Vale signs MOU for hydroelectric power plant public auction

Rio de Janeiro, February 22, 2010 Vale S.A. (Vale) informs that it signed a memorandum of understanding (MOU) with Andrade Gutierrez Participações S.A., Neoenergia Investimentos S.A. and Votorantim Energia Ltda., to form a consortium to participate in the public auction and bidding process of the hydroelectric power plant of Belo Monte, located in the Brazilian state of Pará.

According to the MOU, Vale and its partners intend to develop studies to determine the attractiveness of the project, assess the conditions for participation in the process, and after these steps, formalize definitive legal instruments that allow their joint entry in the auction.

This press release may include declarations about Vale's expectations regarding future events or results. All declarations based upon future expectations, rather than historical facts, are subject to various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such declarations will prove to be correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where Vale operates, mainly Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) capital markets; (d) the mining and metals businesses and their dependence upon global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) the high degree of global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may give rise to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including Vale's most recent Annual Report on Form 20-F and its reports on Form 6-K.
