Rights Offering Overview

Ø Raise up to $15 million by offering approximately 13.85 million shares at $1.10 per share

Ø All shareholders of record as of May 14, 2012 are eligible to participate

Ø Rights Offering ends at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time, on June 15, 2012, unless we extend the expiration date or cancel the offering

Page 4

Why Pursue A Rights Offering Now

Ø Pursue further acquisition opportunities

Ø Both sectors we operate, drybulk and containerships, will offer acquisition opportunities at historically low prices in the future

Ø We are not raising cash due to any distress situation

Ø We have more than $35 million cash and cash equivalents (including restricted cash) as of March 31, 2012 against debt of about $70 million and net debt of around 25-30% of the market value of the fleet

Ø A Rights Offering offers the possibility of no dilution to fully participating shareholders

Ø Expenses of the offering are low relative to other capital raising options (no underwriting fees, less legal costs)

Ø Non-participating shareholders could suffer potentially less dilution as compared to other equity raising options

Ø Alternative fundraising options (follow-ons, ATMs, convertibles, private placements, etc.) could all be potentially more dilutive for all shareholders

Summary

Ø Over the last 7 years, Euroseas has built a track record of being:

Ø A conservative, value driven company

Ø Focused on creating returns for our shareholders

Ø We have maintained a strong balance sheet throughout the financial crisis and subsequent challenging years

Ø Avoided investing at the peak of the markets

Ø Renewed our drybulk fleet with younger vessels right after the financial crisis, and,

Ø Grown our containership fleet, mainly through Euromar (our joint venture with 2 private equity firms), since 2010 when prices have been hovering at their historical bottom

Ø As a result of our strategy, we have not been in need to raise funds, potentially at discounted valuation

Ø The cyclical nature of the shipping markets avails a well capitalized and committed investor the chance of significant returns when the cycle turns

Ø We look forward to our shareholders' continuing commitment to our strategy of creating value in a risk-managed way via their participation in the rights offering

Ø Intend to buy assets at low prices and capitalize on the cyclical recovery of the markets
