Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

In connection with the previously announced retirement of Pamela J. Craig, chief financial officer of Accenture plc (“Accenture”), the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Accenture determined on April 24, 2013 to waive the remaining service-based vesting conditions for a portion of Ms. Craig’s previously granted outstanding equity awards. These waivers apply to 27,278 time-vested restricted stock units, which were granted for her past performance, under the 2011, 2012 and 2013 Senior Officer Performance Equity Award Programs, and to 28,591 (assuming target performance) performance-vested restricted share units under the 2012 and 2013 Key Executive Performance Share Programs that are not otherwise scheduled to vest on or prior to her retirement. An additional number of shares could be earned as dividend equivalents in accordance with Ms. Craig’s equity award agreements. Although the Board waived the remaining service-based vesting conditions for the awards under the Key Executive Performance Share Programs, the vesting for each award will occur only to the extent that Accenture’s performance objectives are met over the three-year performance period for each award, with the actual number of shares (which may be below, at or above target) determined based on Accenture’s cumulative performance over the relevant performance period.

In connection with Ms. Craig’s retirement, the Board also determined that in lieu of any awards of restricted stock units under the Senior Officer Performance Equity Award Program and Accenture Leadership Equity Award Program, which would be intended to reward Ms. Craig for her performance in fiscal 2013, Ms. Craig should instead receive an equivalent cash payment for her fiscal 2013 performance in an amount to be established at the time that the award of restricted stock units to the other named executive officers is determined.

In addition, Ms. Craig will receive office space with administrative support for her use after retirement, until December 31, 2013.
