ACI WORLDWIDE AND S1 CORPORATION RECEIVE REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FROM U.S. DOJ REGARDING PROPOSED ACQUISITION OF S1 CORPORATION

NEW YORK and NORCROSS, Ga., October 28, 2011 ACI Worldwide, Inc. (Nasdaq: ACIW) and S1 Corporation (Nasdaq: SONE) announced today that they have each received a request for additional information from the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) relating to ACI 's proposed acquisition of S1. The request was under notification requirements of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (the HSR Act). The effect of the request is to extend the waiting period imposed by the HSR Act until 30 days after ACI has substantially complied with the request, unless voluntarily extended or terminated sooner by the DOJ. The request is focused on the card payments business. In 2010, S1 's card payments business generated approximately $11.9 million of revenue in the United States. ACI and S1 are in the process of gathering information responsive to the request and intend to continue to cooperate with the DOJ in an effort to obtain antitrust regulatory clearance for the proposed acquisition as expeditiously as possible.

As previously announced on October 3, 2011, ACI has agreed to acquire S1 for approximately $360 million in cash and 5.8 million ACI shares. Under the terms of the transaction, S1 stockholders can elect to receive $10.00 in cash or 0.3148 shares of ACI stock for each S1 share they own, subject to proration, such that in the aggregate 33.8% of S1 shares are exchanged for ACI shares and 66.2% are exchanged for cash.

Wells Fargo Securities is serving as financial advisor to ACI, and Jones Day is serving as its legal advisor. Raymond James & Associates Inc. is serving as financial advisor to S1, and Hogan Lovells US LLP is serving as its legal advisor.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements based on current expectations that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. All opinions, forecasts, projections, future plans or other statements, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements and include words or phrases such as believes, will, expects, anticipates, intends, estimates, our view, we see, would and words and phrases of similar import. The safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 do not apply to any forward-looking statements made in connection with an exchange offer.

ACI and S1 can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to have been correct. Actual results could differ materially as a result of a variety of risks and uncertainties, many of which are outside of the control of the companies' respective management. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the following: (1) that a transaction with S1 may not be completed on a timely basis, (2) negative effects on ACI's business or S1's business resulting from the pendency of the proposed transaction, (3) that ACI may not achieve the synergies and other expected benefits within the expected time or in the amounts we anticipate, (4) that ACI may not be able to promptly and effectively integrate the merged businesses, and (5) that ACI may be required to divest assets in order to obtain regulatory approvals. Other factors that could materially affect ACI's and S1's business and actual results of operations are discussed in their respective Annual Reports on Form 10-K and ACI's registration statement on Form S-4 as well as other filings with the SEC available at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.
