Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 15, 2012, R. Don Elsey, the chief financial officer of Emergent BioSolutions Inc. (the "Company") resigned from the Company effective December 3, 2012. On November 16, 2012, the Company appointed Robert G. Kramer, who is currently the executive vice president of the corporate services division of the Company, to the additional roles of chief financial officer, principal financial and accounting officer, and treasurer, also effective December 3, 2012.

Mr. Kramer, 55, has served as executive vice president, corporate services division since September 2012. Mr. Kramer was a consultant to us from September 2011 through August 2012, serving as interim executive vice president, biosciences division from September 2011 to December 2011 and as interim executive vice president, corporate services division from January 2012 to August 2012. Prior to that, Mr. Kramer had served as executive vice president of manufacturing operations from April 2007 through January 2008, as president and chief executive officer of Emergent BioDefense Operations Lansing Inc., formerly BioPort Corporation, from July 2004 through January 2009, and in a number of advisory capacities from January 2009 until his retirement in March 2010. Mr. Kramer originally joined BioPort in February 1999, serving as chief financial officer of BioPort until August 2000, as chief operating officer of BioPort from September 2000 to June 2004 and as president of BioPort from October 2001 to June 2004. Prior to joining BioPort, Mr. Kramer served in various financial management positions at Pharmacia Corp., which was subsequently acquired by Pfizer Inc., and with subsidiaries of Northwest Industries. Mr. Kramer received an M.B.A. from Western Kentucky University and a B.S. in industrial management from Clemson University.
