The Directors of the Company do not compensate their directors, other than reimbursing for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them on behalf of the Company.

MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Company presently does not have an audit committee, compensation committee or nominating committee or committee performing similar functions, as the management of the Company believes that until this point it has been premature at the early stage of the Company's management and business development to form an audit, compensation or nominating committee. However, the new management of the Company plans to form an audit, compensation and nominating committee in the near future. The Company envisions that the audit committee will be primarily responsible for reviewing the services performed by the Company's independent auditors and evaluating its accounting policies and system of internal controls. The Company envisions that the compensation committee will be primarily responsible for reviewing and approving the Company's salary and benefits policies (including stock options) and other compensation of the Company's executive officers. Until these committees are established, these decisions will continue to be made by the Board of Directors. Although the Board of Directors has not established any minimum qualifications for director candidates, when considering potential director candidates, the Board of Directors considers the candidate's character, judgment, skills and experience in the context of the needs of the Company and the Board of Directors.

The Company does not have an audit committee charter or a charter governing the nominating process. The members of the Board of Directors, who perform the functions of a nominating committee, are not independent because they are also officers of the Company. The determination of independence of directors has been made using the definition of "independent director" contained under Rule 4200(a)(15) of the Rules of National Association of Securities Dealers. There has not been any defined policy or procedure requirements for stockholders to submit recommendations or nomination for directors. The Board of Directors does not believe that a defined policy with regard to the consideration of candidates recommended by stockholders is necessary at this time because, given the early stages of the Company's development, a specific nominating policy would be premature and of little assistance until the Company's business operations are at a more advanced level.

AMENDMENT OF THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE THE NAME OF THE COMPANY

The Board of Directors of the Company has adopted a resolution to change the name of the corporation from "Toro Ventures Inc." to "Jet Petroleum Corp.". The holders of shares representing a majority of the Company's outstanding voting stock have given their written consent to the Corporate Name Change. Under Nevada corporation law and the Company's bylaws, the consent of the holders of a majority of the voting power is effective as stockholders' approval. An Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of the Company (the "Amendment") in order to change the name of the Company.

The Corporate Name Change has been approved because the new name better represents the Company's new business focus. The Company commenced business in April 2005 in order to commence operations of a fast food service company in the republic of China. After two years of the Company's best efforts in fulfilling its initial business plan, it was decided that it was in the best interest of the shareholders for the Company to alter its business pursuits. As a result of this change of direction, the Company's business focus is now oil and gas exploration.

The adoption of "Jet Petroleum Corp." as the new name more clearly and accurately describes the new business focus of the Company. With the name "Toro Ventures Inc.", there is no clear relationship to the Company's current business activities. The name "Jet Petroleum Corp." should allow the Company to develop a clearer and more recognizable identity in the marketplace.

Certificates for the Company's common stock that recite the name "Toro Ventures Inc." will continue to represent shares in the Company after the Corporate Name Change has become effective. If, however, a stockholder wishes to acquire a certificate reciting the name "Jet Petroleum Corp." after the effectiveness of the Corporate Name Change, the stockholder may do so by surrendering its certificate to the Company's transfer agent with a request for a replacement certificate and the appropriate stock transfer fee.
