Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited)

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared without audit, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations. The consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2002 was derived from audited financial statements. The accompanying consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2002.

The financial information included herein reflects all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the interim period. The results of operations for the six months ended September 30, 2002 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. Certain prior year items have been reclassified to conform to the current year's presentation. These reclassifications had no impact on previously reported net income/loss.

In order to continue its operations and meet its significant liquidity requirements, the Company must maintain profitable operations or obtain additional funds through equity or debt financing, bank financing, and other sources. Management believes that its existing cash balances, credit facilities, internally generated funds and other potential financing alternatives will be sufficient to meet the Company's capital, operating and debt service requirements for at least the next twelve months. If the Company is unable to generate adequate cash flow from sales of its products, the Company may need to seek additional sources of capital. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain additional debt or equity financing on terms acceptable to the Company, or at all. If adequate funds are not available, the Company could be required to delay development or commercialization of certain products, or reduce the marketing, customer support, or other resources devoted to product development. Accordingly, the failure of the Company to obtain sufficient funds on acceptable terms when needed could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, results of operations and financial condition.

In April 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS 145 Rescission of FAS Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of FAS 13, and Technical Corrections. SFAS 145 rescinds FASB Statement No. 4, Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt, and an amendment of that Statement, FASB Statement No. 64, Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements, as well as FASB Statement No. 44, Accounting for Intangible Assets of Motor Carriers. This Statement amends FASB Statement No. 13, Accounting for Leases, to eliminate an inconsistency between the required accounting for sale-leaseback transactions and the required accounting for certain lease modifications that have economic effects that are similar to sale-leaseback transactions. This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings, or describe their applicability under changed conditions. Generally the provisions of SFAS 145 are effective for transactions occurring after May 15, 2002. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material impact on its financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

In September 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, Accounting for Exit or Disposal Activities (SFAS 146). SFAS 146 addresses significant issues regarding the recognition, measurement, and reporting of costs that are associated with exit and disposal activities, including restructuring activities that are currently accounted for under EITF No. 94-3, Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring). The scope of SFAS 146 also includes costs related to terminating a contract that is not a capital lease and termination benefits that employees who are involuntarily terminated receive under the terms of a one-time benefit arrangement that is not an ongoing benefit arrangement or an individual deferred-compensation contract. SFAS 146 will be effective for exit or disposal activities that are initiated after December 31, 2002.

2. Inventories

Following is the detail of inventories:

	September 30, 2002 (in thousands)	March 31, 2002 (in thousands)
Raw Materials	$ 13,948	$ 13,104
Work In Progress	3,183	3,510
Finished Goods	79,324	65,972
	$96,455	$82,586

3. Derivative Instruments

The Company has foreign subsidiaries that operate and sell the Company's products in various global markets. In addition, the Company and foreign subsidiaries have Euro-denominated intercompany notes. As a result, the Company is exposed to changes in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates. The Company utilizes various hedge instruments, primarily forward contracts, to manage its exposure associated with firm intercompany and third-party transactions and net asset and liability positions denominated in non-functional currencies. The Company does not hold derivative financial instruments for speculative or trading purposes.

Forward contracts are used to hedge certain cash flows denominated in non-functional currencies. The contracts outstanding at September 30, 2002 are designated as a foreign currency fair-value hedges in accordance with SFAS No. 133. Changes in the fair value of forward contracts due to changes in time value are recognized in other income and expense. For the three and six months ended September 30, 2002, the change in time value of the forward contracts was not significant.

On December 26, 2001 and January 23, 2002, the Company transacted two foreign exchange contracts to hedge its interest expense exposure associated with the semi-annual coupon payments due September 15, 2002 and March 15, 2003, respectively, on its 205 million 11% Senior Notes. In addition, the Company has entered into other foreign exchange contracts to hedge portions of its accounts payable exposure. As of September 30, 2002, the Company has the March 15, 2003 foreign exchange contract, in addition to the other foreign exchange contracts outstanding, as described above.

Forward exchange contracts are also used to hedge certain foreign currency-denominated assets or liabilities. These derivatives do not qualify for SFAS No. 133 hedge accounting treatment. Accordingly, changes in the fair value of these hedges are recorded immediately in earnings to offset the changes in fair value of the assets or liabilities being hedged. The related gains and losses included in foreign currency gain/(loss) on the consolidated statement of operations were not significant.

