Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangement of Certain Officers.

On February 28, 2019, the Company entered into the following agreements (collectively, the “Agreements”): (i) an employment agreement with Len E. Williams, Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company (the “Williams Agreement”); (ii) an employment agreement with Mark K. Olson, Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice President of the Company (the “Olson Agreement”); and (iii) a change in control agreement with Rick W. Anderson, President and Chief Operations Officer of People’s Intermountain Bank (“PIB”) (the “Anderson Agreement”).

The Williams Agreement is effective as of January 1, 2019 (the “Effective Date”) and expires on the third anniversary of the Effective Date, provided that on each anniversary of the Effective Date the term is automatically extended for an additional twelve-month period, unless terminated by a 90-day notice given by either party prior to the anniversary of the Effective Date. For 2019, the Company shall pay a minimum salary to Mr. Williams of $450,000, which amount is subject to adjustment as the Company’s Board may determine from time to time. The employment agreement provides for participation in a bonus based primarily on performance criteria in an incentive plan approved annually by the Company’s Compensation Committee, ranging from a minimum 25% of base salary, a target of 50%, and a maximum of 75% of base salary. Mr. Williams is entitled to long-term incentives in the form of equity grants, as approved by the Company’s Compensation Committee and Board. In addition, Mr. Williams is eligible to participate in all employee benefit plans, including health insurance benefits and 401(k) and ESOP plans. The Company’s Board may terminate the employment agreement at any time for cause or disability. In the event Mr. Williams terminates his employment for good reason or the Company terminates Mr. Williams’ employment without cause, Mr. Williams is entitled to severance payments of his then base salary and a minimum 20% annual bonus for 18 months following such termination. The employment agreement also contains a change in control provision under which and subject to certain time periods and conditions precedent, Mr. Williams would be entitled to receive a lump sum severance payment in the amount equal to 36 months of his then base salary and minimum 20% annual incentive, and all unvested equity awards would immediately vest. A change in control under the employment agreement occurs when (i) any person or entity acquires 50% or more of the Company’s then outstanding voting capital stock, (ii) the consummation of the sale or disposition by the Company or PIB of all or substantially all of the Company’s or PIB’s assets; or (c) the consummation of a liquidation of the Company or PIB.

The Olson Agreement is effective as of January 1, 2019 (the “Effective Date”) and expires on the last day of the thirty-month after the Effective Date, provided that on each anniversary of the Effective Date the term is automatically extended for an additional twelve-month period, unless terminated by a 90-day notice given by either party prior to the anniversary of the Effective Date. For 2019, the Company shall pay a minimum salary to Mr. Olson of $275,000, which amount is subject to adjustment as the Company’s Board may determine from time to time. The employment agreement provides for participation in a bonus based primarily on performance criteria in an incentive plan approved annually by the Company’s Compensation Committee, ranging from a minimum 20% of base salary, a target of 40%, and a maximum of 60% of base salary. Mr. Olson is entitled to long-term incentives in the form of equity grants, as approved by the Company’s Compensation Committee and Board. In addition, Mr. Olson is eligible to participate in all employee benefit plans, including health insurance benefits and 401(k) and ESOP plans. The Company’s Board may terminate the employment agreement at any time for cause or disability. In the event Mr. Olson terminates his employment for good reason or the Company terminates Mr. Olson’s employment without cause, Mr. Olson is entitled to severance payments of his then base salary and a minimum 20% annual bonus for 18 months following such termination. The employment agreement also contains a change in control provision under which and subject to certain time periods and conditions precedent, Mr. Olson would be entitled to receive a lump sum severance payment in the amount equal to 30 months of his then base salary and minimum 20% annual incentive, and all unvested equity awards would immediately vest. A change in control occurs when (i) any person or entity acquires 50% or more of the Company's then outstanding voting capital stock, (ii) the consummation of the sale or disposition by the Company or PIB of all or substantially all of the Company's or PIB's assets; or (c) the consummation of a liquidation of the Company or PIB.

The Anderson Agreement is effective as of January 1, 2019 for a one-year term. Under the change of control provision in the Anderson Agreement, Mr. Anderson would be entitled to receive a lump sum severance payment in the amount equal to 12 months of his then base salary and minimum 20% annual incentive, and all unvested equity awards would immediately vest. A change in control occurs when (i) any person or entity acquires 50% or more of the Company's then outstanding voting capital stock, (ii) the consummation of the sale or disposition by the Company or PIB of all or substantially all of the Company's or PIB's assets; or (c) the consummation of a liquidation of the Company or PIB.

The foregoing is intended only as a summary of the key terms and provisions of the Agreements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreements themselves, copies of which are filed herewith and incorporated by reference.
