FRONTEER LAUNCHES FORMAL BID FOR AURORA ENERGY RESOURCES INC.

NEWS RELEASE 09-02

JANUARY 23, 2009

VANCOUVER Fronteer Development Group Inc. (Fronteer) (FRG TSX/NYSE-A) announced today that it has filed with securities regulators in Canada and the United States and has commenced the mailing of its formal offer to acquire all of the outstanding common shares (the Common Shares) of Aurora Energy Resources Inc. (Aurora) that it does not already own (the Offer) on the basis of 0.825 of a Fronteer common share for each Common Share held. The Offer will expire at 8:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on March 2, 2009, unless the Offer is extended or withdrawn, and is subject to certain conditions. Details of the Offer are set out in the Offer documents filed today with the securities regulators.

The Offer documents will be available at www.sedar.com, www.sec.gov and on Fronteer's website at www.fronteergroup.com. Copies of the Offer documents may also be obtained without charge from Kingsdale Shareholder Services Inc., the Information Agent and Depositary for the Offer, whose contact details are set out below.

Aurora shareholders are urged to carefully read the Offer documents as they contain important information about the Offer. Questions regarding the Offer and assistance in depositing Common Shares under the Offer should be directed to Kingsdale Shareholder Services Inc.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Except for the statements of historical fact contained herein, certain information presented constitutes forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements include, without limitation, those with respect to potential expansion of mineralization, plans for exploration and development, potential future production, exploration budgets and timing of expenditures and community relations activities and any statement that may predict, forecast, indicate or imply future plans, intentions, levels of activity, results, performance or achievements, and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual plans, intentions, activities, results, performance or achievements of Fronteer to be materially different from any future plans, intentions, activities, results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such factors include, among others, risks related to the actual results of current exploration activities, changes in government legislation, changes in ownership interest in a project, conclusions of economic evaluations, changes in project parameters as plans continue to be refined, future prices of gold, copper, silver and uranium, environmental risks and hazards, increased infrastructure and/or operating costs, labor and employment matters, international operations and joint ventures, estimation of reserves and resources, government regulation and permitting matters, the satisfaction of conditions to any Offer, the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the lock-up agreements relating to the proposed transaction, the ability to obtain all necessary regulatory approvals, a delay in the consummation of the proposed transaction or the failure to complete the proposed transaction for any other reason, the amount of costs, fees and expenses related to the proposed transaction, the anticipated benefits to Aurora and Fronteer shareholders and other expected or anticipated benefits of the proposed acquisition, as well as those factors discussed in the section entitled "Risk Factors" in Fronteer's Annual Information Form and Fronteer's latest Form 40-F and in the section entitled "Risks Relating to the Offer" in Fronteer's offer and take-over bid circular on file with the Canadian securities regulators and included in the Registration Statement on Form F-8 filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Although Fronteer has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially, there may be other factors that cause Fronteer's plans, results, performance or achievements not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. There can be no assurance that such statements will prove to be accurate as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Fronteer disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.
