Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

T-Mobile USA, Inc. ( T-Mobile USA ), a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of T-Mobile US, Inc. (the Company ), recently completed the issuance of $2.5 billion in aggregate principal amount of senior notes to the Company s majority stockholder Deutsche Telekom AG ( DT ) pursuant to a purchase agreement, dated January 22, 2018, among T-Mobile USA, the guarantors party thereto (which include the Company) and DT (the Purchase Agreement ).

Pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, on April 30, 2018, T-Mobile USA issued to DT (i) $1.0 billion in aggregate principal amount of its 4.500% Senior Notes due 2026-1 (the 2026 Notes ) and (ii) $1.5 billion in aggregate principal amount of its 4.750% Senior Notes due 2028-1 (the 2028 Notes and, together with the 2026 Notes, the Notes ). Contemporaneously with the issuance, T-Mobile USA redeemed through net settlement all of the $1.25 billion outstanding aggregate principal amount of T-Mobile USA s 8.097% Senior Reset Notes due 2021 and all of the $1.25 billion outstanding aggregate principal amount of T-Mobile USA s 8.195% Senior Reset Notes due 2022 held by DT (the DT Exchange Notes ). T-Mobile USA paid DT $102 million for the redemption premium due on the DT Exchange Notes.

T-Mobile USA was not required to pay any upfront fees, underwriting fees, new issuance concession or other consideration to DT in connection with the issuance and sale of the Notes.

The Notes were issued pursuant to an Indenture (the Base Indenture ), dated as of April 28, 2013, among T-Mobile USA, the guarantors party thereto and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as trustee, as amended and supplemented by (i) the Thirty-Fifth Supplemental Indenture, dated as of April 30, 2018 (the Thirty-Fifth Supplemental Indenture ), among T-Mobile USA, the Company, the other guarantors party thereto and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as trustee, with respect to the 2026 Notes and (ii) the Thirty-Sixth Supplemental Indenture, dated as of April 30, 2018 (the Thirty-Sixth Supplemental Indenture ), among T-Mobile USA, the Company, the other guarantors party thereto and Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, as trustee, with respect to the 2028 Notes (the Base Indenture, as amended and supplemented by each of the Thirty-Fifth Supplemental Indenture and the Thirty-Sixth Supplemental Indenture, each an Indenture and, collectively, the Indentures ). The 2026 Notes will bear interest at a rate of 4.500% per year and mature on February 1, 2026. The 2028 Notes will bear interest at a rate of 4.750% per year and mature on February 1, 2028. T-Mobile USA will pay interest on each series of Notes semiannually in arrears on each February 1 and August 1, commencing August 1, 2018.

The Notes will be guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by the Company and all of T-Mobile USA s wholly-owned domestic restricted subsidiaries (excluding certain designated special purpose entities, designated unrestricted subsidiaries, a reinsurance subsidiary and immaterial subsidiaries), all of T-Mobile USA s restricted subsidiaries that guarantee other material indebtedness, and any future subsidiary of the Company that directly or indirectly owns any of T-Mobile USA s equity interests (the Guarantors ). The Notes and the guarantees will be T-Mobile USA s and the Guarantors senior unsecured obligations and will rank equally in right of payment with all of T-Mobile USA s and the Guarantors existing and future indebtedness and other liabilities that are not by their terms subordinated in right of payment to the Notes and the guarantees, and will rank senior in right of payment to any future indebtedness of T-Mobile USA or any Guarantor that provides by its terms that it is subordinated in right of payment to the Notes and the guarantees. The Notes and the guarantees will be effectively subordinated to all of T-Mobile USA s and the Guarantors existing and future secured indebtedness to the extent of the assets securing such indebtedness, and will be structurally subordinated to all of the liabilities and preferred stock of any of T-Mobile USA s subsidiaries that do not guarantee the Notes.

If T-Mobile USA experiences specific kinds of changes of control as set forth in the Indentures and any such change of control is accompanied or followed by ratings downgrades during a specified period of time after the change of control, any holder of the Notes may require T-Mobile USA to repurchase all or a portion of the applicable Notes so held at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount of such Notes, plus any accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes repurchased to, but not including, the date of repurchase. In addition, if at any time T-Mobile USA exercises any rights with respect to its publicly-issued 4.500% Senior Notes due 2026 or 4.750% Senior Notes due 2028, T-Mobile USA is required to exercise the same rights under the corresponding series of Notes.

The Indentures contain covenants that, among other things, restrict the ability of T-Mobile USA and its restricted subsidiaries to incur more debt, pay dividends and make distributions, make certain investments, repurchase stock, create liens or other encumbrances, enter into transactions with affiliates, enter into agreements that restrict dividends or distributions from subsidiaries, and merge, consolidate or sell, or otherwise dispose of, substantially all of their assets. These limitations are subject to a number of important qualifications and exceptions.

Each Indenture contains customary Events of Default (as defined in each Indenture), including:

default for 30 days in the payment when due of interest on the Notes of the applicable series;

default in the payment when due (at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise) of the principal of, or premium, if any, on, the Notes of the applicable series;

failure by T-Mobile USA to comply with its other obligations under the Indentures, in certain cases subject to notice and grace periods;

payment defaults and accelerations with respect to other indebtedness of T-Mobile USA and certain of its restricted subsidiaries in the aggregate principal amount of $100.0 million or more;

specified events involving bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of T-Mobile USA or certain of its restricted subsidiaries; and failure by T-Mobile USA or certain of its restricted subsidiaries to pay certain final judgments aggregating in excess of $100.0 million within 60 days of such final judgment.

Upon an Event of Default, the trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes of the applicable series then outstanding may declare all the Notes of such series to be due and payable immediately. In the case of Events of Default relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, all outstanding Notes of the applicable series will become due and payable immediately without further action or notice.

The Notes were issued to DT without being registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), in reliance upon an exemption therefrom. Neither the Company nor T-Mobile USA will be required to file a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) providing for the registration under the Securities Act of the Notes prior to the date that is six months after the issuance date of the Notes.

DT is the Company's majority stockholder and a holder of a portion of T-Mobile USA's outstanding debt, as further described in the Company's periodic reports with the SEC.

This description of the Thirty-Fifth Supplemental Indenture and the Thirty-Sixth Supplemental Indenture is a summary only and is qualified in its entirety by the full and complete terms of the Thirty-Fifth Supplemental Indenture and the Thirty-Sixth Supplemental Indenture, which are filed as Exhibits 4.1 and 4.2, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
