentech's analysis resulted in an implied per share equity value reference range for Layne of $5.87 to $11.86.

Greentech also calculated and compared EV as a multiple of the target's next twelve months Adjusted EBITDA as most recently disclosed at the time of the announcement of the transaction (EV/NTM Adjusted EBITDA Multiple). Using its professional judgment and experience, Greentech applied an illustrative range of EV/NTM Adjusted EBITDA Multiples of 7.0x to 11.5x to Layne's NTM Adjusted EBITDA for calendar year 2018, as provided to Greentech by the management of Layne. Greentech's analysis resulted in an implied per share equity value reference range for Layne of $10.52 to $18.10.

No transaction used in this analysis as a comparison is identical to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (including, without limitation, the Merger), and they all differ in material ways. While none of the companies involved in the selected transactions are directly comparable to Layne, these transactions were selected, among other reasons, because the businesses involved in these transactions share similar business characteristics to Layne based on business sector participation, operational characteristics and financial metrics. Accordingly, an analysis of the results described above is not mathematical; rather it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect the acquisition value of the transactions to which they are being compared. Implied equity values were derived from EVs by subtracting debt, preferred stock and minority interest and adding back cash and cash equivalents.

Premium Paid Analysis

Greentech reviewed the premium paid in completed transactions announced after January 1, 2015, valued between $250 million and $1 billion, in which the target was publicly traded and headquartered in North America or Europe and at least 50% of the consideration paid consisted of stock. Greentech excluded targets in the real estate and financial services industries. For each transaction, Greentech calculated the premium per share paid by the acquirer by comparing the announced transaction value per share to the target company's share price one trading day prior to announcement.

The reasons for and the circumstances surrounding each of the transactions analyzed in the premium paid analysis were diverse and there are inherent differences between the business, operations, financial condition and prospects of Layne and the companies included in the premium paid analysis. Accordingly, a purely quantitative premium paid analysis may not be particularly meaningful in the context of considering the proposed transaction. Using its professional judgement and experience, Greentech selected and applied a range of premiums of 13.4% to 32.0% to the closing per share price of Layne Common Stock of $12.57 as of February 12, 2018 to calculate a range of implied equity prices per share of Layne Common Stock of $14.25 to $16.59.

Other Analyses

In rendering its opinion, Greentech also reviewed and considered other factors, including:

historical trading performance of Layne Common Stock and Granite Common Stock during the 52-week period ended February 12, 2018, which indicated low and high closing prices for Layne Common Stock and Granite Common Stock during such period of $7.24 and $13.63 per share and $45.71 and $67.84 per share, respectively and a corresponding illustrative range of Exchange Ratios of 0.107 to 0.298, as compared to the closing price of Layne Common Stock and Granite Common Stock on February 12, 2018 of $12.57 per share and $59.70 per share, respectively, and the Exchange Ratio of 0.270;

historical trading performance of Layne Common Stock and Granite Common Stock during the 104-week period ended February 12, 2018, which indicated low and high closing prices for Layne Common Stock and Granite Common Stock during such period of $5.11 and $13.63 per share and $36.25 and $67.84 per share, respectively, and a corresponding illustrative range of Exchange Ratios of 0.075 to 0.376, as compared to the closing price of Layne Common Stock and Granite Common Stock on February 12, 2018 of $12.57 per share and $59.70 per share, respectively, and the Exchange Ratio of 0.270; and publicly available research analysts' price targets for Layne Common Stock and Granite Common Stock, which indicated a price target for Layne Common Stock of $11.00 per share and high and low price targets for Granite Common Stock of $64.00 to $85.00 per share as compared to the closing price of Layne Common Stock and Granite Common Stock on February 12, 2018 of $12.57 per share and $59.70 per share, respectively.

Miscellaneous

The summary set forth above does not purport to be a complete description of all the analyses performed by Greentech. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Greentech did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, notwithstanding the separate factors summarized above, Greentech believes, and has advised the Layne Board, that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and the factors considered by it, without considering all analyses and factors, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying Greentech's opinion. Greentech used these analyses to determine the impact of various operating metrics on the implied EVs and equity values of Layne or Granite to the extent applicable. Each of these analyses yielded a range of implied EVs and equity values, and therefore, such implied EV and equity value ranges developed from these analyses were viewed by Greentech collectively and not individually.

In performing its analyses, Greentech made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Layne or Granite. Except as otherwise noted, the information utilized by Greentech in its analyses, to the extent that it was based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before February 12, 2018 and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions. These analyses performed by Greentech are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Accordingly, such analyses and estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors. None of Layne, Granite, Greentech or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those projected. The analyses supplied by Greentech and its opinion were among several factors taken into consideration by the Layne Board in making its decision to enter into the Merger Agreement and should not be considered as determinative of such decision.

The type and amount of consideration payable in the Merger was determined through negotiations between Layne and Granite, rather than by any financial advisor, and was approved by the Layne Board. The decision by Layne to enter into the Merger Agreement was solely that of the Layne Board. As described above, Greentech's opinion and analyses were only one of many factors considered by the Layne Board in its evaluation of the proposed Merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Layne Board or management with respect to the Merger.

In accordance with an engagement letter between Layne and Greentech, dated June 23, 2017 (the Engagement Letter), Layne has agreed to pay Greentech for its services in connection with the Merger (a) an aggregate fee of approximately $8 million (the Transaction Fee), which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger, (b) a fee of $750,000 payable upon the delivery of Greentech's opinion, 50% of which is creditable against the Transaction Fee, and (c) a fee of $200,000 paid at the execution of the Engagement Letter and also creditable against the Transaction Fee. Layne also has agreed to reimburse Greentech for its expenses incurred in connection with Greentech's engagement and to indemnify Greentech, its affiliates and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents and controlling persons against specified liabilities. In the two years preceding the date of its opinion, Greentech had not had a material relationship with Layne or any other party to the Merger and there were no material relationships mutually understood to be contemplated in which any compensation was received or was intended to be received as a result of the relationship between Greentech and any party to the Merger. Greentech and its affiliates may in the future provide commercial and investment banking services to Layne, Granite or their respective affiliates and may receive fees for the rendering of such services.

The terms of the fee arrangement, which are customary in transactions of this nature, were negotiated at arm's length between Greentech and Layne, and the Layne Board was aware of the arrangement, including the fact that the Transaction Fee is contingent upon the completion of the Merger.

Greentech, as part of its investment banking services, is regularly engaged in the independent valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers, acquisitions, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes. In the ordinary course of its business, Greentech and its affiliates may actively trade the securities of Layne or Granite for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Certain Information Provided by the Parties

In the course of negotiating the Merger Agreement, Granite and Layne exchanged certain non-public information as part of the customary due-diligence process. As part of this process, Granite and Layne allowed each other, and each other's respective representatives, access, to data rooms that contained non-public information that concerned Granite and Layne, as well as their operations. In addition to the information supplied as part of this process, Granite and Layne each prepared or provided certain prospective financial information to share with the other party and their respective financial advisors. The prospective financial information provided by Granite consisted of projections for the calendar years 2018 through 2020. The prospective financial information provided by Layne consisted of projections as well as additional financial and operating data for the fiscal years 2018 through 2022. Each of Layne and Granite considered the prospective financial information provided by the other party. The prospective financial information disclosed below summarizes the key information that was exchanged and relied upon by the parties.

Granite Unaudited Prospective Financial Information

Although Granite periodically may issue limited guidance to investors concerning its expected financial performance, Granite does not, as a matter of course, publicly disclose detailed financial projections. However, in connection with the negotiation of the Merger, Granite management provided the Granite Forecasts to the Granite Board, Perella Weinberg, Layne and Greentech.

While the Granite Forecasts are being included in this proxy statement/prospectus, the Granite Forecasts were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure, complying with the published guidelines of the SEC regarding projections and the use of non-GAAP measures or complying with the published guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information. In the view of Granite management, the Granite Forecasts were prepared on a reasonable basis and reflected the best-available estimates and judgments of Granite management, as of the time of their preparation. The inclusion of the Granite Forecasts in this proxy statement/prospectus should not be regarded as an indication that Granite or any other recipient of this information considered, or now considers, this information to be predictive of actual future results, nor does it constitute an admission or representation by any person that such information is material. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the prospective financial information.

The Granite Forecasts are unaudited. This prospective financial information included in this proxy statement/prospectus has been prepared by, and is the responsibility of, Granite's management. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has neither audited, reviewed, examined, compiled nor applied agreed-upon procedures with respect to the accompanying prospective financial information and, accordingly, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP does not express an opinion or any other form of assurance with respect thereto. The PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP report included in this proxy statement/prospectus relates to Granite's historical financial information. It does not extend to the prospective financial information and should not be read to do so.

The Granite Forecasts:

include numerous assumptions, as further described below, many of which are beyond the control of Granite and may not prove to be accurate;

were originally prepared during the course of the annual budget process in November 2017 for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2018, and in January 2018 for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2019 and 2020;

do not necessarily reflect current estimates or assumptions management of Granite may have about prospects for Granite's businesses, changes in general business or economic conditions, or any other transaction or event that has occurred or that may occur and that was not anticipated at the time the forecasts were prepared;

are not necessarily indicative of current values or future performance, which may be significantly more favorable or less favorable than as set forth below; and are not, and should not be regarded as, a representation that any of the expectations contained in, or forming a part of, the Granite Forecasts will be achieved.

The Granite Forecasts below also include several key assumptions surrounding the timing, impact and availability of incremental public funding at local, state and national levels. As a result, the Granite Forecasts may not accurately reflect the timing of expected, increased demand, Granite's related or estimated capture of expected, increased demand, or when related project activity would be realized within Granite's financial statements, including any impacts to the competitive environment in key geographic and vertical end markets.

The prospective financial information set forth herein regarding EBITDA (defined as earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization expense) may be considered a non-GAAP financial measure. Granite provided this information to its advisors and to Layne and its advisors, because Granite believed it could be useful in evaluating, on a prospective basis, Granite's potential operating performance and cash flow. EBITDA should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, financial information presented in compliance with GAAP, and EBITDA as used by Granite may not be comparable to similarly titled amounts used by other companies.

Table of ContentsLayne Unaudited Prospective Financial Information

Layne, as a matter of course, does not make public disclosure of detailed forecasts or projections of its expected financial performance due to, among other things, the inherent difficulty of accurately predicting future periods and the likelihood that the underlying assumptions and estimates may prove incorrect. However, in connection with the negotiation and execution of the Merger Agreement, and having consulted with Greentech, its financial advisor, Granite and Perella Weinberg, Granite's financial advisor, Layne provided the Layne Board, Greentech, Granite and Perella Weinberg with certain non-public internal financial projections regarding Layne's anticipated future operations.

The financial projections summarized below were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or with a view toward complying with the published guidelines of the SEC or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants with respect to prospective financial information, but, in the view of Layne management, such projections reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of Layne management as of the time of their preparation. Neither Layne's independent auditor, Deloitte, which is listed as an expert below in Experts, nor Greentech compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the projections summarized herein, and has not expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability, and assumes any responsibility for, and disclaims any association with, such projections. The independent auditor's reports included or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus relate to historical financial statements. They do not extend to any prospective financial information and should not be seen to do so.

Although presented with numerical specificity, the projections were prepared in the context of numerous variables, estimates and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and may be beyond the control of Layne, and which may prove not to have been, or may no longer be, accurate. The projections are subject to many risks and uncertainties. Important factors that may affect actual results and cause actual results to differ materially from these projections include, but are not limited to, risks and uncertainties relating to Layne's business (including its ability to achieve strategic goals, objectives and targets over the applicable periods), industry performance, the regulatory environment, general business and economic conditions, market and financial conditions, Layne's capital structure and refinancing assumptions over the forecast period, various risks set forth in Layne's reports filed with the SEC, and other factors described or referenced under Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 31 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The projections also reflect assumptions that are subject to change and are susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual results, revised prospects for Layne's business, changes in general business or economic conditions, or any other transaction or event that has occurred or that may occur and that was not anticipated at the time the projections were prepared. In addition, the projections do not take into account any of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger and associated expenses, or Layne's compliance with its respective covenants under the Merger Agreement. Further, the projections do not take into account any circumstances, transactions or events occurring after the date they were prepared. Accordingly, actual results will likely differ, and may differ materially, from those contained in the projections. There can be no assurance that these projections will be realized or that future financial results of Layne (or, following consummation of the Merger, Granite) will not materially vary from these projections.

Layne is providing a summary of prospective financial information regarding Layne and Granite, respectively, solely to give stockholders access to the information that Layne management made available to the Layne Board, Greentech, Granite and Perella Weinberg.

- (1) For Layne, Adjusted EBITDA is defined as Layne's net income (loss) before discontinued operations, taxes, interest, depreciation and amortization, gain or loss on sale of fixed assets, non-cash equity-based compensation, equity in earnings or losses from affiliates, certain non-recurring items such as restructuring costs, and certain other gains or losses, plus dividends received from affiliates. Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure, as it excludes amounts, or is subject to adjustments that effectively exclude amounts, included in the most directly comparable measure calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP in financial statements. Adjusted EBITDA is used by Layne's management to provide additional information in order to provide them with an alternative method for assessing Layne's, Granite's and the combined company's financial condition and operating results (including in comparison to other similar companies). These measures are not in accordance with, or a substitute for, GAAP, and may be different from or inconsistent with non-GAAP financial measures used by other companies. Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for net income, operating income, cash flows from operating activities or any other measure of financial performance presented in accordance with GAAP or as a measure of a company's profitability or liquidity.
- (2) For Layne, Free Cash Flow is defined as Layne's earnings before interest and income taxes, less taxes, plus depreciation and amortization, less capital expenditures, plus or minus changes in net working capital, as applicable, less gain on sale of assets and income attributable to non-controlling interest. Free Cash Flow is used by Layne's management to provide additional information with respect to available cash and liquidity. These measures are not in accordance with, or a substitute for, GAAP, and may be different from or inconsistent with non-GAAP financial measures used by other companies. Free Cash Flow should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for cash flows from operating activities or any other measure of financial performance presented in accordance with GAAP or as a measure of a company's profitability or liquidity.

- (4) EBITDA was calculated by Greentech as Granite's net income plus taxes, net interest expense, and depreciation and amortization expense, and approved by Layne for Greentech's use. EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure, as it excludes amounts, or is subject to adjustments that effectively exclude amounts, included in the most directly comparable measure calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP in financial statements. EBITDA was used by Layne's management to provide additional information in order to provide them with an alternative method for assessing Layne's, Granite's and the combined company's financial condition and operating results (including in comparison to other similar companies). These measures are not in accordance with, or a substitute for, GAAP, and may be different from or inconsistent with non-GAAP financial measures used by other companies. EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for net income, operating income, cash flows from operating activities or any other measure of financial performance presented in accordance with GAAP or as a measure of a company's profitability or liquidity.
- (5) Free Cash Flow was calculated by Greentech as Granite's earnings before interest and income taxes, less taxes, plus depreciation & amortization, less capital expenditures, plus or minus changes in net working capital, as applicable, less gain on sale of assets and income attributable to non-controlling interest and approved by Layne for Greentech's use. Free Cash Flow is used by Layne's management to provide additional information with respect to available cash and liquidity. These measures are not in accordance with, or a substitute for, GAAP, and may be different from or inconsistent with non-GAAP financial measures used by other companies. Free Cash Flow should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for cash flows from operating activities or any other measure of financial performance presented in accordance with GAAP or as a measure of a company's profitability or liquidity.

The inclusion of a summary of the projections in this proxy statement/prospectus should not be regarded as an indication that any of Layne, Granite or their respective affiliates, officers, directors or other representatives consider the projections to be necessarily predictive of actual future events, and the projections should not be relied upon as such. None of Layne, Granite or their respective affiliates, officers, directors or other representatives can give any stockholder of Layne, Granite or other person any assurance that actual results will not differ materially from the projections, and, except as otherwise required by law, none of them undertakes any obligation to update or otherwise revise or reconcile the projections to reflect circumstances existing after the date the projections were generated or to reflect the occurrence of future events, even in the event that any or all of the assumptions and estimates underlying the projections are shown to be in error.

Readers are cautioned not to rely on the projections. Layne has not updated and, except as otherwise required by law, does not intend to update or otherwise revise the projections, even in the short term, to reflect circumstances existing after the date when made or to reflect the occurrence of future events, including the Merger. Further, the projections do not take into account the effect of any failure of the Merger to occur and should not be viewed as accurate or continuing in that context.

