On April 24, 2016, Joseph C. Papa resigned as Chairman of the Board, Director and Chief Executive Officer of Perrigo Company plc (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries and affiliates.

The Third Amendment provides that Mr. Papa terminated his employment effective April 24, 2016. The Third Amendment also provides that the Company will not enforce the non-compete provisions of Mr. Papa’s employment agreement related to Mr. Papa serving as Chief Executive Officer or a member of the board of directors of Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. and its subsidiaries (“Valeant”) with respect to Valeant’s currently-constituted products (including extensions and organic growth), as well as (1) authorized generic, store-brand generics or over-the-counter versions of pharmaceutical products of Valeant (for pharmaceutical products owned by Valeant or to which Valeant has rights as of the Amendment Date) or any extension thereof, (2) any new product that has been publicly announced by Valeant as of the Amendment Date, (3) any product that is under development by Valeant as of the Amendment Date (subject to certain conditions described in the Third Amendment), or (4) any Permitted Acquisition (as defined in the Third Amendment). Other than as specifically provided for in the previous sentence, the non-compete provisions of Mr. Papa’s employment agreement remain in force and effect such that for two years following his termination of employment, Mr. Papa may not, directly or indirectly, engage in “Competition” as defined in the Third Amendment.
