COMPETITIVE TECHNOLOGIES RECEIVES FUNDS FROM SALE OF VIDEO COMPRESSION PATENTS

FAIRFIELD, CT - (JULY 10, 2007) - COMPETITIVE TECHNOLOGIES, INC. (AMEX: CTT) today announced that it has received the funds from the sale of a portion of its video compression technology portfolio as announced on May 1, 2007. Final documentation has been completed, which allowed distribution of the funds.

Lehigh University, CTT's client, will receive approximately $200,000 from the sale. CTT will net approximately $650,000 from the sale. The transaction will be recorded in the current fourth quarter of fiscal 2007.

Two additional patents in the video compression technology portfolio, US Patents No. 6,580,834, and No. 6,134,269, developed under the direction of Dr. Weiping Li at Lehigh University, are currently earning royalties in the MPEG-4 Visual Patent Portfolio License pool. The MPEG-4 Patent Pool is administered by MPEG LA, LLC, and provides users worldwide access to all MPEG-4 essential intellectual property through one organization that grants licenses and collects royalties. There are over 400 licensees of the Visual Patent pool including Sony, Microsoft, Mitsubishi, Panasonic and Hitachi.

"This is another facet of maximizing the value of our large technology portfolio for our clients, for CTT and for our shareholders. The video compression technologies are just one of the valuable technologies in CTT's innovative portfolio," said John B. Nano, CTT's Chairman, President and CEO. "We are actively marketing our nutraceutical ingredients technology, the molecular memory devices, the HB LED technology, bone biomaterial, the cholesterol trapping/regeneration technology, and the Lupus diagnostic and monitoring technology to drive revenue growth, improve profitability and create shareholder value."
