Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On April 25, 2010, Stifel Financial Corp., a Delaware corporation (Stifel), PTAS, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Stifel (Merger Sub), and Thomas Weisel Partners Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Thomas Weisel Partners) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement provides that Stifel will acquire all of the outstanding shares of Thomas Weisel Partners common stock in a stock-for-stock merger (the Merger) using a fixed exchange ratio of 0.1364 shares of Stifel common stock for each share of Thomas Weisel Partners common stock. The Merger Agreement provides that at the effective time of the Merger, Merger Sub will merge with and into Thomas Weisel Partners, with Thomas Weisel Partners continuing as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Stifel.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each outstanding Thomas Weisel Partners restricted stock unit and will be converted into the right to receive 0.1364 shares of Stifel common stock in accordance with the existing vesting schedule and other terms thereof. Further, each outstanding Thomas Weisel Partners stock option will be converted into the right to acquire 0.1364 shares of Stifel common stock, subject to appropriate adjustment to the exercise price therefor. In addition, each exchangeable share of TWP Acquisition Company (Canada), Inc., a corporation organized under the Ontario Business Corporations Act, and a subsidiary Thomas Weisel Partner s (TWP Canada), which are presently each exchangeable at any time for one share of Thomas Weisel Partners common stock, are expected to remain outstanding following the Merger and become exchangeable for 0.1364 shares of Stifel common stock. Following the closing of the Merger, such exchangeable shares will vote with Stifel s common stockholders as a single class on all matters voted on by holders of Stifel common stock and will be entitled to 0.1364 votes per share.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants, including, amount other things, covenants that, subject to certain exceptions: (i) Thomas Weisel Partners will conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice until the earlier of the effective time of the Merger and termination of the Merger Agreement, (ii) Stifel and Thomas Weisel Partners will each use its reasonable best efforts to take all actions necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws and regulations to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and (iii) Thomas Weisel Partners will not solicit, initiate or knowingly take any action that it knows or reasonably should know would facilitate or encourage the submission of any alternative acquisition proposal.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to various conditions, including: (i) adoption of the Merger Agreement by Thomas Weisel Partners stockholders in accordance with Delaware law, (ii) the absence of any applicable law that prohibits, makes the Merger illegal or enjoins the consummation of the Merger, (iii) the joint Registration Statement and Proxy Statement on Form S-4 (the S-4) having been declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), and (iv) the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act relating to the Merger having expired or been terminated and certain other regulatory approvals have been obtained.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both of Stifel and Thomas Weisel Partners, including the right of Thomas Weisel Partners to terminate the Merger Agreement in order to enter into an alternative business combination that constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement), but only if Stifel does not make a counter offer that is at least as favorable as any such superior proposal within four days. The Merger Agreement further provides that, under specified circumstances, Thomas Weisel Partners may be required to pay Stifel a termination fee of $10 million.

The foregoing description of the Merger and the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated by reference into this report.

Voting Agreements

As a condition to Stifel entering into the Merger Agreement, certain executive officers of Thomas Weisel Partners entered into a voting agreement with Stifel (each, a Voting Agreement), in each case with respect to all of the shares of Thomas Weisel Partners common stock and exchangeable shares of TWP Canada beneficially owned by such stockholders (collectively, the Voting Agreement Shares). The stockholders party to the voting agreements own approximately 16.5% of the voting power of shares entitled to vote on the Merger and have agreed to take the following actions, among others: (1) vote all Voting Agreement Shares in favor of the Merger; and (2) vote the Voting Agreement Shares against any action, transaction or agreement that would result in a breach in respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of Thomas Weisel Partners under the Merger Agreement or the Voting Agreement.

A copy of the Form of Voting Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description of the Voting Agreements is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Form of Voting Agreement.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K that relate to Stifel's or Thomas Weisel Partners' future plans, objectives, expectations, performance, events and the like may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Future events, risks and uncertainties, individually or in the aggregate, could cause our actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in these forward-looking statements. The material factors and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations include, without limitation, the following: (1) the inability to close the merger in a timely manner; (2) the inability to complete the merger due to the failure to obtain stockholder approval and adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger or the failure to satisfy other conditions to completion of the merger, including required regulatory and court approvals; (3) the failure of the transaction to close for any other reason; (4) the possibility that the integration of Thomas Weisel Partners' business and operations with those of Stifel may be more difficult and/or take longer than anticipated, may be more costly than anticipated and may have unanticipated adverse results relating to Thomas Weisel Partners' or Stifel's existing businesses; (5) the challenges of integrating and retaining key employees; (6) the effect of the announcement of the transaction on Stifel's, Thomas Weisel Partners' or the combined company's respective business relationships, operating results and business generally; (7) the possibility that the anticipated synergies and cost savings of the merger will not be realized, or will not be realized within the expected time period; (8) the possibility that the merger may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events; (9) the challenges of maintaining and increasing revenues on a combined company basis following the close of the merger; (10) diversion of management's attention from ongoing business concerns; (11) general competitive, economic, political and market conditions and fluctuations; (12) actions taken or conditions imposed by the United States and foreign governments; (13) adverse outcomes of pending or threatened litigation or government investigations; (14) the impact of competition in the industries and in the specific markets in which Stifel and Thomas Weisel Partners, respectively, operate; and (15) other factors that may affect future results of the combined company described in the section entitled "Risk Factors" in the proxy statement/prospectus to be mailed to Thomas Weisel Partners' shareholders and in Stifel's and Thomas Weisel Partners' respective filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") that are available on the SEC's web site located at <http://www.sec.gov>, including the sections entitled "Risk Factors" in Stifel's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, and "Risk Factors" in Thomas Weisel Partners' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009. Readers are strongly urged to read the full cautionary statements contained in those materials. We assume no obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect events that occur or circumstances that exist after the date on which they were made.
