SECTION 8 - OTHER EVENTS

Item 8.01. Other Events

The Plaintiff in Premier Medical Enterprise Solution, Inc. vs. New Mexico Software, Inc. has filed an Unopposed Motion To Strike Pleadings. In this motion, Premier is asking the Court to terminate (a) its own motion to dismiss our counterclaims against Premier and for default judgment sanctions against us and our chief executive officer, (b) the documentation Premier has filed in support of its motion to dismiss, (c) Premier's reply to our filings opposing its motion, and (d) certain related hearing notices filed by Premier. This motion by Premier follows the withdrawal of Premier's lead counsel in this case, who filed the motion and papers it now asks the Court to strike from the record.

In our most recent report for the quarter ended March 31, 2010 on Form 10-Q filed May 13, 2010, we disclosed with respect to this litigation that "At this time summary judgment motions by both parties and motion for default by Premier are pending and a bench trial is scheduled in November of 2010." Premier's motion described above removes the "motion for default by Premier" from the subject matter of the trial.

In asking the Court to strike its motion and other papers, the Plaintiff states: "the documents were improvidently filed and contain allegations or conclusions that are impertinent and without merit."

We expect the Court to grant Premier's motion because Premier is unilaterally asking the Court to strike its own opposition to our counterclaim. Premier can be expected to defend against our counterclaim. We will present our case against Premier at the trial before the Court now scheduled for November.
