As a result of the previously disclosed delay in the filing of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 (the “2007 Form 10-K”) with the Securities and Exchange Commission, WellCare Health Plans, Inc. (the “Company” or “we”) is unable to make certain corporate governance disclosures required to be contained in that filing (or, alternatively, in the Company’s 2008 proxy statement) under Section 303A of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) Listed Company Manual as more fully discussed below. On December 12, 2008, the NYSE advised the Company that it can provide the required corporate governance disclosures through the filing of this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The NYSE Listed Company Manual requires NYSE-listed companies to make certain corporate governance disclosures in their annual reports on Form 10-K or their annual meeting proxy statements. In particular, Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual requires companies to:

- disclose the board’s evaluation of each director’s relationship with the company (including the basis for a board determination that a relationship is not material), any categorical standards of independence adopted by the board to assist it in making determinations of independence and the board’s determination as to the independence of each director;
- identify the non-management director who presides at all regularly scheduled executive sessions of the non-management members of the board of directors, or, alternatively, the procedure by which the presiding director is chosen for each session;
- disclose a method by which interested parties may communicate directly with the presiding director or the non-management directors as a group;
- disclose the availability of the company’s corporate governance guidelines, code of business conduct and ethics, and charters for the board’s audit, compensation and nominating/corporate governance committees on its website and in print upon stockholder request; and
- disclose that (a) the company’s chief executive officer and chief financial officer have filed the certifications required by Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act with the company’s annual report on Form 10-K, and (b) the company’s chief executive officer has certified to the NYSE that he is not aware of any violation of the NYSE corporate governance listing standards by the company or, if a qualified certification was provided, disclose any qualifications to such certification.

The Company intends to provide the following disclosures in its 2007 Form 10-K when filed in substantially the form presented below.

Director Independence

The Company’s corporate governance guidelines provide that a majority of the members of the Company’s board of directors (the “Board”) must meet the criteria of independence as required by the listing standards of the NYSE. In addition, each member of the Board’s audit committee, compensation committee and nominating and corporate governance committee must be independent. No director qualifies as independent unless the Board determines that the director has no direct or indirect material relationship with the company. The Board reviews the independence of its members by requiring that each member complete disclosure and independence questionnaires and by considering all transactions and relationships between each director or any member of his or her immediate family and the Company and its subsidiaries. The purpose of this review is to determine whether any such relationships or transactions are inconsistent with a determination that the director is independent.

In making independence determinations, the Board applies the independence standards contained in Section 303A.02 of the NYSE Listed Company Manual, in addition to any other relevant facts and circumstances. The Board determined that seven of the Company's nine directors meet the criteria for independence as set forth in such standards and that such directors are therefore independent. The Company's independent directors are:

D. Robert Graham

Regina E. Herzlinger
Kevin Hickey
Alif Hourani
Ruben Jose King-Shaw, Jr.
Christian Michalik
Neal Moszkowski

Presiding Director

Mr. Kevin Hickey has been selected by the Board to be the Company's lead director and presides over executive sessions of the Board's non-management and independent directors.

Annual Certifications

In addition, the Company's current CEO executed a Certification for 2008 on December 29, 2008 and delivered it to the NYSE. The Certification confirms that the CEO is not aware of any violation by the Company of any NYSE corporate governance listing standard.

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 requires that the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer of a publicly-traded company provide certifications regarding the disclosures contained in the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K. These certifications will be filed as exhibits to the 2007 Form 10-K when it is filed by the Company.
