PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CGI and Tampa Housing Authority awarded five-year contract to serve U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

Cleveland, Ohio September 29, 2004 The Tampa Housing Authority (THA) (Fla.) and CGI Group Inc. (CGI) (NYSE: GIB, TSX: GIB.A) today announced the award of a business process services contract to serve the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) in the State of Florida. The estimated value of the award to CGI is US$30 million over five years.

Under HUD's annual contributions contract with THA's nonprofit organization, the North Tampa Housing Development Corporation (NTHDC), CGI will provide program start-up, contract administration and payment services for site-based multi-family housing assistance payments (HAP) in the State of Florida. The award is part of HUD's 2020 reform plan, under which it contracts with qualified housing authorities nationally to administer HAP contracts.

This contract award with CGI is an excellent example of public-private partnership that will provide THA's non-profit organization with a guaranteed revenue stream to further support our mission to preserve affordable housing for low income families, including the elderly and disabled, said THA president and CEO Jerome D. Ryans.

Michael Roach, CGI's president and COO said, "We look forward to helping THA serve its mission, and are especially proud that through this partnership, CGI will create 35 to 40 full-time, full-benefit professional positions in Florida, the majority of which will be in Tampa.

About Tampa Housing Authority

The Tampa Housing Authority was founded in 1937 and is comprised of 3,220 public housing units; 4,418 Assisted Housing Units (Section 8) and 304 privately managed units for a total of 7,942 units; making it the second largest public housing agency in the State of Florida. The THA has been the recipient of two HOPE VI grants totaling close to $46 million dollars for demolition and revitalization of three large obsolete public housing communities. In addition, the THA has focused on improving all of its housing, successfully modernized all of its smaller properties and is in the midst of finalizing plans to improve the last three large public housing communities. The THA has also successfully opened an Assisted Living Facility that provides housing for only low-income elderly and their caregivers and operates a First Time Homeownership Center.
