This Schedule 13D relates to the Common Stock, par value $.01 per share, of Seitel, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"). Unless the context otherwise requires, references herein to the "Common Stock" are to such Common Stock and references herein to "Warrants" are to warrants to purchase such Common Stock. The Management Company is the investment manager or adviser to a variety of hedge funds and managed accounts including the Offshore Fund (such funds and accounts, collectively, the "Funds"). In connection with its reorganization, the Company issued Warrants to various persons. Information as to (i) the specific amounts and timings of exercises of such Warrants by all such persons, (ii) the resulting aggregate outstanding amount of Common Stock and (iii) the Reporting Persons' resulting ownership percentage, was not and is not readily available to the Reporting Persons. This Schedule 13D reports the beneficial ownership of the Reporting Persons in the event such filing was or is required. As of the date of this Schedule 13D, the Reporting Persons do not hold a beneficial ownership in excess of 5% of the total outstanding Common Stock.

The Offshore Fund expended an aggregate of approximately $3,980,351 of its own investment capital to acquire the 3,598,750 Shares it holds and the 90,200 shares previously sold by the Offshore Fund. Mr. Loeb expended an aggregate of approximately $29 of his own investment capital to acquire the 49 Shares held by him. In the case of the Funds, including the Offshore Fund, the Shares were acquired through open market purchases and the exercise of Warrants issued to the Funds as part of the Company's reorganization. Mr. Loeb acquired all of his directly held shares exclusively through the exercise of Warrants issued to him as part of the Company's reorganization.

The Reporting Persons are engaged in the investment business. In pursuing this business, the Reporting Persons analyze the operations, capital structure and markets of companies, including the Company, on a continuous basis through analysis of documentation and discussions with knowledgeable industry and market observers and with representatives of such companies (often at the invitation of management). From time to time, one or more of the Reporting Persons may hold discussions with third parties or with management of such companies in which the Reporting Person may suggest or take a position with respect to potential changes in the operations, management or capital structure of such companies as a means of enhancing shareholder value. Such suggestions or positions may relate to one or more of the transactions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D of the Exchange Act, including, without limitation, such matters as disposing of or selling all or a portion of the company or acquiring another company or business, changing operating or marketing strategies, adopting or not adopting certain types of anti-takeover measures and restructuring the company's capitalization or dividend policy.

Except as set forth above, the Reporting Persons do not have any present plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions required to be described in Item 4 of Schedule 13D. Each of the Reporting Persons may, at any time, review or reconsider its position with respect to the Company and formulate plans or proposals with respect to any of such matters, but has no present intention of doing so.
