NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Montreal, Quebec, December 20, 2002

Notice is hereby given that an Annual General Meeting (the "Meeting") of Shareholders of CGI GROUP INC. (the "Company") will be held at the Hilton Montreal Bonaventure Hotel, Ballroom, 1 Place Bonaventure, Montreal, Quebec, on Thursday, January 30, 2003 at 9:30 a.m. (local time) for the following purposes:

- 1) to receive the report of the directors, together with the balance sheet and the statements of income, retained earnings and changes in financial position, and the auditors' report for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002;
- 2) to elect directors;
- 3) to appoint auditors and authorize the directors to fix their remuneration;
- 4) to transact such other business as may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

The Information Circular and form of proxy for the Meeting are enclosed with this Notice.

By order of the Board of Directors

(signed) Paule Doré
Secretary

Note: Since it is desirable that as many shares as possible be represented and voted at the Meeting, you are requested, if unable to attend the Meeting in person, (i) to complete and return the enclosed form of proxy in the postage prepaid envelope provided for that purpose or (ii) for registered holders of Class A Subordinate Shares, to submit a proxy by use of the telephone or use of the Internet. Complete instruction on how to vote by telephone or over the Internet are described in the Information Circular.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Dear Shareholders:

The past year has been a watershed period for corporate governance, with far-reaching regulatory initiatives in the US and Canada. These initiatives are intended to restore investor confidence in the aftermath of major corporate failures, and generally to improve long-term corporate performance. This heightened emphasis on good governance and disclosure is good news for well governed corporations and for minority shareholders, as it levels the playing field for businesses and investors alike. We are proud to say that CGI has an established value system and corporate governance practices that are well aligned with the new, higher standards which are focused on building shareholder value.

Seven Core Values

CGI is strictly managed and governed according to seven core values which were established at the company's inception. These values are as unique as our DNA; they are fundamental to CGI's culture and its development. They are: quality, partnership, intrapreneurship and sharing, respect, objectivity and integrity, financial strength, and social responsibility. CGI instills these values in all its members as their code of business conduct and ethics. You can view these values on CGI's Website and in the annual report.

From a corporate governance viewpoint, we highlight the importance we place on objectivity and integrity. We require the highest degree of independent thinking to meet the expectations of our three primary stakeholders—clients, members and shareholders—without conflicts of any kind. We recognize the importance of balancing equitably the interests of each of these three groups. And, as a closely held company, with senior management having a significant voting interest, we have always ensured that management's interests are closely aligned with those of all shareholders. We have ensured this through our core values and our corporate governance practices.

Corporate Governance Practices

On an ongoing basis, the board reviews its structure, practices and composition and initiates changes to improve its effectiveness. This past year, we have initiated a number of board-related changes and are working on others.

CGI has been a leader in governance in many respects. In the mid-1990s, CGI was among the first closely held companies to appoint a Lead Director who meets regularly with other independent directors, without management or related directors present, and ensures that the board is answerable to shareholders, not to management. The Lead Director has the authority, with the support of other independent directors, to ensure that CGI's governance practices and share structure work in the best interests of all shareholders over the long term.

CGI's Human Resources and Corporate Governance Committee, which is headed by the Lead Director, has a leading role in ensuring the board's effectiveness. This Committee evaluates the performance of the CEO and is responsible for succession planning. For many years, this Committee has carried out an annual board assessment to ensure that the board regularly identifies and addresses any governance weaknesses. In the spirit of continuous board improvement, this Committee introduced director self assessment two years ago, and this past year introduced a director peer review. This Committee also reviews all new director candidates to ensure they meet our selection criteria. These criteria include representation from our targeted economic sectors, experience in business plan execution, and lack of any potential conflicts that would compromise their contribution.

Additionally, all members of the Audit Committee and the majority of voting members of the Human Resources and Corporate Governance Committee, are independent directors. On the latter Committee, to represent the interests of the three relevant parties (minority shareholders, our significant minority shareholder BCE Inc., and CGI management), we have three voting members (two representing minority shareholders and one representing BCE), and one non-voting member, the Chairman and CEO as ex officio member, representing management.

CGI Group Inc.

For years, we have provided a thorough orientation for new directors, involving discussions with senior management and comprehensive background materials. We have been told by experienced new directors that our orientation is second to none. CGI senior management regularly briefs all directors, enabling enlightened discussion and decisions. Senior management meets with directors individually, and collectively, early in the development of the three-year strategic plans and annual business plans, to draw on their expertise.

New Corporate Governance Initiatives

Our Human Resources and Corporate Governance Committee and our Audit Committee each have a charter, which is a living document we regularly review. We are in the process of updating our committee charters. We will post them on our Website when they are finalized in 2003, and include them in our fiscal 2003 information circular.

