Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(e) On May 2, 2013, in response to concerns raised by a shareholder advisory service, El Paso Electric Company (the “Company”) and Mr. Thomas V. Shockley, III, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer, entered into an amendment to Mr. Shockley’s employment agreement. Pursuant to the amendment, Mr. Shockley will only be eligible for severance benefits in connection with a change of control if, upon or following the change of control, Mr. Shockley’s employment is terminated by the Company without “Cause” or by Mr. Shockley for “Good Reason.” “Cause” is defined to include the willful failure of Mr. Shockley to perform his duties under the agreement or engaging in illegal conduct or misconduct that is materially injurious to the Company. “Good Reason” is defined to include (i) Mr. Shockley not being Chief Executive Officer of the acquiring or combined company or being required to report to a corporate officer or employee instead of reporting directly to the Board of Directors of the acquiring or combined company; (ii) any failure by the Company to comply with the terms of the agreement; (iii) a requirement that Mr. Shockley be based at any office or location located more than 50 miles from the Company’s office or location in effect prior to the change of control; and (iv) any failure of a successor to the Company to assume the agreement. The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by the text of the amendment, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated by reference herein.
