Media Release

Robert H. Benmosche to step down as Member of the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group

Zurich, August 10, 2009 As a result of his appointment as a board member and President and CEO of AIG, Robert H. Benmosche has decided to step down as Member of the Board of Directors of Credit Suisse Group with immediate effect. Robert H. Benmosche has been a member of the Board of Credit Suisse since 2002.

Hans-Ulrich Doerig, Chairman of Credit Suisse Group, said: We are most grateful for the significant contribution Robert Benmosche has made to Credit Suisse during his seven years as member of the Board. Bob's advice and counsel with regard to the development and implementation of our integrated bank strategy have been invaluable. Also, the experience and judgment he shared with Credit Suisse have been very important over the last two years as the Bank has successfully navigated through the difficult challenges in the global marketplace and the financial system. We wish him continued success in his new role at AIG.

Cautionary statement regarding forward-looking information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

- our plans, objectives or goals;
- our future economic performance or prospects;
- the potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and
- assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as believes, anticipates, expects, intends and plans and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

- the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;
- market and interest rate fluctuations;
- the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations, in particular the risk of a continued US or global economic downturn in 2009 and beyond;
