Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing

On September 15, 2009, we received a letter from The Nasdaq Stock Market ( Nasdaq ) indicating that the bid price of our common stock for the last thirty consecutive business days had closed below the minimum $1.00 per share required for continued listing under Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5450(a)(1). This notification was expected, given the reinstatement of such Nasdaq Marketplace Rule on August 3, 2009, and has no effect on the listing of our common stock at this time.

Nasdaq stated in its letter that, in accordance with Marketplace Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), we have been provided an initial period of 180 calendar days, or until March 15, 2010, to regain compliance with the minimum bid requirement. The letter also states that if at any time before March 15, 2010, the bid price of our common stock closes at $1.00 per share or more for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days, the Nasdaq staff will provide written notification that we have achieved compliance with the minimum bid requirement.

We intend to maintain the listing of our common stock on Nasdaq, and we will consider available options if our common stock does not trade at a level likely to result in compliance with Nasdaq s minimum bid price requirement by March 15, 2010. In May 2009, our stockholders approved an amendment to our certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split at a ratio of not less than one-for-ten and not more than one-for-fifty. Our board of directors has authority to select an exchange ratio within the approved range at any time prior to June 30, 2010. Our board of directors intends to effect the reverse stock split only if it determines the reverse split to be in the best interests of our stockholders. Such a reverse split would put us in compliance with the Nasdaq bid price requirement.