As part of ongoing continuous improvement, we are making adjustments for the coming year.

We have increased the number of independent directors to eight, from seven members of the 14-member board.

In response to CGI's growth and expanding business scope, we will be dividing the Human Resources and Corporate Governance Committee into two committees to provide greater focus on the important issues facing these respective committees.

We will be renaming the Audit Committee the Audit and Risk Management Committee to better reflect its existing mandate and the importance we attribute to risk management.

CGI has streamlined management procedures as well as board procedures to ensure we efficiently and effectively comply with new regulatory requirements. These requirements include the US Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, which mandates ongoing CEO and CFO certification of the accuracy of CGI's financial statements and other financial information, and attestation of its disclosure controls and procedures. We already meet the new, accelerated US financial reporting requirements.

We will be reviewing our governance policies in light of new Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX) guidelines and requirements when they are finalized.

While CGI is governed by Canadian law, it is an international company, and we strive to meet regulatory standards and investor expectations in jurisdictions where the company operates. We already comply with most of the NYSE's proposed new listing requirements for US issuers and all of the existing governance guidelines of the TSX. As a foreign issuer listed on the NYSE, we will be reporting to the NYSE on our governance practices.

Investor Relations

CGI's board and management recognize the importance to the company's reputation and valuation of balanced, accurate and timely communications, and we strive to be a leader in investor relations practices. CGI is vigilant against selective disclosure, and was among the first public companies to emphasize direct communication with all shareholders by webcasting its quarterly conference calls, its annual meeting, annual investor day and, where possible, presentations at investor forums sponsored by investment dealers and other organizations. CGI also meets frequently with shareholders, research analysts and the media to ensure its story is well understood and reaches a broad audience. We have a comprehensive disclosure policy which the board reviews and approves annually, or more frequently if necessary. We are committed to a high standard of disclosure, with increasing emphasis on our interim and annual management discussion and analysis reports as core continuous disclosure documents.

We are proud of our record of good corporate governance and will continue to be proactive in updating our governance practices in the spirit of continuous improvement as we strive to build shareholder value over the long term.

Annual Meeting and Proxy Voting

CGI senior executives will be discussing initiatives to build shareholder value at the annual meeting, which will be held on January 30, 2003 at 9:30 a.m. at the Hilton Montreal Bonaventure Hotel, Ballroom, 1 Place Bonaventure, Montreal, Quebec. On behalf of CGI's board and management, we encourage you to attend the meeting in person if you can and, if not, to view the meeting on our Website where it will be broadcast live and archived immediately afterwards.

CGI Group Inc.

The annual meeting is your opportunity to hear first hand from senior management, and to ask any questions you may have about the company.

We encourage you to exercise the power of your proxy by voting your shares by mail, phone or Internet as outlined in the attached information circular, or by presenting your signed proxy in person before the start of the annual meeting.

Yours sincerely,

INFORMATION CIRCULAR

The Information Circular is provided in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the management of CGI GROUP INC. (the Company or CGI) for use at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company (the Meeting) which will be held on January 30, 2003, and at any adjournment thereof. Unless otherwise indicated, the information provided herein is as at December 2, 2002.

The solicitation of proxies will be made primarily by mail. However, proxies could be solicited personally or by telephone by regular employees of the Company at minimal costs. The Company does not expect to pay any compensation for the solicitation of proxies, but will pay brokers and other persons holding shares for others in their own names or in the names of their nominees, the reasonable expenses for sending proxy material to beneficial owners in order to obtain voting instructions. The Company will bear all expenses in connection with the solicitation of proxies.

PROXIES

In order to be voted at the Meeting, a proxy must be received by the Secretary of the Company prior to the Meeting. A proxy may be revoked at any time by the person giving it to the extent that it has not yet been exercised. A proxy may be revoked by filing a written notice with the Secretary of the Company. The powers of the proxy holders may also be revoked if the shareholder attends the Meeting in person and so requests.

The persons, whose appointment to act under the accompanying form of proxy is solicited by the Company, are Directors of the Company.

Edgar Filing: CGI GROUP INC - Form 6-K

The persons whose names are printed on the enclosed form of proxy will vote all the shares in respect of which they are appointed to act, in accordance with the instructions given on the form of proxy. In the absence of specification on any matter or if more than one choice is indicated, the shares represented by the enclosed form of proxy will be voted FOR that matter.

Every proxy given to any person in the enclosed form of proxy will confer discretionary authority with respect to amendments or variations to the matters identified in the Notice of Meeting and with respect to any other matters that may properly come before the Meeting.

Every shareholder has the right to appoint a person to act on his behalf at the Meeting other than any other persons whose names are printed in the enclosed form of proxy. To exercise this right, the shareholder should insert his nominee's name in the space provided for such purpose in the enclosed form of proxy or prepare another proxy in proper form appointing his nominee.