The prospective financial information presented here is not included in this proxy statement/prospectus in order to influence any stockholder to make any investment decision with respect to the Merger. The inclusion of this information should not be regarded as an indication that the Layne Board, its advisors or any other person considered, or now considers, it to be material or to be a reliable prediction of actual future results. The financial projections summarized below are subjective in many respects. There can be no assurance that these projections will be realized or that actual results will not be significantly higher or lower than forecasted. The projections included herein cover multiple years, and such information by its nature becomes subject to greater uncertainty with each successive year. The financial projections and summary information should be evaluated, if at all, in conjunction with the historical financial statements and other information contained in Layne's public filings with the SEC.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

In considering the information described in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should be aware that Layne's executive officers and directors may have had economic interests in the Merger that are or were different from, or in addition to, those of Layne's stockholders generally and that may create potential conflicts of interest. In addition to the rights described below in this section, the executive officers of Layne may be eligible to receive some of the generally applicable benefits described under the heading The Merger Agreement Employee Benefits Matters on page 118. The Layne Board was aware of and considered those interests, among other matters, in reaching its decision to approve the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Set forth below are the descriptions of the directors' and executive officers' interests including, but are not limited to, the treatment in the Merger of Layne's equity compensation awards (including the acceleration of Layne Stock Options, Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs), severance plans and other rights that may be held by Layne's directors and executive officers, and the indemnification of current and former Layne directors and officers by the Surviving Corporation. The dates used in the discussions below to quantify certain of these interests have been selected for illustrative purposes only, and they do not necessarily reflect the dates on which certain events will occur.

Equity Awards Held by Layne Directors and Executive Officers

Treatment of Outstanding Equity Awards in the Merger

The general treatment of Layne Stock Options, Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs in the Merger, including such awards held by Layne's directors and executive officers, is described under section entitled The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 99 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The following table summarizes, as of March 9, 2018, the aggregate number of Layne Stock Options, Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs that are currently subject to vesting for each of Layne's executive officers and directors, and that will become vested at the time of the Merger under the Layne 2006 Equity Incentive Plan, as amended, and award agreements, assuming continued employment through the Effective Time, and assuming the Effective Time occurs on May 31, 2018. The table also provides an estimate of the cash value of the Merger Consideration payable upon the settlement of these awards, in each case, solely as a result of the Merger. This cash value estimate is based on a per share value of Layne Common Stock of $16.01, which represents the average closing market price of Layne Common Stock over the first five business days following the first public announcement of the Merger.

In addition, in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, each of Layne's directors and the Executives entered into letter agreements with Layne pursuant to which they agreed (a) to the treatment of their Layne Stock Options, Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs under the terms of the Merger Agreement, (b) not to exercise any of their currently outstanding Layne Stock Options prior to the earlier of (1) the termination date (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and (2) December 15, 2018, and (c) to defer settlement of any of their currently outstanding Layne RSUs or Layne PSUs, included in the table above; that vest prior to the Effective

Executive Severance Agreements

Layne has entered into severance agreements with the Executives, other than Mr. Purlee, which provide payments and benefits in connection with a termination of employment in certain circumstances, including enhanced benefits for certain terminations that occur in connection with a change in control. The Merger will constitute a change in control for purposes of each Executive's severance agreement. The severance agreements subject these Executives to certain restrictive covenants including covenants not to compete, confidentiality and non-solicitation of Layne employees, which run during the term of the severance agreement. If an Executive fails to comply with these covenants (subject to a notice and right to cure period), the terminated Executive would not be entitled to receive the severance benefits described in this section. The severance agreements also contain covenants not to compete and non-solicitation provisions that apply for 24 months after termination with respect to Messrs. Caliel, Anderson and Crooke and for 12 months after termination with respect to Mr. Maher. The severance agreements with Messrs. Caliel, Anderson, Crooke and Maher generally provide:

If before a change of control or after a two-year period following a change of control with respect to Messrs. Caliel and Anderson, a three-year period following a change of control with respect to Mr. Crooke and a one-year period following a change of control with respect to Mr. Maher, the Executive's employment is terminated without cause or is constructively terminated (i.e., the Executive leaves for good reason), the Executive is entitled to receive severance benefits that include:

With respect to Messrs. Caliel and Anderson: (a) 24 months of continued base salary paid in a lump sum, (b) continued vesting of service-based equity awards and a continued right to exercise outstanding stock options during this 24-month severance period, (c) for any performance-based equity award that is exercisable, payable or becomes vested only if the applicable performance-based criteria is satisfied, such performance-based award will become exercisable, payable or become vested at the time of and only if the underlying performance criteria is satisfied; provided, that if the performance period ends after the severance period, only a pro rata portion of the award shall become exercisable, payable or become vested, (d) for any performance-based stock options that become exercisable after the end of the 24-month severance period, such stock options will remain exercisable until the earlier of the original expiration date of the option or 90 days after the end of the 24-month severance period, (e) a lump-sum payment equal to 24 times the present monthly amount of Layne's total premium cost to cover Mr. Caliel or Mr. Anderson, as applicable, under Layne's health, vision and dental plans, as well as the cost of coverage of any of his eligible dependents enrolled as of the date of his termination; and (f) payment of a pro-rata portion of any annual incentive bonus Mr. Caliel or Mr. Anderson was eligible to receive during the year of Mr. Caliel's or Mr. Anderson's termination assuming performance was achieved at 100% of target.

With respect to Mr. Crooke: (a) 24 months of continued base salary paid in accordance with regular payroll practices, (b) continued vesting of service-based equity awards and a continued right to exercise outstanding stock options during this 24-month severance period, (c) for any performance-based equity award that is exercisable, payable or becomes vested only if the applicable performance-based criteria is satisfied, such performance-based award will become exercisable, payable or become vested at the time of and only if the underlying performance criteria is satisfied, (d) for any performance-based stock options that become exercisable after the end of the 24-month severance period, such stock options will remain exercisable until the earlier of the original expiration date of the option or 90 days after the end of the 24-month severance period, (e) with respect to Mr. Crooke, continued participation in Layne's welfare benefit plans (or comparable arrangements) throughout the 24-month severance period; and (f) payment of any applicable COBRA premiums.

With respect to Mr. Maher: (a) 12 months of continued base salary paid in a lump sum, (b) continued vesting of service-based equity awards and a continued right to exercise outstanding stock options during this 12-month severance period, (c) for any performance-based equity award that is exercisable, payable or becomes vested only if the applicable performance-based criteria is satisfied, such performance-based award will become exercisable, payable or become vested at the time of and only if the underlying performance criteria is satisfied; provided, that if the performance period ends after the severance period, only a pro rata portion of the award shall become exercisable, payable or become vested, (d) for any performance-based stock options that become exercisable after the end of the 12-month severance period, such stock options will remain exercisable until the earlier of the original expiration date of the option or 90 days after the end of the 12-month severance period, and (e) a lump-sum payment equal to 12 times the present monthly amount of Layne's total premium cost to cover Mr. Maher, as applicable, under Layne's health, vision and dental plans, as well as the cost of coverage of any of his eligible dependents enrolled as of the date of his termination.

Following a change of control of Layne and for a three-year period following the change of control with respect to Mr. Crooke, a two-year period following the change of control with respect to Messrs. Caliel and Anderson and a one-year period following the change of control with respect to Mr. Maher, Layne or its successor is obligated to both (a) continue to employ the Executive in a substantially similar position (at an equal or greater base salary as before the change of control) and (b) provide the Executive with certain welfare benefits and bonus compensation opportunities similar to those of other similarly situated employees. In addition, under the severance agreements, the Executives would be entitled to the following change-in-control related payments and benefits:

Upon a change of control, all of Messrs. Caliel's and Crooke's outstanding equity awards become immediately vested, exercisable or payable, as the case may be. If Mr. Anderson's employment is terminated by Layne without cause or by Mr. Anderson for good reason during the two-year period following a change of control of Layne, all of Mr. Anderson's outstanding equity awards become immediately vested, exercisable or payable, as the case may be. If Mr. Maher's employment is terminated by Layne without cause or by Mr. Maher for good reason during the one-year period following a change of control of Layne, all of Mr. Maher's outstanding equity awards become immediately vested, exercisable or payable, as the case may be.

If Mr. Caliel's or Mr. Anderson's employment is terminated without cause or by Mr. Caliel or Mr. Anderson for good reason during the two-year period following a change of control of Layne, Mr. Caliel or Mr. Anderson, as applicable, is entitled to (a) payment of any accrued but unpaid base salary and payment of any benefits as required by the terms of any employee benefit plan or program of Layne, (b) a lump-sum severance payment equal to two times his base salary, (c) a lump-sum severance payment equal to two times the amount of his annual incentive bonus for the year in which his termination occurred assuming performance was achieved at 100% of target and (d) a lump-sum payment equal to 24 times the present monthly amount of Layne's total premium cost to cover Mr. Caliel or Mr. Anderson under applicable health, vision and dental plans, as well as the cost of coverage of any of his eligible dependents enrolled as of the date of his termination.

If Mr. Crooke's employment is terminated or constructively terminated (i.e., Mr. Crooke leaves for good reason) during the three-year period following a change of control of Layne, he is entitled to: (a) a special lump-sum severance payment equal to the present value of the remaining base salary he would receive if he remained an employee until the later of the end of the third anniversary of the change of control or the second anniversary of his termination date; and (b) coverage under all employee benefit plans (other than the 401(k) retirement plan) that covered him prior to termination until the later of the end of the third anniversary of the change of control or the second anniversary of his termination date. Mr. Crooke is additionally entitled to, with respect to any payments made pursuant to the severance agreement or otherwise that are subject to the Code's penalty tax provisions for excessive golden parachute payments, reimbursement by Layne (on an after-tax basis) for the amount of any such penalty tax.

If Mr. Maher's employment is terminated by Layne without cause or by Mr. Maher for good reason during the one-year period following a change of control of Layne, Mr. Maher is entitled to (a) payment of any accrued but unpaid base salary and payment of any benefits as required by the terms of any employee benefit plan or program of Layne, (b) a lump-sum severance payment equal to one times his base salary and (c) a lump-sum payment equal to 12 times the present monthly amount of Layne's total premium cost to cover Mr. Maher under Layne's health, vision and dental plans, as well as the cost of coverage of any of his eligible dependents enrolled as of the date of his termination.

If the Executive's employment is terminated due to death, the Executive's estate or his beneficiaries will be entitled to receive (a) immediate acceleration of the vesting of the Executive's service-based equity awards and the right to exercise the service-based stock options until the earlier of the original expiration date of the options or 12 months after the Executive's date of death, (b) for any performance-based equity award that is exercisable, payable or becomes vested only if the applicable performance-based criteria is satisfied, such performance-based award will become exercisable, payable or become vested at the time of and only if the underlying performance criteria is satisfied, (c) for any performance-based stock option that becomes exercisable due to the satisfaction of the underlying performance criteria, the continued right to exercise the option until the earlier of (1) with respect to Mr. Crooke, the option's original expiration date or 12 months after the Executive's date of death and (2) with respect to Messrs. Caliel, Anderson and Maher, the option's original expiration date or the later of 12 months after the option first becomes exercisable or 12 months after the Executive's date of death, and (d) with respect to Messrs. Caliel, Anderson and Maher, payment of a pro-rata portion of any annual incentive bonus he was eligible to receive during the year of his death, to the extent the underlying performance criteria were met.

If the Executive's employment is terminated due to disability, the Executive will be entitled to (a) payment of a lump sum disability benefit equal to 12 months' base salary, (b) immediate acceleration of the vesting of his service-based equity awards and a continuation of his right to exercise any service-based stock options for a period of 12 months after the termination, (c) for any performance-based equity award that is exercisable, payable or becomes vested only if the applicable performance-based criteria is satisfied, such performance-based award will become exercisable, payable or become vested at the time of and only if the underlying performance criteria is satisfied, (d) for any performance-based stock options that have become exercisable due to the satisfaction of the underlying performance criteria, the continued right to exercise the options until the earlier of (1) with respect to Mr. Crooke, the option's original expiration date or 12 months after the Executive's termination due to disability and (2) with respect to Messrs. Caliel, Anderson and Maher, the option's original expiration date or the later of 12 months after the option first becomes exercisable or 12 months after the Executive's date of disability, and (e) with respect to Messrs. Caliel, Anderson and Maher, payment of a pro-rata portion of any annual incentive bonus he was eligible to receive during the year his employment was terminated, to the extent the underlying performance criteria were met.

Employment Arrangements Between Granite and Layne's Executive Officers

Granite and Layne have commenced an integration planning process to determine the employment status of Layne's executive officers following the Effective Time. Additional decisions regarding these individuals are expected to be made closer to, or after, the closing of the Merger.

Retention and Inducement Bonuses

In connection with the Merger, Mr. Maher and Mr. Purlee will be eligible to receive a special one-time retention bonus award in the amount of $50,000 and $100,000 respectively. The retention bonuses will be paid in cash and are subject to continued employment through the date that is six months after the date of consummation of the Merger. In addition, in connection with his commencement of employment with Layne, Mr. Anderson received a cash inducement award opportunity of $400,000, which was scheduled to be paid on the three year anniversary of his commencement of employment. This award will accelerate and be paid upon the consummation of the Merger.

Possible Change-in-Control Compensation

The following table sets forth the information required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K regarding certain compensation which each of the Executives may receive that is based on or that otherwise relates to the Merger. This compensation is sometimes referred to as "golden parachute" compensation. The "golden parachute" compensation payable to the Executives is subject to a non-binding advisory vote of Layne stockholders, as described under Proposal 2 Approval, on an Advisory Basis, of Certain Compensatory Arrangements with Named Executive Officers beginning on page 58 of this proxy statement/prospectus. Assuming that the Merger is consummated and the named executive officers are terminated immediately following the Effective Time in a qualifying termination of employment and are entitled to full benefits available under their severance agreements, the named executive officers would receive approximately the amounts set forth in the table below. No named executive officer will receive any pension or nonqualified deferred compensation that is based on or otherwise triggered by the consummation of the Merger. Please note that the amounts indicated below are estimates based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur, including assumptions described in this proxy statement/prospectus. As a result, the actual amounts, if any, to be received by a named executive officer may differ from the amounts set forth below. Additionally, the amounts indicated assume that the Effective Time occurs on May 31, 2018.

- (1) Amount shown represents lump sum cash severance amounts that would be payable on a double trigger basis if the Executive is terminated without cause or resigns employment for good reason following the Effective Time. For additional information, see Executive Severance Agreements beginning on page 94 of this proxy statement/prospectus. The amount shown also includes the following cash amounts, which would be paid on a single trigger basis upon consummation of the Merger: Mr. Anderson: $400,000 in respect of a cash inducement award, which will be accelerated in connection with the Merger; Mr. Maher: $50,000 in respect of a cash retention bonus payable in connection with the Merger; and Mr. Purlee: $100,000 in respect of a cash retention bonus payable in connection with the Merger.
- (2) Amount shown represents lump sum cash payments the Executives will receive upon consummation of the Merger in respect of the cancellation of their unvested Layne Stock Options, Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs (including payments that will be made in respect of Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs that may vest prior to the consummation of the Merger) pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement. For additional information, see Equity Awards Held by Layne Directors and Executive Officers beginning on page 88 of this proxy statement/prospectus. The amount is based on a per share value for Layne Common Stock of $16.01, which represents the average closing market price of Layne Common Stock over the first five business days following the first public announcement of the Merger.

- (3) Amount shown represents the estimated value of continued employee benefit plan coverage and participation (or for certain Executives, cash payments in respect of such coverage and participation) that would be payable on a double trigger basis if the Executive is terminated without cause or resigns employment for good reason following the Effective Time. For additional information, see Executive Severance Agreements beginning on page 94 of this proxy statement/prospectus. The estimated amounts shown in this column are based on the benefit levels in effect on March 9, 2018, the latest practicable date to determine such amounts before the filing of this prospectus/proxy statement. Therefore, if benefit levels are changed after such date, actual payments to a named executive officer may be different than those listed in this column.

- (4) Mr. Crooke is the only named executive officer who would be entitled to a payment in respect of excise taxes in connection with golden parachute payments related to the Merger. The amount shown represents an estimate of a lump-sum gross-up payment on account of these excise taxes in the event Mr. Crooke becomes subject to this excise tax.

Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance

Under the Merger Agreement, each present and former director and officer of Layne will have rights to indemnification and expense advancement arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Merger, from the Surviving Corporation, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and on the same terms and conditions as such director or officer was indemnified by Layne immediately prior to the Merger for a period of at least six years from and after the Merger. In addition, Granite has agreed to purchase tail insurance policies, with a claims period of at least six years from and after the Merger, with respect to directors and officers liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance. For additional information see the section entitled The Merger Agreement Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance beginning on page 95 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Regulatory Approvals

Under the antitrust and competition laws of the United States, Granite and Layne cannot complete the Merger until they file certain required notifications and report forms with the relevant antitrust or competition governmental entities and, where applicable, receive clearance (including the expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods) from such governmental entities to complete the Merger. Granite and Layne are not currently aware of any other material governmental consents, approvals or filings that are required prior to the parties' completion of the Merger other than described below. If additional approvals, consents and filings are required to complete the Merger, Granite and Layne intend to seek such consents and approvals and make such filings. Although Granite and Layne believe that they will receive the required consents and approvals described below to complete the Merger, Granite and Layne cannot give any assurance as to the timing of these consents and approvals or as to Granite's and Layne's ultimate ability to obtain such consents or approvals (or any additional consents or approvals which may otherwise become necessary) or that Granite and Layne will obtain such consents or approvals on terms and subject to conditions satisfactory to Granite and Layne.

HSR Act

The Merger is subject to the requirements of the HSR Act and the related rules and regulations, which provide that certain acquisitions may not be completed until required information has been furnished to the Antitrust Division of the DOJ and the FTC and until the waiting period has been terminated or has expired. The expiration or early termination of the HSR Act waiting period would not preclude the Antitrust Division of the DOJ or the FTC from challenging the Merger on antitrust grounds and seeking to preliminarily or permanently enjoin the proposed Merger. Although the parties believe the completion of the Merger will not likely be prevented by antitrust law, the Antitrust Division of the DOJ or the FTC may take a different position. If Granite and Layne do not complete the Merger within twelve months after the expiration or early termination of the HSR Act waiting period, Granite and Layne will need to submit new information to the Antitrust Division of the DOJ and the FTC, and wait for the expiration or early termination of a new HSR Act waiting period before Granite and Layne could complete the Merger.

On February 28, 2018, Granite and Layne filed their respective notification and report forms under the HSR Act with the Antitrust Division of the DOJ and the FTC. On March 12, 2018, the FTC granted early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act.

NYSE Listing of Granite Common Stock; De-Listing and Deregistration of Layne Common Stock After the Merger

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Granite has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Granite Common Stock to be issued or reserved for issuance in the Merger to be approved for listing on NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time. The approval by NYSE is a condition to the closing of the Merger. After the completion of the Merger, Granite expects to (a) delist the Layne Common Stock from the Nasdaq and (b) deregister Layne Common Stock under the Exchange Act.

Exchange of Shares of Layne Common Stock

Prior to the Effective Time, Granite will appoint an exchange agent for the payment of the Merger Consideration in exchange for shares of Layne Common Stock. Promptly after the Effective Time of the Merger, Granite and the Surviving Corporation will mail or cause the exchange agent to mail to each holder of record of Layne Common Stock a letter of transmittal and instructions for effecting the surrender of stock certificates or uncertificated shares in exchange for the payment of the Merger Consideration described above to be made to the holder of such certificates or uncertificated shares. Upon surrender or transfer of shares of Layne Common Stock to the exchange agent, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal and such other evidence as the exchange agent may require, the holder of such shares will be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration for each share of Layne Common Stock. The exchange agent, the Surviving Corporation and Granite are entitled to deduct and withhold any applicable taxes from any Merger Consideration that would otherwise be payable.

After the Effective Time, each certificate that previously represented shares of Layne Common Stock will be cancelled and, subject to compliance with the procedures described above, exchanged for the Merger Consideration as described above under Effects of the Merger.

Layne stockholders should not return their stock certificates with the enclosed proxy card and should not forward stock certificates to the exchange agent without a letter of transmittal.

Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares of Layne Common Stock

A holder of Layne Common Stock will be entitled to receive dividends or other distributions on Granite Common Stock with a Record Date after the Effective Time, but only after such holder has surrendered its Layne Common Stock certificates and uncertificated shares. Any dividend or other distribution on Granite Common Stock with a Record Date after the Effective Time will be paid, without interest and subject to the effect of escheat, tax or other applicable law, (a) at the time of surrender of the common stock certificate or uncertificated share, if the payment date is on or prior to the date of surrender and not previously paid, or (b) at the appropriate payment date, if the dividends or distributions have a payment date subsequent to such surrender.

Fractional Shares

Granite will not issue any fractional shares of Granite Common Stock in connection with the Merger. Instead, each holder of Layne Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Granite Common Stock (after taking into account all shares of Layne Common Stock owned by such holder at the Effective Time) will receive cash (without interest) equal to such fractional amount multiplied by the Granite Common Stock Price.

Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates

If a Layne Common Stock certificate is lost, stolen or destroyed, the holder of such certificate must deliver an affidavit of that fact prior to receiving any Merger Consideration and, if required by the Surviving Corporation, may also be required to provide an indemnity bond (in such reasonable amount as may be directed by the Surviving Corporation) prior to receiving the Merger Consideration.

No Appraisal Rights

Appraisal rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable stockholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a Merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to stockholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction.

Table of Contents

Appraisal rights are not available in all circumstances, and exceptions to these rights are provided under the DGCL. Section 262 of the DGCL provides that stockholders have the right, in some circumstances, to dissent from certain corporate actions and to instead demand payment of the fair value of their shares. Stockholders do not have appraisal rights with respect to shares of any class or series of stock if such shares of stock, or depositary receipts in respect thereof, are either (a) listed on a national securities exchange or (b) held of record by more than 2,000 holders, unless the stockholders receive in exchange for their shares anything other than shares of stock of the surviving or resulting corporation (or depositary receipts in respect thereof), or of any other corporation that is publicly listed or held by more than 2,000 holders of record, cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depositary receipts described above or any combination of the foregoing. Therefore, because Layne Common Stock is listed on Nasdaq, and will receive in the Merger only shares of Granite Common Stock, which will be publicly listed on NYSE, and cash in lieu of fractional shares, holders of Layne Common Stock will not be entitled to appraisal rights in the Merger with respect to their shares of Layne Common Stock.

Under the DGCL, the holders of Granite Common Stock are not entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the Merger.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

The Merger will be accounted for by Granite as a business combination under the acquisition method of accounting, in conformity with GAAP. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of Layne as of the Effective Time will be recorded by Granite at their respective fair values and added to those of Granite. Any excess of purchase price over the fair value of the net assets will be recorded as goodwill. Layne's assets and liabilities and results of operations will be consolidated from the date of the Merger.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary describes certain material provisions of the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and which is incorporated by reference herein. The description in this section and elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the Merger Agreement that is important to you. Granite and Layne encourage you to read carefully the Merger Agreement in its entirety before making any decisions regarding the Merger because it is the principal document governing the Merger.

The Merger Agreement and this summary of its terms have been included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement. Factual disclosures about Granite or Layne contained in this proxy statement/prospectus or in Granite's or Layne's public reports filed with the SEC may supplement, update or modify the factual disclosures about Granite or Layne contained in the Merger Agreement and described in this summary. The representations, warranties and covenants made in the Merger Agreement by Granite, Layne and Merger Sub were qualified and subject to important limitations agreed to by Granite, Layne and Merger Sub in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement and may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors. In particular, in your review of the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement and described in this summary, it is important to bear in mind that the representations and warranties were negotiated with the principal purposes of establishing the circumstances in which a party to the Merger Agreement may have the right not to close the Merger if the representations and warranties of the other party prove to be untrue due to a change in circumstance or otherwise, and allocating risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement, rather than establishing matters as facts. Information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties, which do not purport to be accurate as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, may have changed since the date of the Merger Agreement.

The Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and in accordance with the DGCL, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite and a party to the Merger Agreement, will merge with and into Layne. Layne will survive the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite, and the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease.

Effective Time; Closing

The Merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later time as is agreed upon by Granite and Layne and specified in such certificate of merger. The closing of the Merger will occur as soon as practicable (but no later than two business days) following the day on which the last to be satisfied or waived of the conditions to the Merger set forth in the Merger Agreement and described in this proxy statement/prospectus (other than conditions which by their terms are required to be satisfied or waived at the closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions) has been satisfied or waived in accordance with the Merger Agreement, or at such other time and place as agreed upon by Granite and Layne (but in no event later than September 30, 2018).

Although Granite and Layne expect to consummate the Merger as soon as possible following the Special Meeting (in the event Layne's stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement), neither Granite nor Layne can specify when or make any assurances that Granite and Layne will satisfy or waive all of the conditions to the Merger. See Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 100 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Merger Consideration

Layne Common Stock

At the Effective Time, each share of Layne Common Stock then issued and outstanding (other than shares (a) held in treasury of Layne or (b) directly or indirectly owned by Granite, Merger Sub or a wholly owned subsidiary of Layne) will be cancelled and converted based on the Exchange Ratio, into 0.27 validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of Granite Common Stock. No fractional shares of Granite Common Stock will be issued in the Merger and Layne's stockholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional share. Granite expects that it will issue approximately 5.4 million shares of Granite Common Stock in the Merger, excluding any shares that may subsequently be issued in connection with conversion of the 8.0% Convertible Notes.

Treatment of Layne Stock Options, Layne RSUs and Layne PSUs

Layne Stock Options

Each Layne Stock Option that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (whether vested or unvested) shall, immediately prior to the Effective Time, automatically and without any action on the part of any holder of Layne Stock Option be cancelled and, in exchange therefor, converted into the right to receive an amount of cash, if any, equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Layne Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of the Layne Stock Option, multiplied by (b) the excess, if any, of (1) the Layne Equity Award Consideration, over (2) the exercise price of the Layne Stock Option. Such cash amount, net of applicable withholding tax, will be paid to the holder as soon as practicable following the Effective Time.

Layne RSUs

Each Layne RSU that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (whether vested or unvested) shall automatically and without any action on the part of any holder of any Layne RSU, be cancelled and, in exchange therefor, converted into the right to receive an amount of cash (without interest) equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Layne Common Stock in respect of the Layne RSU, multiplied by (b) the Layne Equity Award Consideration. Such cash amount, net of applicable withholding tax, will be paid to the holder at the earliest time permitted under the terms of the award, such that it does not result in tax penalties.

Layne PSUs

Each Layne PSU that is outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, vest, and the underlying number of Layne shares earned be determined based on the maximum level of achievement of the applicable performance goals.

All Layne PSUs that are vested immediately prior to the Effective Time (including the Layne PSUs that vest pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement) shall automatically and without any action on the part of any holder of any Layne PSU, be cancelled and, in exchange therefor, converted into the right to receive an amount of cash (without interest) equal to the product of (a) the number of shares of Layne Common Stock earned in respect of the Layne PSU, multiplied by (b) the Layne Equity Award Consideration. Such cash amount, net of applicable withholding tax, will be paid to the holder as soon as practicable following the Effective Time, such that it does not result in tax penalties.

Withholding

Granite, Layne, Merger Sub, the Surviving Corporation and the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to the Merger Agreement such amounts or securities as are required to be deducted and withheld with respect to the making of any such payment under applicable tax law. Prior to the Effective Time, Granite, Merger Sub or the exchange agent shall provide commercially reasonable notice to Layne upon becoming aware of any withholding obligation (other than with respect to Layne Stock Options, Layne RSU or Layne PSU) and shall cooperate with Layne to the extent reasonable to obtain reduction of or relief from such withholding. Amounts withheld and timely paid to the appropriate governmental authority will be treated for purposes of the Merger Agreement as having been paid to the person in respect of which such deduction or withholding was made.

Dividends and Distributions

No dividends or other distributions declared or made with respect to shares of Granite Common Stock issued in connection with the Merger will be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered shares of Layne Common Stock until such shares of Layne Common Stock are surrendered. Following surrender and subject to applicable law, the record holder of the shares of Granite Common Stock issued in exchange for such shares of Layne Common Stock shall be paid, without interest, (a) all dividends and other distributions payable in respect of any such shares of Granite Common Stock with a Record Date after the Effective Time and a payment date on or prior to the date of such surrender and not previously paid, and (b) at the appropriate payment date, the dividends or other distributions payable with respect to such shares of Granite Common Stock with a Record Date after the Effective Time but with a payment date subsequent to such surrender. For purposes of dividends or other distributions in respect of shares of Granite Common Stock, all shares of Granite Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger will be entitled to dividends pursuant to the above terms as if issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time.

Conditions to the Merger

The obligations of Granite, Merger Sub and Layne to effect the Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the Merger Agreement must have been adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock;

the waiting period (and any extension thereof) applicable to the Merger under the HSR Act must have expired or termination thereof must have been granted (early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act granted on March 12, 2018);

no temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order issued by any governmental authority or court of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing the consummation of the Merger may be in effect; nor may there be any statute, rule, regulation or order enacted, entered, or enforced that prevents or prohibits the consummation of the Merger;

the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part must have been declared effective by the SEC and must not be the subject of any stop order, and no proceedings for such purposes may be pending before or threatened by the SEC; and the shares of Granite Common Stock to be issued to Layne stockholders in the Merger must have been approved for listing on NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance.

In addition, Granite's and Merger Sub's obligations to effect the Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of Layne relating to organization and qualification; governing documents; capital structure; the authority, validity and effect of agreements; approval by the Layne Board of the Merger, the Merger Agreement and related determinations; receipt of the opinion of Layne's financial advisor; brokers' fees and expenses; and compliance with applicable anti-takeover laws must be true and correct in all respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger as though made at and as of such time (or if made as of a specific date, at and as of such date);

all other representations and warranties of Layne contained in the Merger Agreement must be true and correct (without regard to any qualifications therein as to materiality or material adverse effect), as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger as though made at and as of such time (or, if made as of a specific date, at and as of such date), except for such failures to be true and correct as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Layne material adverse effect;

Layne must have performed in all material respects all obligations and agreements required to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement prior to or on the closing date of the Merger;

since the date of the Merger Agreement, there must not have occurred a Layne material adverse effect;

Layne must have delivered to Granite an officer's certificate certifying that the preceding conditions have been satisfied; and the receipt of an opinion from Jones Day, or if Jones Day is unable or unwilling to deliver this opinion, from Latham & Watkins, dated as of the closing, to the effect that the Merger will qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

In addition, Layne's obligations to effect the Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of Granite and Merger Sub relating to organization and qualification; the authority, validity and effect of agreements; accuracy of the information supplied by Layne for inclusion in this proxy statement/prospectus; business combinations with an interested stockholder; valid authorization of shares to be issued; and brokers' fees and expenses must be true and correct in all respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger as though made at and as of such time (or if made as of a specific date, at and as of such date);

all other representations and warranties of Granite and Merger Sub contained in the Merger Agreement must be true and correct (without regard to any qualifications therein as to materiality or material adverse effect), as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger as though made at and as of such time (or, if made as of a specific date, at and as of such date), except for such failures to be true and correct as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Granite material adverse effect;

Granite and Merger Sub must have performed in all material respects all obligations and agreements required to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement prior to or on the closing date of the Merger;

since the date of the Merger Agreement, there must not have occurred a Granite material adverse effect;

Granite must have delivered to Layne an officer's certificate certifying that the preceding conditions have been satisfied; and

As defined in the Merger Agreement, Layne material adverse effect means (a) a material adverse effect on the business, assets, results of operations or financial condition of Layne and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (b) an effect that prevents or materially impairs the ability of Layne to perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement or consummate the transactions contemplated thereby, other than, for the purposes of clause (a), any effect arising out of or resulting from any of the following: (1) a decline in the market price, or a change in the trading volume of, the shares of Layne Common Stock (provided that clause (1) shall not preclude any effect, event, occurrence, development, state of facts or change that may have contributed to or caused such changes and is not excluded by clauses (2) (7) of this definition from being taken into account in determining whether a Layne material adverse effect has occurred); (2) general water management and services industry, economic, market or political conditions; (3) acts of war, sabotage or terrorism, natural disasters, acts of God or comparable events; (4) changes in applicable law, GAAP or other applicable accounting standards following the date of the Merger Agreement; (5) the negotiation, execution, announcement, pendency or performance of the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby or the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby (provided that this clause (5) shall not preclude any breach of the representations and warranties made in Layne's no conflicts representation from being taken into account in determining whether a Layne material adverse effect has occurred); or (6) any failure to meet revenue or earnings projections, in and of itself, for any period ending on or after the date of the Merger Agreement (provided that this clause (6) shall not preclude any effect, event, occurrence, development, state of facts or change that may have contributed to or caused such failure to meet revenues or earnings projections from being taken into account in determining whether a Layne material adverse effect has occurred); or (7) any specific action taken (or omitted to be taken) by Layne that is expressly required or contemplated by the terms of the Merger Agreement; provided, however, in the case of clauses (2), (3) and (4), except to the extent that Layne and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, are disproportionately adversely affected relative to other participants in the industries in which Layne and its subsidiaries participate.

