RADVISION Reports Third Quarter 2004 Results

Wednesday October 20, 7:00 am ET

Record Revenues in Line with Forecast

Stronger than Expected Contribution from Technology Unit

FAIR LAWN, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 20, 2004--RADVISION (NASDAQ:RVSN - News) today announced that revenues for the third quarter of 2004 were $16.7 million, an increase of 28% from the third quarter of 2003. Net income was $1.4 million or $0.07 per diluted share and included a one-time operating expense of $330,000 related to the previously announced acquisition of intellectual property and key developer assets from VisionNex Technologies. Before inclusion of the one-time item, net income was $1.7 million or $0.08 per diluted share. By comparison, net income was $912,000 or $0.05 per diluted share in the third quarter of 2003.

Operating profit for the third quarter was $881,000 after the one-time operating expense and $1.2 million before the one-time expense. That compares with operating profit of $412,000 in the third quarter of 2003.

The record revenues consisted of $5.3 million in Technology Business Unit (TBU) sales and $11.4 million in Networking Business Unit (NBU) sales, representing increases of 66% and 15%, respectively, over the third quarter of 2003.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2004, revenues increased to $46.7 million from $35.7 million in the same period of 2003. Operating income year-to-date in 2004 was $2.2 million, before a one-time operating gain of $1.1 million in the 2004 first quarter and the one-time operating expense of $330,000 in the 2004 third quarter. By comparison, the Company incurred an operating loss of $557,000 in the first nine months of 2003. Net income for the first nine months of 2004 was $3.6 million or $0.17 per diluted share, before the one-time items in the first and third quarters. After inclusion of the one-time items, net income for the first nine months of 2004 was $4.3 million or $0.20 per diluted share. For the first nine months of 2003, net income was $1.1 million or $0.05 per diluted share.

The Company ended the third quarter of 2004 with approximately $105.4 million in cash and liquid investments, an increase of $554,000 over the prior quarter, and equivalent to $5.31 per basic share. The increase reflects operating cash flow of $1.8 million and an additional $525,000 from the exercise of options, offset by $485,000 in capital expenditures and $1.3 million related to the acquisition of assets from VisionNex.

Third quarter 2004 revenues reflect TBU sales that were 18% higher than forecast. Asia Pacific NBU sales were particularly strong, nearly double the prior quarter, and NBU non-Cisco sales in the Americas grew 26%. These factors offset weaker than expected NBU revenue from EMEA and from room conferencing systems through the Cisco channel. The better than forecasted gross profit margin in the 2004 third quarter resulted from the higher than expected TBU revenues.

Gadi Tamari, Chief Executive Officer of RADVISION, commented: "We are seeing traction in all three of our most promising markets - TBU toolkits and professional services, 3G, and desktop video. The continued strong worldwide performance of our TBU included important sales to tier-one chipset manufacturers as well as of our 3G-324M toolkit for the 3G mobile market. We had five new 3G deals in NBU in the third quarter and also reached a milestone in our desktop conferencing activities with the first general deployment of our IMfirst solution for the Microsoft communications environment."

Mr. Tamari continued: "The growth of NBU sales in APAC also reflected substantial strength in China. Our deal with Beijing-based VisionNex gives us the key technology and integration staff that will help us drive future development of larger video, voice and data communications architecture and will better enable us to adapt our solutions for the key regions of China and all of Asia Pacific."

Mr. Tamari added: "NBU in the Americas had particularly strong interest in our IMfirst solution, which also has a growing number of pilots worldwide. As we announced separately today, we are developing an all-software platform for the Microsoft Live Communications Server environment. And, we expect our sales through our major channel partner Cisco to accelerate growth in 2005 supporting their video IP phones."

Mr. Tamari concluded: "We see convincing evidence that personal video for business and in the mobile sectors will be the significant engines of our growth in 2005 and beyond."

Guidance

The following statements are forward-looking, and actual results may differ materially. The Company expects fourth quarter 2004 revenues to be approximately $17.5 million and net income to approximate $1.8 million or $0.08 per diluted share. This compares to fourth quarter 2003 revenues of $15.6 million and net income of $2.4 million or $0.11 per diluted share. As previously discussed, the Company is pursuing strategic initiatives and making operating investments in 2004, as it positions itself for the realization of a much larger market opportunity in the coming years.