Registered shareholders may also, rather than returning the proxy by mail or hand delivery, elect to submit a form of proxy by use of the telephone or of the Internet. Those registered holders of Class A Subordinate Shares electing to vote by telephone require a touch-tone telephone to transmit their voting preferences. Registered holders of Class A Subordinate Shares electing to vote by telephone or via the Internet must follow the instructions included in the form of proxy received from the Company.

Non-registered shareholders or shareholders that hold their shares in the name of a nominee such as a bank, trust company, securities broker or other financial institution, must seek instructions as to how to complete their form of proxy and vote their shares from their nominee. Non-registered shareholders will have received this Information Circular in a mailing from their nominee, together with a form of proxy or voting instruction form. It is important that non-registered shareholders adhere to the voting instructions provided to them by their nominee. Since CGI's registrar and transfer agent, Computershare Trust Company of Canada, does not have a record of the names of the Company's non-registered shareholders, Computershare Trust Company of Canada will have no knowledge of a non-registered shareholder's right to vote, unless the nominee has appointed the non-registered shareholder as proxyholder. Non-registered shareholders that wish to vote in person at the Meeting must insert their name in the space provided on the form of proxy or voting instruction form, and adhere to the signing and return instructions provided by their nominee. By doing so, non-registered shareholders are instructing their nominee to appoint them as proxyholder.

CGI Group Inc.

VOTING SHARES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS OF VOTING SHARES

Only the holders of Class A Subordinate Shares and the holders of Class B Shares (multiple voting) on record at the close of business on December 12, 2002, will be entitled to receive notice and to vote at the Meeting. Each Class A Subordinate Share («Class A Subordinate Shares») will entitle its holder to one vote and each Class B Share (multiple voting) («Class B Shares») will entitle its holder to ten votes. As at December 12, 2002, the Company had 340,063,431 Class A Subordinate Shares and 40,799,774 Class B Shares outstanding.

As at December 12, 2002, to the knowledge of the senior executives of the Company, the only person who exercised control or direction over 10% or more of the outstanding Class A Subordinate Shares is BCE Inc., directly and indirectly through its wholly-owned subsidiary 3588513 Canada Inc., which exercised control or direction over an aggregate number of 113,000,794 Class A Subordinate Shares, representing 33.23% of the Class A Subordinate Shares outstanding. REPORT OF THE HUMAN RESOURCES AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE ON THE REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS AND NAMED EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Composition of the Human Resources and Corporate Governance Committee

The Human Resources and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors (the Human Resources Committee) has responsibility for the administration of the compensation policy covering the Company's senior officers. The Human Resources Committee makes recommendations on the compensation of senior officers to the Board of Directors for approval.

The Human Resources Committee is composed of Messrs. David L. Johnston, Chairman, William D. Anderson and Claude Chamberland. Mr. Godin currently participates to Human Resources Committee meetings as an ex-officio member. The Committee met three times during fiscal 2002.

Remuneration of Named Executive Officers

Compensation Policy

In order to support its strategic plan, the Company has adopted a compensation policy for its senior officers whereby emphasis is put on incentive compensation.

The compensation level provided for senior officers is based on a targeted positioning in comparison with a reference group comprised, according to the role of the senior officer, of Canadian and U.S. companies of the high technology industry, including other information technology consulting firms, or of companies where the information technology function is of strategic importance. The Company believes that this reference group constitutes a good representation of the market for recruiting high performing managers and the talents CGI needs to continue its successful expansion.

The compensation policy aims at providing the Company's senior officers with a compensation package defined, according to a specific position within the reference group, as follows:

Edgar Filing: CGI GROUP INC - Form 6-K

the fixed components, which include base salary, benefits and perquisites, are aligned with the median of the Canadian reference group;
the annual incentive is positioned at the median of the Canadian and the U.S. reference groups (referred to as the North American reference group);
the long-term incentive is set at the level required to position the total compensation toward the upper quartile of the North American reference group.

The North American reference group is composed of the Canadian reference group combined with the U.S. reference group, where each group is equally weighted, thus reflecting the global scope of the Company.

Components of Total Compensation

The components of CGI's senior officers total compensation are:

- 1) a competitive base salary;
- 2) short-term incentives in the form of variable annual plans and programs based on the responsibilities of the officer and the achievement of objectives;

14

CGI Group Inc.

- 3) a benefits package providing the officer with protection in the event of death or disability, as well as medical and dental care plans;
 - 4) a perquisites package required to respond to the officer's business requirements; and
 - 5) two long-term incentive plans, one being a management stock incentive plan, the other a share option plan, both intended for senior executive officers.

