Dear Stockholder:

We previously sent you a Proxy Statement for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of The Swiss Helvetia Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") to be held at The Omni Berkshire Place Hotel, 21 East 52nd Street, Juilliard Ballroom (2nd Floor), New York, New York on Thursday, June 8, 2006 at 11:30 a.m.

In addition to voting FOR Proposals 1 and 2, we are writing to ask you to vote FOR Proposals 3A through 3E. Please do so using the enclosed proxy card and pre-paid return envelope. Institutional Shareholder Services, Inc. (ISS), a provider of proxy voting and corporate governance services, has recommended a vote "FOR" all of the Proposals in the Proxy Statement, including Proposals 3A through 3E.

Proposals 3A through 3E in the Proxy Statement request your approval for changes in certain of the Fund's fundamental investment policies and restrictions. When the Fund was initially formed almost 20 years ago, the Fund's Board of Directors adopted certain policies and restrictions that were customary at that time, but now are believed to be unduly restrictive. Fund management believes it is appropriate to modify certain of the Fund's fundamental investment policies and restrictions to expand the universe of investment opportunities available to the Fund's investment advisor, Hottinger Capital Corp. ("HCC"). Below, in a "Question & Answer" format, are common questions that may be associated with each of these proposals. This information is supplemental to the more complete information contained in the Proxy Statement, including further specific information about the proposals and the investment risks of the proposed policy changes.

Proposal 3A: Permit the Fund to leverage up to 10% of its total assets (including the amount borrowed)

Q: Will the Fund make investments with borrowed money?

A: HCC anticipates using borrowed money primarily to settle options contracts (discussed below under Proposal 3E) in cash without selling portfolio securities, and may also use funds to invest in attractive opportunities without selling existing portfolio holdings. HCC does not currently anticipate making frequent borrowings for the purpose of making investments.

Proposal 3B: Permit the Fund to invest in securities of Swiss Real Estate Companies

Q: Will the Fund invest directly in Swiss real estate?

A: No. HCC would only invest in securities of Swiss Real Estate Companies, including structures similar to U.S. real estate investment trusts (REITs) that may be developed in the future. HCC expects that in the coming years new REIT-like structures will be created in Switzerland. They have recently been introduced in the United Kingdom, and we expect that they will soon be introduced in Germany. Investments in REIT-like structures could provide additional income to the Fund. The Fund would consider a real estate company to be a Swiss Real Estate Company if it: (1) is organized in or has its principal office in Switzerland or (2) has a significant amount of real estate assets or investments in Switzerland, even if it is organized or its principal office is outside of Switzerland. Please note, though, that the Fund may acquire real estate or mortgages on real estate as a result of default, liquidation or other distributions of an interest in real estate as a result of owning real estate companies.

Proposal 3C: Permit the Fund to acquire equity and equity-linked securities of non-Swiss companies in limited instances.

Q: Would the Fund buy non-Swiss securities?

A: The Fund could hold a non-Swiss security if:

the Fund, as a shareholder in a Swiss company, receives equity or equity-linked securities in a non-Swiss company following a takeover or merger of the Swiss company with the non-Swiss company, or a Swiss company in which the Fund is invested reorganizes itself into new a corporate entity outside of Switzerland (is "redomiciled").

The Fund also could hold a non-Swiss security if it had in the past invested in a Swiss company that later redomiciled outside of Switzerland. Once a non-Swiss security is in the Fund's portfolio, it may be held as long as HCC believe it is an appropriate investment.

Proposal 3D: Permit the Fund to invest up to 20% (increased from 10%) of its total assets in illiquid securities.

Q: Why would the Fund buy illiquid securities?

A: Up to now the Fund has invested in securities of public companies, generally those traded on an exchange. The Fund currently may invest up to 10% of its total assets in illiquid securities, but is now seeking the ability to invest up to 20% of its total assets in such securities. HCC believes that there are attractive investment opportunities in securities not traded on an exchange, such as securities of privately held companies purchased in private placement transactions (private equity securities), including venture capital investments and securities acquired in buy-out transactions (start-ups or established companies with succession or other issues, that are looking for investors). Private equity securities are generally regarded as having the potential for higher returns than publicly-traded securities. Although private equity securities also have higher risks and generally a greater potential for loss than publicly-traded securities, HCC intends to diversify such investments to mitigate the impact to the Fund of any investment losses.

Proposal 3E: Permit the Fund to engage in certain options transactions.

Q: Why would the Fund invest in options?

A: HCC currently anticipates using options primarily to manage the Fund's exposure to changing security prices or to seek additional income. Hedging the Fund's portfolio investments may be less disruptive to the investment process, allowing the Fund to continue to hold investments while reducing market risk. To seek additional income, HCC may sell (write) covered call options on existing portfolio holdings, and the Fund would receive a premium for writing the option. Of course, by writing a call option on a security, the Fund forgoes potential appreciation in the security above the exercise price.

Options transactions that the Fund could enter into are as follows:

buying call options on Swiss stock indices or Swiss equity securities (or other securities in which the Fund can invest):

- o maximum downside: the premium paid for buying the option
- o maximum benefit: the Fund will get the full appreciation of the underlying security above the exercise price (no limit) minus the premium paid for the call option buying protective put options on Swiss stock indices or Swiss equity securities (or other securities in which the Fund can invest):

- o maximum downside: the difference between the purchase price of the stock and the exercise price and the premium paid for buying the option; the Fund would keep the opportunity to participate in any upward moves in the underlying securities
- o maximum benefit: if the prices of underlying securities decline below the exercise price, the Fund could avoid losses in the position equal to the exercise price minus the market price of the securities at the time of exercise (and minus the premium paid to acquire the option) selling (writing) covered calls on Swiss equity securities (or other securities in which the Fund can invest) when the Fund owns the security underlying the call option):

- o maximum downside: if the option is exercised, the Fund would only forfeit the amount of gain in the underlying security above the exercise price; however, the Fund will only enter into "cash settled" options so that upon exercise the Fund pays the counterparty in cash (rather than selling the security itself to the counterparty), and the cash to be paid will be equal to the appreciation in the underlying stock above the exercise price
- o maximum benefit: the premium paid to the Fund for writing the option

The Fund will not be permitted to sell "naked" (uncovered) calls (selling calls on securities the Fund does not own in this case, the maximum risk is unlimited) or to sell put options (where the Fund would be committed to buy a security at the exercise price even though the stock may be trading at zero on the market at the time of exercise in that case, the maximum risk is equal to the exercise price).

Sincerely,

The Swiss Helvetia Fund, Inc.
