Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangement of Certain Officers

On June 9, 2015, George M. Sherman informed Rexnord Corporation (the “Company”) that he will retire as Non-Executive Chairman and a director of the Company, effective as of the Annual Meeting of Stockholders on July 22, 2015 (the “Annual Meeting”). The board of directors has elected Paul W. Jones, a current director, as Non-Executive Chairman effective upon Mr. Sherman’s retirement. The board of directors made no immediate adjustment in the compensation and fees that Mr. Jones will receive for serving as the Non-Executive Chairman.

On June 8, 2015, Laurence M. Berg informed the Company that he does not intend to be a candidate for re-election to the Company’s board of directors at the Annual Meeting. Both Messrs. Sherman and Berg indicated that their decisions do not relate to any disagreement on matters relating to the Company’s operations, policies or practices. The board of directors has nominated Robin A. Walker-Lee for election by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting to fill the vacancy created by Mr. Berg’s departure. Ms. Walker-Lee is the retired executive vice president, general counsel and secretary of TRW Automotive Holdings Corp., a leader in automotive safety systems, which was recently acquired by the ZF Group; additional information regarding Ms. Walker-Lee will be included in the Company’s proxy statement for the Annual Meeting.