Table of Contents4. Accrued Liabilities

Following is the detail of accrued liabilities:

	September 30, 2002 (in thousands)	March 31, 2002 (in thousands)
Liabilities associated with strategic initiatives	$ 3,646	$ 6,296
Other accrued liabilities	40,458	37,174
	$ 44,104	$43,470

Commencing in the third quarter of fiscal 1999, the Company implemented strategic initiatives designed to streamline manufacturing and logistics, reduce operating costs worldwide and write-off inventory SKUs that are no longer being manufactured. No special charges were recorded during the six months ended September 30, 2002 and 2001. The following table reconciles the remaining liabilities associated with the strategic initiatives from April 1, 2002 to September 30, 2002 (in thousands):

	Workforce Reductions	Facility Closures	Total
Strategic initiative liability as of April 1, 2002	$ 4,870	$1,426	$ 6,296
Fiscal 2003 six months cash utilized	(1,847)	(803)	(2,650)
	$ 3,023	$ 623	$ 3,646

The Company does not anticipate any additional special charges related to its strategic initiatives and anticipates that substantially all of the accrued liabilities will be paid in fiscal 2003 and will be funded through cash provided by operations.

5. Bank Credit Agreement

On July 26, 2001, the Company entered into a three-year $45 million secured revolving credit facility maturing on July 27, 2004, as amended by Amendment No. 1 and Waiver (Amendment) dated July 19, 2002 (as so amended, the Credit Agreement). The Credit Agreement contains a number of covenants, including, among others, covenants restricting the Company and its subsidiaries with respect to the incurrence of indebtedness, the creation of liens, the making of certain investments and loans, the payment of dividends, and the ability to enter into certain transactions with affiliates. In addition, the Credit Agreement requires the Company to maintain certain interest coverage, net worth and leverage ratios and places certain restrictions on capital expenditures. The Amendment primarily increased the Company's annual Permitted Acquisitions limit, as defined in the Credit Agreement, from $15 million to $30 million, while retaining the cumulative limit of $30 million to the maturity date. As of September 30, 2002, the Company was in compliance with all covenants. At September 30, 2002, there was no debt outstanding under this agreement and the borrowing base amounted to $45 million.

On October 29, 2002, the Company entered into a three-year $90 million secured revolving credit facility. This credit agreement replaced the $45 million Credit Agreement. The new credit agreement contains covenants substantially similar to the prior Credit Agreement.

Table of Contents6. Senior Notes

Following is the detail of Senior Notes:

	September 30, 2002 (in thousands)	March 31, 2002 (in thousands)
6 7/8% Senior Notes	$ 94,791	$ 94,771
11% Senior Notes	201,078	178,432
Total Senior Notes	$295,869	$273,203

Changes in exchange rates had a significant impact on the reported balance of the 11% Senior Notes as of September 30, 2002 since the notes are denominated in Euros. Using the exchange rates in effect at March 31, 2002, the 11% Senior Notes as of September 30, 2002 would have been the same as reported at March 31, 2002.

7. Consolidated Statement of Comprehensive Loss

Other comprehensive loss includes foreign currency translation adjustments that are not adjusted for income taxes as they relate to indefinite investments in non-U.S. subsidiaries. Following is consolidated statement of comprehensive loss for the three and six months ended September 30, 2002 and 2001 (in thousands):

Table of Contents

For the three and six months ended September 30, 2002, options to purchase approximately 1.5 million shares of common stock with exercise prices at a range of $9.26 to $38.38 per share were not included in the calculation of diluted net loss per share because the options' exercise price was greater than the average market price of the common shares. Options to purchase approximately 3.2 million shares with exercise prices at a range of $4.63 to $41.44 were outstanding as of September 30, 2001 but were not included in the computation of the diluted earnings per share for the three months ended September 2001 because to do so would be anti-dilutive for the period. For the six months ended September 30, 2001, options to purchase approximately 1.6 million shares of common stock with exercise prices at a range of $14.21 to $41.44 per share were not included in the calculation of diluted net loss per share because the options' exercise price was greater than the average market price of the common shares.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following discussion of the Company's financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with the Company's consolidated condensed financial statements and notes thereto included elsewhere herein. This discussion contains forward-looking statements that involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Our actual results may be materially different from the results we discuss in the forward-looking statements. For more information, refer to Information Relating to Forward-Looking Statements below.