As defined in the Merger Agreement, Granite material adverse effect means (a) a material adverse effect on the business, assets, results of operations or financial condition of Granite and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (b) an effect that prevents or materially impairs the ability of Granite or Merger Sub to perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement or consummate the transactions contemplated thereby, other than, for the purposes of clause (a), any effect arising out of or resulting from any of the following: (1) a decline in the market price, or a change in the trading volume of, the shares of Granite Common Stock (provided that clause (1) shall not preclude any effect, event, occurrence, development, state of facts or change that may have contributed to or caused such changes and is not excluded by clauses (2) (7) of this definition from being taken into account in determining whether a Granite material adverse effect has occurred); (2) general construction industry, economic, market or political conditions, or the financing, banking, currency or capital markets generally, including with respect to interest rates or currency exchange rates; (3) acts of war, sabotage or terrorism, natural disasters, acts of God or comparable events; (4) changes in applicable law, GAAP or other applicable accounting standards (or the interpretation or enforcement thereof) following the date of the Merger Agreement; (5) the negotiation, execution, announcement, pendency or performance of the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby or the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby (provided that this clause (5) shall not preclude any breach of the representations and warranties made in Granite's and Merger Sub's no conflicts representation from being taken into account in determining whether a Granite material adverse effect has occurred); (6) any failure to meet revenue or earnings projections, in and of itself, for any period ending on or after the date of the Merger Agreement (provided that this clause (6) shall not preclude any effect, event, occurrence, development, state of facts or change that may have contributed to or caused such failure to meet revenues or earnings projections from being taken into account in determining whether a Granite material adverse effect has occurred); or (7) any specific action taken (or omitted to be taken) by Granite that is expressly required or contemplated by the terms of, the Merger Agreement; provided, however, in the case of clauses (2), (3) and (4), except to the extent that Granite and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, are disproportionately affected relative to other participants in the industries in which Granite and its subsidiaries participate.

The Special Meeting

Layne has agreed to call a Special Meeting for the purpose of obtaining the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Layne stockholders as promptly as practicable after the definitive proxy statement is cleared by the SEC for mailing to Layne stockholders (but in no event later than 45 calendar days following the date of such clearance).

Unless the Layne Board has effected an adverse recommendation change (as described in No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals below), Layne must recommend that the holders of shares of Layne Common Stock vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement, include in such proxy statement such recommendation and solicit proxies from Layne's stockholders in favor of and use its reasonable best efforts to obtain adoption of the Merger Agreement by Layne's stockholders.

Layne may, in its sole discretion, adjourn or postpone the Special Meeting (a) to ensure any supplement or amendment to the proxy statement required under applicable law is timely provided to Layne stockholders within a reasonable amount of time, in the good faith judgment of the Layne Board (after consultation with its outside counsel and Granite), in advance of the Special Meeting, (b) if required by law or a request from the SEC or its staff, or (c) if, on the date for which the Special Meeting is scheduled, Layne has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares of Layne Common Stock to obtain the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Layne stockholders, whether or not a quorum is present; provided that (a) the duration of any such adjournment or postponement is limited to the minimum duration reasonably necessary to remedy the circumstances giving rise to such adjournment or postponement, (b) no single such adjournment or postponement may be for more than five business days except as required under applicable law, and (c) in the case of clause (c), the Special Meeting shall not be postponed to later than the date that is 10 business days after the date for which the Special Meeting was originally scheduled without the prior written consent of Granite.

No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals

The Merger Agreement contains detailed provisions prohibiting Layne from seeking an alternative transaction to the Merger. Under these no solicitation provisions, Layne has agreed that, from the time of the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement until the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, Layne will not and will cause its subsidiaries and its directors, officers, employees, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants or other advisors, agents or representatives not to:

solicit, initiate, cause or knowingly facilitate or encourage (including by way of furnishing information) the submission of any inquiries, proposals or offers or any other efforts or attempts that constitute or may reasonably be expected to lead to any acquisition proposal (as described below);

engage in any discussions or negotiations or otherwise cooperate with or assist or participate in, or knowingly facilitate or encourage, any inquiries, proposals, discussions or negotiations of any acquisition proposal or resolve to or publicly propose to take any of the above actions;

enter into any Merger Agreement, agreement-in-principle, letter of intent, share purchase agreement, asset purchase agreement, share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement relating to an acquisition proposal or enter into any letter of intent, agreement or agreement-in-principle requiring Layne (whether or not subject to conditions) to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the Merger;

withdraw, modify or qualify in a manner adverse to Granite or Merger Sub the Layne Board's recommendation regarding the Merger Agreement, or the approval or declaration of advisability by the Layne Board of the Merger Agreement, as well as the Merger and the other transactions contemplated in connection with the Merger; or

The Merger Agreement requires Layne to, and to cause its subsidiaries and its directors, officers, employees, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants or other advisors, agents and representatives to immediately (a) cease and terminate, or cause to be terminated, any and all discussions, solicitations, encouragements or negotiations with any person with respect to an acquisition proposal or any inquiry, proposal or request for information that may reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal, (b) terminate all physical and electronic data room access previously granted to any person or its representatives, and (c) request (or, to the extent Layne is contractually permitted to do so, require) the return or destruction of all copies of confidential information previously provided to such parties by or on behalf of Layne, its subsidiaries or its directors, officers, employees, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants or other advisors, agents or representatives.

Notwithstanding these restrictions, the Merger Agreement also provides that if, at any time after execution of the Merger Agreement, Layne receives a bona fide acquisition proposal which did not result from a breach of the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement, Layne is permitted to contact the person or group of persons who made the acquisition proposal to clarify terms for the sole purpose of the Layne Board informing itself about such acquisition proposal. In the event that the Layne Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor(s) and outside legal counsel, that such acquisition proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal (as described below) and that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors fiduciary duties under applicable law, then Layne is also permitted to:

furnish confidential information with respect to Layne and its subsidiaries to the person making such acquisition proposal; and

However, Layne (a) cannot and cannot allow its directors, officers, employees, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants or other advisors, agents or representatives to disclose any non-public information to such person unless Layne first enters into an acceptable confidentiality agreement with such person, (b) promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) provides to Granite notice of its intention to enter into such confidentiality agreement, and (c) will provide to prior to or substantially concurrent with the time it is provided to such person any non-public information not previously provided to Granite. Layne may, following receipt of an acquisition proposal or an inquiry, proposal or request for information that may reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal, contact the person that made such acquisition proposal, inquiry, proposal or request to clarify the terms and conditions thereof solely to the extent necessary to enable the Layne Board to determine whether such acquisition proposal, inquiry, proposal or request constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to, or result in, a superior proposal (as described below), and to inform such person of the provisions of the Merger Agreement.

Layne has also agreed in the Merger Agreement that it will promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) notify Granite, orally and in writing, if Layne, its subsidiaries or any of their respective representatives receives any (a) acquisition proposal or indication by any person that it is considering making an acquisition proposal, (b) request for non-public information in contemplation of an acquisition proposal, or (c) inquiry or request for discussions or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal. Such notice must include the identity of the person making the proposal, offer, request or inquiry and the other material terms and conditions of any such proposal or offer and copies of all relevant documents relating thereto. In addition, Layne has agreed to keep Granite reasonably informed on a current basis (and in any event no later than 24 hours after the occurrence of any material changes, developments, discussions or negotiations) as to the status of any acquisition proposal, indication, inquiry or request (including the material terms and conditions thereof and of any material modification thereto), and any developments, discussions and negotiations, including furnishing copies of any written inquiries, correspondence and draft documentation, and written summaries of any oral inquiries or discussions.

As defined in the Merger Agreement, the term "acquisition proposal" means any inquiry, proposal, offer or indication of interest (whether or not in writing) from any person or group of persons (other than Granite or Merger Sub) providing for:

any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase (including by any license or lease) by any person of (a) assets (including equity securities of any of Layne's subsidiaries) or businesses that constitute or

generate 20% or more of the revenues, net income or assets of Layne and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis or (b) beneficial ownership of 20% or more of any class of equity securities of Layne or any of its subsidiaries, the assets or business of which constitutes or generates 20% or more of the revenues, net income or assets of Layne and the its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis;

any purchase or sale of, or tender offer or exchange offer by any person for, equity securities of Layne or any of its subsidiaries that, if consummated, would result in any person beneficially owning 20% or more of any class of equity securities of Layne or any of its subsidiaries, the assets or business of which constitutes or generates 20% or more of the revenues, net income or assets of Layne and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis;

any recapitalization, liquidation or dissolution of Layne or any of its subsidiaries, other than a wholly owned subsidiary of Layne; or any merger, consolidation, business combination, joint venture, share exchange or similar transaction involving any of Layne's subsidiaries, the assets or business of which constitutes or generates 20% or more of the revenues, net income or assets of Layne and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, or involving Layne, if, as a result of any such transaction, Layne's stockholders, as a group, immediately prior to the consummation of such transaction would hold less than 80% of the surviving or resulting entity of such transaction immediately after the consummation of such transaction.

As defined in the Merger Agreement, superior proposal means any bona fide acquisition proposal made by any person that:

if consummated, would result in such person owning, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of the equity securities of Layne, or more than 50% of the consolidated assets or business (as determined by reference to either consolidated revenues or consolidated net income) of Layne and its subsidiaries;

is otherwise on terms that the Layne Board has determined in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel and after taking into account such legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal, including the financing terms thereof, as the Layne Board deems appropriate in the exercise of its fiduciary duties) is superior from a financial point of view to the Merger (including the terms of any proposal by Granite to modify the terms of the Merger); and the Layne Board has determined in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel and after taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal as the Layne Board deems appropriate in the exercise of its fiduciary duties) is reasonably capable of being consummated.

Further, the Layne Board may, at any time after the date of the Merger Agreement and prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Layne's stockholders, in response to a superior proposal that did not result from a breach of the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement, effect an adverse recommendation change and/or terminate the Merger Agreement to accept the superior proposal (after paying the termination fee as described below) if the Layne

Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor(s) and outside legal counsel, that failing to take any such action would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law, and if certain other conditions which are described elsewhere in the Merger Agreement and in this proxy statement/prospectus are satisfied. In such an event, Layne may be required to pay Granite a termination fee of $16.0 million. However, the Layne Board may not effect an adverse recommendation change or terminate the Merger Agreement unless:

Layne has provided prior written notice to Granite of the Layne Board's intention to take such action at least five business days in advance of taking such action (such period, the "notice period" as defined in the Merger Agreement), which notice shall specify the material terms of the superior proposal and shall include a copy of the relevant proposed transaction agreement with, and the identity of, the person

making the superior proposal, and copies of any other written materials to the extent such materials contain any financial terms, conditions or other terms relating to such superior proposal;

after providing such notice and prior to taking any such action, Layne shall have, and shall have caused its financial advisors, outside counsel, directors, officers, employees, attorneys, accountants or other advisors, agents and representatives to, negotiate with Granite in good faith (to the extent Granite desires to negotiate) during such five business day period to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement so that such acquisition proposal ceases to constitute a superior proposal; and following any such negotiation, such acquisition proposal (provided that Layne has complied with the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement) continues to constitute a superior proposal.

In the event of any material revisions to the terms of an acquisition proposal after the start of the notice period, Layne must deliver a new written notice to Granite and must again comply with the negotiation obligations described in the preceding bullet points with respect to any such modified acquisition proposal, and the notice period is deemed to re-commence on the date of such new notice.

Further, the Layne Board may, at any time after the date of the Merger Agreement and prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Layne's stockholders, in response to an intervening event that did not result from a breach of the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement, effect an adverse recommendation if the Layne Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that in light of the existence of such intervening event, the failure to make an adverse recommendation change would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law. However, the Layne Board may not effect an adverse recommendation change in light of the existence of an intervening event unless:

Layne has provided prior written notice to Granite of the Layne Board's intention to take such action at least four business days in advance of taking such action, which notice shall specify, in reasonably detail, the facts underlying the Layne Board's determination that an intervening event has occurred and the rationale and basis for such adverse recommendation change;

after providing such notice and prior to taking any such action, Layne shall have, and shall have caused its financial advisors, outside counsel, directors, officers, employees, attorneys, accountants or other advisors, agents and representatives to, negotiate with Granite in good faith (to the extent Granite desires to negotiate) during such four business day period to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement so as to obviate the need for an adverse recommendation change as a result of the intervening event; and following any such negotiation, the Layne Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that the failure to make such adverse recommendation change in light of such intervening event (taking into account any changes to the terms of the Merger Agreement agreed to or proposed by Granite in connection with the negotiations required above) would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to Layne stockholders under applicable law.

In the event any material change to the circumstances relating to the intervening event occurs or if a new intervening event occurs, Layne is required to deliver a new written notice to Granite and must again comply with the negotiation obligations described in the preceding bullet points with respect to any such new or modified intervening event.

As defined in the Merger Agreement, an intervening event means any material development or change in circumstances in the business, results of operations or financial condition of Layne and its subsidiaries (other than and not related to an acquisition proposal) that was neither known to nor reasonably foreseeable by the Layne Board (assuming, for such purpose, reasonable consultation with the executive officers of Layne) on or prior to the date of the Merger Agreement that occurs or arises after the date of the Merger Agreement and prior to the Special Meeting.

The Merger Agreement permits the Layne Board to take and disclose to Layne stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a), Rule 14d-9 or Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A promulgated under the Exchange Act. However, any disclosure other than (a) a stop, look and listen or similar communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act, (b) an express rejection of any applicable acquisition proposal, or (c) an express reaffirmation of the Layne Board recommendation on the Merger Agreement, together with a factual description of the events or actions leading up to such disclosure that have been taken by Layne and that are permitted under the Merger Agreement or actions taken or notices delivered to Granite by Layne that are required under the Merger Agreement will be deemed to be an adverse recommendation change.

Efforts to Consummate the Merger; Regulatory Matters

Prior to the Effective Time, Layne and Granite have each agreed to use reasonable best efforts to obtain any consents, approvals or waivers of governmental authorities, and of third parties with respect to any contracts to which Layne or any of its subsidiaries is a party, as may be necessary for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or required by the terms of any contract as a result of the execution, performance or consummation of transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Granite, Layne and Merger Sub have each agreed, as promptly as practicable and subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, to use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable law prior to the Effective Time to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement prior to September 30, 2018, including:

making all filings required under the HSR Act, as promptly as practicable, but in no event later than 10 business days after the date of the Merger Agreement;

using reasonable best efforts to obtain as promptly as practicable the termination or expiration of any waiting period under the HSR Act prior to September 30, 2018; and cooperating and consulting with each other in (a) determining which material consents, approvals, permits, notices or authorizations are required to be obtained prior to the Effective Time from governmental authorities in connection with the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement and related agreements and consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby and (b) timely seeking all such consents, approvals, permits, notices or authorizations.

In addition, in connection with the efforts referenced above but without limiting them, each of Layne, on the one hand, and Granite and Merger Sub, on the other hand, will:

cooperate in all respects with each other in connection with any filing or submission and in connection with any investigation or other inquiry, including any proceeding initiated by a private party;

keep the other party reasonably and promptly informed of any communication received by such party (including, to the extent not prohibited by law, providing copies of all written correspondence) from, or given by such party to, the FTC, the Antitrust Division of the DOJ or any other governmental authority and of any communication received or given in connection with any proceeding by a private party, in each case regarding the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and permit the other party to review any communication to be given by it to, and consult with each other in advance of any meeting or conference with, the FTC, the Antitrust Division of the DOJ or any other governmental authority or, in connection with any proceeding by a private party, with any other person, and to the extent permitted by the FTC, the Antitrust Division of the DOJ or such other applicable governmental authority or other person, give the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences.

