Declared quarterly dividends for the first, second, third and fourth quarters of 2008, aggregating $0.93 per share.

Aristides Pittas, Chairman and CEO of Euroseas commented: The fourth quarter of 2008 was a very challenging one for most shipping companies. Over the past year, we have been preparing for a possible market downturn by maintaining a strong balance sheet with a very low level of debt and plenty of cash. In 2008, we avoided investing in new acquisitions, except for one which was protected through a 3-year time charter.

Our results for the fourth quarter 2008 were greatly impacted by about $25 million impairment charge we took mainly on m/v Ioanna P. This vessel was our latest drybulk acquisition and was sold during the first quarter of 2009. Until its sale, this vessel contributed $14.7 million in operating earnings; had the good markets lasted till mid 2009, as we had expected at the time of its purchase, it would have earned us enough to prove a successful investment.

Looking forward into 2009 and 2010, we expect to witness a difficult market which will however present significant expansion opportunities. We have currently covered about 75% of our drybulk and 54% of our container available days for 2009, and, about 75% of our drybulk and 26% of our container available days for 2010 with time charter or FFA contracts. Revenues of the vessels that will come out of existing charters in 2009 are expected to be low and especially in the container market it may prove more economical to temporarily lay-up some vessels (we have already laid up M/V ARTEMIS).

We have already started implementing a fleet renewal program by purchasing two drybulk vessels of around 11-12 years old and selling two of our 25-year old drybulk vessels. The incremental capital expenditure was about $32 million out of which $10 million is financed with debt and we expect to use $10 million more to finance the ship that we are taking delivery of in early March; if we did the same two replacements in our fleet, five months ago we would have a net capital outlay in excess of $100 million. We will continue with our modernization and fleet expansion program at opportune times.

Our Board confirmed its intention to continue paying healthy dividends to our shareholders throughout the market cycles in parallel with our expansion program, as far as practically possible. In that respect we are happy to have declared a quarterly dividend of $0.10 per share which represents a yield of about 9.5% on the basis of our stock price on February 20, 2009.

Tasos Aslidis, Chief Financial Officer of Euroseas commented: The results of the full year of 2008 reflect significantly higher revenues compared to 2007 due to the higher average time charter equivalent rate our vessels have achieved during the year and the higher number of vessels in our fleet. Our results for the fourth quarter 2008 were lower compared to the same period for 2007. Our results were also negatively affected by impairment and other non-cash losses on interest rate derivatives, FFAs and declines in value of a small amount of securities held.

Daily vessel operating expenses, including management fees, during 2008 reflect an increase of about 15.4% on a per vessel per day basis compared to 2007. Despite this increase, we maintain one of the lowest operating cost structures amongst the public shipping companies which, we believe, is one of our competitive advantages. It is worth noting that in the second half of 2008 most of the cost increases that occurred in the second quarter were reversed. We will continue to focus on controlling and reducing our costs while ensuring safe operations.

I would like to note that we are in full compliance with all our debt covenants as of December 31, 2008. As of December 31, 2008, our outstanding debt is about $56 million versus restricted and unrestricted cash of more than $80 million. Even after accounting for the capital expenditures for our two acquisitions in 2009, we are left with about $70 million of restricted and unrestricted cash. Our scheduled debt repayments in 2009 are about $13.2 million, a number low enough to provide us with operational cash flow comfort. We estimate that our cash flow breakeven for 2009 excluding dividend payments is around $9,500 per vessel per day.

Fourth Quarter 2008 Results:

For the fourth quarter of 2008, the Company reported total net revenues of $24.3 million representing a 22.8% decrease over total net revenues of $31.5 million during the fourth quarter of 2007. The Company reported a net loss for the period of $22.6 million as compared to net income of $15.3 million for the fourth quarter of 2007. The results for the fourth quarter of 2008 include a $25.1 million impairment loss on the book value of the vessels and a $4.7 million loss on derivatives and investments as compared to $0.1 million gain on investments for the same period of 2007. On average, 16 vessels were operated during the fourth quarter 2008 earning an average time charter equivalent rate of $17,971 per day compared to 14.63 vessels in the same period 2007 earning on average $26,479 per day.

Adjusted EBITDA for the fourth quarter of 2008 was $13.1 million, a 39.0% decrease from $21.5 million achieved during the fourth quarter of 2007. Please see below for Adjusted EBITDA reconciliation to net income and cash flow provided by operating activities.

Basic and diluted loss per share for the fourth quarter of 2008 was $0.74, calculated on 30,520,584 and 30,534,713 weighted average number of shares outstanding, respectively, compared to basic and diluted earnings per share of $0.55 for the fourth quarter of 2007, calculated on 27,610,993 and 27,748,850 weighted average number of shares outstanding, respectively.

Excluding the effect on the earnings for the quarter of the impairment loss, loss on investments and derivatives and amortization of the fair value of time charter contracts acquired the earnings per share for the quarter ended December 31, 2008 would have been $0.23 per share basic and diluted and, for the quarter ended December 31, 2007 would have been $0.50 per share basic and diluted. Usually, security analysts do not include the above items in their published estimates of earnings per share.

The Company has declared a quarterly dividend of $0.10 per share, which represents its fourteenth consecutive quarterly dividend and a 67% decrease over last year's fourth quarter dividend, reflecting the recent dramatic change of market conditions and the Company's continuing investment strategy. The dividend is payable on March 20, 2009 to shareholders of record as of March 12, 2009.

