THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK
DISMISSED THE COMPLAINT OF THE SELLERS OF THE FORMER BANCO DE COLOMBIA
AGAINST BANCOLOMBIA AND SOME OF ITS OFFICERS

MEDELLIN, COLOMBIA, MARCH 1, 2007

In a ruling dated February 28, 2007, Judge Jed S. Rakoff of the United States Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Court") dismissed the complaint of the sellers of the former Banco de Colombia against Bancolombia S.A. ("Bancolombia"), its President Joge Londono Saldarriaga, and some of the officers that were members of the Board of Directors of Bancolombia at the time of the acquisition and merger.

The lawsuit, which had been initiated on March 24, 1999, was suspended by the Court on September 28, 1999, while was pending the resolution of the case before an arbitral tribunal in Colombia, according to the parties' agreement under the Promise of Sale Agreement, dated August 24, 1997.

The Court based its ruling on the principle of res judicata. The Court considered that the award of the Colombian arbitral tribunal, dated May 16, 2006, decided on the same claims filed before the Court in New York and, therefore, put an end to the proceedings in New York.

The Court considered that the arbitral tribunal had decided on the merits of all the claims, and rejected the liability of Bancolombia and its managers.

The Court noted that the arbitral tribunal rejected the main three allegations of the plaintiffs. The arbitral tribunal found that (i) Bancolombia had not manipulated the price of ADRs on the New York Stock Exchange; (ii) the failure to raise U.S. $150 million was neither a breach of an express contractual obligation nor unlawful, fraudulent or willful misconduct; and (iii) neither Bancolombia nor its managers did engage in transactions or conduct in violation of Colombian law and sound banking practices. However, the arbitral tribunal found that Bancolombia had breached certain secondary duties of conduct.

It is important to note that the arbitral tribunal that reached the aforementioned conclusions reviewed all the evidence that is part of the criminal investigation against some Bancolombia's officers, including the evidence recently referred to in the decision of the Constitutional Court.

We stress the importance of the decision of the New York Court, which agreed with Bancolombia's arguments based on the principle of res judicata as an indispensable guaranty of the rule of law.