If any objections are asserted with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement under any antitrust law or if any suit is instituted (or threatened to be instituted) by the FTC, the Antitrust Division of the DOJ or any other applicable governmental authority or any private party challenging any of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement as violative of any antitrust law or which would otherwise prevent, materially impede or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, each of Granite, Merger Sub, and Layne will use its reasonable best efforts to resolve any such objections or suits so as to permit consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement prior to September 30, 2018, including in order to resolve such objections or suits which, in any case if not resolved, could reasonably be expected to prevent, materially impede or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

In the event that any administrative or judicial action or other proceeding (public or private) by or before, or otherwise involving, any governmental authority is instituted (or threatened to be instituted) by a governmental authority or private party challenging the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement, each of Granite, Merger Sub, and Layne have agreed to cooperate in all respects with each other and use its respective reasonable best efforts to contest and resist any such action or proceeding and to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any decree, decision, injunction, judgment, order, ruling or verdict entered, issued, made or rendered by any court, administrative agency or other governmental authority, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that is in effect and that prohibits, prevents or restricts consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Granite is entitled to direct the defense of the Merger or any other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, or negotiations with, any governmental authority or other person relating to the Merger or regulatory filings under applicable antitrust laws. Layne acknowledges that Granite shall control and direct, and Layne will reasonably cooperate with such direction and control, regarding the filings, strategies, process, negotiation of settlements (if any), and related action or other proceeding (public or private) by or before, or otherwise involving, any governmental authority contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Further, the Merger Agreement provides that none of Granite, Merger Sub or Layne are obligated by the Merger Agreement to agree to (and, without the prior consent of Granite, in no event shall Layne or any of its subsidiaries agree to):

sell, hold separate or otherwise dispose of all or a portion of its respective business, assets or properties, or conduct its business in a specified manner; pay any amounts (other than the payment of filing fees and expenses and fees of counsel), or grant any counterparty to any contract any accommodation or other concession;

commence or defend any action or claim in respect of any threatened action; limit in any manner whatsoever the ability of such entities to conduct, own, operate or control any of their respective businesses, assets or properties or of the businesses, properties or assets of Layne and its subsidiaries; or waive any of the conditions to the Merger.

Termination

The Merger Agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated under the Merger Agreement may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after obtaining Layne's stockholders' approval, by Granite and Layne under the following circumstances:

by mutual written consent of Granite and Layne at any time prior to the Effective Time whether before or after Layne's stockholders have adopted the Merger Agreement;

if the Merger is not consummated on or before September 30, 2018, provided, however, that this right to terminate the Merger Agreement will not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under the Merger Agreement caused the failure of the Effective Time to occur on or before such date;

if any governmental authority shall have (1) enacted, issued, promulgated or enforced any law that makes consummation of the Merger illegal or otherwise prohibited or (2) enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any order which has the effect of making the consummation of the Merger illegal or otherwise preventing or prohibiting consummation of the Merger; or if the Special Meeting (including any adjournment or postponement thereof) has concluded and Layne's stockholders approval was not obtained; provided, however, that the right to terminate the Merger Agreement shall not be available to Layne if it has not materially complied with certain of the covenants relating to the conduct of its business and the proxy statement and the holding of the Special Meeting.

In addition, Layne may terminate the Merger Agreement at any time prior to the Effective Time under the following circumstances:

if there should have occurred any effects, events, occurrences, developments, state of facts or changes that, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Granite material adverse effect (as described herein), or Granite has breached any representation or warranty of Granite has become untrue, in each case, such that the conditions to closing relating to the accuracy of Granite's representations and warranties or the performance by Granite of its obligations under the Merger Agreement could not be satisfied as of the earlier of September 30, 2018 or the date that is 30 days following written notice thereof; provide, however, Layne may not terminate the Merger Agreement if Layne is then in material breach of any representation, warranty or covenant of Layne; or

prior to adoption of the Merger Agreement by Layne's stockholders, in order to enter into a definitive written agreement providing for a superior proposal in compliance with the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement.

In addition, Granite may terminate the Merger Agreement at any time prior to the Effective Time under the following circumstances:

if there should have occurred any effects, events, occurrences, developments, state of facts or changes that, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Layne material adverse effect, or Layne has breached any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the Merger Agreement, or if any representation or warranty of Layne has become untrue, in each case, such that the conditions to closing relating to the accuracy of Layne's representations and warranties or the performance by Layne of its obligations under the Merger Agreement could not be satisfied as of the earlier of September 30, 2018, or the date that is 30 days following written notice thereof; provide, however, neither Granite nor Merger Sub may terminate the Merger Agreement if Granite or Merger Sub is then in material breach of any representation, warranty or covenant of Granite or Merger Sub, as applicable;

if Layne (a) withdraws, modifies or qualifies in a manner adverse to Granite or Merger Sub the Layne Board's recommendation of the Merger or the approval or declaration of advisability by the Layne Board of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (including the Merger) or (b) approve or recommend, or resolve to or publicly propose to approve or recommend, any acquisition proposal;

the Layne Board or any committee of the Layne Board (a) has not rejected any acquisition proposal within seven days of the making thereof (including, for these purposes, by taking no position with respect to the acceptance by Layne's stockholders of a tender offer or exchange offer, which shall constitute a failure to reject such acquisition proposal) or (b) has failed, pursuant to Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act or otherwise, to publicly reconfirm the Layne Board's recommendation of the Merger within four days after receipt of a written request from Granite that it do so if such request is made following the making by any person of an acquisition proposal; or

Layne has violated or breached in any material respect any of its obligations in the no solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement described under No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with the requirements described above, it will become void, and there shall be no liability thereunder on the part of any party thereto, subject to certain exceptions including any obligation to pay the termination fees described below. No such termination, however, will relieve any party hereto from liability for any intentional breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in the Merger Agreement prior to such termination.

Termination Fee; Reverse Breakup Fee and Expenses

Each party will generally pay its own fees and expenses in connection with the Merger, whether or not the Merger is consummated, including all legal, accounting, financial advisory, consulting and all other fees and expenses of third parties incurred by a party in connection with the negotiation and effectuation of the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. However, Granite and Layne have agreed that (a) the expenses incurred in connection with the filing and printing of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part and for mailing it to Layne's stockholders shall be borne equally by Layne, on the one hand, and Granite and Merger Sub, on the other hand and (b) all required filing fees under HSR Act shall be borne by Granite.

Layne will be required to pay a termination fee of $16.0 million to Granite if:

Layne terminates the Merger Agreement, prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Layne's stockholders, because it enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal;

Granite terminates the Merger Agreement because the Layne Board makes an adverse recommendation change;

Granite terminates the Merger Agreement because the Layne Board or any committee thereof (a) has not rejected any acquisition proposal within seven business days of the making public thereof or (b) has failed, pursuant to Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act or otherwise, to publicly reconfirm the Layne Board's recommendation of the Merger within four days after receipt of a written request from Granite that it do so if such request is made following the making by any person of an acquisition proposal;

Granite terminates the Merger Agreement because Layne has violated or breached in any material respect any of its obligations in the no solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement described under No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals;

Granite or Layne terminates the Merger Agreement pursuant to the termination provision described above relating to the failure of the Merger to close by September 30, 2018; or Granite terminates the Merger Agreement pursuant to the termination provision described above relating to (a) a material adverse effect or a breach or inaccuracy of any of Layne's representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Merger Agreement or (b) the failure to obtain the stockholder approval after the stockholder meeting (including any adjournment or postponements) has concluded.

For the purposes of the fifth and sixth bullets above:

in order for the termination fee to be payable, (a) at or prior to the date of termination, an acquisition proposal must have been made known to Layne or must have been made directly to Layne's stockholders generally or any person must have publicly announced an intention to make an acquisition proposal (whether or not conditional or withdrawn), and (b) concurrently with such termination or within 12 months following such termination, Layne must have entered into an alternative acquisition agreement to consummate or have consummated a transaction contemplated by any acquisition proposal;

all references in the definition of acquisition proposal to 20% and 80% will be deemed to be references to 50% ; and

Layne will pay the termination fee to Granite upon the earlier of its entry into of alternative acquisition agreement or the consummation of such acquisition proposal.

Layne has agreed to pay the termination fee as directed by Granite in writing in immediately available funds promptly following (and in any event within two business days after) the date of the event giving rise to the obligation to make such payment. However, if Layne terminates the Merger Agreement because it enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal, then Layne must pay the termination fee to Granite in immediately available funds concurrently with such termination.

In the event that Layne fails to pay the termination fee required when due, such termination fee shall accrue interest for the period commencing on the date when it became past due, at the rate of interest per annum equal to the Prime Rate as set forth on such date in The Wall Street Journal Money Rates column plus 350 basis points.

In addition, if Layne fails to pay such termination fee when due, Layne has agreed pay to Granite all of its costs and expenses (including attorneys fees) in connection with efforts to collect such termination fee.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

In the Merger Agreement, Layne and Granite have agreed that until the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of the Merger Agreement, subject to certain exceptions in the Merger Agreement and the matters contained in the disclosure letters Layne and Granite delivered in connection with the Merger Agreement, Layne and Granite will, and will cause each of its subsidiaries to, conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice and to use its reasonable best efforts to:

preserve intact in all material respects the assets, including manufacturing facilities, and business organization of Layne, Granite and each of its subsidiaries;

preserve the current beneficial relationships of Layne, Granite and each of its subsidiaries with any persons or entities (including suppliers, partners, contractors, distributors, sales representatives, customers, licensors and licensees) with which Layne, Granite or any of its subsidiaries has material business relations;

comply in all material respects with all applicable laws and the requirements of all material contracts to which Granite or any of its subsidiaries are bound;

keep in full force and effect all material insurance policies maintained by Granite and its subsidiaries, other than changes to such policies made in the ordinary course of business; and

Layne will further retain the services of the present officers and key employees of Layne and each of its subsidiaries.

In addition, without limiting the requirements described above, subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Merger Agreement and the matters contained in the disclosure letters Layne and Granite delivered in connection with the Merger Agreement, that until the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of the Merger Agreement without the other party's written consent (which cannot be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) Layne will not, and will cause each of its subsidiaries not to:

amend the Layne Charter or the Layne Bylaws or any other comparable organizational documents;

issue, deliver, sell, grant, dispose of, pledge or otherwise encumber any shares of capital stock of any class or any other ownership interest of Layne, or any rights, warrants, options, calls, commitments or any other agreements of any character to purchase or acquire any such securities, or any securities or rights convertible into, exchangeable or exercisable for, or evidencing the right to subscribe for, any such securities, provided that Layne may issue shares of its common stock solely upon the exercise or settlement of Layne compensatory equity awards issued under its equity plans that are outstanding on the date of the Merger Agreement in accordance with their terms as of the date of the Merger Agreement;

adjust, split, combine, subdivide or reclassify any shares of capital stock of any class or any other ownership interest of Layne or any of its subsidiaries;

enter into any contract with respect to the sale, voting, registration or repurchase of shares of Layne Common Stock or any other shares of capital stock of any class or any other ownership interest of Layne or any of its subsidiaries;

except as required by the terms of the Merger Agreement, amend (including by reducing an exercise price or extending a term) or waive any of its rights under, or accelerate the vesting under (except as required by the terms of any Layne Equity Plan in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement), any provision of any Layne Equity Plan or any agreement evidencing any outstanding options to acquire shares of Layne Common Stock, Layne RSUs, Layne PSUs or any similar or related contract;

directly or indirectly acquire or agree to acquire in any transaction (including by merger, consolidation or acquisition of stock or assets) (a) the equity interest in any person or division or business of any person or (b) the properties or assets of any person, provided, however, that after providing Granite at least five days prior notice (including providing Granite with all information reasonably requested by Granite) of, and consulting with and considering Granite's view on, any such transaction, Layne or its subsidiaries can effect any such transaction so long as the aggregate value of all such transactions does not exceed $9.0 million;

sell, pledge, dispose of, transfer, abandon, allow to lapse or expire, lease, license, mortgage or otherwise encumber or subject to any lien (other than a permitted lien), any properties, rights or assets (including shares of Layne Common Stock or any other shares of capital stock of any class or any other ownership interest of Layne or any of its subsidiaries), except:

sales of inventory in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices; and transfers among Layne and its subsidiaries;

sell, pledge, dispose of, transfer, abandon, allow to lapse or expire, lease, license, mortgage or otherwise encumber or subject to any lien (other than a permitted lien), any of Layne's intellectual property that is material, individually or in the aggregate, to Layne and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole;

except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, fail to pay any required filing, prosecution, maintenance, or other fees, or otherwise fail to make any document filings or payments required to maintain any of Layne's registered intellectual property in full force and effect or to diligently prosecute applications for registration of any of Layne's registered intellectual property owned by Layne or one of its subsidiaries or otherwise for which Layne or one of its subsidiaries is responsible for such activities;

declare, set aside, make or pay any dividend or other distribution, whether payable in cash, stock, property or otherwise, in respect of the shares of Layne Common Stock or any other shares of capital stock of any class or any other ownership interest of Layne or any of its subsidiaries, other than dividends by any of Layne's direct or indirect subsidiaries only to Layne or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;

increase in any manner the compensation of any of Layne's directors, officers or employees or enter into, establish, amend or terminate, or increase any compensation or benefits under any employment, consulting, compensation or benefit plan, policy, agreement, trust, fund or arrangement with, for or in respect of, any director, officer, other employee or consultant, other than:

as required pursuant to applicable law; or increases in salaries, wages and benefits of employees (other than officers or directors) made in the ordinary course of business and in amounts and in a manner consistent with past practice, provided that in the case of the exception in this second bullet, Layne provides written notice to Granite of Layne's intent to increase such salary, wages or benefits at least five business days prior to making such change and provides Granite the opportunity to review the proposed change and consult with Layne with respect to such proposed changes;

grant any severance or termination benefits to any director, officer, employee, independent contractor or consultant of Layne or any of its subsidiaries, except as required under the terms of any employee benefit plan, employment agreement, independent contractor agreement or other similar agreement or as required by applicable law;

take any action to accelerate the vesting or payment, or fund or in any other way secure the payment of, compensation or benefits under any employee benefit plan, employment agreement, independent contractor agreement or other similar agreement to the extent not required by the terms of such agreement as in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement;

enter into, establish, amend or terminate any employee benefit plan, employment agreement, independent contractor agreement or other similar agreement, policy, agreement, trust, fund or arrangement with, for or in respect of any director, officer, other employee, or consultant of Layne or any of its subsidiaries; change any actuarial or other assumptions used to calculate funding obligations with respect to any employee benefit plan, employment agreement, independent contractor agreement or other similar agreement or change the manner in which contributions to such agreements are made or the basis on which such contributions are determined;

except as required by applicable law, enter into any, or amend any existing, collective bargaining agreement or other agreement with a labor union, works council or similar organization; announce, implement or effect any reduction in force, lay-off, early retirement program, severance program or other program or effort concerning the termination of employment of employees of Layne or any of its subsidiaries;

offer employment to, hire or promote any person at or to a level, or who will have duties of, vice president or higher, except to replace any terminated employee at such level, provided Layne shall consult with Granite prior to offering employment to, hiring or promoting any such replacement;

communicate in a writing that is intended for broad dissemination to Layne's employees regarding compensation, benefits or other treatment they will receive in connection with or following the Merger, unless any such communications are (a) consistent with prior guidelines, or (b) mutually agreed upon by Layne and Granite in writing;

incur, create, assume or otherwise become liable for any indebtedness (including the issuance of any debt security and the assumption or guarantee of obligations of any person), other than (a) through borrowings under any of Layne's existing credit facilities or (b) in connection with a refinancing of the Layne's existing Indebtedness on the terms no less favorable to Layne and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, than the terms in existence prior to such refinancing;

enter into a keep well or similar agreement, or issue or sell options, warrants, calls or other rights to acquire any debt securities of Layne or any of its subsidiaries; make any election to take any action with respect to 4.25% Convertible Notes due 2018, and 8.0% Convertible Notes;

write up, write down or write off the book value of any assets, except in accordance with GAAP consistently applied;

release, assign, compromise, settle or agree to settle any action or claim in respect of any threatened action (including any action or claim in respect of any threatened action relating to the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement), other than a settlement not fully covered by insurance and solely for monetary damages (without any admission of liability or other adverse consequences or restriction on Layne, Granite, Merger Sub or the Surviving Corporation) not in excess of $0.5 million individually or $1.0 million in the aggregate;

(a) make, change or revoke any material tax election or adopt or change any method of tax accounting, (b) enter into any material closing agreement as described in Section 7121 of the Code, as amended (or any comparable or similar provisions of applicable law), (c) settle or compromise any liability with respect to material taxes or audit related to material taxes or surrender any claim for a refund of taxes, (d) file any materially amended tax return, (e) consent to any extension or waiver of the limitations period applicable to any claim or assessment with respect of material taxes, or (f) except in the ordinary course and consistent with past practice or otherwise in connection with the Merger, take any action that reduces the amount of Layne's net operating losses as of the date of the Merger Agreement;

make or commit to any capital expenditures that (a) involve the purchase of real property or (b) are not within the aggregate amount of capital expenditures budgeted for in Layne's current annual capital plan;

enter into any new, or agree to any extension of any, capital equipment lease or any contract for the lease of assets (including real property) that is not terminable by Layne or any of its subsidiaries 12 months from the date of such contract without payment of penalty or acceleration of payment obligations;

(a) enter into any material contract or terminate any material contract, (b) materially modify, amend, waive any right under or renew any material contract, other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (c) enter into or extend the term or scope of any contract that purports to restrict Layne, or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or any successor thereto, from engaging or competing in any line of business or in any geographic area or (d) enter into any contract that would be breached by, or require the consent of any other person in order to continue in full force following, consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger; provided, however, that Layne and its subsidiaries will not be prevented from entering into material contracts with customers or suppliers in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;

except for purchase orders in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, enter into any development agreement regarding the creation of any material intellectual property, technology or products; make any investment (by contribution to capital, property transfers, purchase of securities or otherwise) in, or loan or advance (other than travel and similar advances to its employees in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice) to any person other than a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Layne in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice;

enter into, amend or cancel any insurance policies other than (a) in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or (b) with respect to any request for a quote or proposal for any directors or officers liability insurance to be obtained pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement;

take any action that (a) would reasonably be expected to impose any material delay in the obtaining of, or significantly increase the risk of not obtaining, any authorizations, consents, orders, declarations or approvals of any governmental authority necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period or (b) would be reasonably expected to increase the risk of any governmental authority entering an injunction or other legal restraint prohibiting or impeding the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; merger or consolidate Layne or any of its subsidiaries with any person or adopt a plan of complete or partial liquidation or resolutions providing for a complete or partial liquidation, dissolution, restructuring, recapitalization or other reorganization of Layne or any of its subsidiaries; or authorize any of, or commit, resolve, propose or agree in writing or otherwise to take any of, the foregoing actions.