Base Salary

Base salaries are reviewed annually by the Human Resources Committee, based on each senior officer's responsibilities, competencies and contribution to the Company's success. The Human Resources Committee submits all salary increases granted to officers to the Board of Directors for approval.

Short-Term Incentive

The senior officers participate in an annual bonus plan adapted to their responsibilities within the Company. The purpose of this plan is to provide these key employees with an incentive to increase the growth and profitability of the Company and offer a cash reward based on the achievement of performance objectives derived from the Company's strategic plan, as reflected in the annual budget.

These senior executive officers are eligible for a bonus (the Target Bonus) for fully meeting the objectives, as defined early in the year by the Human Resources Committee for short-term incentive plan purposes. The actual bonus can reach two times the Target Bonus for exceptional performance. The Human Resources Committee has the discretion to waive minimum profitability requirements when exceptional strategic achievements are realized during a year which could increase the value of the Company over the long-term.

The Target Bonus varies between 45% and 60% of the senior officer's base salary and is adjusted by a performance factor. The performance measures are Company and/or countries profitability, based on earnings before amortization of goodwill and income taxes, and growth in net revenues for the year.

Long-Term Incentive

a) Management Stock Incentive Plan

Some senior management members, excluding the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and the Executive Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer, are eligible to participate in a Management Stock Incentive Plan (the Incentive Plan). The purpose of the Incentive Plan is to promote synergy among business units of the Company, to provide key managers with an opportunity to share in the creation of economic value to the Company, and to promote shareholding among management with an opportunity for capital accumulation.

Under the Incentive Plan, eligible senior officers are provided with the opportunity to purchase, at the beginning of a performance cycle, a specific number of Company shares, as determined by the Human Resources Committee at the beginning of the performance cycle. Purchases are made on the market, at fair market value, with the purchase commissions being paid by the Company. Purchases are financed through loans arranged with financial institutions, the interest on such loans being paid by the Company for the duration of the performance cycle. The shares are used as collateral for the loan and are held in trust for the duration of the performance cycle. In the course of the performance cycle, each participant is entitled to earn a bonus, which will be first applied in reimbursement of the participant's loan. The Target Bonus is earned for achieving expected results, in relation to the Company's total cumulative contribution margin over the performance cycle. A bonus equal to two times the Target Bonus may be earned for exceptional results. However, no bonus is paid if performance falls below a minimum or threshold level. The Target Bonus is equal to 100% of the loan taken out by the officer for purchase of the shares. The performance cycle is three years from the date of purchase of the shares, and the performance objectives for purposes of the plan are defined by the Human Resources Committee at the beginning of the cycle.

The third three-year performance cycle under the Incentive Plan started on October 1, 1999 and ended on September 30, 2002. There will be no bonus paid under the Incentive Plan for the three-year cycle ended on September 30, 2002 since the Company's total cumulative contribution margin for this three-year cycle did not reach the minimum level set under the Incentive Plan.

b) Share Option Plans

Share option plans for certain employees of the Company and its subsidiaries were in force at the end of fiscal 2002.

Share option plan for employees, officers and directors of CGI Group Inc., its subsidiaries and its associates (the CGI Share Option Plan)

Under the CGI Share Option Plan, the Human Resources Committee may grant, at its own discretion, options to purchase Class A Subordinate Shares to certain employees of the Company. The exercise price is established by the Human Resources Committee but may not be lower than the closing price for Class A Subordinate Shares on the business day preceding the date of the grant. Each option may be exercised within a period not exceeding 10 years, except in the event of retirement, termination of employment or death.

Six Named Executive Officers were granted options during fiscal 2002. Given the economic circumstances and in keeping with the interests of the shareholders of the Company, the Human Resources Committee approved the grant of fewer options this year with vesting more closely tied to CGI's performance, including achievement of the fiscal year ending September 30, 2003 business plan as well as performance of CGI on the stock exchange. The details of these grants are shown on the table Options granted during the most recently completed fiscal year .

Some of the options granted during 2002 to the Named Executive Officers have special terms and conditions. These special terms and conditions apply to grants of 170,000, 90,000, 90,000, 50,000, 13,027 and 50,000 options to Messrs. Godin, Roach, Imbeau, Saliba, Sanan and Ms. Doré, respectively. Each of these options may be exercised within a period not exceeding 10 years (no later than October 26, 2004 in the case of Mr. Sanan who retired in June 2002).

The vesting of half of these options is tied to the profitability and growth in net revenues of the Company in the fiscal year ending September 30, 2003. The Company must meet minimum levels of profitability and growth for these options to vest, and they will all vest if the Company exceeds its profitability and growth objectives for the year.

