Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 12, 2012, Darden Restaurants, Inc., a Florida corporation (the “Company”), and its newly formed and indirect wholly owned subsidiary, Stout Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation (“Merger Sub”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Yard House USA, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Yard House”), and TSG5 L.P., a Delaware limited partnership, and certain other stockholders of Yard House (the “Party Stockholders”). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Yard House (the “Merger”), with Yard House continuing after the Merger as the surviving corporation and as an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. The aggregate consideration payable to Yard House's security holders in connection with the Merger is $585 million in cash and without interest, less Yard House's debt and transaction expenses outstanding at the closing.

The Company, Yard House and each Party Stockholder have made customary representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement. Yard House has also agreed to various covenants, including, among others things and subject to certain exceptions, (i) to conduct its business in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the Merger and not to engage in certain transactions during such period, and (ii) after Yard House's stockholders have adopted the Merger Agreement, not to solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage alternative transactions. The Party Stockholders, who collectively own a majority of Yard House's outstanding common stock, have adopted the Merger Agreement.

The completion of the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including, among others, (i) the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (ii) subject to certain materiality exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties made by the Company, Yard House and each Party Stockholder, respectively, (iii) compliance in all material respects by the Company, Yard House and each Party Stockholder with their respective obligations under the Merger Agreement and (iv) the absence of any change or effect that, individually or in the aggregate, has had a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement).

The Merger is expected to be completed early in the Company's fiscal second quarter.

The foregoing description of certain terms of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement has been included solely to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, Yard House or Merger Sub. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and as of specific dates; were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement; may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement; and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors or security holders. Investors and security holders should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, Yard House or Merger Sub or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures.