In addition, without limiting the requirements described above, subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Merger Agreement and the matters contained in the disclosure letters Layne and Granite delivered in connection with the Merger Agreement, that until the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of the Merger Agreement without the other party's written consent (which cannot be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) Granite will not, and will cause each of its subsidiaries not to:

amend the Granite Charter or the Granite Bylaws;

(a) issue, deliver, sell, grant, dispose of, pledge or otherwise encumber any Granite Securities (1) any Granite Securities pursuant to any Granite equity plan, or (2) any shares of Granite Common Stock upon the exercise, settlement or conversion of any outstanding Granite Securities; (b) adjust, split, combine, subdivide or reclassify any Granite Securities; or (c) repurchase or otherwise acquire Granite Common Stock or any other Granite Securities, unless (1) in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or (2) not effected prior to closing;

take any action that (a) would reasonably be expected to impose any material delay in the obtaining of, or significantly increase the risk of not obtaining, any authorizations, consents, orders, declarations or approvals of any governmental authority necessary to consummate the transactions or the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period or (b) would reasonably be expected to increase the risk of any governmental authority entering any injunction or other legal restraint prohibiting or impeding the consummation of the transaction;

adopt a plan of complete or partial liquidation or resolutions providing for a complete or partial liquidation, dissolution, restructuring, recapitalization or other reorganization of Granite or any of its subsidiaries; or

Public Announcements

Granite and Layne agree no public release or announcement, press conference, conference call with investors or analysts or other public statement concerning the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (or that could reasonably be expected to relate to the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement) shall be issued, held or made by a party or its subsidiaries without the prior consultation with and the prior consent of the other party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), except as would violate applicable law or securities exchange rules, in which case the party required to make the release or announcement will use its commercially reasonable efforts to allow the other party reasonable time to comment on such release or announcement in advance of such issuance, and the relevant party will consider such comments in good faith.

Access to Information; Confidentiality

From the date of the Merger Agreement hereof until the earlier to occur of the Effective Time and the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, subject to certain exceptions, Layne has agreed to, and to cause its subsidiaries and representatives to afford Granite, Merger Sub and their respective representatives reasonable access during normal working hours upon reasonable advance notice to the officers, employees, agents, assets, properties, offices, plants and other facilities, books and records of Layne or any of its subsidiaries, provided, however, that none of Granite or Merger Sub, or their respective representatives, may access or enter onto any property, office, plant or other facility, or otherwise inquire about or investigate Layne's or any of its subsidiaries operations, for purposes of conducting any environmental site visit, assessment, investigation (including any testing, sampling or intrusive measures) without the prior, express written consent of Layne.

Layne may withhold any document or information the disclosure of which (a) would cause a violation of applicable law or (b) would be reasonably likely to risk a loss of legal privilege (provided that Layne will use its reasonable best efforts to allow for such access or disclosure (or as much as possible) in a manner that would not be reasonably likely to risk a loss of legal privilege). If any material is withheld by Layne pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence, it will, to the extent possible without violating law or risking a loss of legal privilege, inform Granite as to the general nature of what is being withheld. All such information obtained by Granite or its representatives will be held confidential in accordance with the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

Subject to certain exceptions, Granite shall not be required to provide to Layne or any of its subsidiaries or their respective representatives, before, on or after the closing of the Merger, any right to access or to review any tax return or tax workpaper of Granite or any of its affiliates.

Additional Agreements

Anti-Takeover Laws. If any anti-takeover law is or may become applicable to any transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (a) the parties shall use reasonable best efforts to take such actions as are reasonably necessary so that such transactions may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by the Merger Agreement and (b) the Layne Board shall take all actions necessary to render such statutes inapplicable to any such transaction.

Notification of Certain Matters. Layne has agreed to give prompt notice to Granite and Merger Sub and Granite and Merger Sub have agreed to give Layne prompt notice of:

any written notice or other communication received from any person alleging that the consent of such person is required in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

any notice from any governmental authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

any actions or claims commenced or, to such party's knowledge, threatened against, relating to or involving or otherwise affecting such party or any of its subsidiaries that relate to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

the discovery of any fact or circumstance, or the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event, that would cause any representation or warranty made by such party contained in the Merger Agreement to be, with respect to Layne, untrue or inaccurate such that the condition to the obligations of Granite and Merger Sub contained in the Merger Agreement with respect to certain representations and warranties of Layne would not be satisfied, and with respect to Granite and Merger Sub, untrue or inaccurate in any material respect; and any material failure of such party to comply with or satisfy any covenant or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under the Merger Agreement.

Any notice provided with respect to the above matters will not (a) cure any breach of, or non-compliance with, any other provision of the Merger Agreement or (b) limit the remedies available to the party receiving such notice.

SEC Reports. Each of Granite and Layne has agreed to timely file with the SEC all forms, reports, schedules, registration statements, definitive proxy statements and other documents (including all exhibits) required to be filed by Granite or Layne, as applicable, under the Exchange Act or the Securities Act until the Effective Time. Each of Granite and Layne has also made other agreements regarding the compliance of such filings with the applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the Securities Act and the accuracy and completeness of such filings.

Certain Tax Matters. Layne, Granite and each of its subsidiaries have agreed not to take or cause to be taken any action that prevents or impedes, or could reasonably be expected to prevent or impede, the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Layne and Granite have further agreed to cooperate and use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain the Granite Tax Opinion, the Layne Tax Opinion and any other tax opinion required to be filed with the SEC, including by delivering to the applicable counsel certain representation letters.

Nasdaq De-List and NYSE Listing. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Layne and Granite have agreed to take all actions necessary to delist Layne Common Stock from the Nasdaq and terminate the registration of Layne Common Stock under the Exchange Act.

Granite has further agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Granite Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger to be listed on NYSE.

Convertible Notes. The Merger Agreement provides that prior to the Effective Time, Layne will comply in all material respects with its obligations under the terms of the indentures governing the Convertible Notes, including the delivery of any notices required by the consummation of the Merger. Further, upon the direction of Granite, Layne will make elections required by such indentures regarding the settlement of the Convertible Notes in accordance with the terms of the indentures. Prior to the Effective Time, Layne will promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) provide Granite with copies of any notices received by Layne from (a) a trustee under any of the indentures governing the Convertible Notes or (b) a counterparty to any contract related to indebtedness of Layne.

Granite has further agreed that it will not (and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to) settle any conversion of the 4.25% Convertible Notes following the Effective Time in any manner other than a Cash Settlement (as defined in the applicable indenture governing the Convertible Notes as of the date of the Merger Agreement).

Governance of the Surviving Corporation

The Merger Agreement provides that Merger Sub's directors and officers immediately prior to the Effective Time will be the directors and officers, respectively, of the Surviving Corporation until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified or until the earlier of their death, resignation or removal. At the Effective Time, the Layne Charter and the Layne Bylaws will be amended in the Merger to read as the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Merger Sub as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that in each case the name of the Surviving Corporation will be Layne Christensen Company and, as so amended, will be the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter further amended as provided therein or by applicable law.

Granite Board Following the Merger

The Merger Agreement provides that Granite shall take such actions as are necessary for the Granite Board to expand the size of the Granite Board and appoint one current non-employee director of Layne who is a director prior to the Effective Time to be designated by Granite to fill such vacancy, effective as to the Effective Time, to serve until the 2019 annual meeting of Granite stockholders or such person's earlier death, retirement, resignation or removal by Granite's stockholders.

Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance

Granite has agreed to cause the Surviving Corporation, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, to honor all of Layne's obligations to indemnify and hold harmless each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of the Merger Agreement or who becomes prior to the Effective Time an officer or director of Layne or any of Layne's subsidiaries as provided in the Layne Charter or the Layne Bylaws, in each case, as in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement, or pursuant to any other agreements in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement, including provisions relating to the advancement of expenses incurred in the defense of any action or as permitted under applicable law.

Granite's obligation to indemnify and hold harmless such persons will survive the Merger and will remain in full force and effect for a period of not less than six years after the Effective Time. During such period, Granite will guarantee the obligations of the Surviving Corporation with respect to any and all amounts payable in connection with its indemnification and other obligations set forth below with respect to such persons.

Granite has agreed to purchase prior to the Effective Time a tail officers and directors liability insurance policy, which by its terms shall survive the Merger and shall provide such directors and officers with coverage for not less than six years following the Effective Time on terms and conditions no less favorable than the terms of the current directors and officers liability insurance policy currently maintained by Layne in respect of actions or omissions of such officers and directors prior to the Effective Time in their capacities as such. In no event will Granite or the Surviving Corporation be required to pay more than 300% of the current annual premium paid by Layne for such policy to purchase the tail policy, but if such maximum payment amount is not sufficient to purchase the required coverage, then Layne will purchase such lesser coverage as may be obtained with such maximum payment amount.

The obligations of Granite and the Surviving Corporation relating to indemnification and tail insurance set forth above will survive the consummation of the Merger and will not be terminated or modified in any way that would adversely affect the directors and officers entitled to the protection of these provisions without the consent of such persons. Such person will have the right to enforce these provisions and are express third-party beneficiaries of these provisions for this purpose.

Employee Benefit Matters

From the Effective Time until December 31, 2018, Granite has agreed to cause the compensation and benefits package provided to each employee of Layne and its subsidiaries as of the Effective Time and pursuant to the plans listed on a schedule included in the disclosure letter to the Merger Agreement to be no less favorable in the aggregate than the compensation and benefits package, in the aggregate, provided to such Layne employees as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, including for purposes of this comparison any defined benefit plans listed on a schedule included in the disclosure letter to the Merger Agreement and any retiree medical benefits listed on a schedule included in the disclosure letter to the Merger Agreement, and excluding for purposes of this comparison any equity-based compensation and change of control, sale or similar bonuses provided by Layne and its subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time. For purposes of eligibility, vesting and, solely with respect to severance and vacation, level of benefit entitlement (but in no event for purposes of benefit accrual or eligibility for retiree medical or other retiree welfare benefits) under Granite's employee benefit plans,

Granite has agreed that each such employee will, subject to applicable law and applicable tax qualification requirements, be credited with his or her years of service with Layne and its subsidiaries and their respective predecessors before the Effective Time, to the same extent as such employee was entitled, before the Effective Time, to credit for such service under any similar plans in which such employee participated or was eligible to participate immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to the extent that its application would result in a duplication of benefits.

For purposes of each such Granite employee benefit plan providing medical, dental, pharmaceutical or vision benefits to any such employee, Granite has agreed to cause all pre-existing condition exclusions and actively-at-work requirements of such Granite employee benefit plan to be waived, for such employee and his or her covered dependents, unless such conditions would not have been waived under a similar plan in which such employee participated immediately prior to the Effective Time and Granite has agreed to cause any eligible expenses incurred by such employee and his or her covered dependents under the plans during the portion of the plan year of the Granite employee benefit plan ending on the date such employee's participation in the corresponding Granite employee benefit plan begins to be taken into account under such Granite employee benefit plan, for purposes of satisfying all deductible and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such employee and his or her covered dependents for the applicable plan year as if such amounts had been paid in accordance with such Granite employee benefit plan.

Upon Granite's election, Layne has agreed that it will terminate, effective as of the day immediately preceding the Effective Time, any and all 401(k) plans sponsored or maintained by Layne. In such event, Layne has agreed to provide Granite evidence that such plan(s) and/or program(s) have been terminated pursuant to resolutions of the Layne Board or a committee thereof (the form and substance of which shall be subject to review and approval of Granite), effective as of the day immediately preceding the Effective Time. As soon as practicable following the Effective Time, Granite shall permit each Layne employee who is a participant in any terminated 401(k) plan(s) to roll over his or her account balance(s) and outstanding loan balance(s), if any, thereunder into a Granite plan that is intended to qualify under Section 401(k) of the Code, as amended.

Representations and Warranties

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by Layne, Granite and Merger Sub that are subject, in some cases, to specified exceptions and qualifications contained in the Merger Agreement or in the disclosure letters delivered by Granite and Layne in connection with the Merger Agreement.

These representations and warranties relate to, among other things:

corporate organization, valid existence, good standing and qualification and similar corporate matters;

certificate of incorporation, bylaws and certain corporate records;

corporate power and authority to execute and deliver the Merger Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

the absence of any violation of, or conflict with, either of Granite's or Layne's governing documents, applicable law or rules of NYSE or Nasdaq, as applicable and certain contracts as a result of the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger;

Granite's and its subsidiaries' compliance with applicable legal requirements since January 1, 2015 and Layne's and its subsidiaries' compliance with applicable legal requirements since February 1, 2015;

Additional representations and warranties made only by Granite and Merger Sub relate to, among other things, ownership of Merger Sub and share issuance of Granite Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

The representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement of each of Layne, Granite and Merger Sub will not survive the consummation of the Merger or the termination of the Merger Agreement pursuant to its terms.

Extension, Waiver and Amendment of the Merger Agreement

Granite, Layne and Merger Sub may amend the Merger Agreement at any time prior to consummation of the Merger. However, after the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Layne's stockholders, no amendment can be made without further stockholder approval which, by law or in accordance with applicable securities exchange rules, requires further approval by such stockholders.

Layne, on the one hand, and Granite or Merger Sub, on the other hand, may (a) extend the time for performance of any of obligation or other act of the other parties under the Merger Agreement, (b) waive any inaccuracy in the representations and warranties of the other party contained in the Merger Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the Merger Agreement and (c) waive compliance with any agreement of the other party or any condition to its own obligations contained in the Merger Agreement.

The waiver by any party of a breach of any provision of the Merger Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any prior or subsequent breach of the same or any other provision of the Merger Agreement. The failure of any party to assert any of its rights under the Merger Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights.

Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial

The parties have agreed that all disputes, claims, or controversies arising out of or relating to the Merger Agreement or the negotiation, validity, or performance of the Merger Agreement, or the transactions contemplated thereby will be governed by Delaware law, without regard to its rules of conflicts of laws.

Each party has submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery (unless the Delaware Court of Chancery declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, in which case any federal court within the State of Delaware) in any dispute, claim or cause of action arising out of or relating to the Merger Agreement. Each party has further irrevocably and unconditionally waived any right such party may have to a trial by jury with respect to any litigation directly or indirectly arising out of, under, or in connection with the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Specific Performance

The Merger Agreement provides that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any provision of the Merger Agreement were not performed in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement and that money damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement permits each party to enforce specifically the performance of the terms and provisions thereof, including the right of a party to cause the other parties to consummate the Merger, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. The parties also agreed not to assert that a remedy of specific enforcement is unenforceable, invalid, contrary to applicable law or inequitable for any reason, nor to assert that a remedy of monetary damages would provide an adequate remedy.