Overview

We are a leading global designer, manufacturer and distributor of a broad range of plastic and glass eyeglass lenses and hold a leading manufacturing and technology position in the fast growing plastic lens segment of the global spectacle lens market. We have sales offices in 28 countries worldwide and operate in most major regions of the world. We believe that we hold a top three market position in terms of volume of plastic eyeglass lenses sold in each major region where we operate, including North America, Europe and Rest of World (consisting primarily of Australia, Asia and South America). We focus our efforts on value-added products, including products with advanced design characteristics, lens coatings and treatments and thin and light weight materials (e.g., polycarbonate). For the three months ended September 30, 2002, 75.8% of our net sales were represented by value-added products.

We market our spectacle lens products globally under the brands SOLA and American Optical (AO) and distribute them globally through four primary channels: (1) direct to national retail chains, (2) direct to retail outlets, (3) wholesale distributors (e.g., independent processing laboratories), and (4) managed care organizations in the United States, a growing segment of the spectacle lens market.

Our business is organized into three primary markets: North America, Europe and Rest of World. For the six months ended September 30, 2002, we generated approximately 45% of our net sales from North America, 36% from Europe and 19% from Rest of World.

Results of Operations

Three months ended September 30, 2002 compared to three months ended September 30, 2001

Net Sales

Our net sales were $138.5 million in the three months ended September 30, 2002 compared to net sales of $129.4 million in the same period for the prior year, an increase of $9.1 million or 7.0%. Using constant exchange rates and on a comparable basis, total net sales increased 4.4%, with North America and Europe increasing 7.2% and 3.5%, respectively, and Rest of World decreasing 0.3%. The increase in the North America region was due primarily to increased sales of value-added products, particularly polycarbonate and photochromic products. The increase in Europe also was due primarily to increased sales of our higher-margin value-added products, in particular, our progressive and polycarbonate products. Net sales in the Rest of World region decreased due to our efforts to concentrate on higher-margin value-added sales. Net sales performance by region was as follows:

North America increased by $4.1 million or 7.0%;

Europe increased by $6.2 million or 14.0%; and

Rest of World decreased by $1.2 million or 4.5%.

Using constant exchange rates and on a comparable basis the regional performances were as follows:

North America increased by 7.2%;

Europe increased by 3.5%; and

Rest of World decreased by 0.3%.

Gross Profit and Gross Margin

Our gross profit totaled $56.2 million for the three months ended September 30, 2002 compared to $51.1 million for the same period in the prior year, an increase of $5.1 million or 9.9%. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales, or gross margin, increased to 40.6% for the three months ended September 30, 2002 from 39.5% in the same period in the prior year. The increase in gross margin resulted primarily from an increase of higher margin value-added sales in North America and Europe.

Operating Expenses

Our operating expenses in the three months ended September 30, 2002 totaled $41.2 million compared to operating expenses of $41.0 million for the same period in the prior year. Operating expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2002 and 2001 as a percentage of net sales were 29.7% and 31.7%, respectively. Research and development expenses were $3.2 million or 2.3% of net sales for the three months ended September 30, 2002 and were $3.3 million or 2.6% of net sales for the three months ended September 30, 2001. Selling and marketing expenses were $26.0 million or 18.8% of net sales for the three months ended September 30, 2002 and were $25.3 million or 19.5% of net sales for the three months ended September 30, 2001. Our general and administrative expenses were $12.0 million or 8.6% of net sales for the three months ended September 30, 2002 and were $12.4 million or 9.6% of net sales for the three months ended September 30, 2001.

Net Interest Expense and Foreign Currency Gain/(Loss)

Our net interest expense totaled $7.8 million for the three months ended September 30, 2002 compared to $7.0 million for the three months ended September 30, 2001, an increase of $0.8 million. Interest expense increased due to the strengthening of the Euro against the U.S. Dollar. This increase was partially offset by the foreign currency exchange gain realized on the forward exchange contract purchased to hedge the average exchange impact on the interest payable. For the three months ended September 30, 2002, we recorded a net foreign exchange gain of $2.2 million compared to a foreign exchange loss of $9.2 million for the same period in the prior year. Foreign exchange gains on external and intercompany notes of $1.5 million were recorded in the three months ended September 30, 2002 due primarily to the strengthening of the U.S. Dollar to the Euro. Conversely, foreign exchange losses on external and intercompany notes of $10.0 million were recorded in the three months ended September 30, 2001 due primarily to the weakening of the U.S. Dollar relative to the Euro and Brazilian Real and the impact this had on our Euro-denominated external and intercompany notes.

