Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(c) On August 1, 2007, Erie Indemnity Company (the "Company") filed a Form 8-K disclosing its results of operations and financial condition for the second quarter of 2007. That Form 8-K also announced the resignation of the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, Jeffrey A. Ludrof, and the subsequent appointment of John J. Brinling, Jr. to serve as interim President and Chief Executive Officer. At the time that Form 8-K was filed, information regarding Mr. Brinling's compensation and benefits was not yet available. This Amendment to the Form 8-K filed on August 1, 2007, sets forth the details of Mr. Brinling's compensation arrangement.

On October 11, 2007, the Company entered into arrangement with its interim President and Chief Executive Officer, John J. Brinling, Jr., regarding his compensation and benefits. Mr. Brinling, age 60, assumed this position on August 8, 2007, upon the resignation of the Company's former President and Chief Executive Officer. The material terms of the arrangement are substantially the same as the Company had with Mr. Brinling's predecessor, including an annual salary of $815,626 and participation in the Company's Annual and Long-Term Incentive Plans on a pro-rated basis for the portion of the year that Mr. Brinling serves as President and Chief Executive Officer. In addition, and in lieu of Mr. Brinling's participation in the Company's Pension Plans, the Company will credit an amount equal to a certain percentage of his salary to a hypothetical account to be paid to him after termination of his service as President and Chief Executive Officer. This arrangement is filed as Exhibit No. 99.1 to this 8-K.

(e) See disclosure for Item 5.02(c) above.