THE VOTING AGREEMENTS

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, Granite entered into the Voting Agreements, with each of the Voting Stockholders. The Voting Stockholders together own, in the aggregate, approximately % of the outstanding shares of Layne Common Stock as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. The following summary of the Voting Agreements does not purport to be complete and are subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Form of Voting Agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B.

Pursuant to the Voting Agreements, each Voting Stockholder has agreed during the Agreement Period (as defined in the Voting Agreements) to vote their shares of Layne Common Stock (a) in favor of the Merger and the adoption of the Merger Agreement at every meeting of the stockholders of Layne at which such matters are considered and at every adjournment or postponement thereof; (b) in approval of any proposal to adjourn or postpone any meeting to a later date if there are not sufficient votes to adopt the Merger Agreement, (c) any other matter necessary for consummation of the Merger considered at any such meeting, and (d) against (1) any acquisition proposal, including any superior proposal (as such terms are defined in the Merger Agreement), (2) any action, proposal, transaction or agreement that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of Layne under the Merger Agreement or of such stockholder under such Voting Agreement, (3) any liquidation, dissolution, recapitalization, extraordinary dividend or other significant corporate reorganization of Layne, and (4) any action, proposal, transaction or agreement that would reasonably be expected to impede, interfere with, delay, discourage, adversely affect or inhibit the timely consummation of the Merger or the fulfillment of Granite's, Layne's or Merger Subsidiaries' conditions under the Merger Agreement or change in any manner the voting rights of any class of shares of Layne (including any amendments to the Layne Charter or the Layne Bylaws).

The Voting Agreements will terminate upon the earliest to occur of (a) the Effective Time, (b) the date on which the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, (c) the termination of the Voting Agreement by the mutual written consent of Granite and the Voting Stockholders, (d) the date of any material modification, waiver or amendment of the Merger Agreement that affects adversely the consideration payable to stockholders of Layne, and (e) the date on which the Layne Board effects an adverse recommendation change (as described in The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals beginning on page 103 of this proxy statement/prospectus) in light of the existence of an intervening event (as described in The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals beginning on page 103 of this proxy statement/prospectus).

DESCRIPTION OF GRANITE CAPITAL STOCK

The following is a summary of the material terms of Granite's capital stock. Because it is only a summary, it may not contain all of the information that may be important to you and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Granite Charter and the Granite Bylaws. Accordingly, you should read the more detailed provisions of the Granite Charter and the Granite Bylaws.

Authorized Shares

Granite's authorized capital stock consists of 150,000,000 shares of common stock and 3,000,000 shares of preferred stock. As of March 8, 2018, there were 39,890,468 shares of Granite Common Stock outstanding and no shares of preferred stock outstanding.

Common Stock

Voting. Holders of Granite Common Stock vote as a single class on all matters submitted to a vote of the stockholders, with each share of common stock entitled to one vote.

Transfer Agent and Registrar. The transfer agent and registrar for Granite Common Stock is Computershare Trust Company, N.A.

Preferred Stock

Granite may issue, without further authorization from Granite's stockholders, up to 3,000,000 shares of preferred stock in one or more series. The Granite Board may determine at the time of creating each series:

designations;

qualifications, limitations or restrictions of each series.

The issuance of preferred stock may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of Granite. Any such issuance of additional stock could have the effect of diluting the earnings per share and book value per share of outstanding shares of Granite Common Stock, and such additional shares could be used to dilute the stock ownership or voting rights of persons seeking to obtain control of Granite. The issuance of Granite preferred stock with voting and conversion rights may adversely affect the voting power of the holders of Granite Common Stock, including the loss of voting control to others.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion is a general summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders (as defined below). The following discussion does not address any aspects of U.S. taxation other than U.S. federal income taxation, nor does it address any aspects of the unearned income Medicare contribution tax enacted pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010. This discussion does not address any non-income or other taxes or any foreign, state or local tax consequences.

The following is for general information purposes only and does not purport to be a complete analysis or discussion of all of the potential tax consequences of the Merger. It is not a substitute for careful tax planning and advice. Granite and Layne urge you to consult your own tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences to you of the Merger and the ownership of Granite Common Stock received in the Merger, including the applicability and effect of U.S. federal, state, local and non-U.S. income and other tax laws in light of your particular circumstances.

This discussion is for general information only and does not purport to address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to particular holders of Layne Common Stock in light of their particular facts and circumstances and does not apply to holders of Layne Common Stock that are subject to special rules under the U.S. federal income tax laws (including, for example, banks or other financial institutions; dealers or brokers in stocks and securities or currencies; traders in securities that elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting; insurance companies; tax-exempt entities; entities or arrangements treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes or other flow-through entities (and investors therein); subchapter S corporations (and investors therein); retirement plans, individual retirement accounts or other tax-deferred accounts; real estate investment trusts; regulated investment companies; mutual funds; controlled foreign corporations; passive foreign investment companies; holders liable for the alternative minimum tax; certain former citizens or former long-term residents of the United States; holders that are not U.S. holders; U.S. Holders having a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar; holders who hold shares of Layne Common Stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale, conversion transaction or other integrated transaction; holders who own (or are deemed to own) 5% or more of the outstanding stock of Layne and holders who acquired (or will acquire) their shares of Layne Common Stock through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan). This discussion is based on the Code, applicable Treasury regulations, administrative interpretations and court decisions, each as in effect as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, and any change could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth in this discussion. This discussion applies only to a holder that holds its Layne Common Stock as a capital asset (generally, property held for investment).

For purposes of this discussion, a U.S. Holder is a beneficial holder of Layne Common Stock that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia (or any other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes);

an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or a trust that (a) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

If an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds shares of Layne Common Stock, the tax treatment of a person treated as a partner in such partnership generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Persons that for U.S. federal income tax purposes are treated as a partner in a partnership holding shares of Layne Common Stock should consult their tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of the Merger to them.

Table of ContentsGeneral

Granite and Layne intend that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The obligations of each of Granite and Layne to consummate the Merger are conditioned upon the receipt by each of them of an opinion dated as of the closing of the Merger, to the effect that that the Merger will qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Granite will receive an opinion from its counsel, Jones Day, or if Jones Day is unable or unwilling to deliver such opinion, from Latham & Watkins. Layne will receive an opinion from its counsel, Latham & Watkins, or if Latham & Watkins is unable or unwilling to deliver such opinion, from Jones Day. These opinions will be based on customary assumptions and on representations, warranties and covenants of officers of Granite and Layne and any of their respective affiliates and representatives, as appropriate. If any of the assumptions, representations, warranties or covenants is incorrect, incomplete or inaccurate or is violated, the validity of the opinions described above may be affected and the tax consequences of the Merger could differ, perhaps substantially, from those described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

An opinion of counsel represents counsel's best legal judgment but is not binding on the IRS or any court, so there can be no certainty that the IRS will not challenge the conclusions reflected in the opinion or that a court would not sustain such a challenge. In addition, neither Granite nor Layne intends to request a ruling from the IRS regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. Accordingly, no assurance can be given that the Merger will qualify for the Intended Tax Treatment. If the IRS were to successfully challenge the treatment of the Merger describe above, the tax consequences could differ, perhaps substantially, from those described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The remainder of this discussion under Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences assumes that the Merger will qualify for the Intended Tax Treatment.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger to U.S. HoldersExchange of Layne Common Stock for Granite Common Stock

Subject to the discussion below relating to the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares, a U.S. Holder will not recognize any gain or loss upon the receipt of shares of Granite Common Stock in the Merger. The U.S. Holder's aggregate tax basis in Granite Common Stock received in the Merger (including any fractional share deemed received and sold as described below) will be equal to the aggregate tax basis of the shares of Layne Common Stock surrendered, and the U.S. Holder's holding period for shares of Granite Common Stock received in the Merger (including any fractional share deemed received and sold as described below) will include such holder's holding period for its shares of Layne Common Stock surrendered therefor.

If a U.S. Holder has acquired different blocks of Layne Common Stock at different times or at different prices, then such holder's tax basis and holding period in shares of Granite Common Stock received in the Merger may be determined with reference to each block of Layne Common Stock. Any such holders should consult their tax advisors with respect to identifying the bases or holding periods of the shares of Granite Common Stock received in the Merger.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares

A U.S. Holder that receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Granite Common Stock generally will be treated as having received such fractional share in the Merger and then as having sold such fractional share for cash. Such U.S. Holder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share of Granite Common Stock and the tax basis allocated to such fractional share of Granite Common Stock. Such gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for such fractional share (including the holding period of the Layne Common Stock surrendered therefor) is more than one year as of the closing date of the Merger. Long-term capital gains of non-corporate U.S. Holders currently are eligible for preferential U.S. federal income tax rates. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Information returns will be filed with the IRS in connection with payments of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Granite Common Stock made to a U.S. Holder (other than U.S. Holders that are exempt recipients, such as corporations). In addition, U.S. federal backup withholding (currently, at a rate of 24%) may apply to such cash payments, unless the U.S. Holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or furnishes its taxpayer identification number and other required information to the exchange agent, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amount withheld under the backup withholding rules is not an additional tax and may be refunded or credited against such U.S. Holder's federal income tax liability, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

The foregoing summary does not discuss all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to particular holders of Layne Common Stock. Holders of Layne Common Stock should consult their own tax advisors as to the particular tax consequences to them of the Merger and the ownership and disposition of Granite Common Stock received in the Merger under any federal, state, local, foreign or other tax laws.

Table of ContentsCOMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF GRANITE COMMON STOCK AND LAYNE COMMON STOCK

The following is a summary of the material differences between the rights of holders of Granite Common Stock and the rights of holders of Layne Common Stock, but it is not a complete description of those differences. These differences arise from the governing documents of the two companies, including the Granite Charter, the Granite Bylaws, the Layne Charter and the Layne Bylaws. Granite and Layne are both Delaware corporations and are governed by the DGCL. After completion of the Merger, the rights of Layne stockholders who become Granite stockholders will be governed by the DGCL, the Granite Charter and the Granite Bylaws. Granite and Layne urge you to read each of the Granite Charter, the Granite Bylaws, the Layne Charter, and the Layne Bylaws in their entirety. For additional information, see Where You Can Find More Information below.

GraniteLayne*Authorized Capital Stock

Granite is authorized to issue 153,000,000 shares of capital stock divided into two classes consisting of:

- (a) 150,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share; and
- (b) 3,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share.

Layne is authorized to issue 65,000,000 shares of capital stock divided into two classes consisting of:

- (a) 60,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share; and
- (b) 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share.

Rights of Preferred Stock

The Granite Charter provides that the Granite Board is authorized to determine the designation, powers, preferences, and rights of the shares and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof.

The Layne Charter provides that the Layne Board is authorized to determine the voting powers, designation, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof.

Number of Directors

The number of members of the Granite Board will initially be three, with the exact number fixed by resolution of the Granite Board. There are currently ten directors serving on the Granite Board.

The number of members of the Layne Board must be not less than one nor more than nine, with the number of directors being fixed from time to time by or pursuant to a resolution passed by the Layne Board.

Election of Directors

Each director shall be elected by a majority vote of the votes cast; provided however, that if the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected, the directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast.

Each director shall be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors.

Cumulative Voting

Classification of Board of Directors

The Layne Board is not divided into classes.

The Granite Board is divided into three classes, each of which generally serve for a term of three years with only one class of directors being elected in each year.

Table of ContentsGranite*Layne*Nomination of Directors

The Granite Bylaws provide that, subject to the rights of holders of any class or series of stock having a preference over the Common Stock as to dividends or upon liquidation, the nominations of persons for election to the Granite Board may be made by the Granite Board or a committee appointed for that purpose by the Granite Board or by any stockholder entitled to vote in the election of Directors generally.

Any stockholder entitled to vote in the election of Directors generally may nominate one or more persons for election as Directors at a meeting only if timely notice of such stockholder's intent to make such nomination or nominations has been given in writing to the Secretary of Granite.

To be timely, a stockholder's notice to the Secretary of Granite must be received at Granite's principal executive offices no less than 120 days in advance of the date that Granite's proxy statement was released to stockholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting of stockholders, however, if no annual meeting was held in the previous year or the date of the annual meeting has been changed by more than 30 days from the date contemplated at the time of the previous year's proxy statement, or in the event of a nomination for a director to be elected at a special meeting, to be timely, notice by the stockholder must be received not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which such notice of the date of the special meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made.

The Layne Bylaws provide that nominations of persons for election to the Layne Board may be made at an annual meeting or special meeting (but only if the Layne Board has first determined that directors are to be elected at such special meeting) (a) by or at the direction of the Layne Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof), or (b) by any stockholder who (1) was a stockholder of record at the time of giving the notice and on the record for determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, (2) is entitled to vote at the meeting, and (3) complied with the notice procedures as to such nomination.

To be timely, a stockholder's written notice to the Secretary of Layne must be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of Layne (a) not earlier than the 120th day prior to such special meeting and not later than the 90th day prior to such special meeting or, if later, the 10th day following the day on which the date of such special meeting was first publicly disclosed; and (b) provide any updates or supplements to such notice at the times and in the forms required. In no event shall any adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting or special meeting, or the announcement thereof, commence a new time period for the giving of a stockholder notice as described above.

Removal of Directors

The Granite Charter and Granite Bylaws provide that, subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding, the entire Granite Board, or any member or members of the board, may be removed, but only for cause, by stockholders holding a majority of the then-outstanding shares entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

The Layne Charter and Layne Bylaws provide that, subject to any rights of holders of preferred stock, a director may be removed without cause by either (a) a majority vote of the directors then in office (including for purposes of calculating the number of directors then in office the director subject to such removal vote), and (b) the affirmative vote of the stockholders holding at least 80% of the capital stock entitled to vote for the election of directors.

The Granite Charter and Bylaws provide that, subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock then outstanding, a vacancy or a newly created directorship may be filled by a majority vote of the directors in office, although less than a quorum, and directors so chosen shall hold office for a term expiring

The Layne Charter and Layne Bylaws provide that, subject to any rights of holders of preferred stock, vacancies shall be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, even though less than a quorum. A director so elected to fill a vacancy

Stockholder Nominations and Proposals; Requirements for Delivery and Notice

In addition to the advance notice requirements described above, the Granite Bylaws provide that a stockholder's notice to the Secretary of Granite must set forth certain information: (a) the name and address of the stockholder who intends to make the nomination and of the person or persons to be nominated; (b) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of Granite entitled to vote for the election of Directors on the date of such notice, and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (c) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the stockholder; (d) such other information regarding each nominee proposed by such stockholder as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the SEC, had the nominee been nominated, or intended to be nominated, by the Granite Board; and (e) the consent of each nominee to serve as a director of Granite if so elected.

In the event that a person validly designated as a nominee thereafter becomes unable or unwilling to stand for election to the Granite Board, the Granite Board or the stockholder who proposed such nominee, as the case may be, may designate a substitute nominee upon delivery, not fewer than five days prior to the date of the meeting for the election of such nominee, of a written notice to the Secretary of Granite setting forth such information regarding such substitute nominee as would have been required to be delivered to the Secretary of Granite had such substitute nominee been initially proposed as a nominee. Such notice shall include a signed consent to serve as a Director of Granite, if elected, of each such substitute nominee.

shall serve for the remainder of the term of the class to which he was elected.

In addition to the advance notice requirements described above, the Layne Bylaws provide that a stockholder's notice to the Secretary of Layne must set forth certain information: (a) (1) the name and address of the stockholder providing the notice, as they appear on the Layne's books, and of the other proposing persons, (2) any material ownership interests (as defined in the Layne Bylaws) of each proposing person, (3) any other information relating to such proposing person that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitation of proxies for the election of directors in a contested election pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act; and (b) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election as a director; (1) all information with respect to such proposed nominee that would be required to be set forth in a stockholder's notice if such proposed nominee were a proposing person; (2) all information relating to such proposed nominee that is required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for election of directors in a contested election pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act; (3) a description of all direct and indirect compensation and other material monetary agreements, arrangements and understandings during the past three years, and any other material relationships, between or among any proposing person, on the one hand, and each proposed nominee, and his or her respective affiliates and associates, and any other persons acting in concert with such nominee, affiliates, associates and other person, on the other hand, including, without limitation, all information that would be required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404 under Regulation S-K if the proposing persons were the registrant for purposes of such rule and the proposed nominee were a director or executive officer of such registrant, and a representation that each proposing person will notify Layne in writing of any such relationships, arrangements, agreements or understandings as of the Record Date for the meeting, promptly following the later of such Record Date or the date the notice of such Record Date is first publicly disclosed; and (4) a Layne may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as it may reasonably require to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as a an independent director or that could be material to a reasonable stockholder s understanding of the independence, or lack thereof, of such nominee.