Provision for Income Taxes

Our combined state, federal and foreign tax rate represents an effective tax rate projected for the full fiscal year 2003 of 30.0% compared to 28.0% used for the three months ended September 30, 2001. We have net deferred tax assets on our balance sheet as of September 30, 2002 amounting to $35.8 million. The utilization of these deferred tax assets is dependent upon our ability to generate taxable income in the future.

Results of Operations

Six months ended September 30, 2002 compared to six months ended September 30, 2001

Net Sales

Our net sales were $273.7 million in the six months ended September 30, 2002 compared to net sales of $265.4 million in the same period for the prior year, an increase of $8.3 million or 3.1%. Using constant exchange rates and on a comparable basis, net sales increased 1.1% with North America and Europe increasing 1.4% each and Rest of World remaining flat. The increase in the North America region was due primarily to increased sales of value-added products, particularly polycarbonate and photochromic products. The increase in Europe also was due primarily to increased sales of our higher-margin value-added products, in particular, our progressive and polycarbonate products. Net sales performance by region was as follows:

North America increased by $1.5 million or 1.3%;

Europe increased by $8.4 million or 9.2%; and

Rest of World decreased by $1.6 million or 3.1%.

Using constant exchange rates and on a comparable basis the regional performances were as follows:

North America increased by 1.4%;

Europe increased by 1.4%; and

Rest of World remained unchanged.

Gross Profit and Gross Margin

Our gross profit totaled $111.6 million for the six months ended September 30, 2002 compared to $105.9 million for the same period in the prior year, an increase of $5.7 million or 5.4%. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales, or gross margin, increased to 40.8% for the six months ended September 30, 2002 from 39.9% in the same period in the prior year. The increase in gross margin resulted primarily from improved overhead absorption due to our decision to selectively increase global inventory balances to improve customer service levels and to an increase of higher margin value-added sales in North America and Europe.

Operating Expenses

Our operating expenses in the six months ended September 30, 2002 totaled $81.6 million compared to operating expenses of $83.8 million for the same period in the prior year. Operating expenses for the six months ended September 30, 2002 and 2001 as a percentage of net sales were 29.8% and 31.6%, respectively. Research and development expenses were $6.5 million or 2.4% of net sales for the six months ended September 30, 2002 and were $6.4 million or 2.4% of net sales for the six months ended September 30, 2001. Selling and marketing expenses were $52.0 million or 19.0% of net sales for the six months ended September 30, 2002 and were $52.0 million or 19.6% of net sales for the six months ended September 30, 2001. Our general and administrative expenses were $23.1 million or 8.4% of net sales for the six months ended September 30, 2002 and were $25.4 million or 9.6% of net sales for the six months ended September 30, 2001. The $2.3 million or 9.1% decrease in general and administrative expenses was the result of lower costs associated with the consolidation of our corporate functions, as well as the consolidation of our North American commercial administrative activities into one primary location.

Net Interest Expense and Foreign Currency Gain/(Loss)

Our net interest expense totaled $15.1 million for the six months ended September 30, 2002 compared to $14.1 million for the six months ended September 30, 2001, an increase of $1.0 million. The increase was primarily due to the impact of the Euro-U.S. Dollar exchange rates between periods. For the six months ended September 30, 2002, we recorded a net foreign exchange loss of $12.7 million compared to a foreign exchange loss of $4.1 million for the same period in the prior year. Unrealized exchange losses on external and intercompany notes of $19.2 million were recorded in the first six months of fiscal 2003 due primarily to the weakening of the U.S. Dollar to the Euro. Conversely, unrealized exchange losses on external and intercompany notes of $4.5 million were recorded in the first six months of fiscal 2002 due primarily to the weakening of the U.S. Dollar relative to the Euro and strengthening of U.S. Dollar relative to the Brazilian Real and the impact this had on our Euro-denominated external and intercompany notes.

