Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 21, 2010, Harris Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Harris), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 21, 2010 (the Merger Agreement), with CapRock Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), Canyon Merger Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Harris (Merger Sub), and, solely for purposes of Sections 7.11, 9.1 and 9.8 of the Merger Agreement, certain holders of the issued and outstanding equity securities of the Company (collectively, the Major Stockholders) and, for purposes of the provisions of the Merger Agreement that apply to the Stockholder Representative (as defined in the Merger Agreement), ABRY Partners V, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the Stockholder Representative). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Harris has agreed to acquire the Company and its subsidiaries, including CapRock Communications, Inc. (collectively, CapRock), on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, as briefly described below. CapRock is a global provider of mission-critical managed satellite communications solutions for the energy, government and maritime industries and provides its customers with secure, highly-reliable managed communication services including broadband Internet access, voice over IP, networking and real-time video delivered to harsh and remote locations around the world.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, at the closing Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company, with the Company being the surviving corporation and becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of Harris (the Merger). Harris will pay a purchase price for CapRock of an aggregate amount in cash equal to $525 million in the Merger, which will be distributed to the holder of warrants to purchase shares of Class A Common Stock of the Company (the Warrants) and holders of the issued and outstanding equity securities of the Company, net of CapRock's indebtedness and unpaid transaction expenses and tax liability as of Closing (as defined below), but plus CapRock's cash and cash equivalents as of Closing, and subject to certain further customary post-closing upward or downward adjustments as set forth in the Merger Agreement (the Merger Consideration).

The Major Stockholders who executed the Merger Agreement collectively own approximately 84% of the issued and outstanding equity securities of the Company, and by executing the Merger Agreement each of the Major Stockholders granted an irrevocable proxy to Harris with the express power to execute and deliver on behalf of the Major Stockholders a written consent with respect to all the issued and outstanding equity securities of the Company owned of record by the Major Stockholders in favor of adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger (the Written Consent). Following execution of the Merger Agreement, Harris delivered the Written Consent to the Company. No additional approval of any holders of equity securities of the Company is required for the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains customary conditions to the respective obligations of Harris and Merger Sub, on one hand, and of the Company, on the other hand, to close the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (the Closing), including: (1) the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and under any applicable foreign antitrust law, and the making or receipt of any required filings, consents or approvals required under any applicable foreign antitrust laws, (2) the receipt of approval from each of the Federal Communications Commission, Anatel of Brazil and, if required, the Ministry of Communication and Information of Indonesia or Directorate General of Post and Telecommunications of Indonesia, in each case, for the transfer of control of the Company and its subsidiaries holding licenses subject to each such governmental entity's respective jurisdiction, (3) the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Company, in the case of Harris and Merger Sub's respective obligations to close, and of Harris and Merger Sub, in the case of the Company's obligation to close, in each case subject to customary materiality exceptions and (4) the performance in all material respects by the Company, in the case of Harris and Merger Sub's respective obligations to close, and by Harris and Merger Sub, in the case of the Company's obligation to close, in each case of its or their respective obligations under the Merger Agreement. In addition, it is a condition to Harris and Merger Sub's respective obligations to close that the holder of the Warrants and holders of equity securities of the Company who, together with the holder of the Warrants, are entitled to receive not less than 95% of the Merger Consideration, deliver certificates representing such Warrants and equity securities, as well as agreements (in the case of holders other than the Major Stockholders) to be bound by the Merger Agreement, to Harris or the Stockholder Representative on behalf of Harris.

Harris, Merger Sub, the Major Stockholders and the Company each have made, as the case may be, customary representations, warranties, covenants and/or indemnities in the Merger Agreement including, among others, covenants that (i) prior to the Closing, subject to certain exceptions, the Company will operate its business in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice; and (ii) each of the parties will use commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all appropriate action, and do, or cause to be done, all things necessary under applicable laws or otherwise to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement as promptly as practicable, including using its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all necessary consents and approvals of governmental entities.

The Closing is expected to occur during the first quarter of Harris' fiscal 2011. However, there can be no assurances that the closing conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement will be satisfied or waived or that the Closing will occur, either during the first quarter of Harris' fiscal 2011 or at all.

In connection with the Merger Agreement, CapRock's Chief Executive Officer and certain of its other senior management entered into new employment arrangements with Harris and/or the Company, effective contingent upon the Closing. No material relationship exists between Harris or its affiliates and any of the other parties to the Merger Agreement, other than in respect of the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated herein by reference. In addition, the representations, warranties and covenants made in the Merger Agreement by Harris, Merger Sub, the Major Stockholders and the Company are qualified by and subject to important exceptions and other limitations agreed to by the parties to the Merger Agreement in connection with negotiating the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement. In particular, it is important to bear in mind that the representations and warranties were negotiated with the principal purposes of establishing the circumstances in which Harris and Merger Sub, on one hand, and the Company, on the other hand, may have the right not to close the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement if the representations and warranties of the Company, in the case of Harris and Merger Sub, or of Harris and Merger Sub, in the case of the Company, prove not to be true and correct due to a change in circumstance or otherwise, and otherwise allocating risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement, rather than establishing the matters covered as facts. The representations and warranties may also be subject to a contractual standard of materiality very different from those generally applicable to disclosure requirements under the federal securities laws, including for reports and documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and in many cases were qualified by disclosures that were made by the applicable party, which disclosures are not set forth in the body of the Merger Agreement. Also, the representations and warranties do not purport to be accurate as of the date of filing of this Form 8-K, and the subject matter thereof may have changed since the date of the Merger Agreement, and any subsequent developments or new information affecting or relating to any of such representations or warranties may not have been described in this Form 8-K. Furthermore, any factual disclosures in the Merger Agreement or this Form 8-K may be supplemented, updated or modified by disclosures contained in, and should be considered in conjunction with, reports and other matters Harris files with, or furnishes to, the SEC or otherwise publicly discloses.
