This Supplement to Information Statement updates the Information Statement provided to holders of Common Stock of Centex Corporation (Centex) in connection with the distribution (the Distribution) by Centex of warrants (the Stockholder Warrants) to purchase Class B Units of limited partnership interest in Centex Development Company, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the Partnership), and shares (the Holding Stock) of Common Stock of 3333 Holding Corporation, a Nevada corporation (Holding), to a nominee (the Nominee), who will hold the Stockholder Warrants and the Holding Stock for and on behalf of persons who are from time to time the holders of record of Common Stock of Centex. The Partnership is engaged in the real estate development business and 3333 Development Corporation, a Nevada corporation (Development), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holding, is the general partner of the Partnership. This Supplement to Information Statement is being provided to update the information contained in the Information Statement in connection with transactions and changes that have occurred since the original Information Statement was provided to Centex Stockholders, as such transactions and changes have been disclosed on the Partnership s quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and annual reports on Form 10-K filed prior to the date hereof.

Capitalized terms used herein, but not otherwise defined, have the meanings given them in the Information Statement.

Transactions Following the Distribution

In February 1998, the Partnership Agreement of the Partnership was amended and restated to (a) convert the 1,000 Class A Units outstanding to 32,260.085 new Class A Units, (b) authorize the issuance of Class C Units of limited partnership interest (the Class C Units), with substantially the same rights and preferences as Class A Units, to be issued from time to time in exchange for assets acquired from a limited partner or from an individual or entity who is to be admitted as a limited partner, (c) clarify that Operating Partnerships used to develop and/or hold Original Properties and Additional Properties may be in the form of general or limited partnerships, limited liability companies and other entities, and may be acquired, in whole or in part, by the Partnership (instead of merely being formed by the Partnership) and (d) make other changes deemed necessary or appropriate by the General Partner and the Limited Partners. The amended and restated Partnership Agreement is referred to herein as the Partnership Agreement. The Partnership Agreement has previously been filed as an exhibit to the Joint

The Information Statement provided that unless Centex has earlier effected a Detachment (as hereinafter defined) of all of the Stockholder Warrants, the Nominee Agreement shall terminate with respect to the Stockholder Warrants, and certificates representing the Stockholder Warrants will be delivered to Centex Stockholders promptly thereafter, on November 30, 1997 (the Expiration Date), unless such date is extended by the vote of the holders of a majority of Centex Common Stock represented at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Pursuant to a vote of the holders of a majority of Centex Common Stock on July 27, 1995, the Expiration Date was extended to November 30, 2007.

Description of Partnership Securities General

The Partnership Agreement presently contemplates the issuance of three classes of limited partnership interests Class A Units, Class B Units and Class C Units. Subject to certain limitations contained in the Partnership Agreement, the General Partner has the authority to issue additional classes of limited partnership interests in the Partnership.

As of June 30, 2001, there were 32,260.085 Class A Units and 185,711 Class C Units issued and outstanding, all of which are owned by Centex affiliates. There are no Class B Units currently issued or outstanding. However, warrants to purchase Class B Units were issued to the Nominee, on behalf of the holders of Centex Common Stock, pursuant to the Stockholder Warrant Agreement and to Centex pursuant to the Centex Class B Unit Warrant Agreement.

The Class A Units, the Class B Units, the Class C Units and the other units of limited partnership interest issuable pursuant to the Partnership Agreement are collectively referred to herein as LP Units . Each holder of an LP Unit is referred to herein as a Limited Partner and each Partner of the Partnership (whether general or limited) is referred to herein as a Partner . The following summary description of the rights and benefits of the LP Units and the Stockholder Warrants is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Partnership Agreement and the related Stockholder

Warrant Agreement and Centex Class B Warrant Agreement, as applicable.

Description of Partnership Securities Class A Units

In 1987, the Partnership issued 1,000 Class A Units to the Original Limited Partners in exchange for their contribution to the Partnership of the Original Properties. In February 1998, the 1,000 Class A Units outstanding were converted to 32,260.085 new Class A Units. As of

Pursuant to the Nominee Agreement, the Nominee holds legal title to the Stockholder Warrants and the Holding Stock for the benefit of Centex Stockholders until the applicable Detachment Date.