Provision for Income Taxes

Our combined state, federal and foreign tax rate represents an effective tax rate projected for the full fiscal year 2003 of 30.0% compared to 28.0% used for the six months ended September 30, 2001. We have net deferred tax assets on our balance sheet as of September 30, 2002 amounting to $35.8 million. The utilization of these deferred tax assets is dependent upon our ability to generate taxable income in the future.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our operating activities generated $10.6 million in cash in the six months ended September 30, 2002 compared to $2.8 million for the six months ended September 30, 2001. The increase resulted primarily from an improved operating performance in the six months ended September 30, 2002. The improved operating performance for the six months ended September 30, 2002 was primarily due to increased gross profits resulting from improved overhead absorption due to our decision to selectively increase global inventory balances to improve customer service levels and to an increase of higher margin value-added sales in North America and Europe.

Our inventories as a percentage of annualized net sales for the six months ended September 30, 2002 and 2001 were 17.4% and 19.2%, respectively. Inventories at September 30, 2002 increased by $13.9 million when compared to the previous year end at March 31, 2002. This increase was due to our decision to selectively increase global inventory balances to improve customer service levels. Accounts receivable as a percentage of annualized net sales for the six months ended September 30, 2002 increased to 21.0% compared to 20.4% for the same period a year ago. Accounts receivable at September 30, 2002 increased by $1.5 million when compared to the previous year end at March 31, 2002 due primarily to the impact of exchange rates and additions resulting from the laboratory acquisitions.

During the six months ended September 30, 2002, net cash expended on investing activities amounted to $27.4 million. This amount included the acquisition of certain assets of two optical laboratories, B&W Optical Co. Inc., located in Baltimore, Maryland, and Southeastern Optical Inc., located in Roanoke, Virginia, in addition to the acquisition of the net assets of Optical Electroforming, Inc., a fabricator of polycarbonate molds and inserts, and Alice Thomsen Trading A/S, a Scandinavian distributor. The Company also incurred $9.2 million of capital expenditures and $1.2 million related to investments in molds. Net cash expended on investing activities in the six months ended September 30, 2001 amounted to $8.3 million and included $6.7 million of capital expenditures and $3.1 million related to investments in molds. We anticipate capital expenditures, including molds, of approximately $20-$25 million in fiscal year 2003.

During the six months ended September 30, 2001, our net cash provided by financing activities amounted to $34.6 million primarily as a result of the net impact of our issuance of 11% Senior Notes, the proceeds of which were used to repay our credit facility. Interest on the 11% Senior Notes is payable semi-annually on each September 15 and March 15.

In addition to our outstanding 6 7/8% Senior Notes and 11% Senior Notes, our foreign subsidiaries maintain local credit facilities to provide credit for overdraft, working capital and some fixed asset investment purposes. As of September 30, 2002, the total borrowing capacity available to our foreign subsidiaries under these local facilities was approximately $13.6 million, of which $0.2 million had been utilized. As of September 30, 2002, the Company was in compliance with all covenants.

On July 26, 2001, we entered into a three-year $45 million secured revolving credit facility maturing on July 27, 2004, as amended by Amendment No. 1 and Waiver (Amendment) dated July 19, 2002 (as so amended, the Credit Agreement). The Credit Agreement contains a number of covenants, including, among others, covenants restricting us and our subsidiaries with respect to the incurrence of indebtedness, the creation of liens, the making of certain investments and loans, the payment of dividends, and our ability to enter into certain transactions with affiliates. In addition, the Credit Agreement requires us to maintain certain interest coverage, net worth and leverage ratios and places certain restrictions on capital expenditures. The Amendment primarily increased the Company s annual Permitted Acquisitions limit, as defined in the Credit Agreement, from $15 million to $30 million, while retaining the cumulative limit of $30 million to the maturity date. As of September 30, 2002, there was no debt outstanding under this agreement and the borrowing base amounted to $45 million.

On October 29, 2002, the Company entered into a three-year $90 million secured revolving credit facility. This credit agreement replaced the $45 million Credit Agreement. The new credit agreement contains covenants substantially similar to the prior Credit Agreement.