The vesting of the other half is based on the Company performance versus a peer group composed of 15 companies. The performance measure is the ratio of market capitalization over revenues. If CGI ranks in the top three for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2003, these options will then vest immediately. If CGI ranks between fourth and ninth, a proportionate number of options will vest immediately. If CGI ranks between tenth and sixteenth, no options will vest immediately. Nevertheless, any option that does not vest according to the Company's performance may still vest later at the rate of 1/3 on the second, third and fourth anniversary of the option grant.

The options granted to Mr. Sanan in 2002 are fully vested.

IMRglobal Corp. Share Option Plans

Pursuant to the acquisition of IMRglobal Corp. (IMR) in July 2001, CGI continued the stock option plans of IMR, being the Directors Stock Option Plan (the IMR Directors Plan), the First Amended and Restated Stock Incentive Plan (the IMR Incentive Plan) and the 1999 Employee Stock Incentive Plan (the IMR 1999 Incentive Plan) (together the IMR Option Plans). As a result of the acquisition of IMR, all outstanding options to purchase shares of IMR became options to acquire Class A Subordinate Shares of the Company. Although each IMR option issued prior to the IMR acquisition remains subject to the terms of the IMR Option Plan under which it was issued, no new options will be granted under the IMR Option Plans.

The IMR Directors Plan was available to non-employee directors of IMR or of any of its subsidiaries. Options subject to the terms of the IMR Directors Plan were granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the underlying shares on the date of grant. The fair market value was defined as being the closing price of IMR stock on the Nasdaq National Market on the business day preceding the date of grant. Such options were exercisable until December 31, 2001, for the exception of Mr. Vincent Addonisio who may exercise his options until May 3, 2005, and Mr. Philip Shipperlee who may exercise his options until October 26, 2004 and this, following a contractual agreement.

The IMR Incentive Plan was available to employees of IMR or any one of its subsidiaries as well as to non-employee directors of IMR, consultants or other persons who rendered valuable services to IMR or any one of its subsidiaries. Options subject to the IMR Incentive Plan were granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the underlying shares on the date of grant. The fair market value was defined as being the closing price of IMR stock on the Nasdaq National Market on the business day preceding the date of grant. Options issued under the IMR Incentive Plan may generally be exercised within a period not exceeding 10 years, except in the event of retirement, termination or death.

The IMR 1999 Incentive Plan was available to employees of IMR or any of its subsidiaries. Executive officers and directors of IMR were not permitted to participate in such plan. Options subject to the terms of the IMR 1999 Incentive Plan were granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the underlying shares on the date of grant. The fair market value was defined as being the closing price of IMR stock on the Nasdaq National Market on the business day preceding the date of grant. Options issued under the IMR 1999 Incentive Plan may generally be exercised within a period not exceeding 10 years, except in the event of retirement, termination or death.

Furthermore, options granted under the IMR Incentive Plan and the IMR 1999 Incentive Plan will vest and become fully exercisable if the employment of the employee is terminated without cause within 12 months after the acquisition of IMR by CGI.

The Named Executive Officers who are still officers of the Company do not hold options subject to the terms of the IMR Option Plans

Remuneration of the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Mr. Godin s compensation is determined according to the same compensation policy that applies to the other senior officers of the Company. Accordingly, Mr. Godin s base salary reflects the median value of similar positions in the Canadian high technology industry as well as his level of competency and contribution to the success of the Company. The rest of Mr. Godin s compensation is mostly delivered through incentive compensation with particular emphasis on long-term incentive to promote creation of shareholder value.

The Company s results for fiscal 2002 have exceeded the threshold set under the plan at the beginning of the year. Therefore, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer earned a bonus of $200,000. The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer does not participate in the Incentive Plan.

Separation Policy for Senior Officers

The Company adopted a separation policy for its senior officers to ensure that they receive appropriate and equitable treatment should their employment be terminated by the Company. The separation policy provides for compensatory payments to the senior officers in case of termination without cause by the Company or their resignation following important reductions in their responsibilities and/or compensation. The separation policy provides for a severance payment equal to two times the sum of the annual salary and annual bonus of the senior officer. Group benefits, with the exception of disability coverage, continue for a period of 24 months following the departure of the senior officer without exceeding the reemployment date of the senior officer, as the case may be. Eligibility to other fringe benefit plans and to specific benefits ceases or continues, as the case may be, subject to the detailed provisions set out in the separation policy. Unvested rights to exercise options granted under the CGI Share Option Plan at the time of the departure of the senior officer are cancelled, except otherwise decided by the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer or the Human Resources Committee. Vested options granted under the Share Option Plan and still unexercised at the time of the departure of the senior officer can be exercised for three months from the date of departure, without exceeding the normal term of the options. The Company undertakes to pay the fees for outplacement services up to a maximum of 10% of the senior officer's annual salary.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph compares the annual variations in the total cumulative return on the Class A Subordinate Shares with the total cumulative return of the S&P/TSX and NASDAQ stock indexes, for the past five financial years of the Company.

REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS

Members of the Board of Directors who are employees of the Company are not compensated for their services as directors or members of committees of the Board of Directors of the Company.

Members of the Board of Directors who are not employees of the Company are paid an annual retainer fee of $15,000. An additional compensation of $2,000 per year is paid to members of a committee and $3,000 per year to a Chairman of a committee. Attendance fees are $1,000 per Board or committee meeting, except for members of the Audit Committee who receive $2,500 per meeting attended.

Members who join the Board of Directors for the first time are entitled to receive a grant of 2,000 stock options on the date of their nomination. In addition, members of the Board of Directors receive annually a grant of 4,000 options.

Members of the Board of Directors may choose to convert part or all of their retainer in deferred stock units (DSU). The number of DSUs granted to a member is equal to the chosen annual retainer amount divided by the average closing price of Class A Subordinate Shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange over the five business days preceding the calculation date. Once granted, the value of DSUs is determined based on the quoted market price of the Class A Subordinate Shares. The value of DSUs is payable only upon the member's departure from the Board. The amount paid corresponds to the number of DSUs accumulated to the credit of the member multiplied by the average closing price of Class A Subordinate Shares during the 30 working days preceding the member's departure. The amount is paid in cash, after statutory deductions. For each DSU purchased with the retainer, the member of the Board of Directors is granted two stock options under the CGI Share Option Plan. Each option may be exercised within a period not exceeding 10 years. The exercise price is equal to the closing price of Class A Subordinate Shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange on the date preceding the date of grant. The members of the Board of Directors have 30 days following their election or reelection as directors to notify the Company's Secretary of the portion of the retainer they wish to receive in DSUs for the next fiscal year.

The vesting of all stock options is based on the Company performance versus a peer group composed of 15 companies. The performance measure is the ratio of market capitalization over revenues. If CGI ranks in the top three for the year ending September 30, 2003, all options will vest immediately. If CGI ranks between fourth and ninth, a proportionate number of options will vest immediately. If CGI ranks between tenth and sixteenth for the same period, no option will vest immediately. Nevertheless, any option that does not vest according to the Company's performance may still vest later at the rate of 1/3 on the second, third and fourth anniversary of the option grant.

For the year ended September 30, 2002, a total cash remuneration of $189,426 has been paid to the directors.

INDEBTEDNESS OF DIRECTORS AND SENIOR OFFICERS

As of December 2, 2002, no directors, senior officers, former directors or senior officers of the Company were indebted to the Company.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Company supports and conducts its business in accordance with the Toronto Stock Exchange guidelines for effective corporate governance. These guidelines address such matters as the constitution and independence of Boards of Directors, the functions to be performed by boards and their committees, and the relationship between the Board of Directors, management and shareholders. A brief description of the Company's corporate governance practices is set out, in tabular form, and is attached to this Information Circular as Appendix A.

Board and Committee Charters

CGI has presently in force charters for its Board of Directors and the various committees thereof, as well as rules for timely disclosure of material information and transactions in securities of CGI by insiders. In light of ongoing regulatory changes with respect to those matters, CGI is presently reviewing such charters and rules to ensure full compliance with new regulation.

Decisions Requiring Prior Approval by BCE Inc.

Under the terms of the options agreement (the Options Agreement) entered into in 1998, as since amended, among, inter alia, Serge Godin, André Imbeau, Jean Brassard (collectively, the Majority Shareholders), their respective holding companies, Bell Canada, BCE Inc. and CGI, until the earlier of January 5, 2006 and the date on which BCE Inc. acquires control (as defined in the Options Agreement) of CGI, certain matters are subject to the prior approval of the chief executive officer or the chief operating officer of BCE Inc. Specifically, BCE Inc. must approve:

- any change in the dividend policy of CGI;
- any arrangement, amalgamation or merger of CGI with any person other than wholly-owned subsidiaries of CGI or other public corporations with market capitalizations less than 10% of that of CGI;
- any transaction with a value in excess of $10 million between CGI and its subsidiaries on the one hand, and any person or persons acting in concert with 10% or more of the voting power of CGI, other than BCE Inc. and its affiliates;
- any transaction or operation involving CGI or one of its consolidated subsidiaries as a result of which certain financial ratios would not be met;
- the appointment, from time to time, of a Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer or Chief Financial Officer of CGI other than Serge Godin, Jean Brassard or André Imbeau;
- amendments to articles of incorporation or by-laws of CGI;
- redemptions, purchases or offers to purchase or redeem equity shares of CGI;
- acquisitions or agreements of CGI to acquire any person or business primarily engaged in an activity other than information technology services;
- making by CGI or its subsidiaries of any acquisition or disposition of assets or securities in excess of 10% of the market capitalization of CGI;
- any agreement or commitment by CGI or any of its consolidated subsidiaries to guarantee or pay any indebtedness of any person (other than CGI or any of its consolidated subsidiaries);
- launching of new lines of business for CGI or material changes in CGI s corporate strategy;
- adoption of any annual business plan or budget of CGI or the making of any amendment thereto showing a pre-tax margin of less than 7%; and
- any material alliance or joint venture by CGI that BCE Inc. reasonably concludes is or would likely be:
 - outside the normal course of CGI s business;
 - in any significant manner, inconsistent with CGI s strategic business plan; or
 - in any significant manner, inconsistent with the commercial interests of the BCE group.

The Majority Shareholders, in their capacity as directors of CGI, subject to their fiduciary duties as directors, and the Majority Shareholders (and their respective holding companies), in their capacity as shareholders of CGI, have agreed to vote in accordance with BCE Inc. s position on these matters when brought before the Board of Directors or shareholders of CGI.

In recognition of BCE Inc. s and the Majority Shareholders respective significant ownership interests and voting rights in CGI, and of BCE Inc. s rights under the Options Agreement (including those described above), the advice of BCE Inc. s nominees on CGI Board of Directors, and of the Majority Shareholders, in their capacity as directors, will be sought prior to CGI s undertaking (directly or indirectly) any proposed acquisitions of any business and any proposed agreements or arrangements with any one client and affiliates of one client with revenues and/or obligations per annum in excess of $25 million.

Board of Directors Designees

So long as BCE Inc. (and any of its wholly-owned subsidiaries) holds at least 20% of the outstanding shares in the share capital of CGI, the Majority Shareholders and their respective holding companies have undertaken to vote to elect to the Board of Directors of CGI the number of board designees nominated by BCE Inc. as shall represent 25% of the total number of directors on the CGI Board. Furthermore, until the date on which BCE Inc. acquires Control (as defined in the Options Agreement) of CGI, BCE Inc. (and its wholly-owned subsidiaries holding shares of CGI) has undertaken to vote in favor of the election of each of Messrs. Godin and Imbeau as a director of CGI to the extent that each of them is at that time a senior executive of CGI.

CGI Group Inc.

Audit Committee and External Auditors Independence

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of CGI is composed entirely of unrelated directors who meet the independence and experience requirements of the New York Stock Exchange and the Toronto Stock Exchange.

The responsibilities of the Audit Committee of CGI include (a) review of all public disclosure documents containing audited or unaudited financial information concerning CGI, (b) review and assessment of the effectiveness of CGI's accounting policies and practices concerning financial reporting, (c) review and monitoring of CGI's internal control procedures, programs and policies and assessment of the adequacy and effectiveness thereof, (d) recommendation to the Board of Directors of CGI on the appointment of external auditors, assertion of the independence thereof, review of the terms of engagement thereof and ongoing discussions therewith, (e) review of the audit procedures, and (f) such other responsibilities usually attributed to audit committees or as directed by the Board of Directors of CGI.

External Auditors Independence

Audit Committee Determination

As mentioned above, one of the responsibilities of the Audit Committee is to assert the independence of the external auditors of CGI. To this end, the Audit Committee entertains discussions with the external auditors on applicable criteria and obtains quarterly confirmations from them as to their independence.

Auditor Independence Policy

Furthermore, to assure itself of the independence of external auditors, the Audit Committee has adopted an auditor independence policy which deals with (a) what services can be and cannot be performed by the external auditors, (b) the governance procedure to be followed before granting mandates to the external auditors, and (c) the responsibilities of the respective key players under the policy. Follows a summary of the material provisions of such policy.

Performance of Services

Under the policy, the services are either acceptable services, prohibited services or services considered as special considerations.

The acceptable services are (a) audit and review of financial statements, (b) prospectus work, (c) audit of pension plan, (d) special audits on control procedures, (e) tax planning services on mergers and acquisitions activities, (f) tax transfer pricing services, (g) sales tax planning, (h) tax research and interpretation, and (i) preparation of tax returns.

The prohibited services are (a) bookkeeping services, (b) design and implementation of financial information services, (c) appraisal / valuation services or fairness opinions, (d) actuarial services, (e) internal audit services, (f) management functions, (g) human resources functions, (h) broker-dealer services, (i) legal services and (j) services based on contingency fees.

