RESOLUTIONS OF THE EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

Rio de Janeiro, May 25th, 2015, Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. - Petrobras hereby informs that the Extraordinary General Meeting, held this day, at 03:00 pm, in the main auditorium of the Company's Head office building, at Avenida República do Chile 65 – 1st floor, in the city of Rio de Janeiro (RJ), ruled and approved, by majority, as follows:

I. The Management Report, Financial Statements and Fiscal Council's Report of Fiscal Year of 2014.

The Federal Government, by voting the only item of this Extraordinary General Meeting, majority vote of the conclave, approved the Management Report, the Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2014, together with the Fiscal Council and the Independent Auditors' Reports, with the highlights of the Independent Auditors' Report as well as the record of the National Treasury Secretariat to point out possible effects that may result from the disclosure of new information about the "Lava Jato Operation" which modify materially the assumptions and estimates used in the financial statements.

In its opinion, the Federal Government also determined that Petrobras continues to take the necessary legal measures, and brought to any authority or jurisdiction, individually and/or as a joint party along with the Federal Prosecutor, according to the Law No. 8429, of June 2, 1992

(Action of Administrative Improbity), all of them able to recover the losses due to the acts of its former directors and third parties, as part of "Lava Jato Operation".

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that are subject to risks and uncertainties. The forward-looking statements, which address the Company’s expected business and financial performance, among other matters, contain words such as “believe,” “expect,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “optimistic,” “intend,” “plan,” “aim,” “will,” “may,” “would,” “likely,” and similar expressions. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made. There is no assurance that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.

The Company’s actual results could differ materially from those expressed or forecast in any forward-looking statements as a result of a variety of assumptions and factors. These factors include, but are not limited to, the following: (i) failure to comply with laws or regulations, including fraudulent activity, corruption, and bribery; (ii) the outcome of ongoing corruption investigations and any new facts or information that may arise in relation to the “Lava Jato Operation”; (iii) the effectiveness of the Company’s risk management policies and procedures, including operational risk; and (iv) litigation, such as class actions or proceedings brought by governmental and regulatory agencies. A description of other factors can be found in the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2014, and the Company's other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
