Gold Fields Limited announces executive changes

Johannesburg, October 25, 2006. Gold Fields Limited (Gold Fields) (NYSE: GFI; JSE: GFI), is pleased to announce the following changes to its executive committee.

Ms Nerina Bodasing will join the Gold Fields executive committee as vice president and head of investor relations. This portfolio was previously held by Mr. Willie Jacobsz.

Mr Jacobsz will remain on the executive committee as senior vice president and head of corporate affairs. He will retain responsibility for the media, stakeholder relations and communication portfolios of the Group and, in addition, will assume responsibility for the sustainable development portfolio. Ms. Bodasing will be responsible for investor relations in all of Gold Fields' traditional investor markets of South Africa, Europe and North America, as well as the development of new markets in the Middle East and Asia. These changes have become necessary due to the increasing internationalisation of Gold Fields, and will ensure that each of these portfolios receive the focussed attention required.
