Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 26, 2010, Ferro Corporation (the "Company") amended its senior credit facility by entering into the First Amendment to Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement among the Company; Credit Suisse, Cayman Islands Branch, as term loan administrative agent; PNC Bank, National Association, as revolving loan administrative agent; National City Bank, as collateral agent; and various other financial institutions (the "Credit Agreement First Amendment").

The primary effects of the Credit Agreement First Amendment are to:

1. Amend the permitted indebtedness provisions of the senior credit facility to permit the issuance of up to $300,000,000 of unsecured Senior Notes of the Company;
2. Exclude swap breakage costs incurred in connection with a prepayment of term loans from the calculation of EBITDA and, as a result, the fixed charge coverage ratio and the leverage ratio;
3. Amend the mandatory repayment provisions of the senior credit facility to require that the net proceeds of the issuance of Senior Notes be used to prepay any term loans outstanding under the Company's senior credit facility and then to repay outstanding revolving loans. Any remaining net proceeds may be used by the Company for general corporate purposes; and
4. Amend the definition of "change of control" in the senior credit facility to include any change of control, as defined in the instruments governing the Senior Notes, for so long as any Senior Notes are outstanding.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the First Amendment to Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
