UMPQUA BANK PROMOTES DAVID EDSON TO PRESIDENT, UMPQUA BANK OREGON

PORTLAND, Ore. - July 13, 2004 - Umpqua Bank, a subsidiary of Umpqua Holdings Corporation (NASDAQ: UMPQ), has promoted David Edson to the position of president, Umpqua Bank Oregon. Edson will retain his current responsibilities as president of commercial banking as well as oversee retail banking and private client services in Oregon. Ray Davis continues to lead the organization as president and CEO of Umpqua Holdings Corporation.

"Throughout his time at Umpqua bank Dave has demonstrated the decision-making capabilities, visionary thinking and commitment to Umpqua's brand of banking that will drive our organization forward," said Ray Davis, Umpqua Holdings president and CEO. "Dave's promotion provides Umpqua with an increased level of focus in the Oregon market as we continue to grow from Sacramento to Seattle."

With more than 32 years of banking experience, Edson joined Umpqua Bank in 2002 as president of commercial banking. His responsibilities have included executive leadership of the bank's resources dedicated to the growth and development of business relationships. Prior to joining Umpqua, Edson served five years as president of Bank of America, Idaho.

Edson graduated with honors in business and economics from Albertson College of Idaho, and earned a Doctorate of Jurisprudence from Willamette University School of Law in Salem, Ore. He has held a number of prominent positions in the banking industry including past president of the Idaho Bankers Association and past chair of the ABA Government Relations Council. Throughout his career, he has been active in numerous civic and charitable organizations. Umpqua Holdings recently completed its acquisition of California-based Humboldt Bancorp and the merger of Humboldt's principal operating subsidiary, Humboldt Bank, into Umpqua Bank. Robert Daugherty, previously president and CEO of Humboldt Bancorp, is the president of Umpqua Bank California.
