Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 3, 2005, Paul R. Richardson, notified Cott Corporation (the Company) that he will voluntarily resign from his position as Executive Vice President, Global Sourcing of the Company.

The Company's employment agreement with Mr. Richardson, dated August 23, 1999 (filed as Exhibit 10.8 to the Company's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 1, 2000), as amended February 18, 2002 (filed as Exhibit 10.5 to the Company's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 29, 2001), and as further amended effective July 18, 2003 (filed as Exhibit 10.2 to the Company's Form S-3 filed on January 22, 2004), provides that either the Company or Mr. Richardson may terminate his employment at any time on six months written notice by the terminating party. The employment agreement calls for a termination payment within 30 days of notice being delivered equal to the aggregate of two times Mr. Richardson's annual salary and bonus paid or payable plus the cash value of all benefits and perquisites and the average of any other remuneration during the two years prior to the termination notice. Furthermore, under Mr. Richardson's employment agreement, upon delivery of the termination notice all stock options granted to Mr. Richardson fully vest and shall be exercisable for a period of 12 months. Mr. Richardson has entered into a customary confidentiality agreement with the Company that, by its terms, survives the termination of his employment. The Company's employment agreement with Mr. Richardson will terminate in conjunction with Mr. Richardson's departure.