Amendments to Certificate of Incorporation

The Granite Charter allows Granite to reserve the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in the Granite Charter in the manner prescribed by the laws of the State of Delaware and rights conferred upon stockholders are granted subject to this reservation.

The Layne Charter allows Layne to reserve the right to amend, alter, repeal, or rescind any provision in the manner prescribed by the laws of the State of Delaware and all rights, preferences and privileges of stockholders, directors, or any other persons whomsoever are granted subject to this reservation.

The DGCL further provides that the holders of the outstanding shares of a class are entitled to vote as a class on an amendment, whether or not entitled to vote by the charter, if the amendment would increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of such class, increase or decrease the par value of the shares of such class, or alter or change the powers, preferences, or special rights of the shares of the class so as to affect them adversely. Class voting rights do not exist as to other extraordinary matters, unless the charter provides otherwise. The Granite Charter is consistent with the DGCL, except that amendment of certain provisions relating to the Granite Board, the Granite Bylaws, Granite Board liability, and the future amendment of the Granite Charter may only be amended or repealed by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the combined voting power of the outstanding shares of stock of all classes and series of Granite entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

The DGCL further provides that the holders of the outstanding shares of a class are entitled to vote as a class on an amendment, whether or not entitled to vote by the charter, if the amendment would increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of such class, increase or decrease the par value of the shares of such class, or alter or change the powers, preferences, or special rights of the shares of the class so as to affect them adversely. Class voting rights do not exist as to other extraordinary matters, unless the charter provides otherwise. The Layne Charter is consistent with the DGCL, except that amendment of certain provisions relating to the Layne Board and the powers of stockholders may not be repealed or amended in any respect, and no provision imposing cumulative voting in the election of directors may be added, unless such action is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 80% of all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Layne or another corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors.

Amendments to Bylaws

The Granite Charter and Granite Bylaws provide that Granite Board is expressly authorized, with approval of a majority of the total number of authorized directors, to alter, amend or repeal the Granite Bylaws.

The Layne Bylaws provide that Layne stockholders and the Layne Board have power to adopt, amend or repeal the Layne Bylaws when such power is conferred upon the Layne Board by the Layne Charter, at any

In addition, the Granite Charter and Granite Bylaws provide that the Granite Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the combined voting power of the regular meeting or special meeting of the stockholders or of the Layne Board if notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new bylaws be contained in the notice of such special meeting.

outstanding shares of stock of all classes and series of Granite entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

LayneSpecial Meetings of Stockholders

The Granite Charter and Granite Bylaws provide that special meetings of stockholders, for any purpose or purposes prescribed in the notice of the meeting, may be called only (a) by the Granite Board pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the total number of authorized directors (whether or not there exist any vacancies in previously authorized directorships at the time any such resolution is presented to the Granite Board for adoption) or (b) by the holders of not less than ten percent of all of the shares entitled to cast votes at the meeting. Any special meeting shall be held at such place, on such date, and at such time as the Granite Board shall fix. Business transacted at special meetings shall be confined to the purpose or purposes stated in the notice.

The Layne Charter and Layne Bylaws provide that special meetings of stockholders, for any purpose or purposes, may be called at any time only by a majority of the members of the Layne Board or by a committee of the Layne Board which has been duly designated by the Layne Board and whose powers and authority, as provided in a Layne Board resolution or in the Layne Bylaws, include the power to call such meetings. Any special meeting shall be held at such place, on such date, and at such time as the Layne Board shall fix. Business transacted at special meetings shall be confined to the purpose or purposes stated in the notice.

Notice of Special Meetings of Stockholders

The Granite Bylaws provide that of all meetings of the stockholders, including special meetings, written notice of the date, place and time of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting.

The Layne Bylaws provide that of all meetings of the stockholders, including special meetings, written notice of the date, place and time of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting.

Stockholder Action by Written Consent

The Granite Charter requires all action required to be taken by the stockholders to be done so at a duly called annual or special meeting of stockholders. Stockholders may not act by written consent.

The Layne Charter requires all action required to be taken by the stockholders to be done so only at annual or special meetings of stockholders. Stockholders may not act by written consent.

Proxy

The Granite Bylaws provide that each Granite stockholder entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders may authorize another person to act for such stockholder by a proxy authorized by an instrument in writing or by a transmission permitted by law filed in accordance with the procedure established for the meeting. No stockholder may authorize more than one proxy for his shares. Any copy, facsimile telecommunication or other reliable reproduction of the writing or transmission created be substituted or used in lieu of the original writing or transmission for any and all purposes for which the original writing or transmission could be used, provided that such copy, facsimile

The Layne Bylaws provide that every stockholder having the right to vote at any meeting may vote by a proxy executed in writing by the stockholder or by an electronic transmission permitted by law. No proxy shall be valid after three years from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Limitation of Personal Liability of Directors

The Granite Charter provides that the liability of the directors of Granite for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permitted under Delaware law, including the DGCL.

The Layne Charter provides that to the fullest extent permitted under Delaware law, including the DGCL, a director of Layne shall not be personally liable to Layne or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (a) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Layne or its stockholders, (b) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) under Section 174 of the General Corporation Law, as the same exists or hereafter may be amended, or (d) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. If the General Corporation Law is amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of the directors, then the liability of a director shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the amended General Corporation Law.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Granite Bylaws provide that Granite must indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any person who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit, or proceeding, by reason of the fact that he or she or a person for whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of Granite or is or was serving at the request of Granite as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust, enterprise, or nonprofit entity, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer or employee or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer or employee, against all expense, liability, and loss reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee. Such right shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by Granite expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however that, if the DGCL then so requires, the payment of such expenses incurred by a director or officer of Granite, in his or her capacity as a director or officer, in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding, shall be made only upon

The Layne Charter and Layne Bylaws provide that Layne must indemnify and advance expenses to each person who is or was a director or officer of Layne, or who is or was serving at Layne's request as a director or officer of any corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or employee benefit plan, to the full extent permitted by the laws of the State of Delaware, who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit, or proceeding (including an action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of Layne), by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of Layne or is or was serving at the request of Layne as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or employee benefit plan. Layne shall indemnify against all liabilities and expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding (or in defense or settlement of such action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of Layne) if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Layne, and, with respect to any criminal in advance of its final disposition; provided, however that, the payment of such expenses incurred by a director or officer of Layne, in his or her capacity as a director or officer, in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding, shall be made only upon delivery to Layne of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it should ultimately be determined that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified. However, Layne shall not be required to indemnify or advance expenses to any person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses in connection with any action, suit or proceeding initiated by such person. In an action by or in the right of Layne, there shall be no indemnification in respect to any claim, issue or matter that such person is adjudged liable to Layne unless and only to the extent the Court of Chancery or the court in which the action was brought determines that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses deemed proper by the applicable court.

DGCL Section 203 Election

The Granite Charter does not contain a provision to opt out of Section 203 of the DGCL.

The Layne Charter does not contain a provision to opt out of Section 203 of the DGCL.

Vote on Mergers

Under the DGCL, a merger or consolidation generally must be adopted by the stockholders of each constituent corporation by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the transaction. Shareholders of the surviving entity need not adopt a merger if (a) the corporation's certificate of incorporation will not be amended as a result of the merger; (b) each share of the corporation's stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger will be an identical outstanding or treasury share of the surviving entity after the effective date of the merger; and (c) either no shares of the surviving entity's common stock and no securities convertible into such stock will be issued pursuant to the merger or the authorized unissued shares or treasury shares of the surviving entity's common stock to be issued pursuant to the merger plus those initially issuable upon conversion of any other securities to be issued pursuant to the merger do not exceed 20% of the shares of the surviving entity's common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger.

SUBMISSIONS OF LAYNE STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Layne does not intend to hold an annual meeting in 2018 unless the Merger is not completed.

In Layne's proxy statement for its 2017 annual meeting of stockholders, held on May 31, 2017, Layne disclosed that any Layne stockholder who desires to include a proposal in the proxy statement for the 2018 annual meeting would be required to deliver it so that it would be received by Layne by December 29, 2017. In addition, a proposal delivered by a stockholder is required to comply with the rules of the SEC to have a proposal included in Layne's proxy statement.

Under the Layne Bylaws, any stockholder who wanted to propose a nominee for election to the Layne Board, or to present any other proposal, at the 2018 annual meeting was required to notify Layne's Secretary in writing, which notice was requested to be received at Layne's principal executive offices not earlier than January 1, 2018 and not later than January 31, 2018. The Layne Bylaws require that the notice contain specific information.

Any proposals were required to be sent, in writing, to Corporate Secretary, Layne Christensen Company, 1800 Hughes Landing Blvd., Ste. 800, The Woodlands, Texas 77380. No nomination or other proposals were received within the required time period.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (this Agreement) is made and entered into as of February 13, 2018, by and among Layne Christensen Company, a Delaware corporation (the Company), Granite Construction Incorporated, a Delaware corporation (Parent), and Lowercase Merger Sub Incorporated, a Delaware corporation and wholly owned Subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub and collectively with the Company and Parent, the Parties).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Parent, Merger Sub and the Company intend to effect a merger (the Merger) of Merger Sub with and into the Company in accordance with this Agreement and the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL), with the Company to be the surviving corporation of the Merger (the Surviving Corporation), and each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (collectively, the Company Shares) issued and outstanding at the Effective Time to be thereupon cancelled and converted into a number of validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Parent (the Parent Common Stock) equal to the Exchange Ratio (the Merger Consideration), on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein;

WHEREAS, the board of directors of the Company (the Company Board) has unanimously (a) determined that the Merger is in the best interests of the Company and the stockholders of the Company (the Company Stockholders), (b) adopted resolutions approving and declaring the advisability of this Agreement and the Merger and other Transactions and (c) on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, resolved to recommend that the Company Stockholders adopt this Agreement;

WHEREAS, the board of directors of Parent (the Parent Board) has unanimously (a) determined that the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock pursuant to the Transactions (the Share Issuance) is in the best interests of Parent and its stockholders and (b) adopted resolutions approving this Agreement and the Merger and other Transactions, including the Share Issuance;

WHEREAS, the board of directors of Merger Sub has unanimously (a) adopted resolutions approving and declaring the advisability of this Agreement and the Merger and other Transactions and (b) resolved to recommend that Parent adopt this Agreement;

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, and as a condition and inducement to Parent's willingness to enter into this Agreement, certain Company Stockholders have executed and delivered to Parent voting agreements obligating each such signatory to, among other things, vote in favor of the adoption of this Agreement and the Transactions, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein; and

WHEREAS, for U.S. federal income Tax purposes, the Merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, and this Agreement is intended to be and is adopted as a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code and within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-2(g).

Section 1.04. Disclosure Letters. It is understood and agreed that (a) disclosure of any fact or item in any Section of the Company Disclosure Letter or the Parent Disclosure Letter shall be deemed to be disclosed with respect to any other applicable Section only to the extent it is reasonably apparent that such disclosure is applicable to such other Section, (b) nothing in the Company Disclosure Letter or the Parent Disclosure Letter is intended to broaden the scope of any representation or warranty made herein and (c) neither the specifications of any dollar amount in this Agreement nor the inclusion of any specific item in the Company Disclosure Letter or the Parent Disclosure Letter is intended to imply that such amounts or higher or lower amounts, or the items so included or other items, are or are not material, and no Party shall use the fact of setting of such amounts or the fact of the inclusion of such item in the Company Disclosure Letter or the Parent Disclosure Letter in any dispute or controversy between the Parties as to whether any obligation, item or matter is or is not material for purposes hereof.

ARTICLE II.

THE MERGER

Section 2.01. Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and in accordance with the DGCL, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company. As a result of the Merger, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall thereupon cease, and the Company shall be the Surviving Corporation in the Merger.

Section 2.02. Closing. Subject to the provisions of ARTICLE VII and unless this Agreement shall have been terminated in accordance with Section 8.01, the closing of the Merger (the Closing) shall (a) take place at the offices of Jones Day, 2727 North Harwood Street, Dallas, Texas 75201 as soon as practicable (but in no event later than the second Business Day) following the day on which the last to be satisfied or waived of the conditions set forth in ARTICLE VII (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions) shall have been satisfied or waived in accordance with this Agreement, or (b) occur at such other time and place agreed to by the Parties (the date upon which the Closing occurs, the Closing Date).

Section 2.03. Effective Time of the Merger. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, at the Closing, the Company shall file a certificate of merger (the Certificate of Merger) with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, in such form as required by, and executed in accordance with, the relevant provisions of the DGCL and shall make all other filings or recordings required under the DGCL in connection with the Merger. The Merger shall become effective upon the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later date and time as the Company and Parent may agree upon and as is set forth in such Certificate of Merger (such time, the Effective Time).

Section 2.04. Effects of the Merger. At the Effective Time, the effect of the Merger shall be as provided in this Agreement, the Certificate of Merger and the applicable provisions of the DGCL. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and subject thereto, at the Effective Time, all of the property, rights, privileges, immunities, powers and franchises of the Company and Merger Sub shall vest in the Surviving Corporation, and all debts, liabilities and duties of the Company and Merger Sub shall become the debts, liabilities and duties of the Surviving Corporation.

Section 2.05. Certificate and Bylaws.

(a) At the Effective Time, the Company Certificate shall, by virtue of or in connection with the Merger, be amended and restated in its entirety to read as the certificate of incorporation of Merger Sub as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that the name of the Surviving Corporation shall be Layne Christensen Company and, as so amended, shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter further amended as provided therein or by applicable Law.

(b) At the Effective Time, and without any further action on the part of the Company and Merger Sub, the Company Bylaws shall be amended and restated in their entirety to read as the bylaws of Merger Sub as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that the name of the Surviving Corporation shall be Layne Christensen Company and, as so amended, shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended as provided therein or by applicable Law.

Section 2.06. Directors and Officers of the Surviving Corporation. From and after the Effective Time, the directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the directors of the Surviving Corporation, and the officers of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the officers of the Surviving Corporation, in each case, until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified, or until the earlier of their death, resignation, or removal.

Section 2.07. Governance Matters. Parent shall take such actions as are necessary for the Parent Board to expand the size of the Parent Board and to appoint one current non-employee director of the Company who is a director prior to the Effective Time to be designated by Parent to fill such vacancy, effective as of the Effective Time, to serve until Parent's 2019 annual meeting of stockholders or such person's earlier death, retirement, resignation or removal by Parent's stockholders.

ARTICLE III.

EFFECTS OF THE MERGER

Section 3.01. Conversion of Securities. At and as of the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or the Company Stockholders (other than any requisite approval of the principal terms of the Merger by the Company Stockholders in accordance with the DGCL):

(a) Each Company Share held in treasury and each Company Share that is owned, directly or indirectly, by a wholly owned Subsidiary of the Company, Parent or Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be cancelled and shall cease to exist, without any conversion thereof and no payment or distribution shall be made with respect thereto.

(b) Each Company Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Company Shares to be cancelled in accordance with Section 3.01(a)), shall (i) be converted and exchanged automatically into the right to receive 0.27 shares of Parent Common Stock (such ratio, the Exchange Ratio), payable to the holder thereof, in accordance with Section 3.02, (ii) no longer be outstanding, (iii) automatically be cancelled and (iv) cease to exist. Each holder of any such converted and cancelled Company Share shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration, without interest. The Company Shares that are to be so converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration are referred to herein as the Merger Shares.

(c) Each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Merger Sub shall be converted into and become one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation.

Section 3.02. Payment of Merger Consideration; Surrender of Company Shares; Stock Transfer Books.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, Parent or Merger Sub shall appoint as exchange agent a bank or trust company reasonably satisfactory to the Company (the Exchange Agent) for the purpose of paying the Merger Consideration to Company Stockholders. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, for the benefit of the holders of Merger Shares, shares of Parent Common Stock (which shall be in non-certificated book entry form) sufficient to pay the aggregate Merger Consideration required to be issued in accordance with this Agreement. Parent shall promptly deposit with the Exchange Agent from time to time as needed any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock to be paid in consideration thereof pursuant to Section 3.02(j) and any dividends or other distributions which a holder of Company Shares has the right to receive pursuant to Section 3.02(i). All shares representing Parent Common Stock and cash deposited with the Exchange Agent are hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund. Parent will instruct the Exchange Agent to pay the Merger Consideration out of the Exchange Fund in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the E
