Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously announced, Leidos Holdings, Inc. (“Leidos”) entered into a definitive agreement with Lockheed Martin Corporation (“Lockheed Martin”) pursuant to which Leidos will combine with Lockheed Martin’s realigned Information Systems & Global Solutions business (IS&GS) in a Reverse Morris Trust transaction, pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated January 26, 2016, as amended (the “Merger Agreement”), among Leidos, Lockheed Martin, Abacus Innovations Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Lockheed Martin (“Splitco”), and Lion Merger Co., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Leidos (“Merger Sub”).

On July 11, 2016, Lockheed Martin announced that it has commenced an exchange offer in connection with the transaction, pursuant to which Lockheed Martin is offering to Lockheed Martin stockholders the option to exchange their shares of Lockheed Martin common stock for shares of common stock of Splitco, subject to proration. Following the consummation of the exchange offer, Merger Sub will merge with and into Splitco (the “Merger”), with Splitco continuing as the surviving company.

In the Merger, shares of Splitco common stock will convert automatically into the right to receive shares of Leidos common stock. Leidos expects to issue approximately 77 million shares of its common stock to Lockheed Martin stockholders that participate in the exchange offer (and become holders of Splitco common stock). The number of shares of Lockheed Martin common stock that will be accepted in the exchange offer will depend on the final exchange ratio and the number of shares of Lockheed Martin common stock tendered. If the exchange offer is undertaken and consummated but the exchange offer is not fully subscribed because less than all shares of Splitco common stock owned by Lockheed Martin are exchanged, the remaining shares of Splitco common stock owned by Lockheed Martin would be distributed on a pro rata basis to Lockheed Martin stockholders whose shares of Lockheed Martin common stock remain outstanding after the consummation of the exchange offer.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward Looking Statements

The forward looking statements contained in this document involve risks and uncertainties that may affect Leidos Holdings, Inc.’s (“Leidos”) operations, markets, products, services, prices and other factors as discussed in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, economic, competitive, legal, governmental and technological factors. Accordingly, there is no assurance that the expectations of Leidos will be realized. This document also contains statements about the proposed business combination transaction between Leidos and Lockheed Martin Corporation (“Lockheed Martin”), in which Lockheed Martin will separate a substantial portion of its government information technology infrastructure services business and its technical services business, which have been realigned in the Information Systems & Global Solutions (IS&GS) business segment, and combine this business with Leidos in a Reverse Morris Trust transaction (the “Transaction”). Many factors could cause actual results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements with respect to the Transaction, including risks relating to the completion of the transaction on anticipated terms and timing, including obtaining stockholder and regulatory approvals, anticipated tax treatment, the dependency of any split-off transaction on market conditions and the value to be received in any split-off transaction, unforeseen liabilities, future capital expenditures, revenues, expenses, earnings, synergies, economic performance, indebtedness, financial condition, losses, future prospects, business and management strategies for the management, expansion and growth of the new combined company's operations, Leidos' ability to integrate the businesses successfully and to achieve anticipated synergies, and the risk that disruptions from the Transaction will harm Leidos' business. While the list of factors presented here is considered representative, no such list should be considered to be a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Unlisted factors may present significant additional obstacles to the realization of forward-looking statements. Consequences of material differences in results as compared with those anticipated in the forward-looking statements could include, among other things, business disruption, operational problems, financial loss, legal liability to third parties and similar risks, any of which could have a material adverse effect on Leidos' consolidated financial condition, results of operations or liquidity. For a discussion identifying additional important factors that could cause actual results to vary materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements, see Leidos' filings with the SEC, including the prospectus included in the registration statement on Form S-4, the prospectus filed by Leidos pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3), Leidos' definitive proxy statement for its annual meeting of stockholders, as well as "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and "Risk Factors" in Leidos' annual report on Form 10-K for the period ended January 1, 2016, its Quarterly Reports filed on Form 10-Q, and such other filings that Leidos makes with the SEC from time to time, which are available at <http://www.Leidos.com> and at the SEC's web site at <http://www.sec.gov>. Leidos assumes no obligation to provide revisions or updates to any forward-looking statements should circumstances change, except as otherwise required by securities and other applicable laws.
