and "2004 Proxy Statement."

A proxy card to vote your Savings Plan shares and any shares of restricted stock you own for this year's annual meeting is scheduled to arrive at your address within the next three weeks through the U.S. Mail. If you have requested hard copies of the annual report or proxy statement (by e-mail or fax to David Whitehurst), those will be mailed to you as well.

Your vote is important. When your proxy card comes in the mail, you may choose to vote by internet, phone, or mail. The website and phone number for Mellon Investor Services, the independent proxy tabulator and Unocal's Transfer Agent, and a control number, are on the proxy card to vote by internet or phone. A return envelope is provided if you decide to return your vote by mail. The proxy tabulator will keep your vote confidential regardless of which voting method you choose.

Thank you for your attention to this important matter.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROXY STATEMENT:

Unocal Corporation filed the 2004 Proxy Statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 12, 2004. You are urged to read the proxy statement because it contains important information. In addition to the free on-line access to the proxy statement described above, you may obtain, free of charge, a copy of the proxy statement as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission at the Securities and Exchange Commission's website, WWW.SEC.GOV, and Unocal Corporation will also provide you a copy of the proxy statement free of charge upon request.

Unocal Corporation and its directors and executive officers and certain other of its employees may be soliciting proxies from stockholders of Unocal Corporation with respect to the proposals described in the proxy statement. Information concerning the participants in the proxy solicitation and any direct or indirect interests of those participants in the solicitation are set forth in the proxy statement.