Services considered as special considerations are (a) proposed financial structures and large tax planning projects, (b) accounting research, (c) due diligence on mergers and acquisitions, and (d) all other services. These services may be performed by the external auditors as greater benefits may be obtained by CGI from timely, quality assurance and cost efficiency factors due to external auditors' experience, provided appropriate controls are in place to ensure objectivity.

Governance Procedure

Under the policy, the following control procedures are applicable when considering to engage the external auditors:

- (a) for all mandates involving fees of more than $250,000, regardless of the type of services, they must be submitted to the Audit Committee for approval through CGI's Chief Financial Officer prior to engagement;
- (b) for all mandates involving fees of $250,000 or less, the following applies:

if the services fall within the category of acceptable services:

- (i) if the amount of the fees is $50,000 or less, CGI may proceed with the engagement upon notification to CGI's Chief Financial Officer; and
- (ii) if the amount of the fees exceeds $50,000, the approval of CGI's Chief Financial Officer has to be obtained prior to the engagement;

if the services fall within the category of prohibited services, the external auditors cannot be engaged; and for all other services:

- (i) if the amount of the fees is $100,000 or less, the approval of CGI's Chief Financial Officer has to be obtained prior to the engagement; and
- (ii) if the amount of the fees exceeds $100,000, the approval of the Audit Committee has to be obtained through CGI's Chief Financial Officer.

Key Players Responsibilities

Under the policy, there are two key players, namely the management and the Audit Committee, whose respective primary responsibilities pursuant to such policy are as follows.

The primary responsibilities of the management are (a) the creation and maintenance of a policy that follows Canadian and US standards, (b) the management of compliance with the policy, and (c) to report to the Audit Committee all mandates granted to the external auditors.

The primary responsibilities of the Audit Committee are (a) the nomination of the external auditors, (b) the setting of fees for audit services, (c) the approval of the policy and modifications thereto, (d) the monitoring of management's compliance with the policy, (e) the obtaining of quarterly confirmation by the external auditors as to their independence, and (f) decision making when the application of the policy is unclear and for mandates involving fees of more than $250,000 (or $100,000 as in the case of services considered as special considerations).

It is clear under the policy that the Audit Committee has ultimate responsibility to assert the independence of the external auditors.

Fees Paid to External Auditors

During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002, CGI paid the following fees to its external auditors:

for audit services: $ 1,954,809 for financial information systems design and implementation: $ 0 or other services: $ 2,633,291

- audit related services (74% of other services)

APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The persons whose names are printed in the enclosed proxy form intend to vote for the appointment of Samson Bélair/Deloitte & Touche, Chartered Accountants, as auditors of the Company and to vote for authorization of the Board of Directors to fix the remuneration of the auditors. The auditors will hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders of the Company or until their successors are appointed. Samson Bélair/Deloitte & Touche were first appointed at the general meeting of shareholders held on January 27, 1988.

GENERAL

The management of the Company is not aware of any matter which could be submitted at the Meeting other than the matters set forth in the Notice of Meeting. If other unknown matters are regularly submitted at the Meeting, the persons appointed in the attached form of proxy will vote to the best of their judgment.

APPROVAL OF DIRECTORS

The directors of the Company have approved the content and the delivery of this Circular.

APPENDIX A

Corporate Governance Practices

Guidelines	Comments
1. The Board of Directors should explicitly assume responsibility for the stewardship of the Company, including: (a) adoption of a strategic planning process (b) identification of the principal risks of the Company's business, and implementation of appropriate systems to manage these risks; (c) succession planning, including appointing, training and monitoring senior management;	The Board of Directors is involved in the preparation of the 3-year strategic plan of the Company and such plan is reviewed annually by the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee identifies the major financial and operating risks undertaken by the Company and reviews the various policies and practices of the Company to manage such risks. The Audit Committee regularly reports on such matters to the Board of Directors. The Human Resources Committee reviews, reports and, where appropriate, provides recommendations to the Board of Directors on succession planning

(d)	the Company's communication policy; and	(d)	matters. The Board of Directors has adopted "Guidelines on Timely Disclosure" which address matters such as the essential principles of the disclosure rules of the regulatory authorities and disclosure guidelines. Under the Guidelines, the Board of Directors has the responsibility to oversee the content of the Company's major communications to its shareholders and the investing public. However, the Board believes that it is management's role to communicate on behalf of the Company with its shareholders and the investment community. The Company maintains an effective investor relations process to respond to shareholder questions and concerns. The Board of Directors reviews and, where required, approves statutory disclosure documents prior to their distribution to shareholders.
(e)	integrity of the Company's internal control and management information systems.	(e)	The Board of Directors' duties include the assessment of the integrity of the Company's internal control and information system. The Audit Committee also has the responsibility to review the internal control and management information systems of the Company. The Committee reports to the Board of Directors with respect to such controls and systems.
