(b) On March 18, 2014, Lawrence Best notified Haemonetics Corporation (the “Company”) that after serving on the board since 2003, he will not stand for re-election at the next annual meeting of stockholders. Mr. Best’s decision was based on his desire to focus more of his time on working with privately-held early stage medical device companies and was not due to any disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to the Company’s operations, policies or practices. Mr. Best will continue to serve as a director of the Company until the end of July 2014.

Mr. Best said “It has been a privilege to serve on the Board for the past decade as the Company has grown and matured as a leader in the global blood management market. I wish management and the board continued success.”

Brian Concannon, President and Chief Executive Officer, said “All of us at Haemonetics are grateful for Mr. Best’s many invaluable contributions as a Director and we wish him continued success in all of his future endeavors.”
