Proxy Monitor Says Ranger's Nominees Will Bring a "Welcome Breath Of Fresh Air" to the CA Board

Dallas, TX, August 17, 2001 - Ranger Governance, Ltd. today announced that Proxy Monitor, a leading independent proxy advisory firm, has recommended to its clients that Computer Associates (NYSE: CA) shareholders vote for the Ranger Governance director nominees to the CA Board of Directors at the annual meeting of CA shareholders on Wednesday, August 29, 2001.

Proxy Monitor is widely recognized as a leading independent proxy advisory firm. Many institutional investment firms, mutual funds, and other fiduciaries throughout the country rely upon its recommendations and research.

In reaching its decision to recommend the four Ranger Governance nominees - Cece Smith, Elizabeth VanStory, Richard Agnich and Stephen Perkins - Proxy Monitor noted in its August 17, 2001 report that:

"[W]e believe that replacing Mr. Wang and three other incumbent directors with a minority of Ranger nominees would bring a welcome breath of fresh air to the board. Whatever its past glories, Computer Associates clearly seems to be a company in need of new direction."*

"Ranger has pledged efforts to submit the company's shareholder rights plan to shareholders for their approval, to make CA a model of 'exemplary corporate governance practices' and to grow the company in a difficult business environment."*

"It's an ambitious undertaking, but we think its four nominees should be given a chance to reinvigorate the company."*

Ranger nominee Steve Perkins said, "We are very pleased that Proxy Monitor has recommended in favor of the Ranger nominees. We believe this endorsement of our goals, which have remained unchanged since the beginning of this process, signals that investors and governance experts recognize the need for change at CA. The Ranger nominees are confident that we can work within the CA framework to implement the changes necessary to get CA growing and ensure the Company's board and managers are accountable to employees, customers and shareholders."
