Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On February 27, 2009, Allegiant Air, LLC ("AAir"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Allegiant Travel Company (the "Company"), entered into two separate Lease Agreements for the lease of two MD-88 aircraft. AAir will account for the leases as operating leases, expects to place the aircraft into service during second quarter 2009 and expects to make approximately $1.7 million of monthly lease payments for each aircraft over the 74-month term of each lease.

AAir expects to operate 41 aircraft by the end of first quarter 2009, at least 44 aircraft by the end of second quarter 2009 (including these aircraft) and at least 44 aircraft by the end of 2009.

Forward-Looking Statements: Under the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are only estimates or predictions based on management's beliefs and assumptions and on information currently available to management. Forward-looking statements include statements regarding future lease payments and the Company's fleet growth.

Forward-looking statements involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Actual results may differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements. Important risk factors that could cause results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements generally may be found in the Company's periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission at www.sec.gov.

Any forward-looking statements are based on information available to the Company today and the Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of future events, new information or otherwise.
