ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION.

Item 4 is amended and restated to read in its entirety as follows:

The Common Stock was acquired by the reporting persons primarily for investment purposes. The Common Stock acquired by Stephens Inc. subsequent to the initial public offering was acquired for trading purposes and for purposes of promoting an active market in the Common Stock by Stephens Inc. as a market maker for the Common Stock and not for any purpose of controlling or exercising control over the Company. Stephens Inc. may serve as financial advisor or provide other investment banking services to the Company. Collectively, the reporting persons beneficially own approximately 50.1% of the outstanding Common Stock.

Stephens Inc. is a registered broker dealer and desires to engage in certain market making activities and other principal transactions in the Common Stock without the need to deliver a prospectus under current law and regulations. In order to do so, it is necessary that Stephens Inc. not be deemed an affiliate under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). Therefore, the initial Trust Participants entered into the Voting Trust Agreement prior to the initial public offering of the Common Stock because certain relationships among them, Stephens Inc., and SF Holding Corp. may create an inference that Stephens Inc. is an affiliate of the Company under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act.

The reporting persons regularly review, and evaluate strategies with respect to, their various investments, including their investment in the Issuer. As a consequence of such review, evaluation and other factors that the reporting persons deem relevant, they are presently considering various alternatives which may ultimately lead to one or more possible transactions with respect to their investment in the Issuer. In the course of such consideration, the reporting persons may discuss internally and with the Issuer, other shareholders, industry analysts, existing or potential strategic partners or competitors, investment and financing professionals, sources of credit and other investors, their holdings in the Issuer. Possible transactions may include the acquisition of additional shares or selected divestitures of shares of Common Stock of the Issuer, a going private transaction in the form of the acquisition of all outstanding shares of Common Stock not currently owned by the reporting persons, or another form of extraordinary transaction. In this regard, a representative of one of the reporting persons discussed the above-mentioned consideration of the idea of a possible going private transaction with a member of management of the Issuer.

In the event that the reporting persons determine to proceed with one or more extraordinary transaction, Stephens Inc. may elect to terminate its market making activities with respect to the Common Stock of the Issuer, and not to resume such market making activities under any circumstance where it would be deemed to be an affiliate of the Issuer. Such action would enable the reporting persons, in their discretion, and pursuant to the terms of the Voting Trust Agreement, to dissolve the Voting Trust Agreement and to vote their shares for or against an extraordinary transaction or any other matter presented to the shareholders for a vote, including any extraordinary transaction proposed by them. For so long as the Voting Trust Agreement remains in effect, the Trustee is obligated to vote the reporting persons' shares held in the Voting Trust in the same manner as the shares held by the other shareholders.

There can be no assurance as to whether the reporting persons will take any action with respect to their ownership of the Issuer's Common Stock, or enter into any discussions with respect to their investments, whether any such discussions will lead to any transaction, the terms of any such transaction, or the timing or certainty of any such transaction.

Additionally, if the reporting persons were to submit a proposal to the Board of Directors of the Issuer with respect to any of the actions described above, the reporting persons are not aware of how the Board of Directors would react or whether the Board of Directors would support or take any action with respect to any proposal.

In reaching any conclusions regarding their investments, the reporting persons will take into consideration a variety of factors, including, but not limited to, the Issuer's operations, prospects, business development, management, competitive and strategic matters, capital structure, and prevailing market conditions, as well as alternative investment opportunities, liquidity requirements of the reporting persons and other investment considerations.

Except as noted above, the reporting persons, at this time, do not have any plans or proposals which relate to or would result in (i) any extraordinary corporate transactions involving the Issuer or (ii) any of the other actions set forth in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

The reporting persons reserve the right to change their intent at any time and to formulate other plans and/or make other proposals, and take such actions with respect to their investment in the Issuer, including any or all of the actions set forth in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

Mr. Martin, a director of SF Holding Corp. and an executive officer of Stephens Inc., and Mr. Jacoby serve on the board of directors of the Company.

ITEM 5. INTEREST IN SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

Item 5 is amended and restated to read in its entirety as follows:

(a) The following table discloses the ownership of the Common Stock by the reporting persons and their respective directors and control persons. Because of interrelationships among the various reporting persons, certain shares of the Common Stock may be reported as being beneficially owned by more than one person.
