CGI ANNOUNCES ADJUSTMENTS TO SENIOR MANAGEMENT

Montreal, Quebec, July 26, 2006 - CGI Group Inc. (CGI) announced today its decision to make some adjustments to the responsibilities of its senior management, effective immediately.

André Imbeau, Founder and currently Executive Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer (CFO), is appointed Executive Vice-Chairman of CGI. In his new role, André will focus on strategic initiatives leading to value creation, including major transactions and financing as well as key client relationships. André will report to Serge Godin, Founder and Executive Chairman of CGI.

Together with Serge, we have built and led CGI for more than 30 years and the opportunities in front of our Company are as exciting as ever, said André Imbeau. Our marketplace is vibrant and we intend to exploit major growth opportunities while remaining true to our dream of creating an environment in which we enjoy working together towards building a company we can be proud of.

Concurrently, David Anderson, CGI's Senior Vice-President and Corporate Controller is appointed to the role of Executive Vice-President and CFO of the company. In this capacity, David will report to Michael E. Roach, President and CEO. David will also join the CGI Executive Committee which consists of Serge Godin, Paule Doré, André Imbeau and Michael E. Roach.

I would like to thank the members of the Executive Committee as well as the members of the Board of Directors for the opportunity to serve as CFO, commented David. Over the past eight years, I have seen first hand the commitment of this team and look forward to contributing to the ongoing success and growth of this great company.

David's professional experience, his intimate knowledge of CGI and his industry background make him well-suited for this key leadership position added Michael E. Roach. We look forward to the contribution he will make as he leads our global financial team worldwide.
