Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On November 8, 2007, we issued a press release announcing, among other things, a series of initiatives designed to increase shareholder value and providing a business review and update to earnings guidance for our third quarter ended November 3, 2007 and our fourth quarter ending February 2, 2008. The press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

The press release contains certain forward-looking statements concerning our operations, performance, and financial condition. Such forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated. Such risks and uncertainties may include, but are not limited to: the failure to effectively implement our plan for consolidation of the Catherines Plus Sizes brand and a new organizational structure; the failure to generate a positive response to our new Lane Bryant catalog and Lane Bryant credit card program; the failure to implement our business plan for increased profitability and growth in our retail stores and direct-to-consumer segments; the failure to successfully implement our expansion of Cacique through new store formats; the failure of changes in management to achieve improvement in our competitive position; the failure to successfully implement our integration of operations of, and the business plan for, Crosstown Traders, Inc.; adverse changes in costs vital to catalog operations, such as postage, paper and acquisition of prospects; declining response rates to catalog offerings; failure to maintain efficient and uninterrupted order-taking and fulfillment in our direct-to-consumer business; changes in or miscalculation of fashion trends; extreme or unseasonable weather conditions; economic downturns; escalation of energy costs; a weakness in overall consumer demand; failure to find suitable store locations; increases in wage rates; the ability to hire and train associates; trade and security restrictions and political or financial instability in countries where goods are manufactured; the interruption of merchandise flow from our centralized distribution facilities; competitive pressures; and the adverse effects of natural disasters, war, acts of terrorism or threats of either, or other armed conflict, on the United States and international economies. These, and other risks and uncertainties, are detailed in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 3, 2007 and our other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We assume no duty to update or revise our forward-looking statements even if experience or future changes make it clear that any projected results expressed or implied therein will not be realized.