In order to continue our operations and meet our significant liquidity requirements, we must maintain profitable operations or obtain additional funds through equity or debt financing, bank financing, and other sources. We believe that our existing cash balances, credit facilities, internally generated funds and other potential financing alternatives will be sufficient to meet our capital, operating and debt service requirements for at least the next twelve months. If we are unable to generate adequate cash flow from sales of our products, we may need to seek additional sources of capital. There can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain additional debt or equity financing on terms acceptable to us, or at all. If adequate funds are not available, we could be required to delay development or commercialization of certain products, or reduce the marketing, customer support, or other resources devoted to product development. Accordingly, failure to obtain sufficient funds on acceptable terms when needed could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Impact of Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In April 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS 145 Rescission of FAS Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of FAS 13, and Technical Corrections. SFAS 145 rescinds FASB Statement No. 4, Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt, and an amendment of that Statement, FASB Statement No. 64, Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements, as well as FASB Statement No. 44, Accounting for Intangible Assets of Motor Carriers. This Statement amends FASB Statement No. 13, Accounting for Leases, to eliminate an inconsistency between the required accounting for sale-leaseback transactions and the required accounting for certain lease modifications that have economic effects that are similar to sale-leaseback transactions. This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings, or describe their applicability under changed conditions. Generally the provisions of SFAS 145 are effective for transactions occurring after May 15, 2002. We do not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material impact on our financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

In September 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, Accounting for Exit or Disposal Activities (SFAS 146). SFAS 146 addresses significant issues regarding the recognition, measurement, and reporting of costs that are associated with exit and disposal activities, including restructuring activities that are currently accounted for under EITF No. 94-3, Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring). The scope of SFAS 146 also includes costs related to terminating a contract that is not a capital lease and termination benefits that employees who are involuntarily terminated receive under the terms of a one-time benefit arrangement that is not an ongoing benefit arrangement or an individual deferred-compensation contract. SFAS 146 will be effective for exit or disposal activities that are initiated after December 31, 2002.

Currency Exchange Rates

As a result of our worldwide operations, currency exchange rate fluctuations tend to affect our results of operations and financial position. The principal effect of currency exchange rates on our results of operations and financial position is the impact on our Euro-denominated debt and translation adjustments for subsidiaries where the local currency is the functional currency. Translation adjustments for functional local currencies have been recorded in other comprehensive income.

Certain countries have been determined to be hyperinflationary in fiscal 2002 as defined under the provisions of Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) Issue No. D-55, Determining a Highly Inflationary Economy under FASB Statement No. 52 and EITF Issue No. D-56, Accounting for a Change in Functional Currency and Deferred Taxes When an Economy Becomes Highly Inflationary. Accordingly, the results of our entities located in those countries are being accounted for in accordance with the provisions of these pronouncements.

Because a portion of our debt and associated interest is non-U.S. Dollar denominated, we may hedge against certain currency fluctuations by entering into currency swaps or forward contracts. On December 26, 2001 and January 23, 2002, we transacted two foreign exchange contracts to hedge our interest expense exposure associated with the semi-annual coupon payments due September 15, 2002 and March 15, 2003, respectively, on our 205 million 11% Senior Notes. In addition, we have entered into other foreign exchange contracts to hedge portions of our accounts payable exposure. As of September 30, 2002, we have the March 15, 2003 foreign exchange contract, in addition to the other foreign exchange contracts outstanding, as described above. We do not hold derivative financial instruments for speculative or trading purposes.

Seasonality

Our business is somewhat seasonal, with fiscal third quarter results generally weaker than the other three quarters as a result of lower sales during the holiday season, and fiscal fourth quarter results generally the strongest.

Inflation

Inflation continues to affect the cost of the goods and services that we use. The competitive environment in many markets limits our ability to recover higher costs through increased selling prices, and we are subject to price erosion in many of our standard product lines. We seek to mitigate the adverse effects of inflation through cost containment and productivity and manufacturing process improvements. For a description of the effects of inflation on our reported revenues and profits and the measures taken by us in response to inflationary conditions, see Currency Exchange Rates above.

Information Relating to Forward-Looking Statements

This quarterly report, including Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements, contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including statements regarding among other items, the impact of inflation and future income tax rates and capital expenditures. These forward-looking statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and financial performance. The words may, will, could, would, believe, expect, anticipate and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of their dates. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Actual results could differ materially from the forward-looking statements as a result of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, including those described in the Risk Factors and Business-Environmental Matters sections of our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2002.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market RiskQuantitative Disclosures

We are exposed to market risks inherent in our operations, primarily related to interest rate risk and currency risk. These risks arise from transactions and operations entered into in the normal course of business.