Year Ended December 31, 2008 Results:

For the year ended December 31, 2008, the Company reported total net revenues of $127.1 million and net income of $23.6 million, representing a 54.8% increase and 41.9% decrease, respectively over 2007. The results for the year also include a $25.1 million impairment loss on the book value of the vessels and a $5.4 million loss on derivatives and investments as compared to $0.1 million gain on investments for the same period of 2007. Results for the year ended December 31, 2007 included a capital gain of $3.4 million from the sale of M/V Ariel.

Adjusted EBITDA for the period was $78.9 million, a 27.9% increase over 2007 (please see below for Adjusted EBITDA reconciliation to net income and cash flow from operating activities). In the year ended December 31, 2007, net revenues were $82.1 million, net income was $40.7 million and Adjusted EBITDA was $61.7 million. On average, 15.62 vessels were operated during the year 2008 earning an average time charter equivalent rate of $23,837 per day compared to 11.46 vessels in the same period 2007 earning a time charter equivalent rate of $21,468.

Basic earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2008 were $0.78 calculated on 30,437,107 weighted average number of shares outstanding, compared to basic earnings per share of $1.89 for 2007 calculated on 21,566,619 weighted average number of shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2008 were $0.77 calculated on 30,505,476 weighted average number of shares outstanding, compared to basic earnings per share of $1.88 for 2007 calculated on 21,644,920 weighted average number of shares outstanding.

Excluding the effect on the earnings for the year of the impairment loss, loss on investments and derivatives and from the amortization of the fair value of time charter contracts acquired the earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2008 would have been $1.58 per share basic and diluted, and, for the year ended December 31, 2007 would have been $1.75 per share basic and $1.74 per share diluted exclusive of a $0.17 per share capital gain from the sale of M/V Ariel in February 2007. Usually, security analysts do not include the above in their published estimates of earnings per share.

(1) Average number of vessels is the number of vessels that constituted our fleet for the relevant period, as measured by the sum of the number of calendar days each vessel was a part of our fleet during the period divided by the number of calendar days in that period.

(2) Calendar days. We define calendar days as the total number of days in a period during which each vessel in our fleet was in our possession including off-hire days associated with major repairs, drydockings or special or intermediate surveys. Calendar days are an indicator of the size of our fleet over a period and affect both the amount of revenues and the amount of expenses that we record during that period.

(3) Available days. We define available days as the total number of days in a period during which each vessel in our fleet was in our possession net of off-hire days associated with scheduled repairs, drydockings or special or intermediate surveys. The shipping industry uses available days to measure the number of days in a period during which vessels were available to generate revenues.

(4) Voyage days. We define voyage days as the total number of days in a period during which each vessel in our fleet was in our possession net of off-hire days associated with scheduled and unscheduled repairs, drydockings or special or intermediate surveys or days waiting to find employment or other offhire. The shipping industry uses voyage days to measure the number of days in a period during which vessels actually generate revenues.

(5) Fleet utilization. We calculate fleet utilization by dividing the number of our voyage days during a period by the number of our available days during that period. The shipping industry uses fleet utilization to measure a company's efficiency in finding suitable employment for its vessels and minimizing the amount of days that its vessels are off-hire for reasons such as unscheduled repairs or days waiting to find employment.

(6) Time charter equivalent, or TCE, is a measure of the average daily revenue performance of a vessel on a per voyage basis. Our method of calculating TCE is consistent with industry standards and is determined by dividing revenue generated from voyage charters net of voyage expenses by available days for the relevant time period. Voyage expenses primarily consist of port, canal and fuel costs that are unique to a particular voyage, which would otherwise be paid by the charterer under a time charter contract, as well as commissions. TCE is a standard shipping industry performance measure used primarily to compare period-to-period changes in a shipping company's performance despite changes in the mix of charter types (i.e., spot voyage charters, time charters and bareboat charters) under which the vessels may be employed between the periods.

(7) Daily vessel operating expenses, which includes crew costs, provisions, deck and engine stores, lubricating oil, insurance, maintenance, repairs and management fees are calculated by dividing vessel operating expenses plus management fees by fleet calendar days for the relevant time period.

(8) Daily general and administrative expense is calculated by dividing general and administrative expense by fleet calendar days for the relevant time period.

(9) Total vessel operating expenses, or TVOE, is a measure of our total expenses associated with operating our vessels. TVOE is the sum of vessel operating expenses, management fees and general and administrative expenses. Daily TVOE is calculated by dividing TVOE by fleet calendar days for the relevant time period.

EBITDA Reconciliation:

Euroseas Ltd. considers Adjusted EBITDA to represent net earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, impairment loss, amortization of deferred charges, amortization of fair value from above or below market time charters acquired and gain or loss on derivatives. Adjusted EBITDA does not represent and should not be considered as an alternative to net income or cash flow from operations, as determined by United States generally accepted accounting principles, or U.S. GAAP, and our calculation of Adjusted EBITDA may not be comparable to that reported by other companies. Adjusted EBITDA is included herein because it is a basis upon which we assess our liquidity position and because we believe that it presents useful information to investors regarding a company's ability to service and/or incur indebtedness. The Company's definition of Adjusted EBITDA may not be the same as that used by other companies in the shipping or other industries.
