Section 1 – Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 21, 2007, Summit Financial Group, Inc. (“Summit”), entered into a Letter of Intent with Danny L. Wiginton, Commonwealth Savingsshares Corporation, SOUTHBANK FSB, and Corinthian Mortgage Corporation (the “Letter of Intent”). The purpose of the Letter of Intent is to settle the previously disclosed civil action styled Corinthian Mortgage Corporation v. Summit Financial LLC et al., (the “Litigation”) and to state the basic terms and conditions upon which the parties have agreed to negotiate a proposed transaction whereby Summit may acquire Commonwealth Savingsshares Corporation (“CSC”) and its subsidiary, SOUTHBANK FSB, or exercise a cash alternative to settle the Litigation.

The settlement ends all current litigation between Summit, its wholly owned subsidiary, Summit Community Bank, Inc. (the “Bank”), the individual defendants who were former employees of Summit named in the Litigation, and the plaintiff Corinthian Mortgage Corporation. The settlement will not have a material adverse impact on the financial condition or liquidity of Summit or the Bank.

Under the Letter of Intent, Summit and CSC agree to negotiate in an effort to enter into a definitive merger agreement to purchase CSC for a combination of stock and cash equal to $52.5 million. However, at any time prior to execution of a definitive merger agreement, Summit, CSC, and CSC’s principal shareholder (Danny L. Wiginton) shall each have the right, in its or his sole discretion to choose not to pursue the acquisition of CSC by Summit and to terminate the Letter of Intent. In such case, Summit shall pay to Corinthian, CSC and Wiginton the total sum of $10.5 million as consideration (i) for settling the Litigation and (ii) as a break-up fee. $1.25 million of this total amount will be paid by Summit’s insurance carrier. If the parties enter into a definitive merger agreement, the $1.25 million will be applied to the purchase price.

After execution of the definitive merger agreement, should any regulatory body whose approval is required by law not approve this acquisition or should the definitive merger agreement be terminated for any reason whatsoever, Summit shall pay, within twenty (20) days thereafter, to Corinthian, CSC and CSC’s principal shareholder the total sum of $10.5 million as consideration (i) for settling the Litigation and (ii) as a break-up fee. $1.25 million of this total amount will be paid by Summit’s insurance carrier.

In the event either party breaches the definitive merger agreement and Summit is required to pay the total sum of $10.5 million, the parties acknowledge and agree that such payment does not affect or alter in any way the ability of either party to pursue its contractual rights and remedies under the definitive merger agreement.

As a result of the settlement, management anticipates Summit will recognize a one- time pre-tax charge in fourth quarter of 2007 of no more than $9.25 million ($5.7 million after taxes). At this time, management cannot estimate the charge it would recognize in fourth quarter 2007 in the event it executes a definitive merger agreement with CSC, but in no case will the pre-tax charge be more than $9.25 million ($5.7 million after taxes). The Letter of Intent is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Section 8 – Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events

On November 21, 2007, Summit Financial Group, Inc and its subsidiary Summit Community Bank, Inc. executed a Settlement Agreement and Release in the previously reported civil action styled Corinthian Mortgage Corporation v. Summit Financial LLC et al. The material terms of the settlement and the expected impact of the settlement are set forth in the Letter of Intent disclosed in Item 1.01 above and are incorporated herein by reference.
