BRITISH AIRWAYS SELLS STAKE IN AUSTRALIAN TRAVEL COMPANY

British Airways has sold its 50 per cent stake in travel company, Concorde Travel Group, to a consortium of Australian investors.

The airline has disposed of its share in the Australian based company for AUS $15 million (£:5.4 million). This represents a profit on disposal of £1.7 million.

The sale of the shareholding, which British Airways acquired in 1987, is in line with the carriers strategy to concentrate on core business.