Interest Rate Risk. We are subject to interest rate risk on our existing long-term debt and any future financing requirements. During the first six months of fiscal 2003, fixed rate debt consisted primarily of outstanding balances on Senior Notes.

The following table presents the future principal cash flows and weighted average interest rates expected on our existing long-term debt instruments. Fair values have been determined based on quoted market prices as of September 30, 2002:

	Expected Maturity Date (as of September 30, 2002)
	Fiscal 2003	Fiscal 2004	Fiscal 2005	Fiscal 2006	Fiscal 2007	Thereafter	Total	Fair Value

Long-term debt:
Fixed rate debt	$ 3,526	$ 1,992	$ 1,125	$ 1,141	$ 814	$ 296,492	$ 305,090	$ 288,310
Weighted average interest rate	6.73%	6.45%	5.94%	5.86%	3.33%	9.64%	9.54%
Long-term debt:
Variable rate debt	$ 553	$ 483	$ 465	$ 438	$ 103	$ 27	$ 2,069	$ 2,069
Weighted average interest rate	4.33%	4.32%	4.31%	4.29%	3.83%	1.25%	4.25%

Currency Rate Risk. We are exposed to currency exchange rate fluctuations on our 205 million 11% Senior Notes, due 2008. At September 30, 2002, we had outstanding one forward exchange contract to hedge our interest expense exposure associated with the semi-annual coupon payments due March 15, 2003 on our 205 million 11% Senior Notes. Our subsidiaries primarily operate in foreign markets and predominantly have their local currencies as their functional currencies. These subsidiaries do not have third party borrowings in currencies other than their local currencies. Accordingly, there are no quantitative disclosures related to borrowings by our subsidiaries.

Table of Contents

The following table presents the future principal cash flows and weighted average interest rates expected on the 205 million 11% Senior Notes, due 2008, as well as the contract amount and weighted average settlement price of the outstanding forward exchange contracts. Fair values have been determined based on quoted market prices as of September 30, 2002:

Qualitative Disclosures

Interest Rate Risk. Our primary interest rate risk exposures relate to:

Our ability to pay or refinance long-term borrowings at maturity at market rates;

The impact of interest rate movements on our ability to meet interest expense requirements and financial covenants; and

The impact of interest rate movements on our ability to obtain adequate financing to fund future operations or business acquisitions.

We manage interest rate risk on our outstanding long-term borrowings through the use of fixed rate debt. While we cannot predict our ability to refinance existing debt, or the impact interest rate movements might have on existing debt, we evaluate our financial position on an ongoing basis. Because the majority of our debt is fixed rate in nature, an increase of 10% in interest rates would not materially increase our interest expense for the next 12 months.

Currency Rate Risk. Our primary currency rate risk exposures relate to:

Our global operations, whereby approximately 58% of our revenues are derived from operations outside the United States, denominated in currencies other than the U.S. Dollar;

The ability of our operations to satisfy cash flow requirements of predominantly Euro and U.S. Dollar denominated long-term debt without the need to repatriate earnings and profits, which are denominated in currencies other than the Euro and U.S. Dollar;

Our investments in foreign subsidiaries being primarily directly from the U.S. parent, resulting in U.S. Dollar investments in foreign currency functional companies; and

The location of our operating subsidiaries in a number of countries that have seen significant exchange rate changes against the U.S. Dollar, primarily downward in recent years, such as Brazil, Mexico, Venezuela and certain Asian countries.

We manage our currency rate risks through a variety of measures. In certain limited instances, subsidiaries, after obtaining approval from our head office, will enter into forward exchange contracts in connection with inter-company purchases and sales of products. These contracts do not extend longer than one year and are immaterial to the overall operations of the group. Subsidiaries operating in high inflation environments protect margins by methods that include increasing prices monthly at a rate appropriate to cover anticipated inflation, compounding interest charges on sales invoices daily and holding cash balances in U.S. dollar denominated accounts where possible. We disclose constant exchange rate net sales performances in the aggregate, as well as by region, in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations. For more information, see Currency Exchange Rates above.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

During the 90-day period prior to the filing date of this report, management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer, evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures. Based upon, and as of the date of that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the disclosure controls and procedures were effective, in all material respects, to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports the Company files and submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported as and when required.

There have been no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date the Company carried out its evaluation. There were no significant deficiencies or material weaknesses identified in the evaluation and therefore, no corrective actions were taken.
